Schedule
AN ACT TO AMEND AND EXTEND THE CIVIL LIABILITY ACT, 1961. [7th July, 1964.]

BE IT ENACTED BY THE OIREACHTAS AS FOLLOWS:—

1.—In this Act “the Principal Act” means the Civil Liability Act, 1961.

2.—In assessing damages in an action to recover damages in respect of a wrongful act (including a crime) resulting in personal injury not causing death, account shall not be taken of—

(a) any sum payable in respect of the injury under any contract of insurance,

(b) any pension, gratuity or other like benefit payable under statute or otherwise in consequence of the injury.

F1[(2) In assessing damages in an action to recover damages in respect of a wrong resulting in personal injury not causing death, account shall not be taken of any charitable gift (whether in the form of money or other property) made to the plaintiff in respect of those injuries unless—

(a) the defendant is the donor of the gift, and

(b) (i) at the time of the making of the gift he or she informs the plaintiff in writing that, should the plaintiff recover damages in such an action, the defendant will apply to the court for the damages to be reduced by an amount equal to the amount of the gift or the value of the gift, as may be appropriate, or

(ii) in the case of a plaintiff who is employed by the defendant, the gift consists of a series of payments that resemble, in amount and frequency, the normal remuneration that the plaintiff would be entitled to receive from the defendant in the course of his or her employment.]

Amendments:

F1 Inserted (31.03.2005) by Civil Liability and Courts Act 2004 (31/2004), s. 27(2), S.I. No. 544 of 2004, subject to transitional provisions in s. 6 and subsection s. 27(3).
Modifications (not altering text):

Part 11B
Recovery of Certain Benefits and Assistance

Application of Part
343M. ...
(4) This Part applies notwithstanding section 2 of the Civil Liability (Amendment) Act 1964.

Taking account of benefit in assessing damages.

96.—(1) Notwithstanding section 2 of the Civil Liability (Amendment) Act 1964 and section 285, in an action for damages for personal injuries (including any such action arising out of a contract) there shall in assessing those damages be taken into account, against any loss of earnings or profits which has accrued or probably will accrue to the injured person from the injuries, the value of any rights which have accrued or will probably accrue to him or her therefrom in respect of injury benefit (disregarding any right in respect of injury benefit payable by virtue of section 248, after the death of the injured person) or disablement benefit (disregarding any increase of that benefit under section 78 in respect of constant attendance) for 5 years beginning with the time when the cause of action accrued.

Taking account of disability benefit and invalidity pension in assessing certain damages.

286.—(1) Notwithstanding section 2 of the Civil Liability (Amendment) Act 1964 and section 285, in assessing damages in any action in respect of liability for personal injuries not causing death relating to the use of a mechanically propelled vehicle, there shall be taken into account the value of any rights arising from those injuries which have accrued, or are likely to accrue, to the injured person in respect of disability benefit or invalidity pension under Part 2 for 5 years beginning with the time when the cause of action accrued.

C3 Civil Liability and Courts Act 2004 (31/2004), s. 27(2) states (31.03.2005) that section 2 as it stood immediately before the commencement of subsection (2) shall be referred to as subsection (1) of section 2, S.I. No. 544 of 2004.

Editorial Notes:

Amendment of section 27 of Principal Act.

3.—Section 27 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the addition of the following subsection:

“(5) A claim may be made or a notice may be served pursuant to subsection (1) of this section notwithstanding that the person making the claim or serving the notice denies or does not admit that he is a wrongdoer, and the making of the claim or serving of the notice shall not be taken as implying any admission of liability by him.”

Amendment of section 35 (2) of Principal Act.

4.—Subsection (2) of section 35 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion of “, subject to paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section,” before “neither”.

Amendment of section 36 of Principal Act.

5.—Section 36 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the addition of the following subsection:

“(5) Notwithstanding anything in section 62, where a claim is made against a person who is insured in respect of a liability alleged in that claim and the claim is not paid by the insurer by reason of its being set off in full against a sum owed to the insured by the person making such claim, the insured or any person representing or deriving title under him shall be entitled to recover from the insurers the amount of such claim.”

Repeals.

6.—The enactments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule.

Short title, construction and collective citation.

7.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Civil Liability (Amendment) Act, 1964.

(2) The Principal Act and this Act shall be construed together as one Act and may be cited together as the Civil Liability Acts, 1961 and 1964.
