(6) Regulations under subsection (5) may provide for the withdrawal of an authorisation of a person where he or she no longer meets the criteria for such an authorisation prescribed in those regulations.
(7) The Insolvency Service may, out of the proceeds of fees charged under section 20, make payments to an approved intermediary in connection with the performance of his or her functions under this Chapter.

(8) Where an approved intermediary resigns from the role of approved intermediary as respects a debtor, he or she shall notify the Insolvency Service of that fact, which notification shall be accompanied by a statement of the reasons for his or her resignation.

(a) dies,

(b) becomes incapable, through ill-health or otherwise, of performing the functions of a personal insolvency practitioner, or

(c) is no longer authorised to perform the functions of a personal insolvency practitioner under this Act, the debtor shall, as soon as practicable after becoming aware of that fact, or of being informed of such by the Insolvency Service, and in any event no later than three months thereafter, appoint a replacement personal insolvency practitioner (in this section referred to as a ‘replacement personal insolvency practitioner’) to act as his or her personal insolvency practitioner for the purposes of Chapter 3 or 4, as the case may be.

(2) The personal insolvency practitioner, on receipt of the information referred to in subsection (1), shall examine that information and, having regard to the obligation of the debtor under subsection (3), assist the debtor in completing a Prescribed Financial Statement.
(3) The debtor, when completing the Prescribed Financial Statement referred to in subsection (2), is under an obligation to make a full and honest disclosure of his or her financial affairs and to ensure that, to the best of his or her knowledge, the Prescribed Financial Statement is true, accurate and complete.

51.— (1) Subject to subsection (4), in relation to Debt Settlement Arrangements and Personal Insolvency Arrangements, where a debtor has an interest in or an entitlement under a relevant pension arrangement, such interest or entitlement of the debtor shall not be treated as an asset of the debtor unless subsection (2) applies.

(2) Where this section applies and a debtor has an interest in or entitlement under a relevant pension arrangement which would, if the debtor performed an act or exercised an option, cause that debtor to receive from or at the request of the person administering that relevant pension arrangement—

(a) an income, or

(b) an amount of money other than income, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997, that debtor shall be considered as being in receipt of such income or amount of certificate,

(b) was entitled at any time before the date of the making of the application for a protective certificate, or

Arrangement or within 7 years and 6 months of the date of the making of the application for a protective certificate in relation to a Personal Insolvency Arrangement,

to perform the act or exercise the option referred to in subsection (2).

(4) Nothing in subsections (1) to (3) shall remove the obligation of a debtor making an application for a protective certificate to make disclosure of any interest in or entitlement under a relevant pension arrangement in completing the Prescribed Financial Statement.

52.— (1) On completion of the Prescribed Financial Statement in accordance with section 50, the personal insolvency practitioner shall, on the basis of the information disclosed to him or her by the debtor under section 50(1), advise the debtor of the following:

(a) his or her options for addressing his or her financial difficulties;

(b) his or her eligibility under section 57 or 91, as the case may be, to make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement or a Personal Insolvency Arrangement, as the case may be;

(c) the personal insolvency practitioner’s opinion as to whether it would be more appropriate for the debtor to enter into a Personal Insolvency Arrangement or a Debt Settlement Arrangement.

(2) The advice referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall include advice relating to—
(a) the appropriateness or otherwise of the debtor making a proposal for and entering into an arrangement, having regard to such matters as the personal insolvency practitioner considers relevant, but in any case, including—

(i) the debtor’s financial and other circumstances as set out in the Prescribed Financial Statement,

(ii) whether the debtor is likely to be able to meet the financial commitment associated with an arrangement on an ongoing basis, in particular having regard to the debtor’s payment capacity at and before the time at which the advice is being given,

(iii) the nature and extent of the debts owed by the debtor to his or her creditors and, in the case of secured debts (if any), the nature of the security,

(iv) the complexity of the debtor’s case, and

(v) the likelihood, in the personal insolvency practitioner’s opinion, of an arrangement being formulated on terms that would provide, for the debtor and a majority of his or her creditors, an acceptable alternative to the debtor’s bankruptcy;

(b) the general effect of making a proposal for, and of entering into, an arrangement, including as to the effect on the debtor’s credit rating;

(c) the consequences for the debtor of entering into an arrangement if the debtor does not comply with the terms of that arrangement;

(d) the other option or options (if any) available to the debtor and the general effect of any such option or options, including advice relating to—

(i) negotiation with a creditor or creditors with a view to adjusting the terms of a debt owed to that creditor or creditors, whether as part of any arrears process or otherwise,

(ii) becoming a specified debtor as respects a Debt Relief Notice, and

(iii) bankruptcy.

(3) In advising the debtor under subsection (1)(c) of the appropriateness of entering into a Personal Insolvency Arrangement or a Debt Settlement Arrangement, the personal insolvency practitioner shall have regard to—

(a) the value of the debtor’s unsecured debts as compared to the value of the debtor’s secured debts (if any),

(b) if applicable, whether the debtor has communicated with his or her secured creditors for the purpose of seeking to renegotiate or restructure the secured debts,

(c) whether the debtor has co-operated in good faith with his or her creditors who are secured creditors as respects the debtor’s principal private residence in connection with any process relating to mortgage arrears operated by the secured creditors concerned which has been approved or required by the Central Bank of Ireland and which relates to the secured debt concerned,

(d) whether any of the debtor’s secured creditors have indicated to the debtor or the personal insolvency practitioner a willingness to vary the terms of the secured debt to facilitate the operation of a Debt Settlement Arrangement in respect of the debtor’s unsecured debts (including, without limitation, any variation of the terms of the secured debt that would reduce the amounts payable by the debtor in respect of the secured debt for the duration of the Debt Settlement Arrangement),
(e) where the debtor has proposed, but not entered into, a Debt Settlement Arrangement in respect of his or her unsecured debts, the terms of such proposal and the result of the creditors’ meeting to consider such proposal, and

(f) where the debtor has entered into a Debt Settlement Arrangement in respect of his or her unsecured debts that has come to an end, failed or otherwise terminated, the circumstances of such ending, failure or other termination.

(4) The personal insolvency practitioner shall confirm his or her advice under subsection (1)(c) in writing to the debtor.

(5) Where the advice of a personal insolvency practitioner under subsection (1) is that the debtor should not make a proposal for, or enter into, an arrangement, the personal insolvency practitioner shall notify the Insolvency Service of that fact, and the appointment of the personal insolvency practitioner under section 49(3) shall come to an end.

53.— Where a debtor, having received advice under section 52(1), considers that he or she should make a proposal for an arrangement, he or she shall instruct the personal insolvency practitioner in writing to make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement or a Personal Insolvency Arrangement, as the case may be, on his or her behalf in accordance with Chapter 3 or 4, as the case may be.

54.— On receipt of an instruction under section 53, the personal insolvency practitioner shall complete a statement confirming that he or she is of the opinion that—

(a) the information contained in the debtor’s Prescribed Financial Statement is complete and accurate;

(b) the debtor is eligible under section 57 or 91, as the case may be, to make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement or Personal Insolvency Arrangement, as the case may be;

(c) having considered the [Prescribed] Financial Statement completed by the debtor, there is no likelihood of the debtor becoming solvent within the period of 5 years commencing on the date on which the statement is made;

(d) having regard to the debtor’s circumstances as set out in the Prescribed Financial Statement, it is appropriate for the debtor to make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement as there is a reasonable prospect that the debtor entering into such an arrangement would facilitate the debtor becoming solvent within a period of not more than 5 years or, as the case may be, it is appropriate for the debtor to make a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement as there is a reasonable prospect that the debtor entering into such an arrangement would facilitate the debtor becoming solvent within a period of not more than 5 years.

Chapter 3
Debt Settlement Arrangements

55.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a debtor who satisfies the eligibility criteria specified in section 57 may make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement with one or more of his or her creditors in respect of the payment or satisfaction of his or her debts.

(2) A proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall be made on behalf of a debtor by a personal insolvency practitioner in accordance with the provisions of this Part.
(3) Where two or more debtors are jointly party to all of the debts to be covered by a Debt Settlement Arrangement and each of those debtors satisfy the eligibility criteria specified in section 57, those debtors may jointly propose a Debt Settlement Arrangement and, unless otherwise specified, references in this Chapter to the “debtor” shall be construed as meaning such joint debtors.

(4)(a) A Debt Settlement Arrangement shall not contain any terms that would release the debtor from an excluded debt or otherwise affect such a debt.

(b) A proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall not include any terms that, if contained in a Debt Settlement Arrangement that came into effect, would contravene paragraph (a).

(5) Unless otherwise expressly stated, a reference in this Chapter to a debt is a reference to an unsecured debt and a reference to a creditor is a reference to an unsecured creditor.

Debt Settlement Arrangement permitted once only.

56.— A debtor may enter into a Debt Settlement Arrangement once only.

Debt Settlement Arrangement: Eligibility criteria.

