Definitions

2. In this Act—

“Act of 2010” means Road Traffic Act 2010;

“Principal Act” means Road Traffic Act 1961.

PART 2

REGISTER OF WRITTEN-OFF VEHICLES

Definition - Part 2

3. In this Part “vehicle insurer” has the meaning assigned to it in section 58 of the Road Traffic Act 1961.

Vehicle insurer obligations

4. (1) A vehicle insurer, who as a result of an inspection of a mechanically propelled vehicle determines that such vehicle is defective to the extent that it is—

- (a) when in motion, a danger to the public, and
- (b) beyond repair,

shall notify the Minister in accordance with subsection (2) within 5 working days of such inspection.

(2) When an insurer notifies the Minister under subsection (1) it shall also notify the Minister whether, based on the inspection of the vehicle, it is suitable for the salvaging of viable automotive parts.

(3) A notification under this section shall be dated and shall include the following:

- (a) the registration number (if any) of the vehicle;
 - (b) the make, model and body type of the vehicle;
 - (c) the VIN, or vehicle identification number, of the vehicle, that is to say, the fixed combination of characters assigned to the vehicle by a manufacturer or its authorised distributor for vehicle identification purposes which is marked on the chassis, frame or other similar structure of the vehicle;
 - (d) the date on which the vehicle was inspected by, or on behalf of, the vehicle insurer;
 - (e) if the defect in the vehicle was the result of an event involving the vehicle which occurred in a public place, the date of that event and, if any insurance claim arose in relation to the vehicle's involvement, the insurance company's claim number in respect of that claim.
- (4) The Minister may make regulations prescribing the manner in which a notification under subsection (2) shall be made including, in particular, whether it is to be made electronically or in hard-copy.

Offence of failure to notify

5. (1) A vehicle insurer who fails to notify the Minister in accordance with section 4 or who notifies information to the Minister knowing it to be false or misleading commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a class A fine.
- (2) Where an offence under this section is committed by a body corporate and is proven to have been so committed with the consent, connivance or approval of, or to have been attributable to the wilful neglect on the part of, any person, being a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate or a person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, that person, as well as the body corporate, commits an offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished as if he or she were guilty of the first-mentioned offence.
- (3) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (2) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his or her functions of management as if he or she were a director or manager of the body corporate.

Publication of information provided by vehicle insurers

6. (1) The Minister may maintain records of information notified to him or her under section 4 and may, after consultation with any other person or body that the Minister considers appropriate, for the purposes of increasing road safety, publish or share a part or all of such records.
- (2) The Minister may make regulations prescribing the manner in which records shall be published or shared under this section and, in particular, prescribing fees to cover the administrative cost of such publication or sharing.

PART 3

INTOXICATED DRIVING OFFENCES - DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF DRUGS

Amendment of section 3(1) of Act of 2010 - definitions7. Section 3(1) of the Act of 2010 is amended—

(a) by substituting for the definition of “analysis” the following:

“ ‘analysis’ includes any operation used in determining the concentration of alcohol in a specimen of breath, blood or urine, the concentration of a drug specified in column (2) of the Schedule in a specimen of blood and any operation used in determining the presence (if any) of a drug or drugs in a specimen of blood or urine, and cognate words shall be construed accordingly;”,

(b) in the definition of “doctor” by substituting “register of medical practitioners” for “General Register of Medical Practitioners”,

and

(c) by inserting after the definition of “intoxicant” the following:

“ ‘medical exemption certificate’ has the meaning given to it by section 4(1B);”.

Amendment of sections 4 and 5 of Act of 2010 - offences involving certain drugs8. The Act of 2010 is amended—

(a) in section 4, by inserting after subsection (1) the following:

“(1A) Subject to subsection (1B), a person shall not drive or attempt to drive a mechanically propelled vehicle in a public place while there is present in his or her body a quantity of a drug specified in column (2) of the Schedule such that, within 3 hours after so driving or attempting to drive, the concentration of that drug in his or her blood is equal to or greater than the concentration specified in column (3) at the same reference number.

