The 2006 provision contains a saver in s. 25(6) for regulations made under the repealed section; the former does not. However, given the continuing power to make regulations contained in the 1991 amendment, and the other enabling provisions, the SI appears to remain in force. Health Act 1970, s. 6 was repealed by Health Act 2004 (42/2004), s. 73(1), commenced by S.I. No. 887 of 2004, with a saver for regulations in s. 73(3).

[52] The enabling provisions are Health Act 1947 (28/1947), s. 5 (Regulations) and Health Act 1970 (1/1970), ss. 52 (Provision of in-patient services), 56 (Out-patient services), 59 (Drugs, medicines and appliances). Sections 5 and 52 remain in force. The amended s. 56 continues to contain a regulation-making power in subs. (5). Section 59 was substituted by Health (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2001 (14/2001), s. 1(1)(b), with a regulation-making power continued and with a saver for existing regulations in subs. (2), but this was not commenced before being repealed. Section 59 has been most recently amended by Health (Pricing and Supply of Medical Goods) Act 2013 (14/2013), s. 30. The SI therefore appears to remain in force.

[53] The enabling provisions are Health Act 1947 (28/1947), s. 5 (Regulations) and Health Act 1970 (1/1970), ss. 59 (Drugs, medicines and appliances) and 72 (Regulations). These provisions remain in effect, as therefore does the SI.

[112] This Act established the health boards and abolished the Health Authorities for Dublin, Cork, Limerick and Waterford. Many of the SIs carried forward under s. 73(3) are therefore likely to be obsolete, and if so, should be revoked.

[113] The enabling provisions are Mental Treatment Act 1945 (19/1945), ss. 8 (Regulations) and 40 (General regulations in relation to institutions maintained by mental hospital authorities). In accordance with Health Authorities Act 1960 (9/1960), s. 29(4), regulations made under Mental Treatment Act 1945, s. 40 are to be treated as if made under Health Act 1953 (26/1953), s. 8, now repealed. In accordance with Health Act 1970 (1/1970), s. 72(3), regulations made under the Health Act 1953 are to be treated as if made under the 1970 Act. This SI appears now be enabled by the 1970 Act.

[114] The enabling provisions, Health Act 1953, ss. 45 (Joint action by health authorities) and 46 (Balrothery and Rathdown Boards of Assistance), were repealed by Health Act 1970 (1/1970), s. 3, with a saver for regulations made under in the 1953 Act in s. 72:
(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, regulations made under the Health Act, 1953 shall continue in operation and shall be deemed to have been made under this Act and to be capable of amendment or revocation accordingly.

[152] Rendered obsolete by revocation of S.I. No. 142 of 1963 by S.I. No. 160 of 1973.

[153] The enabling provision, Health Act 1953, s. 51(2) (Dispensary districts), was repealed by Health Act 1970 (1/1970), s. 3, with a saver for regulations made under in the 1953 Act in s. 72(3) (above).

[154] This SI appears to be obsolete and should be revoked. It relates to references in the Mental Treatment Acts 1945 to 1966 to "district mental hospitals", "mental hospital authority", "mental health district", "appropriate assistance officer" and amendments to the Mental Treatment Acts, 1945 and 1953. The 2001 Mental Health Act 2001 (25/2001) repealed the 1945 Act other that Part VIII and sections 241, 276, 283 and 284, and the 1953 Act. In addition, the 2001 Act established the Mental Health Commission and also provided a definition for an "approved centre".

[155] The enabling provisions are Health Act 1970 (1/1970), ss. 23(5) (Removal of officers and servants) and 24(3), (8) and (10) (Committees for certain removals). Section 23(5) remains in force. Section 24 is repealed by Health Act 2004 (42/2004), s. 73(1), commenced by S.I. No. 887 of 2004. There is a saver for regulations in s. 73: (3) Each order, regulation and rule that was made under a provision of an enactment repealed or revoked by this Act and that was in force immediately before such repeal or revocation continues in force under the corresponding provision, if any, of this Act, subject to such adaptations and modifications as the Minister may, by regulation, make for the purpose of bringing any such order, regulation or rule into conformity with this Act.

[156] The first enabling provision is Health Act 1953 (26/1953), s. 45 (Joint action by health authorities), repealed by the Health Act 1970 (1/1970), s. 3, subject to regulations being carried forward by s. 72(3). The second enabling provision is Health Act 1970 (1/1970), s. 35 (Dissolutions of joint boards under section 45 of Health Act, 1953), which was repealed by Health Act 2004 (42/2004), s. 73(1), subject regulations being carried forward by s. 73(3) (above). This SI is now probably obsolete and could be revoked.

[157] The enabling provisions appear to be Health Act 1970 (1/1970), ss. 41(1)(a) and (2)(a) (Acquisition of land for voluntary bodies). The latter provision was repealed by Health (Amendment) (No. 3) Act 1996 (32/1996), s. 23(1), repeal commenced on enactment. Subsection (1) was repealed by Health Act 2004 (42/2004), s. 3(2) and sch. 4, subject to continuation in force of regulations by s. 73(1). Health (Amendment) (No. 3) Act 1996 (32/1996), s. 16 provides for the dissolution of the Dublin, Cork and Galway Regional Hospital Boards established under s. 41 of the 1970 Act, so it is likely that this SI is obsolete and should be revoked.