57.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and this Chapter, a debtor shall not be eligible to make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement unless he or she satisfies the following criteria—

(a) that the debtor—

(I) resided in the State, or

(II) had a place of business in the State;

(ii) a discharged bankrupt subject to a bankruptcy payment order,

(iii) a person who is a specified debtor as respects a Debt Relief Notice which is in effect,

(iv) a person who, as a debtor, is subject to a Personal Insolvency Arrangement which is in effect, or

(v) a person who, as a debtor, is subject to an arrangement under the control of the court under Part IV of the Bankruptcy Act 1988;

(iv) been discharged from bankruptcy less than 5 years prior to the date of the application for a protective certificate.

(2) The criterion specified in subsection (1)(f) shall not apply where the debtor has, on notice to the Insolvency Service, made an application to the appropriate court and the court has made an order stating that it is satisfied that the current insolvency of the debtor arises by reason of exceptional circumstances or other factors which are substantially outside the control of the debtor and that it would be just to permit the debtor to make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement.

(3) A debtor shall not be eligible to make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement where 25 per cent or more of his or her debts (other than excluded debts and secured debts) were incurred during the period of 6 months ending on the date on which an application is made under section 59 for a protective certificate.

58.—(1) An excludable debt shall be included in a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement only where the creditor concerned has consented, or is deemed to have consented, in accordance with this section, to the inclusion of that debt in such a proposal.

(2) Where a personal insolvency practitioner proposes to include an excludable debt in a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement, he or she shall, without delay, notify the creditor concerned of that fact, which notification shall be accompanied by—

(a) such information about the debtor’s affairs (including his or her creditors, debts, liabilities, income and assets) as may be prescribed, and

(b) a request in writing that the creditor confirm, in writing, whether or not the creditor consents, for the purposes of this section, to the inclusion of the debt in a Debt Settlement Arrangement.

(3) Subject to subsection (6), a creditor shall comply with a request under subsection (2)(b) within 21 days of receipt of the notification under that subsection.

(4) Where a creditor does not comply with subsection (3), the creditor shall be deemed to have consented to the inclusion of that debt in a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement.

(5) Where a creditor consents or is deemed to have consented, in accordance with this section, to the inclusion of an excludable debt in a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement, that creditor shall be entitled to vote at any creditors’ meeting called to consider that proposal.

(6) Where the debtor concerned is the subject of a protective certificate, and a creditor to whom this section applies brings an application under section 63(1) in respect of that protective certificate, the period referred to in subsection (3) shall not commence until the date on which the appropriate court determines the application.

(7) An excludable debt shall not be the subject of a Debt Settlement Arrangement unless it is a permitted debt.
Debt Settlement Arrangement: Application for protective certificate.

59.—(1) Where a personal insolvency practitioner has been instructed pursuant to section 53 to make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement, the personal insolvency practitioner shall notify the Insolvency Service of the debtor’s intention to propose a Debt Settlement Arrangement and apply on behalf of the debtor for a protective certificate.

(2) The application referred to in subsection (1) shall be in such form [as may be prescribed] by the Insolvency Service and shall be accompanied by such fee (if any) as may be prescribed and the following documents:

(iii) such other information as may be prescribed;

(f) the debtor’s written consent to—

(i) the disclosure to the Insolvency Service,

(ii) the processing by the Insolvency Service, and

(iii) the disclosure by the Insolvency Service to creditors of the debtor concerned, of personal data of that debtor, to the extent necessary in respect of the Debt Settlement Arrangement procedure provided for in this Chapter;

(g) the debtor’s written consent to the making of any enquiry under section 60 relating to the debtor by the Insolvency Service.

(3) An application under this section may be withdrawn by the personal insolvency practitioner at any time prior to the issue of a protective certificate under section 61.

(4) Where a personal insolvency practitioner becomes aware of any inaccuracy or omission in an application under this section or any document accompanying such an application, he or she shall inform the Insolvency Service of this fact as soon as practicable and the Insolvency Service shall have regard to any information provided under this subsection for the purposes of its consideration of the application.
60.— (1) In its consideration of an application under section 59, the Insolvency Service shall be entitled to request any further information it requires from the debtor or personal insolvency practitioner and to defer further consideration of the application until such information is furnished to it.

(2) Where a debtor or personal insolvency practitioner fails to provide the information requested by the Insolvency Service under subsection (1) within 14 days or such longer period as the Insolvency Service may permit the application shall be deemed to be withdrawn.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), in considering the application for a protective certificate, the Insolvency Service shall make such enquiries as it considers necessary to satisfy itself:

(a) that the personal insolvency practitioner is a person entitled to act as a personal insolvency practitioner;

(b) having regard to the documents which are required to accompany the application for a protective certificate—

(i) that the debtor satisfies the eligibility criteria for making a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement specified in section 57, and

(ii) the application does not appear to be frivolous or an attempt to frustrate the efforts of creditors to recover debts due to them.

(4) Subject to subsections (5) to (7), for the purposes of subsection (3) the Insolvency Service shall be entitled to presume that the debtor satisfies the eligibility criteria for a Debt Settlement Arrangement specified in section 57 if the documents required to be lodged with the Insolvency Service have been so lodged and the Insolvency Service has no reason to believe that the information supplied in or in support of the application for a protective certificate is incomplete or inaccurate.

(5) The Insolvency Service may make such enquiries as it considers necessary to verify the completeness or accuracy of any matter referred to in the Prescribed Financial Statement of the debtor or in relation to the assets, liabilities, income or expenditure of the debtor.

(6) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (5) the matters in respect of which the Insolvency Service may make an enquiry include the following:

(f) taxes or charges imposed by or under statute paid or owed by the debtor, whether within or outside the State and refunds in respect of such taxes and charges which are or may become due to the debtor.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the Insolvency Service to make an enquiry in any case.

(8) A person who receives an enquiry from the Insolvency Service pursuant to this section shall be under a duty to furnish the information requested as soon as reasonably practicable.
Notwithstanding anything contained in any enactment, for the purposes of the performance of the functions of the Insolvency Service under this Chapter information held by a Department of State, the Revenue Commissioners, a local authority or any other State body or agency in relation to a debtor may be furnished to the Insolvency Service.

61.—(1) Where the Insolvency Service, following its consideration under section 60—

(a) is satisfied that an application under section 59 is in order, it shall—

(i) issue a certificate to that effect,

(ii) furnish that certificate together with a copy of the application and the supporting documentation (other than the documents referred to in section 59(2)(f) and (g)) to the appropriate court, and

(iii) notify the personal insolvency practitioner to that effect, and

(b) is not so satisfied, it shall notify the personal insolvency practitioner to that effect and request him or her, within 21 days from the date of the notification, to submit a revised application or to confirm that the application has been withdrawn.

(2) Where the appropriate court receives the application for a protective certificate and accompanying documentation pursuant to subsection (1)(a), it shall consider the application and documentation and, subject to subsection (3)—

(b) if not so satisfied, shall refuse to issue a protective certificate.

(3) The appropriate court, where it requires further information or evidence for the purpose of its arriving at a decision under subsection (2), may hold a hearing, which hearing shall be on notice to the Insolvency Service and the personal insolvency practitioner concerned.

(4) […]

(5) Subject to subsections (6) and (7) and section 76(2), a protective certificate shall be in force for a period of 70 days from the date of its issue.

(6) Where a protective certificate has been issued pursuant to subsection (2)(a), the appropriate court may, on application to that court by the personal insolvency practitioner, extend the period of the protective certificate by an additional period not exceeding 40 days where—

(a) the debtor and the personal insolvency practitioner satisfy the court that they have acted in good faith and with reasonable expedition, and

(b) the court is satisfied that it is likely that a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement which is likely—

(i) to be accepted by the creditors, and

(ii) to be successfully completed by the debtor,

will be made if the extension is granted.
(7) Where a protective certificate has been issued pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or extended under subsection (6), the appropriate court may on application to that court extend the period of the protective certificate by a further additional period not exceeding 40 days where—

(a) the personal insolvency practitioner has been appointed in accordance with section 49(7), and
(b) the court is satisfied that the extension is necessary to enable the personal insolvency practitioner so appointed to perform his or her functions under this Chapter.

(8) A hearing held under subsection (7) shall be held with all due expedition.

(9) The period of a protective certificate may be extended under subsection (7) once only.

(10) The registrar of the appropriate court shall notify the Insolvency Service and the personal insolvency practitioner concerned where the court—

(b) refuses to issue or extend a protective certificate under this section, or
(c) decides to hold a hearing referred to in subsection (3).

(11) Where a protective certificate is issued under this section, the Insolvency Service shall—

(a) record in the Register of Protective Certificates, in addition to such other details as may be prescribed under section 133(3)(b), the following—

(i) the name and address of the debtor and the date of issue of the protective certificate,
(ii) where applicable—

(I) the extension under this section of the protective certificate, and
(II) the making by the appropriate court of an order under section 63, and the creditor in respect of whom the order has been made,
and
(iii) the date on which the protective certificate ceases, under this Chapter, to be in force,
and
(b) within 3 months of the date on which the protective certificate ceases, under this Chapter, to be in force, remove from the Register of Protective Certificates all information recorded in it in respect of the protective certificate.