(1B) Subsection (1A) does not apply to a person in respect of a drug specified at reference number 1 or 2 in column (2) of the Schedule where the person is the holder of a certificate, in the prescribed form (referred to in this Part as a “medical exemption certificate”) which indicates that at the time at which that drug was found to be present in his or her blood Δ^9 - Tetrahydrocannabinol had been lawfully prescribed for him or her and which is signed by the doctor who prescribed it.

(1C) A person who signs a medical exemption certificate containing information which he or she knows to be false commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a class C fine.”,

(b) in section 5, by inserting after subsection (1) the following:

“(1A) A person, other than a person referred to in subsection (1B), commits an offence if, when in charge of a mechanically propelled vehicle in a public place with intent to drive or attempt to drive the vehicle (but not driving or attempting to drive it), there is present in his or her body a quantity of a drug specified in column (2) of the Schedule such that, within 3 hours after so being in charge, the concentration of that drug in his or her blood is equal to or greater than the concentration specified in column (3) at the same reference number.

(1B) Subsection (1A) does not apply to a person in respect of a drug specified at reference number 1 or 2 in column (2) of the Schedule where the person is the holder of a medical exemption certificate which indicates that at the time at which that drug was found to be present in his or her blood it had been lawfully prescribed for him or her and which is signed by the doctor who prescribed it.”,

and

(c) by inserting the following Schedule to the Act:

“SCHEDULE

Sections 4(1A) and 5(1A)

Specified Drugs

Reference Number	Drug (2)	Level (units in whole blood) (3)
(1)
1	Δ^9 -Tetrahydrocannabinol (Cannabis)	1ng/ml

3	Cocaine	10ng/ml
4	Benzoyllecgonine (Cocaine)	50ng/ml
5	6-Acetylmorphine (Heroin)	5ng/ml

Amendment of section 7(a) of Act of 2010 - power of entry

9. Section 7(a) of the Act of 2010 is amended by substituting “section 9(2), 9(2A) or 10(4) ” for “section 9(2) or 10(4)”.

Amendment of section 9 of Act of 2010 - obligation to provide preliminary oral fluid specimen

10. Section 9 (as inserted by section 7 of the Road Traffic \(No. 2\) Act 2011) of the Act of 2010 is amended—

(a) in subsection (1)(a) by substituting “an intoxicant” for “intoxicating liquor”,

(b) by substituting for subsection 2(b) the following:

“(b) to accompany him or her, or another member of the Garda Síochána, to a place (including a vehicle) at or in the vicinity of the public place concerned and there to provide, by exhaling into such an apparatus, a specimen of his or her breath in the manner indicated by him or her or that other member, or”,

(c) by inserting after subsection (2) the following:

“(2A) A member of the Garda Síochána may require a person referred to in subsection (1) —

- (a) to provide a specimen of oral fluid from his or her mouth, using an apparatus for indicating the presence of drugs in oral fluid, in the manner indicated by the member,
- (b) to accompany him or her, or another member of the Garda Síochána, to a place (including a vehicle) at or in the vicinity of the public place concerned and there to provide a specimen of oral fluid from his or her mouth, using an apparatus for indicating the presence of drugs in oral fluid, in the manner indicated by him or her or that other member, or
- (c) where the member does not have such an apparatus with him or her, to remain at that place in his or her presence or in the presence of another member of the Garda Síochána (for a period that does not exceed one hour) until such an apparatus becomes available to him or her and then to provide a specimen of oral fluid from his or her mouth, using an apparatus for indicating the presence of drugs in oral fluid, in the manner indicated by him or her or that other member.