(12) On receipt of a notification under subsection (10) of a decision of the court referred to in that subsection, the personal insolvency practitioner shall notify each of the creditors specified in the schedule of creditors of that decision and, in the case of a decision to issue a protective certificate, the notification by the personal insolvency practitioner shall contain a statement—

(a) that the debtor intends to make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement,
(b) of the effect of the protective certificate under section 62, and
(c) of the right of the creditor under section 63 to appeal the issue of the protective certificate.

(14) A protective certificate issued under this section shall—

(a) specify—

(i) the name of the debtor who is the subject of it,

(ii) the debts ("specified debts") which are subject to it, and

(iii) the name of each creditor to whom a specified debt is owed,

(b) contain such other information as may be prescribed.

(15) In considering an application under this section the appropriate court shall be entitled to treat a certificate issued by the Insolvency Service under subsection (1) as evidence of the matters certified therein.

Debt Settlement Arrangement: Effect of issue of protective certificate.

62.— (1) Subject to subsections (3), (4), (5) and (8), a creditor to whom notice of the issue of a protective certificate has been given shall not, whilst the protective certificate remains in force, in relation to a specified debt—

(c) take any step to secure or recover payment;

(d) execute or enforce a judgment or order of a court or tribunal against the debtor;

(e) take any step to recover goods in the possession or custody of the debtor, [whether or not] title to the goods is vested in the creditor or the creditor holds security over the goods;

(i) terminate or amend that agreement, or

(ii) claim an accelerated payment under that agreement.

(2) Whilst a protective certificate remains in force, no bankruptcy petition relating to the debtor—

(a) may be presented by a creditor to whom subsection (1) applies in respect of a specified debt,

(b) in a case where the petition has been presented by such a creditor in respect of a specified debt, may be proceeded with.

(3) Without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2), and subject to section 68, whilst a protective certificate remains in force, no other proceedings and no execution or other legal process in respect of a specified debt may be commenced or continued by a creditor to whom subsection (1) applies against the debtor or his or her property, except with the leave of the court and subject to any order the court may make to stay such proceedings, enforcement or execution for such period as the court deems appropriate pending the outcome of attempts to reach a Debt Settlement Arrangement, but this subsection shall not operate to prohibit the commencement or continuation of any criminal proceedings against the debtor.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the fact that a protective certificate is in force in relation to a debtor under this Chapter shall not operate to prevent a creditor taking the actions referred to in subsection (1) as respects another person who has guaranteed the debts of the debtor to which the protective certificate relates.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the fact that a protective certificate is in force in relation to a debtor under this Chapter shall not operate to prevent a creditor taking the actions referred to in subsection (3) as respects a person who has jointly contracted with the debtor or is jointly liable with the debtor to the creditor and that other person may sue or be sued in respect of the contract without joining the debtor.

(6) Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply where a protective certificate is also in force as respects the other person.

(7) In reckoning any period of time for the purpose of any applicable limitation period in relation to any proceedings or process to which subsection (1) or (3) applies (including any limitation period under the Statute of Limitations 1957), the period in which the protective certificate concerned is in force under section 61 shall be disregarded.

(8) A secured debt shall not be subject to or affected by a protective certificate under this Chapter.

Debt Settlement Arrangement: Right of appeal as respects protective certificate.

63.—(1) Where a creditor is aggrieved by the issue of a protective certificate that creditor may within 14 days of the giving of notice of the issue of the protective certificate to that creditor apply to the appropriate court for an order directing that the protective certificate shall not apply to that creditor.

(2) A creditor who brings an application under subsection (1) shall give notice to the Insolvency Service and the relevant personal insolvency practitioner and to such other persons as the court may direct of that fact, and the application shall be made in such form as is provided for in rules of court.

(3) In determining an application under this section the court shall not make an order directing that the protective certificate shall not apply to that creditor unless it is satisfied that—

(a) not making such an order would cause irreparable loss to the creditor which would not otherwise occur, and

(b) no other creditor to whom notice of the protective certificate has been given would be unfairly prejudiced.

(4) In determining the costs of the application the court shall have regard to the objective that all the parties to such an application should bear their own costs unless to do so would cause a serious injustice to the parties to the application.

(5) Where the court makes an order under this section, the court shall, unless it considers that there are good reasons not to do so, direct the creditor to hold any moneys or other assets recovered in trust for the benefit of the other creditors to whom the protective certificate applies, pending a further direction on the matter by the court.

(6) A hearing under subsection (1) shall be held with all due expedition.
64.—(1) Where a protective certificate has been issued, the personal insolvency practitioner shall as soon as practicable thereafter—

(a) give written notice to the creditors concerned that the personal insolvency practitioner has been appointed by the debtor for the purpose of making a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement and, subject to section 67(2), invite those creditors to make submissions to the personal insolvency practitioner regarding the debts concerned and the manner in which the debts might be dealt with as part of a Debt Settlement Arrangement, and such notice shall be accompanied by the debtor’s completed Prescribed Financial Statement,

(b) consider any submissions made by creditors in accordance with paragraph (a) regarding the debts and the manner in which the debts might be dealt with as part of a Debt Settlement Arrangement, including any submission made by a creditor with respect to previous or existing offers of arrangements made by the creditor to or with the debtor, and

(c) make a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement in respect of the debts concerned.

(2)(a) A personal insolvency practitioner may in any case request a creditor to file a proof of debt and the debt shall be proved in the same manner as a debt of a bankrupt is proved under the Bankruptcy Act 1988 and, subject to subsection (3), paragraphs 1 to 22 of the First Schedule of that Act shall apply with all necessary modifications to the proof of such debts.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c), a creditor who does not comply with a request under paragraph (a) is not entitled to—

(i) vote at a meeting referred to in section 72 or 82, or

(ii) share in any distribution that may be made under the Debt Settlement Arrangement concerned.

(c) Where a creditor to whom paragraph (b) applies files a proof of debt in the manner specified in paragraph (a), paragraph (b) shall cease to apply, but without prejudice to anything done while that paragraph applied.

(3) In applying the First Schedule of the Bankruptcy Act 1988 to proof of debts under this section—

(a) a reference in that Schedule to the Court and the Official Assignee shall be read as a reference to the personal insolvency practitioner, and

(b) a reference to a bankrupt shall be read as the reference to the debtor to whom the proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement relates.

65.—(1) Subject to the mandatory requirements referred to in subsection (2), the terms of a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall be those which are agreed to by the debtor and, subject to this Chapter, approved by a majority of the debtor’s creditors in accordance with this Chapter.

(2) The mandatory requirements referred to in subsection (1) are:

(a) the maximum duration of a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall be 60 months but a Debt Settlement Arrangement may provide that this period may be extended for a further period of not more than 12 months in such circumstances as are specified in the terms of the Debt Settlement Arrangement;

(b) where the debtor performs all of his or her obligations specified in a Debt Settlement Arrangement, he or she shall stand discharged from the remainder of the debts covered by the Debt Settlement Arrangement;
(c) a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall not require the debtor to sell any of his or her assets that are reasonably necessary for the debtor’s employment, business or vocation unless the debtor explicitly consents to such sale;

(d) a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall not contain any terms which would require the debtor to make payments of such an amount that the debtor would not have sufficient income to maintain a reasonable standard of living for the debtor and his or her dependants;

(e) a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall—

(i) make provision for the costs and outlays of the personal insolvency practitioner which relate to the matters referred to in [sections 48 to 54] and this Chapter and to the ongoing administration of the Arrangement,

[(ia) make provision for the payment of all tax liabilities incurred by the debtor, or by the personal insolvency practitioner, under the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997 during the administration of the Arrangement and—

(I) such tax liabilities of the personal insolvency practitioner shall be payable in priority to any payments to creditors, and

(II) any failure by the debtor to comply with the terms of the provision shall be a breach of the Arrangement such that the Collector-General (within the meaning of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997) may withdraw his or her agreement under section 58 to accept the compromise contained in the Arrangement.]

(ii) indicate the likely amount of the fees, costs and outlays to be incurred, or where this is not practicable, the basis on which those fees, costs and outlays will be calculated, and

(iii) specify the person or persons by whom those fees, costs and charges are payable and the manner in which they have been or are to be paid;

(f) a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall make provision for the manner in which the debtor’s debts are to be treated in the event of the death or mental incapacity of the debtor;

(g) a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall not require that the debtor dispose of his or her interest in his or her principal private residence or to cease to occupy such residence unless the provisions of section 69(3) apply;

(h) a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall provide that the circumstances of the debtor be reviewed by the personal insolvency practitioner at regular intervals which are specified in the Arrangement (which intervals are not greater than 12 months) during the currency of the Debt Settlement Arrangement;

(i) a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall provide that the review referred to in paragraph (h) shall include the preparation by the debtor of a new Prescribed Financial Statement, a copy of which together with a statement by the personal insolvency practitioner as to whether he or she considers that statement to be complete and accurate, shall be sent by the personal insolvency practitioner to each creditor;

(j) the terms of a Debt Settlement Arrangement shall specify the circumstances where the personal insolvency practitioner shall be obliged to propose a variation of the Debt Settlement Arrangement in accordance with section 82.