(2B) Where a member of the Garda Síochána makes a requirement under subsection (2A), the member may request the person of whom the requirement is made to produce for inspection any medical certificate of exemption referred to in section 4(1B) or 5(1B) which he or she holds.”,

(d) by inserting after subsection (5) the following:

“(5A) In a prosecution for an offence under section 4 or 5 it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that an apparatus provided by a member of the Garda Síochána for the purpose of enabling a person to provide an oral fluid specimen under this section is an apparatus for indicating the presence of drugs in oral fluid.”.

Mandatory intoxicant testing

11. The Act of 2010 is amended by substituting for section 10 the following:

“10. (1) In this section—

‘authorisation’ means an authorisation under subsection (2) to establish a checkpoint;

‘checkpoint’ means a checkpoint established under an authorisation.

(2) A member of the Garda Síochána, not below the rank of inspector, may, for the purposes of section 4 authorise the establishment of a checkpoint or checkpoints in a public place or places at which members of the Garda Síochána may exercise the powers under subsection (4).

(3) An authorisation shall be in writing and shall specify—

- (a) the date on which, and the public place in which, the checkpoint is to be established, and

- (b) the hours at any time between which it may be operated.
- (4) A member of the Garda Síochána, who is on duty at a checkpoint, may stop any vehicle at the checkpoint and, without prejudice to any other powers (including the functions under section 9) conferred on him or her by statute or at common law, may require a person in charge of the vehicle to do one or more of the following:
- (a) to provide a specimen of his or her breath (by exhaling into an apparatus for indicating the presence of alcohol in the breath) in the manner indicated by the member;
 - (b) to provide a specimen of his or her oral fluid (by collecting a specimen of oral fluid from his or her mouth using an apparatus for indicating the presence of drugs in oral fluid) in the manner indicated by the member;
 - (c) to accompany him or her or another member of the Garda Síochána to a place (including a vehicle) at or in the vicinity of the checkpoint and there to provide a specimen of his or her breath, as specified in paragraph (a), a specimen of his or her oral fluid, as specified in paragraph (b), or both, in the manner indicated by him or her or that other member;
 - (d) to—
 - (i) leave the vehicle at the place where it has been stopped, or
 - (ii) move it to a place in the vicinity of the checkpoint,and to keep or leave it there until the person has complied with a requirement made of him or her under any of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c).
- (5) A member of the Garda Síochána for the purposes of making a requirement of a person under subsection (4) may indicate the manner in which the person must comply with the requirement.
- (6) A person who—
- (a) refuses or fails to comply immediately with a requirement under subsection (4) (other than subsection (4)(d)(ii)) or such a requirement in a manner indicated by a member of the Garda Síochána under subsection (5), or
 - (b) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to comply immediately with a requirement under subsection (4)(d)(ii) or such a requirement in a manner indicated by a member of the Garda Síochána under subsection (5),
- commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a class A fine or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.
- (7) A member of the Garda Síochána may arrest without warrant a person who in the member's opinion is committing or has committed an offence under this section.
- (8) Where a member of the Garda Síochána requires a person to provide a specimen of oral fluid under this section, the member may request the person of whom the requirement is made to produce for inspection any medical exemption certificate referred to in section 4(1B) or 5(1B) which he or she holds.

- (9) In a prosecution for an offence under section 4 it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that an apparatus provided by a member of the Garda Síochána for the purpose of enabling a person to provide a specimen of breath under this section is an apparatus for indicating the presence of alcohol in the breath.
- (10) In a prosecution for an offence under section 4 it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that an apparatus provided by a member of the Garda Síochána for the purpose of enabling a person to provide an oral fluid specimen under this section is an apparatus for indicating the presence of drugs in oral fluid.
- (11) An authorisation or a copy expressing itself to be such authorisation shall, until the contrary is shown, be sufficient evidence in any proceedings under the Road Traffic Acts 1961 to 2016 of the facts stated in it, without proof of any signature on it or that the signatory was a person entitled under subsection (2) to sign it.”.

Impairment testing

12. The Act of 2010 is amended by substituting the following for section 11:

“11. (1) Where a member of the Garda Síochána is of the opinion that a person driving or attempting to drive a mechanically propelled vehicle, or in charge of a mechanically propelled vehicle with intent to drive or attempt to drive, in a public place is under the influence of an intoxicant, he or she may require the person to accompany him or her, or another member of the Garda Síochána, to a place at, or in the vicinity of, the public place concerned and there to perform tests (‘impairment tests’), in accordance with regulations made under this section, in his or her presence or in the presence of another member and in the manner indicated by him or her, or that other member, for the purpose of assessing whether or not the person’s ability to drive is impaired.

(2) Where a person is arrested under—

(a) section 4(8), 5(10), 9(4), or 10(7) of this Act, or

(b) section 52(3), 53(5), 106(3A) or 112(6) of the Principal Act, having driven, attempted to drive, or been in charge of a mechanically propelled vehicle, a member of the Garda Síochána may, within 3 hours after the person so driving, attempting to drive or being in charge of the vehicle, at a Garda Síochána station, require the person to perform impairment tests in accordance with regulations made under this section for the purpose of assessing whether or not the person’s ability to drive is impaired.

(3) Evidence obtained under subsection (1) or (2) that a person’s ability to drive is impaired shall be evidence for the purposes of sections 4 and 5 that the person is incapable of having proper control of a mechanically propelled vehicle.

- (4) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) the Minister may prescribe—
 - (a) the kinds of impairment tests that may be required to be performed,
 - (b) the manner in which such a test may be administered,
 - (c) instructions to be given to a person performing such a test,
 - (d) the kind of observation of physical state that may be made in the course of such a test,
 - (e) the inferences that may be drawn from observations made in the course of such a test, and
 - (f) a form on which the observations made and inferences drawn in the course of such a test may be recorded and by which impairment may be assessed.
- (5) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a class A fine or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to both.
- (6) A member of the Garda Síochána may arrest without warrant a person who in the member's opinion is committing or has committed an offence under this section consisting of failing to comply with a requirement under subsection (1).
- (7) Section 1(1) of the Probation of Offenders Act 1907 does not apply to an offence under this section.”.

Amendment of Act of 2010 - obligation to provide specimens in relation to certain offences involving drugs

13. The Act of 2010 is amended by inserting after section 13 the following:

“Obligation to provide oral fluid specimen following arrest under Part 2

- 13A. (1) Where a person is arrested under section 4(8), 5(10), 9(4), 10(7) or 11(5) of this Act or section 52(3), 53(5), 106(3A) or 112(6) of the Principal Act and a member of the Garda Síochána is of the opinion that the person had, at the time of the alleged offence, consumed drugs the member may, at a Garda Síochána station or hospital, require the person to provide a specimen of oral fluid from his or her mouth, using an apparatus for indicating the presence of drugs in oral fluid, in the manner indicated by the member.
- (2) A person who refuses or fails to comply immediately with a requirement of a member of the Garda Síochána under this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a class A fine or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.
- (3) In a prosecution for an offence under this Part it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that an apparatus provided by a member of the Garda Síochána for the purpose of enabling a person to provide an oral fluid specimen under this section is an apparatus for indicating the presence of drugs in oral fluid.

- (4) Section 1(1) of the Probation of Offenders Act 1907 does not apply to an offence under this section.