(3) The Insolvency Service may publish a Code of Practice providing guidance on any of the matters set out in subsection (2).
(4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(d), and without prejudice to subsection (3), in determining whether a debtor would have sufficient income to maintain a reasonable standard of living for the debtor and his or her dependants under the Debt Settlement Arrangement, regard shall be had to any guidelines issued under section 23.

Debt Settlement Arrangement: Non-exhaustive list of matters for possible inclusion.

66.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement may incorporate one or more of the options in subsection (2) with respect to payments to creditors.

(e) a sale of specified assets of the debtor by the personal insolvency practitioner and the payment of the proceeds of such sale to creditors.

(4) Unless provision is otherwise made in the Debt Settlement Arrangement, where an Arrangement provides for payments to a creditor to whom section 58 applies that are greater than the payments that creditor would receive if such payments were made on a pari passu basis, the fees, costs and charges referred to in section 65(2)(e) shall be payable by that creditor in proportion to the payments received by him or her.

(5) The payment of moneys or the performance of obligations provided for by a Debt Settlement Arrangement may be secured by a charge or a guarantee given by the debtor or a charge or guarantee given by a person other than the debtor.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the terms of a Debt Settlement Arrangement may include provisions relating to payments other than those specified in this section.

Preferential debts in Debt Settlement Arrangement.

67.— (1) Unless the creditor concerned otherwise agrees in writing and provision is so made in the terms of the Debt Settlement Arrangement, a preferential debt shall, subject to subsection (3), be paid in priority by the debtor and where those debts are to be paid in priority the provisions of section 81 of the Bankruptcy Act 1988 shall apply with all necessary modifications.

(2) In notifying creditors of the issue of a protective certificate, the personal insolvency practitioner shall indicate that any creditor who considers some or all of his or her debt to be a preferential debt is required to furnish evidence of the circumstances of how that debt or part of that debt is claimed to be a preferential debt within such reasonable period as may be specified, and that in the absence of such evidence, the proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement may be prepared on the basis that the debt concerned is not a preferential debt.
(3) Where a creditor fails to satisfy the personal insolvency practitioner that his or her debt is a preferential debt, the debt shall be treated as not being a preferential debt for the purposes of a Debt Settlement Arrangement.

(4) In this Chapter, “preferential debt” means a debt which, if the debtor concerned were a bankrupt would be a debt—

(2) A secured creditor of the debtor may not participate in a Debt Settlement Arrangement with respect to a secured debt.

(3) Subsection (2) shall not operate to prevent the debtor or the personal insolvency practitioner from liaising or sharing information (including a copy of the debtor’s Prescribed Financial Statement and information relating to a proposed or existing Debt Settlement Arrangement) with a secured creditor in connection with a proposed or existing Debt Settlement Arrangement.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, a secured creditor shall not be deemed to participate in or otherwise be bound by a Debt Settlement Arrangement as a result of entering into an agreement with the debtor to vary the terms of the secured debt following contact between the secured creditor and debtor, or as applicable, the personal insolvency practitioner as referred to in subsection (3) (including, without limitation, any variation of the terms of the secured debt that would reduce the amounts payable by the debtor in respect of the secured debt for the duration of the Debt Settlement Arrangement).

69. — (1) In formulating a proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement a personal insolvency practitioner shall, insofar as reasonably practicable, and having regard to the matters referred to in subsection (2), formulate the proposal on terms that will not require the debtor to—

(b) cease to occupy,

all or a part of his or her principal private residence and the personal insolvency practitioner shall consider any appropriate alternatives.

(2) The matters referred to in subsection (1) are—

(b) the debtor’s income and other financial circumstances as disclosed in the Prescribed Financial Statement,

(c) the ability of other persons residing with the debtor in the principal private residence to contribute to the costs referred to in paragraph (a), and
(d) the reasonable living accommodation needs of the debtor and his or her dependants and having regard to those needs the cost of alternative accommodation (including the costs which would necessarily be incurred in obtaining such accommodation).

(3) Where—

(a) the debtor confirms in writing to the personal insolvency practitioner that the debtor does not wish to remain in occupation of his or her principal private residence; or

(b) the personal insolvency practitioner, has, having discussed the issue with the debtor, formed the opinion that, taking account of the matters referred to in subsection (2), the costs of continuing to reside in the debtor’s principal private residence are disproportionately large,

the personal insolvency practitioner shall not be required to formulate the proposal for a Debt Settlement Arrangement on terms that will not require the debtor to cease to occupy his or her principal private residence.

(4) A Debt Settlement Arrangement shall not contain terms providing for a disposal of the debtor’s interest in the principal private residence unless:

(a) the debtor has obtained independent legal advice in relation to such disposal or, having been advised by the personal insolvency practitioner to obtain such legal advice, has declined to do so; and

(b) to the extent that the provisions of the Family Home Protection Act 1976 or the Civil Partnership and Certain Rights and Obligations of Cohabitants Act 2010 apply to the property, all relevant provisions of those Acts are complied with.

(ii) indicating whether or not he or she is of the opinion that the debtor is reasonably likely to be able to comply with the terms of the proposed Debt Settlement Arrangement.

(2) Where a debtor’s financial position has materially changed in the period between the completion by him or her of a Prescribed Financial Statement under section 50 and the giving of a notice under section 70(2) or, as the case may be, section 74A(2) (inserted by section 7 of the Personal Insolvency (Amendment) Act 2015)—

(f) the debtor has committed an offence under this Act, which causes a material detriment to the creditor;

(g) the debtor had entered into a transaction with a person at an undervalue within the preceding 3 years that has materially contributed to the debtor’s inability to pay his or her debts (other than any debts due to the person with whom the debtor entered the transaction at an undervalue);

(h) the debtor had given a preference to a person within the preceding 3 years that had the effect of substantially reducing the amount available to the debtor for the payment of his or her debts (other than a debt due to the person who received the preference).

Debt Settlement Arrangement: Excessive pension contributions.

88.— (1) Where, as respects a debtor who has entered into a Debt Settlement Arrangement which is in force, a creditor or the personal insolvency practitioner concerned considers that a debtor has made excessive contributions to a relevant pension arrangement, the creditor or personal insolvency practitioner may make an application to the appropriate court for relief in accordance with this section.

(2) The reference to the debtor having made contributions to a relevant pension arrangement shall be construed as a reference to contributions made by the debtor at any time within 3 years prior to the making of the application for a protective certificate on behalf of the debtor under section 59.

(3) Where the appropriate court considers that having regard in particular to the matters referred to in subsection (4) the contributions to a relevant pension arrangement were excessive it may:

(a) direct that such part of the contribution concerned (less any tax required to be deducted) be paid by the person administering the relevant pension arrangement to the personal insolvency practitioner for distribution amongst the creditors of the debtor, and

(b) make such other order as the court deems appropriate, including an order as to the costs of the application.

(4) The matters referred to in subsection (3) as respects the contributions made by the debtor to a relevant pension arrangement are:

(c) the amount of the contributions paid, including the percentage of total income of the debtor in each tax year concerned which such contributions represent;

(d) the amount of the contributions paid, in each of the 6 years prior to the making of the application for a protective certificate on behalf of the debtor under section 59 including the percentage of total income of the debtor concerned which such contributions represent in each of those years;

(e) the age of the debtor at the relevant times;

(f) the percentage limits which applied to the debtor in relation to relief from income tax for the purposes of making contributions to a relevant pension arrangement in each of the 6 years prior to the making of the application for a protective certificate on behalf of the debtor under section 59; and

(g) the extent of provision made by the debtor in relation to any relevant pension arrangement prior to the making of the contributions concerned.
89.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a debtor who satisfies the eligibility criteria specified in section 91 may make a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement with one or more of his or her creditors in respect of the payment, satisfaction or restructuring of his or her debts.

(2) A proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall be made on behalf of a debtor by a personal insolvency practitioner in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

(3) Where two or more debtors are jointly party to all of the debts to be covered by a Personal Insolvency Arrangement and each of those debtors satisfies the eligibility criteria specified in section 91, those debtors may jointly propose a Personal Insolvency Arrangement and, unless otherwise specified, references in this Part to the “debtor” shall be construed as meaning such joint debtors.

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (3), a Personal Insolvency Arrangement may be proposed by a debtor on the basis that it will be administered in common by a personal insolvency practitioner with one or more other Personal Insolvency Arrangements provided that, in the opinion of the personal insolvency practitioner:

(a) the Personal Insolvency Arrangements can reasonably be administered in common because of the financial relationship of the debtors concerned;

(b) the terms of each of the Personal Insolvency Arrangements to be administered in common specify in sufficient detail how such administration will operate, including—

(i) the treatment of joint and individual assets and the treatment of joint and individual debts;

(ii) whether the approval of one Personal Insolvency Arrangement is to be contingent on the approval of any other Personal Insolvency Arrangement;

(iii) the effect of the failure or early termination of one Personal Insolvency Arrangement on any other Personal Insolvency Arrangement, in particular, as to whether it is a condition of each Personal Insolvency Arrangement that for it to be considered as having been successfully completed other Personal Insolvency Arrangements are also required to be successfully completed; and

(iv) where a joint payment is to be received from two or more debtors, how that payment is to be apportioned between the creditors under each Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(5) The administration of a Personal Insolvency Arrangement in common with one or more other Personal Insolvency Arrangements in accordance with subsection (4) shall be without prejudice to the applicability of the remainder of this Part to each such Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(6)(a) A Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall not contain any terms that would release the debtor from an excluded debt or otherwise affect such a debt.