Obligation to provide blood specimen where suspected of certain offences involving drugs

13B. (1) Where a person is arrested under section 4(8), 5(10), 9(4), 10(7) or 11(5) of this Act or section 52(3), 53(5), 106(3A) or 112(6) of the Principal Act and a member of the Garda Síochána, having carried out—

- (a) a preliminary oral fluid test under section 9(2A) or 10(4),

 - (i) is the notification referred to in Article 3 of the Agreement of the driving disqualification concerned or a document referred to, or containing the information referred to, in Article 6 of the Agreement, and
 - (ii) was received by the licensing authority from a competent authority of the United Kingdom in accordance with Article 6 of the Agreement,shall be admissible as evidence of, as the case may be, the notification, the document or the information so referred to.
- (b) A document purporting to be a certificate under paragraph (a) shall be deemed to be such a certificate and to have been signed by the person purporting to have signed it and to have been so signed in accordance with an authorisation of the chief executive of the licensing authority until the contrary is shown.
- (4) The period of disqualification for holding a licence to which a person is subjected pursuant to subsection (2) shall not—
 - (a) exceed the maximum period of disqualification for holding a licence which could be ordered by a court following conviction in the State for an offence consisting of the conduct to which the specified offence concerned relates,
 - (b) exceed the period of disqualification imposed in the United Kingdom, or
 - (c) extend in time beyond the date of the expiration of the disqualification in the United Kingdom.
- (5) So much of a period of disqualification referred to in subsection (1) as has been served in the United Kingdom shall be deducted from any period of disqualification under subsection (2).

- (6) An order shall not be made under subsection (2) if—
- (a) the full period of the driving disqualification has been served in the United Kingdom,
 - (b) the person concerned has been disqualified under Part III of the Principal Act or the Road Traffic Act 2002 for holding a licence in respect of the conduct constituting the specified offence to which the application under subsection (2) relates and the period of the disqualification is current or has expired,
 - (c) the period of time between the commission of the specified offence concerned and the institution of the proceedings in respect of it that led to the disqualification referred to in subsection (1) was longer than the period within which proceedings in respect of the conduct would be required by law to be instituted in the State, or
 - (d) in the circumstances of the case and having considered any information and evidence referred to in Article 6 of the Agreement, the appropriate judge considers that the person concerned has not had an adequate opportunity to defend himself or herself in the proceedings.
- (7) The appropriate judge may refuse to make an order under subsection (2) if—
- (a) the conduct for which the driving disqualification referred to in subsection (1) was imposed—
 - (i) does not constitute an offence under the law of the State, or
 - (ii) does not constitute an offence under the law of the State for which disqualification for holding a licence may be ordered by a court,or
 - (b) a period of less than 3 months of the driving disqualification referred to in subsection (1) remains unexpired on the date on which the order falls to be made or the driving disqualification is for a period of less than 3 months.
- (8) When the appropriate judge makes or refuses to make an order under subsection (2), the Courts Service shall notify the licensing authority and the licensing authority shall cause the central authority of the United Kingdom to be notified thereof.
- (9) Where, by reason of the commission, after the entry into force of the Agreement, of a specified offence in the State by a person whose normal residence on the date of the offence is the United Kingdom or who is the holder of a United Kingdom driving licence (including a provisional licence) a driving disqualification is imposed in the State on the person—
- (a) the Courts Service shall—
 - (i) notify the licensing authority of the driving disqualification as soon as may be, and
 - (ii) comply with any request of the licensing authority for further details or information relating to the person, the offence, the driving disqualification or otherwise required for the purpose of the Agreement,
 - (b) upon receipt by the licensing authority of the notification under paragraph (a) the licensing authority shall, subject to paragraph (a), without delay notify the central authority of the United Kingdom of the driving disqualification, and

(c) the licensing authority shall—

(i) ensure that Article 6 of the Agreement is complied with in relation to the notification and may do, or cause to be done, all things necessary for that purpose, including certification and attestation of any document,

(ii) if necessary, request the Courts Service to provide such further details or information as the licensing authority considers necessary for the purposes of its functions under this subsection and the Agreement, and

(iii) without delay notify the central authority of the United Kingdom of any such details or information.

(10) The licensing authority is the competent authority of the State and the central authority of the State for the purposes of the Agreement.

(11) Judicial notice shall be taken of the Agreement.