(b) A proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall not include any terms that, if contained in a Personal Insolvency Arrangement that came into effect, would contravene paragraph (a).
Personal Insolvency Arrangement permitted once only.

90.— A debtor may enter into a Personal Insolvency Arrangement once only.

Eligibility criteria for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

91.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and this Chapter, a debtor shall not be eligible to make a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement unless he or she satisfies the following criteria—

(a) subject to subsection (4), that the aggregate of the debts of the debtor which are secured debts is less than €3,000,000;

(b) that the debtor—

(i) is domiciled in the State, or

(ii) within one year before the date of the application for a protective certificate has ordinarily—

(I) resided in the State, or

(II) had a place of business in the State;

(c) that at least one of the creditors of the debtor is a secured creditor holding security over an interest in property of the debtor situate in the State (whether the interest in the property relates to real property or personal property);

(d) that the debtor is insolvent;

(e) that the debtor has completed a Prescribed Financial Statement and has made a statutory declaration confirming that the statement is a complete and accurate statement of the debtor’s assets, liabilities, income and expenditure;

[g] that the debtor has made a declaration in writing declaring that he or she has co-operated for a period of at least 6 months with his or her creditors who are secured creditors as respects the debtor’s principal private residence in accordance with any process relating to mortgage arrears operated by the secured creditors concerned which has been approved or required by the Central Bank of Ireland and which process relates to the secured debt concerned and that—

(i) notwithstanding such co-operation the debtor has not been able to agree an alternative repayment arrangement with the secured creditor concerned, or that the secured creditor has confirmed to the debtor in writing the unwillingness of that secured creditor to enter into an alternative repayment arrangement, or

(ii) the debtor—

(I) has entered into an alternative repayment arrangement and has, in good faith, endeavoured to comply with that arrangement, and

(II) the personal insolvency practitioner has provided the debtor with a confirmation under subsection (2A);]

(2) The criterion referred to in subsection (1)(g) shall not apply where the relevant personal insolvency practitioner confirms in writing that, having regard to the financial circumstances of the debtor as disclosed in the Prescribed Financial Statement completed by the debtor, it is the belief of that practitioner that if the debtor were to have entered into an alternative repayment arrangement with the secured creditor concerned of a type provided for in any process relating to mortgage arrears operated by that secured creditor (being a process approved or required by the Central Bank of Ireland) the debtor would be unlikely to become solvent within the period of 5 years commencing on the date of the personal insolvency practitioner giving that confirmation.

[(2A) A confirmation under this subsection is a confirmation in writing by the personal insolvency practitioner that, having regard to the financial circumstances of the debtor as disclosed in the Prescribed Financial Statement completed by the debtor, and the terms of the alternative payment arrangement referred to in subsection (1)(g)(ii), it is the belief of that practitioner that the debtor, if he or she were not to enter into a Personal Insolvency Arrangement, would be unlikely to become solvent within the period of 5 years commencing on the date of the personal insolvency practitioner giving that confirmation.]

(3) The criterion [specified in subsection (1)(i)] shall not apply where the debtor has, on notice to the Insolvency Service, made an application to the appropriate court and the court has made an order stating that it is satisfied that the current insolvency of the debtor arises by reason of exceptional circumstances or other factors which are substantially outside the control of the debtor and that it would be just to permit the debtor to make a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(4) Where all of the creditors who are secured creditors consent in writing the limit of €3,000,000 referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall not apply.

(5) A debtor shall not be eligible to make a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement where 25 per cent or more of his or her debts (other than excluded debts) were incurred during the period of 6 months ending on the date on which an application is made under section 93 for a protective certificate.

(2) Where a personal insolvency practitioner proposes to include an excludable debt in a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement, he or she shall, without delay, notify the creditor concerned of that fact, which notification shall be accompanied by—

(a) such information about the debtor’s affairs (including his or her creditors, debts, liabilities, income and assets) as may be prescribed, and

(b) a request in writing that the creditor confirm, in writing, whether or not the creditor consents, for the purposes of this section, to the inclusion of the debt in a Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(3) A creditor shall comply with a request under subsection (2)(b) within 21 days of receipt of the notification under that subsection.

(4) Where a creditor does not comply with subsection (3), the creditor shall be deemed to have consented to the inclusion of that debt in a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(5) Where a creditor consents or is deemed to have consented, in accordance with this section, to the inclusion of an excludable debt in a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement, that creditor shall be entitled to vote at any creditors’ meeting called to consider that proposal.

(6) Where the debtor concerned is the subject of a protective certificate, and a creditor to whom this section applies brings an application under section 97(1) in respect of that protective certificate, the period referred to in subsection (3) shall not commence until the date on which the appropriate court determines the application.

(7) An excludable debt shall not be the subject of a Personal Insolvency Arrangement unless it is a permitted debt.

(8) In this Chapter, “permitted debt” means an excludable debt to which subsection (1) applies.

93.— (1) Where a personal insolvency practitioner has been instructed pursuant to section 53 to make a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement, the personal insolvency practitioner shall notify the Insolvency Service of the debtor’s intention to make a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement and apply on behalf of the debtor for a protective certificate.

(3) An application under this section may be withdrawn by the personal insolvency practitioner at any time prior to the issue of a protective certificate under section 95.

(4) Where a personal insolvency practitioner becomes aware of any inaccuracy or omission in an application under this section or any document accompanying such an application, he or she shall inform the Insolvency Service of this fact as soon as practicable and the Insolvency Service shall have regard to any information provided under this subsection for the purposes of its consideration of the application.

94.—(1) In its consideration of an application under section 93 the Insolvency Service shall be entitled to request any further information it requires from the debtor or personal insolvency practitioner and to defer further consideration of the application until such information is furnished to it.

(2) Where a debtor or personal insolvency practitioner fails to provide the information requested by the Insolvency Service under subsection (1) within 14 days or such longer period as the Insolvency Service may permit the application shall be deemed to be withdrawn.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), in considering the application for a protective certificate, the Insolvency Service shall make such enquiries as it considers necessary to satisfy itself:

(a) that the personal insolvency practitioner is a person entitled to act as a personal insolvency practitioner;

(b) having regard to the documents which are required to accompany the application for a protective certificate—
(i) that the debtor satisfies the eligibility criteria for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement specified in section 91; and
(ii) the application does not appear to be frivolous or an attempt to frustrate the efforts of creditors to recover debts due to them.

(4) Subject to subsections (5) to (7), for the purposes of subsection (3) the Insolvency Service shall be entitled to presume that the debtor satisfies the eligibility criteria for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement specified in section 91 if the documents required to be lodged with the Insolvency Service have been so lodged and the Insolvency Service has no reason to believe that the information supplied in or in support of the application for a protective certificate is incomplete or inaccurate.

(5) The Insolvency Service may make such enquiries as it considers necessary to verify the completeness or accuracy of any matter referred to in the Prescribed Financial Statement of the debtor or in relation to the assets, liabilities, income or expenditure of the debtor.

(6) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (5) the matters in respect of which the Insolvency Service may make an enquiry include the following—

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the Insolvency Service to make an enquiry in any case.

(8) A person who receives an enquiry from the Insolvency Service pursuant to this section shall be under a duty to furnish the information requested as soon as reasonably practicable.

(9) Notwithstanding anything contained in any enactment, for the purposes of the performance of the functions of the Insolvency Service under this Act information held by a Department of State, the Revenue Commissioners, a local authority or any other State body or agency in relation to a debtor may be furnished to the Insolvency Service.

Referral of application to court for issue of protective certificate.

95.—(1) Where the Insolvency Service, following its consideration under section 94—

(a) is satisfied that an application under section 93 is in order, it shall—

(i) issue a certificate to that effect,

[(iii) furnish that certificate together with a copy of the application and the supporting documentation (other than the documents referred to in section 93(2)(f) and (g)) to the appropriate court, and]

(iii) notify the personal insolvency practitioner to that effect,

and

(b) is not so satisfied, it shall notify the personal insolvency practitioner to that effect and request him or her, within 21 days from the date of the notification, to submit a revised application or to confirm that the application has been withdrawn.
(2) Where the appropriate court receives the application for a protective certificate and accompanying documentation pursuant to subsection (1)(a), it shall consider the application and documentation and, subject to subsection (3)—

(a) if satisfied that the eligibility criteria specified in section 91 have been satisfied and the other relevant requirements relating to an application for the issue of a protective certificate have been met, shall issue a protective certificate, and

(b) if not so satisfied, shall refuse to issue a protective certificate.