(12) (a) In this section—

“Agreement” means the Agreement on the Mutual Recognition of Driving Disqualifications between the State and the United Kingdom done at Dublin on the 30 October 2015, the text of which is, for convenience of reference, set out in the Schedule;

“appropriate judge” means the judge of the District Court for the time being assigned to the District Court district—

(i) where the person the subject of the application concerned under subsection (2) ordinarily resides or carries on any profession, business or occupation, or

(ii) in which the address which appears on the Irish driving licence or learner permit held by the person the subject of the application concerned under subsection (2) is located;

“normal residence” has the meaning given to it by Article 12 of Directive 2006/126/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 December 2006¹

“provisional licence” means a provisional licence issued in Great Britain or Northern Ireland;

“specified offence” means an offence arising from conduct referred to in the Annex to the Agreement;

“United Kingdom” means the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

(b) A word or expression that is used in this section and is also used in the Agreement has in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, the same meaning as it has in the Agreement.

Repeal of section 9 of, and Schedule 2 to, Road Traffic Act 2002

- 41. Section 9 (as amended by section 52 of the Road Safety Authority \(Commercial Vehicle Roadworthiness\) Act 2012) of, and the Second Schedule to, the Road Traffic Act 2002 are repealed.

SCHEDULE

Agreement on the Mutual Recognition of Driving Disqualifications Between Ireland and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

Section 40

The Government of Ireland and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland;

Desiring to operate bi-lateral arrangements between them on the reciprocal recognition of driving disqualifications,

Have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1

The Contracting States agree to cooperate in accordance with their national laws in order to mutually recognise driving disqualifications.

ARTICLE 2

For the purposes of this Agreement:

- (a) “Central authority” and “competent authority” mean the authorities designated as such for the purpose of the Agreement by the State in question and as notified to the other Contracting State;
- (b) “driving disqualification” means any measure related to the commission of a road traffic offence which results in withdrawal or suspension of a right to drive a power driven vehicle and which is no longer subject to a right of appeal;
- (c) “normal residence” has the meaning given by Article 12 of Directive 2006/126/EC;
- (d) “power driven vehicle” has the meaning given by Article 4.1 of Directive 2006/126/EC;
- (e) “Relevant State” means:
 - i) Ireland where the road traffic offence is committed in the UK and the offender has normal residence in Ireland or the offender does not have normal residence in Ireland but holds an Ireland driving licence (including a learner permit); or
 - ii) the UK where the road traffic offence is committed in Ireland and the offender has normal residence in the UK or the offender does not have normal residence in the UK but holds a Great Britain or Northern Ireland licence (including a provisional licence);
- (f) “State of the offence” means the Contracting State within the territory of which the road traffic offence occurred; and
- (g) “UK” means United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

ARTICLE 3

A competent authority of the State of the offence shall notify a driving disqualification imposed by a court in its territory for an offence arising from conduct referred to in the Annex to the Central authority of the Relevant State.

ARTICLE 4

1. After notification of its Central authority in accordance with Article 3 the Relevant State shall give effect to the decision imposing disqualification from driving made in the State of the offence in accordance with the conditions laid down in clause 2.

2. The Relevant State:

- (a) shall take into account any part of the period of the driving disqualification imposed by the State of the offence which has already been served in that State;
- (b) may reduce the duration of the driving disqualification but only to the maximum term provided for acts of the same kind under its national law;
- (c) shall not extend the duration of the driving disqualification imposed by the State of the offence; and
- (d) shall not impose the disqualification beyond the date of the expiration of the disqualification in the State of the offence.

3. When giving effect to a driving disqualification under this Article, the Relevant State shall, where necessary, determine a date from which it will enforce the driving disqualification.

ARTICLE 5

1. The Relevant State shall refuse to give effect to the driving disqualification where:

- (a) the driving disqualification has already been fully served in the State of the offence;
- (b) the offender has already had a driving disqualification imposed on him in the Relevant State for the same acts and that disqualification has been or is being served;
- (c) the period of limitation for prosecuting the offence would have expired under its own legislation; or
- (d) in the circumstances of the particular case, after receiving any information supplied under Article 6, it considers that the person concerned has not had an adequate opportunity to defend himself.

2. The Relevant State may refuse to give effect to the driving disqualification if:

- a) the conduct for which the driving disqualification has been imposed in the State of the offence does not constitute an offence under the law of the Relevant State;
- b) the remaining period of disqualification which could be enforced in the Relevant State is less than three months; or
- c) driving disqualification is not a measure available under the legislation of the Relevant State for the acts giving rise to the driving disqualification imposed by the State of the offence.

ARTICLE 6

1. The notification referred to in Article 3 shall be accompanied by:

- a) details allowing the Relevant State to locate the person disqualified from driving;
- b) the original or a certified copy of the decision imposing a driving disqualification;
- c) a brief statement of the circumstances and a reference to the legal provisions in the State of the offence on the basis of which the driving disqualification was imposed, if these are not given in the decision;
- d) an attestation that the decision is final;
- e) information regarding the enforcement of the driving disqualification in the State of the offence, including the length of the disqualification and, where known, the dates on which the disqualification starts and expires;
- f) the driving licence, if it has been seized; and
- g) the name, address and date of birth of the offender.

2. Where the person on whom the driving disqualification has been imposed did not appear personally or was not represented at the proceedings, notifications pursuant to Article 3 must be accompanied by evidence that the person has been duly notified of the proceedings in accordance with the law of the State of the offence.

3. If the information communicated in accordance with clauses 1 and 2 is found to be insufficient to allow a decision to give effect to the driving disqualification to be taken, in particular, where in the circumstances of the particular case, there is doubt whether the person concerned has had an adequate opportunity to defend himself, the competent authorities of the Relevant State may request the competent authorities of the State of the offence to provide the necessary supplementary information without delay.

ARTICLE 7

The Relevant State shall inform the State of the offence of any decision taken in respect of a notification given pursuant to Article 3 and in respect of enforcement, and where it refuses to give effect to a driving disqualification pursuant to Article 5, of the reasons for its refusal.

ARTICLE 8

1. The right of the State of the offence to execute in its territory the full period of the driving disqualification determined by the State of the offence shall not be affected by any decision of the Relevant State.

2. When notifying the person concerned of the decision to disqualify, the State of the offence which proposes to apply clause 1 shall at the same time inform the person of this fact, and shall confirm in the notification given in accordance with Article 3 to the Relevant State that it has done so.

ARTICLE 9

Each Contracting State shall adopt the measures necessary to enable it to prohibit the driving of a power driven vehicle in its territory when the driver is disqualified from driving by the Relevant State in implementation of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 10

Costs incurred in implementing this Agreement shall be borne in the Contracting State in which they occur.

ARTICLE 11

Unless requested to do so earlier the Contracting States shall review the implementation of this Agreement 2 years after entry into force of this Agreement, and at any other time both Contracting States otherwise agree to do so.

ARTICLE 12

Any dispute arising from or relating to this Agreement shall be settled through negotiation between the Contracting States.

ARTICLE 13

1. This Agreement shall apply:

- a) to Ireland; and
- b) in relation to the United Kingdom to Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

2. References to the territory of a Contracting State shall be construed in accordance with clause 1 of this Article.

ARTICLE 14

1. The Parties shall notify each other in writing when their necessary internal procedures for entry into force have been completed. The Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the later of such notifications, and shall continue in force until terminated.

2. Either of the Contracting States may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving notice to the other through the diplomatic channel; and if such notice is given the Agreement shall cease to have effect six months after the receipt of the notice.

3. This Agreement shall only apply to offences committed after the entry into force of the Agreement.

In witness whereof the undersigned, duly authorised thereto by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.

Done in Duplicate at Dublin this 30th day of October 2015.