(3) The appropriate court, where it requires further information or evidence for the purpose of its arriving at a decision under subsection (2), may hold a hearing, which hearing shall be on notice to the Insolvency Service and the personal insolvency practitioner concerned.

(4) […]

(5) Subject to subsections (6) and (7) and [sections 113(2) and 115A(5),] a protective certificate shall be in force for a period of 70 days from the date of its issue.

(6) Where a protective certificate has been issued pursuant to subsection (2)(a), the appropriate court may, on application to that court by the personal insolvency practitioner, extend the period of the protective certificate by an additional period not exceeding 40 days where—

(a) the debtor and the personal insolvency practitioner satisfy the court that they have acted in good faith and with reasonable expedition, and

(b) the court is satisfied that it is likely that a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement which is likely—

(i) to be accepted by the creditors, and

(ii) to be successfully completed by the debtor,

will be made if the extension is granted.

(7) Where a protective certificate has been issued pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or extended under subsection (6), the appropriate court may on application to that court extend the period of the protective certificate by a further additional period not exceeding 40 days where—

(a) the personal insolvency practitioner has been appointed in accordance with section 49(9), and

(b) the court is satisfied that the extension is necessary to enable the personal insolvency practitioner so appointed to perform his or her functions under this Chapter.

(8) A hearing held under subsection (7) shall be held with all due expedition.

(9) The period of a protective certificate may be extended under subsection (7) once only.

(10) The registrar of the appropriate court shall notify the Insolvency Service and the personal insolvency practitioner concerned where the court—

(a) issues or extends a protective certificate under this section,

(b) refuses to issue or extend a protective certificate under this section, or

(c) decides to hold a hearing referred to in subsection (3).
(11) Where a protective certificate is issued under this section, the Insolvency Service shall—

(a) record in the Register of Protective Certificates, in addition to such other details as may be prescribed under section 133(3)(b), the following—

(i) the name and address of the debtor and the date of issue of the protective certificate,

(ii) where applicable—

(I) the extension under this section of the protective certificate, and

(II) the making by the appropriate court of an order under section 97, and the creditor in respect of whom the order has been made, and

and

(b) within 3 months of the date on which the protective certificate ceases, under this Chapter, to be in force, remove from the Register of Protective Certificates all information recorded in it in respect of the protective certificate.

(12) On receipt of a notification under subsection (10) of a decision of the court referred to in that subsection, the personal insolvency practitioner shall notify each of the creditors specified in the schedule of creditors of that decision and, in the case of a decision to issue a protective certificate, the notification by the personal insolvency practitioner shall contain a statement—

(a) that the debtor intends to make a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement,

(b) of the effect of the protective certificate under section 96, and

(c) of the right of the creditor under section 97 to appeal the issue of the protective certificate.

(13) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (5), (6) and (7), a protective certificate that is in force on the date on which a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement is approved in accordance with section 110 shall continue in force until it ceases to have effect in accordance with section 113.

(14) A protective certificate issued under this section shall—

(a) specify—

(i) the name of the debtor who is the subject of it,

(ii) the debts ("specified debts") which are subject to it, and

(iii) the name of each creditor to whom a specified debt is owed, and

(b) contain such other information as may be prescribed.

(15) In considering an application under this section the appropriate court shall be entitled to treat a certificate issued by the Insolvency Service under subsection (1) as evidence of the matters certified therein.
6.—(1) Subject to subsections (3), (4) and (5), a creditor to whom notice of the issue of a protective certificate has been given shall not, whilst the protective certificate remains in force, in relation to a specified debt:

(a) initiate any legal proceedings;

(b) take any step to prosecute legal proceedings already initiated;

(c) take any step to secure or recover payment;

(d) execute or enforce a judgment or order of a court or tribunal against the debtor;

(e) take any step to enforce security held by the creditor in connection with the specified debt;

(f) take any step to recover goods in the possession or custody of the debtor, whether or not title to the goods is vested in the creditor;

(g) contact the debtor regarding payment of the specified debt, otherwise than at the request of the debtor;

(h) in relation to an agreement with the debtor, including a security agreement, by reason only that the debtor is insolvent or that the protective certificate has been issued—

(i) terminate or amend that agreement, or

(ii) claim an accelerated payment under that agreement.

(2) Whilst a protective certificate remains in force, no bankruptcy petition relating to the debtor—

(a) may be presented by a creditor to whom subsection (1) applies in respect of a specified debt,

(b) in a case where the petition has been presented by such a creditor in respect of a specified debt, may be proceeded with.

(3) Without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2), whilst a protective certificate remains in force, no other proceedings and no execution or other legal process in respect of a specified debt may be commenced or continued by a creditor to whom subsection (1) applies against the debtor or his or her property, except with the leave of the court and subject to any order the court may make to stay such proceedings, enforcement or execution for such period as the court deems appropriate pending the outcome of attempts to reach a Personal Insolvency Arrangement, but this subsection shall not operate to prohibit the commencement or continuation of any criminal proceedings against the debtor.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the fact that a protective certificate is in force in relation to a debtor under this Chapter shall not operate to prevent a creditor taking the actions referred to in subsection (1) as respects another person who has guaranteed the debts of the debtor to which the protective certificate relates.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the fact that a protective certificate is in force in relation to a debtor under this Chapter shall not operate to prevent a creditor taking the actions referred to in subsection (3) as respects a person who has jointly contracted with the debtor or is jointly liable with the debtor to the creditor and that other person may sue or be sued in respect of the contract without joining the debtor.

(6) Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply where a protective certificate is also in force as respects the other person.

(7) In reckoning any period of time for the purpose of any applicable limitation period in relation to any proceedings or process to which subsection (1) or (3) applies...
(including any limitation period under the Statute of Limitations 1957), the period in which the protective certificate concerned is in force shall be disregarded.

97.— (1) Where a creditor is aggrieved by the issue of a protective certificate that creditor may within 14 days of the giving of notice of the issue of the protective certificate to that creditor apply to the appropriate court for an order directing that the protective certificate shall not apply to that creditor.

(2) A creditor who brings an application under subsection (1) shall give notice to the Insolvency Service and the relevant personal insolvency practitioner and to such other persons as the court may direct of that fact, and the application shall be made in such form as is provided for in rules of court.

(3) In determining an application under this section the court shall not make an order directing that the protective certificate shall not apply to that creditor unless it is satisfied that—

(a) not making such an order would cause irreparable loss to the creditor which would not otherwise occur, and

(b) no other creditor to whom notice of the protective certificate has been given would be unfairly prejudiced.

(4) In determining the costs of the application the court shall have regard to the objective that all the parties to such an application should bear their own costs unless to do so would cause a serious injustice to the parties to the application.

(5) Where the court makes an order under this section the court shall, unless it considers that there are good reasons not to do so, direct the creditor to hold any moneys or other assets recovered in trust for the benefit of the other creditors to whom the protective certificate applies, pending a further direction on the matter by the court.

(6) A hearing under subsection (1) shall be heard with all due expedition.

98.— (1) Where a protective certificate has been issued, the personal insolvency practitioner shall as soon as practicable thereafter—

(a) give written notice to the creditors concerned that the personal insolvency practitioner has been appointed by the debtor for the purpose of making a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Settlement Arrangement and, subject to section 101(2), invite those creditors to make submissions to the personal insolvency practitioner regarding the debts concerned and the manner in which the debts might be dealt with as part of a Personal Insolvency Arrangement, and such notice shall be accompanied by the debtor’s completed Prescribed Financial Statement,

(b) consider any submissions made by creditors regarding the debts and the manner in which the debts might be dealt with as part of a Personal Insolvency Arrangement, including—

(i) any submission made by a creditor with respect to previous or existing offers of arrangements made by the creditor to or with the debtor, and

(ii) any submission made by a secured creditor in accordance with section 102,

and

(c) make a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement in respect of the debts concerned.
A personal insolvency practitioner may in any case request a creditor to file a proof of debt and the debt shall be proved in the same manner as a debt of a bankrupt is proved under the Bankruptcy Act 1988 and subject to subsection (3) paragraphs 1 to 22 of the First Schedule of that Act shall apply with all necessary modifications to the proof of such debts.

Subject to paragraph (c), a creditor who does not comply with a request under paragraph (a) is not entitled to—

(i) vote at a creditors’ meeting, or

(ii) share in any distribution that may be made under the Personal Insolvency Arrangement concerned.

Where a creditor to whom paragraph (b) applies files a proof of debt in the manner specified in paragraph (a), paragraph (b) shall cease to apply, but without prejudice to anything done while that paragraph applied.

In applying the First Schedule of the Bankruptcy Act 1988 to proof of debts under this section—

(a) a reference in that Schedule to the Court and the Official Assignee shall be read as a reference to the personal insolvency practitioner, and

(b) a reference to a bankrupt shall be read as a reference to the debtor to whom the proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement relates.

(d) a Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall not require the debtor to sell any of his or her assets that are reasonably necessary for the debtor’s employment, business or vocation unless the debtor explicitly consents to such sale;

(e) a Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall not contain any terms which would require the debtor to make payments of such an amount that the debtor would not have sufficient income to maintain a reasonable standard of living for the debtor and his or her dependants;

(f) a Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall—

(i) make provision for the costs and outlays of the personal insolvency practitioner which relate to the matters referred to in sections 48 to 54 and this Chapter and to the ongoing administration of the Arrangement,

(II) any failure by the debtor to comply with the terms of the provision shall be a breach of the Arrangement such that the Collector-General (within the meaning of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997) may withdraw his or her agreement under section 92 to accept the compromise contained in the Arrangement.]

(ii) indicate the likely amount of the fees, costs and outlays to be incurred or where this is not practicable the basis on which those fees, costs and outlays will be calculated, and

(i) a Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall provide that the circumstances of the debtor be reviewed by the personal insolvency practitioner at regular intervals which are specified in the Personal Insolvency Arrangement (which intervals are not greater than 12 months) during the currency of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement;

(j) a Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall provide that the review referred to in paragraph (i) shall include the preparation by the debtor of a new Prescribed Financial Statement, a copy of which together with a statement by the personal insolvency practitioner as to whether he or she considers that statement to be complete and accurate, shall be sent by the personal insolvency practitioner to each creditor;

(k) subject to sections 102 to 105, a Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall make provision for the manner in which security held by a secured creditor is to be treated; and

(l) the terms of a Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall specify the circumstances where the personal insolvency practitioner shall be obliged to propose a variation of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement in accordance with section 119.

(3) The Insolvency Service may publish a Code of Practice providing guidance on any of the matters set out in subsection (2).

(4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(e), and without prejudice to subsection (3), in determining whether a debtor would have sufficient income to maintain a reasonable standard of living for the debtor and his or her dependants under the Personal Insolvency Arrangement, regard shall be had to any guidelines issued under section 23.
100.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement may incorporate one or more of the options in subsection (2) with respect to payments to creditors.

(2) The terms of a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement may include any one or more of the following:

(a) a lump sum payment to creditors, whether provided from the debtor’s own resources or from the resources of other persons;

(3) Unless provision is otherwise made in the Personal Insolvency Arrangement, and subject to section 101, the arrangement shall provide for payments to creditors of the same class to be made on a pari passu basis, and where so otherwise provided the Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall specify the reasons for such provision being made.

(4) Unless provision is otherwise made in the Personal Insolvency Arrangement, where an Arrangement provides for payments to a creditor to whom section 92 applies that are greater than the payments that creditor would receive if such payments were made on a pari passu basis, the fees, costs and charges referred to in section 99(2)(f) shall be payable by that creditor in proportion to the payments received by him or her.

(5) The payment of moneys or the performance of obligations provided for by a Personal Insolvency Arrangement may be secured by a charge given by the debtor or a charge or guarantee given by a person other than the debtor.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this Act the terms of a Personal Insolvency Arrangement may include provisions relating to payments other than those specified in this section.

101.—(1) Unless the creditor concerned otherwise agrees in writing and provision is so made in the terms of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement, a preferential debt shall, subject to subsection (3), be paid in priority by the debtor and where those debts are to be paid in priority the provisions of section 81 of the Bankruptcy Act 1988 shall apply with all necessary modifications.

(2) In notifying creditors of the issue of a protective certificate the personal insolvency practitioner shall indicate that any creditor who considers some or all of his or her debt to be a preferential debt is required to furnish evidence of the circumstances of how that debt or part of that debt is claimed to be a preferential debt within such reasonable period as may be specified, and that in the absence of such evidence, the proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement may be prepared on the basis that the debt concerned is not a preferential debt.
Where a creditor fails to satisfy the personal insolvency practitioner that his or her debt is a preferential debt, the debt shall be treated as not being a preferential debt for the purposes of a Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

Subsection (1) shall not affect the operation of section 103 unless the relevant secured creditors otherwise agree.

In this Chapter, “preferential debt” means a debt which, if the debtor concerned were a bankrupt would be a debt—

(a) that by virtue of section 81 of the Bankruptcy Act 1988 is to be paid in priority to all other debts, or

(b) that by virtue of any other statutory provision is to be included among such debts.

Secured creditors and Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

102.—(1) Where a secured creditor has been notified by the personal insolvency practitioner that a protective certificate has been issued in respect of the debtor the secured creditor concerned shall furnish to the personal insolvency practitioner an estimate, made in good faith, of the market value of the security and the creditor concerned may also indicate, a preference as to how, having regard to subsection (3) and sections 103 to 105, that creditor wishes to have the security and secured debt treated under the Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(2) In formulating the proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement the personal insolvency practitioner shall—

(a) have regard to subsection (3) and sections 103 to 105, and

(b) to the extent that he or she considers it reasonable to do so, have regard to the preference of the secured creditor furnished under subsection (1) as to the treatment of the security and the secured debt.

(3) Subject to sections 103 to 105, the terms of a Personal Insolvency Arrangement may provide for the manner in which the security for a secured debt is to be treated which may include:

(a) the sale or any other disposition of the property or asset the subject of the security;

(b) the surrender of the security to the debtor; or

(c) the retention by the secured creditor of the security.

(4) Failure by the secured creditor to furnish valuation and the indication of preference relating to the security under subsection (1) within the period specified by the personal insolvency practitioner or such further period as may be offered by him or her shall not prevent the personal insolvency practitioner from formulating a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(5) Where a Personal Insolvency Arrangement provides for the sale or other disposal of the property which is the subject of the security for a secured debt, and the realised value of that property is less than the amount due in respect of the secured debt, the balance due to the secured creditor shall abate in equal proportion to the unsecured debts covered by the Personal Insolvency Arrangement and shall be discharged with them on completion of the obligations specified in the Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(6) Without prejudice to the generality of section 100 or subsections (1) to (3) and subject to sections 103 to 105, a Personal Insolvency Arrangement may include one or more of the following terms in relation to the secured debt:
(a) that the debtor pay interest and only part of the capital amount of the secured debt to the secured creditor for a specified period of time which shall not exceed the duration of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement;

(b) that the debtor make interest-only payments on the secured debt for a specified period of time which shall not exceed the duration of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement;

(d) that the secured debt payments due to be made by the debtor be deferred for a specified period of time which shall not exceed the duration of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement;

(e) that the basis on which the interest rate relating to the secured debt be changed to one that is fixed, variable or at a margin above or below a reference rate;

(f) that the principal sum due on the secured debt be reduced provided that the secured creditor be granted a share in the debtor’s equity in the property the subject of the security;

(g) that the principal sum due on the secured debt be reduced but subject to a condition that where the property the subject of the security is subsequently sold for an amount greater than the value attributed to that property for the purposes of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement, the secured creditor’s security will continue to cover such part of the difference between the attributed value and the amount for which the property is sold as is specified in the terms of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement;

(h) that arrears of payments existing at the inception of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement and payments falling due during a specified period thereafter be added to the principal amount due in respect of the secured debt; and

(i) that the principal sum due in respect of the secured debt be reduced to a specified amount.

(7) Subject to subsections (3)(b), (9) and (10) a creditor who has registered a judgment mortgage against a debtor more than three months before [the issue by the appropriate court] of the protective certificate is a secured creditor for the purposes of a Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(8) Where requested by the personal insolvency practitioner to do so, a secured creditor shall provide proof of the existence and nature of the security with respect to the relevant secured debt, in default of which, the personal insolvency practitioner may treat the debt as unsecured debt for the purposes of this Chapter.

(9) Notwithstanding subsection (1) where the market value of the security held by a secured creditor in respect of a secured debt is less than 10 per cent of the amount of that secured debt, the secured creditor may, upon giving notice in writing to the personal insolvency practitioner, elect to be treated as an unsecured creditor for the purposes of this Chapter, other than this subsection and subsection (10).

(10) Where the personal insolvency practitioner receives notice of an election referred to in subsection (9), the personal insolvency practitioner shall formulate the proposal for the Personal Insolvency Arrangement on terms providing for the surrender of the security to the debtor and shall treat the creditor as an unsecured creditor for the purposes of this Chapter, other than this subsection and subsection (9).

(11) Without prejudice to section 103, where a Personal Insolvency Arrangement includes terms providing for a reduction of the amount of debt (including principal, interest and arrears) secured by the security as of the date of the issue of the protective certificate to a specified amount, the terms of the Arrangement shall, unless the relevant secured creditor agrees otherwise, also include a term providing that the amount of such reduction shall:

(a) rank equally with, and abate in equal proportion to, the unsecured debts covered by the Arrangement; and

(b) be discharged with those unsecured debts on completion of the obligations specified in the Arrangement.

103.—(1) A Personal Insolvency Arrangement which includes terms providing for the sale or other disposal of the property the subject of the security shall, unless the relevant secured creditor agrees otherwise, include a term providing that the amount to be paid to the secured creditor shall amount at least to—

(a) the value of the security determined in accordance with section 105; or

(b) the amount of the debt (including principal, interest and arrears) secured by the security as of the date of the issue of the protective certificate, whichever is the lesser.

(2) A Personal Insolvency Arrangement which includes terms providing for—

(a) retention by a secured creditor of the security held by that secured creditor,
and

(b) a reduction of the principal sum due in respect of the secured debt due to that secured creditor to a specified amount,

shall not, unless the relevant secured creditor agrees otherwise, specify the amount of the reduced principal sum referred to in paragraph (b) at an amount less than the value of the security determined in accordance with section 105.

(3) A Personal Insolvency Arrangement which includes terms involving—

(a) retention by a secured creditor of the security held by that secured creditor,
and

(b) a reduction of the principal sum due in respect of the secured debt due to
that secured creditor to a specified amount,

shall, unless the relevant secured creditor agrees otherwise, also include terms providing that any such reduction of the principal sum is subject to the condition that, subject to subsections (4) to (13), where the property the subject of the security is sold or otherwise disposed of for an amount or at a value greater than the value attributed to the security in accordance with section 105, the debtor shall pay to the secured creditor an amount additional to the reduced principal sum calculated in accordance with subsection (4) or such greater amount as is provided for under the terms of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(4) Subject to subsections (5) to (13), the additional amount referred to in subsection
(3) shall be the lesser of—

(a) the entire of the difference between the value of the property on disposition and the value attributed to the security in accordance with section 105, and

(b) the amount of the reduction in the principal sum due in respect of the secured debt under the Personal Insolvency Arrangement as referred to in subsection (3)(b).

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), any portion of the increase in the value of the property attributable to significant improvements made to (or other measures taken which have made a material contribution to the increase in the value of the property over which the debt is secured which were made subsequent to the valuation of the security for the purposes of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall be disregarded in calculating the additional amount payable by the debtor.

(6) Subsection (5) shall not apply unless the secured creditor has given his or her consent in writing to the improvements or other measures concerned, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (4), any payment or transfer of assets to the secured creditor pursuant to the Personal Insolvency Arrangement properly attributable to a reduction of the principal sum due in respect of the secured debt shall be deducted from the additional amount referred to in subsection (3).

(8) For the purposes of subsection (4), the expenses and costs borne by the debtor in connection with the sale or other disposal of the property shall, to the extent that those costs and expenses are of a type and amount normally payable by the vendor of property of that nature, be deducted from the value attributable to the property on such sale or disposal.

(9) The obligation to pay an additional amount arising by virtue of this section shall not apply where the value of the property on its sale or other disposal is less than the amount of the debt secured by the security (other than any additional amount secured by virtue of subsection (10)) immediately prior to such sale or other disposition of the property.

(10) Any additional amount payable by virtue of this section shall stand secured in the same manner and with the same priority as the principal sum referred to in subsection (3)(b).

(11) The obligation to pay an additional amount arising by virtue of this section shall cease—

(a) on the expiry of the period of 20 years commencing on the date on which the Personal Insolvency Arrangement comes into effect, or

(b) on the day on which the debtor is scheduled or permitted to fully discharge the amount secured by the security (or such later date as may be specified for so doing in the Personal Insolvency Arrangement) and does so discharge his or her indebtedness, whichever first occurs.

(12) Unless otherwise provided for under the terms of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement, where a property in respect of which subsection (3) applies is the subject of security held by more than one secured creditor—

(a) any additional amounts payable by virtue of this section to the secured creditors shall be paid in order of the priority of the security held by each secured creditor, and

(b) if the security held by a secured creditor is not ranked first in priority, the obligation to pay an additional amount to that creditor arising by virtue of this section shall apply only if and to the extent that the sum of the additional amounts payable to secured creditors holding security with higher ranking priority than the secured creditor concerned is less than the additional amount calculated in accordance with subsection (4).

(13) For the purposes of subsection (3)—

(a) without prejudice to the generality of that subsection, a disposal by a debtor of property the subject of security held by a secured creditor shall include the voluntary grant by the debtor of security over that property to any person other than that secured creditor, including any such grant of security in connection with what is commonly known as a refinancing of the existing secured debt, and

(b) a debtor shall not be considered to dispose of property the subject of security held by a secured creditor where the debtor leases or licenses the property to any person for a term of less than 20 years.

104.— (1) In formulating a proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement a personal insolvency practitioner shall, in so far as reasonably practicable, and having regard to the matters referred to in subsection (2), formulate the proposal on terms that will not require the debtor to—

(a) dispose of an interest in, or

(b) cease to occupy,

all or a part of his or her principal private residence and the personal insolvency practitioner shall consider any appropriate alternatives.

(2) The matters referred to in subsection (1) are—

(a) the costs likely to be incurred by the debtor by remaining in occupation of his or her principal private residence (including rent, mortgage loan repayments, insurance payments, owners’ management company service charges and contributions, taxes or other charges relating to ownership or occupation of the property imposed by or under statute, and necessary maintenance in respect of the principal private residence),

(b) the personal insolvency practitioner, has, having discussed the issue with the debtor, formed the opinion that, taking account of the matters referred to in subsection (2), the costs of continuing to reside in the debtor’s principal private residence are disproportionately large,

the personal insolvency practitioner shall not be required to formulate the proposal for a Personal Insolvency Arrangement on terms that will not require the debtor to cease to occupy his or her principal private residence.

(4) A Personal Insolvency Arrangement shall not contain terms providing for a disposal of the debtor’s interest in the principal private residence unless—

(a) the debtor has obtained independent legal advice in relation to such disposal or, having been advised by the personal insolvency practitioner to obtain such legal advice, has declined to do so, and

(b) to the extent that the provisions of the Family Home Protection Act 1976 or the Civil Partnership and Certain Rights and Obligations of Cohabitants Act...

105. — (1) Subject to the provisions of this section the value of security in respect of secured debt for the purposes of this Chapter shall be the market value of the security determined by agreement between the personal insolvency practitioner, the debtor and the relevant secured creditor.

(2) Where the personal insolvency practitioner does not accept a secured creditor’s estimate of the value, if any, of the security furnished by the secured creditor under section 102, the debtor, the personal insolvency practitioner and the secured creditor shall in good faith endeavour to agree the market value for the security having regard to any matter relevant to the valuation of security, including the matters specified in subsection (5).

(3) In the absence of agreement as to the value of the security, the personal insolvency practitioner, the debtor and the relevant secured creditor shall appoint an appropriate independent expert to determine the market value for the security having regard to any matter relevant to the valuation of security, including the matters specified in subsection (5).

(4) Where the personal insolvency practitioner, the debtor and the secured creditor are unable to agree as to the independent expert to be appointed under subsection (3) the issue may be referred by any of them to the Insolvency Service which shall appoint such independent expert as it considers appropriate to determine the market value of the security concerned having regard to any matter relevant to the valuation of security, including the matters specified in subsection (5), and the valuation carried out by such expert shall be binding on the personal insolvency practitioner, the debtor and the secured creditor concerned.

(5) The matters referred to in subsections (2) to (4) as the matters specified in subsection (5) are:

(6) In this section “market value”—

(a) as respects property the subject of security for a secured debt, means the price which that property might reasonably be expected to fetch on a sale in the open market;

(b) as respects security for a secured debt, means the amount that might reasonably be expected to be available to discharge that secured debt, in whole or in part, following realisation of the security by the secured creditor concerned and, where permitted by the terms of the security or otherwise, after deducting all relevant costs and expenses in connection with the realisation of the security.

(7) The creditor concerned and the personal insolvency practitioner shall each pay 50 per cent of the costs of carrying out the valuation by the independent expert pursuant to subsection (3) or (4).

(8) The amount paid by the personal insolvency practitioner pursuant to subsection (7) shall be treated as an outlay for the purposes of the Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(9) For the purposes of this section, the personal insolvency practitioner, the debtor, the secured creditor concerned and any independent expert shall be entitled to assume, in the absence of any clear evidence to the contrary, that the market value of the security which is a first charge is the lesser of—

(d) a report of the personal insolvency practitioner—

(i) describing the outcome for creditors, and having regard to the financial circumstances of the debtor whether or not the proposed Personal Insolvency Arrangement represents a fair outcome for the creditors, and indicating, where relevant, how the financial outcome for creditors (whether individually or as a member of a class of creditors) under the terms of the proposal is likely to be better than the estimated financial outcome for such creditors if the debtor were to be adjudicated a bankrupt (having regard to, amongst other things, the estimated costs of the bankruptcy process); and

(ii) indicating whether or not he or she considers that the debtor is reasonably likely to be able to comply with the terms of the proposed Personal Insolvency Arrangement.

(2) An application for a bankruptcy payment order may not be made after the bankrupt has been discharged from bankruptcy, but where an application for such an order is made before the discharge of the bankrupt, the Court may make a bankruptcy payment order after the date of discharge as if the bankrupt had not been so discharged.

(4) In making an order under subsection (1) the Court shall have regard to the reasonable living expenses of the bankrupt and his or her dependants and the Court may also have regard to any guidelines on reasonable living expenses issued by the Insolvency Service under the Personal Insolvency Act 2012 or by the Official Assignee.

(5) The Court, on the application of the bankrupt or the Official Assignee or the trustee in bankruptcy, may vary a bankruptcy payment order granted under subsection (1) where there has been a material change in the circumstances of the bankrupt.