[158] The enabling provisions are Health Act 1970 (1/1970), ss. 23(5) (Removal of officers and servants) and 24(3), (8) and (10) (Committees for certain removals). Section 24 is repealed by Health Act 2004 (42/2004), s. 73(1), commenced by S.I. No. 887 of 2004, subject to continuation in force of regulations by s. 73(3). This SI concerned the removal of officers of health boards and is listed as obsolete by the Department.

[160] The enabling provisions appear to be Health Act 1970 (1/1970), ss. 41(1)(a) and (2)(a) (Acquisition of land for voluntary bodies). The latter provision was repealed by Health (Amendment) (No. 3) Act 1996 (32/1996), s. 23(1), repeal commenced on enactment. Subsection (1) was repealed by Health Act 2004 (42/2004), s. 3(2) and sch. 4, subject to continuation in force of regulations by s. 73(1). Health (Amendment) (No. 3) Act 1996 (32/1996), s. 16 provides for the dissolution of the Dublin, Cork and Galway Regional Hospital Boards established under s. 41 of the 1970 Act, so it is likely that this SI is obsolete and should be revoked.

[163] Rendered obsolete by repeal of 1/1970 by 7/1996.

[164] The enabling provision is Health Act 1970 (1/1970), s. 11 (Joint action by health boards). This was repealed by Health Act 2004 (42/2004), s. 73, commenced by S.I. No. 887 of 2004. There is provision for existing regulations to continue in force under corresponding provisions in s. 73(3). However, the Board established by this SI was dissolved by Health Act 2004, ss. 56 and 58, so this SI is obsolete and should be revoked.

[241] The Irish Medicines Board was renamed the Health Products Regulatory Authority by Irish Medicines Board Act 1995 (29/1995), s. 3(4), as inserted by Health (Pricing and Supply of Medical Goods) Act 2013 (14/2013), s. 36.

[242] Public Exp (in part): see S.I. No. 418 of 2011

[243] The Animal Remedies Act 1993 (Section 32(1)(b)) (Commencement) Order 2001 (S.I. No. 468 of 2001) provided for the commencement on 20 September 2001 of s. 32(1)(b) of the 1993 Act (which provides for the repeal of the Therapeutic Substances Act 1932 (25/1932) "on such day as may be fixed therefor by order of the Minister for Health after consultation with the Minister [for Agriculture]"). The European Communities (Therapeutic Substances Act 1932) (Cesser of Application) Regulations 1992 (S.I. No. 406 of 1992), made by the Minister for Health under the European Communities Act 1972, provided that the Therapeutic Substances Act 1932 (25/1932) ceased to apply to therapeutic substances for human use with effect from 1 January 1993. The Explanatory Note to the 1992 Regulations stated that the substances concerned were already controlled under the Medical Preparations (Licensing, Advertising and Sale) Regulations 1984 (S.I. No. 210 of 1984) for the purpose of EU Directives on immunological medicinal products (89/342/EEC) and on medicinal products derived from human blood or human plasma (89/381/EEC). The definition of "animal remedies authorisation" in reg. 2(1) of the European Communities (Animal Remedies) (No. 2) Regulations 2007 (S.I. No. 786 of 2007) includes "(b) a licence granted under the Therapeutic Substances Act 1932 (No. 25 of 1932) in respect of an animal remedy named on the licence."

[244] The enabling provisions are Health Act 1947 (28/1947), ss. 5 and 65. Section 5 is still in force and is a general enabling provision. Section 65 was repealed by Irish Medicines Board Act 1995 (29/1995), s. 34, commenced by S.I. No. 345 of 1995, subject to a saver in s. 34: (4) Regulations under the said section 65 in force immediately before the commencement of this section shall continue in force after such commencement and may be amended or revoked, as if made under section 32. However, this SI amends S.I. No. 244 of 1969 which was revoked by S.I. No. 99 of 2007; it is therefore obsolete and should be revoked.

[245] Rendered obsolete by revocation of S.I. No. 261 of 1966 by S.I. No. 18 of 1987.

[246] The enabling provisions are Health Act 1947 (28/1947), ss. 5 and 65. Section 5 is still in force and is a general enabling provision. Section 65 was repealed by Irish Medicines Board Act 1995 (29/1995), s. 34, commenced by S.I. No. 345 of 1995, subject to a saver in s. 34(4). However, this SI amends the fee provisions contained in S.I. No. 225 of 1974, revoked by S.I. No. 40 of 1990, and S.I. No. 333 of 1974, revoked by S.I. No. 39 of 1993. The SI is therefore obsolete and should be revoked.

[253] Ibid.

[254] The enabling provisions are Health Act 1947 (28/1947), ss. 5 and 65. Section 5 is still in force and is a general enabling provision. Section 65 was repealed by Irish Medicines Board Act 1995 (29/1995), s. 34, commenced by S.I. No. 345 of 1995, subject to a saver in s. 34(4). However, this SI amends the fee provisions contained in S.I. No. 333 of 1974 which was revoked by S.I. No. 39 of 1993. The SI is therefore obsolete and should be revoked.

[255] The enabling provisions are Health Act 1947 (28/1947), ss. 5 (Regulations) and 65 (Control of advertisement or sale of medical and toilet preparations). Section 5 is still in force and is a general enabling provision. Section 65 was repealed by Irish Medicines Board Act 1995 (29/1995), s. 34, commenced by S.I. No. 345 of 1995, subject to a saver in s. 34(4). However, this SI amends S.I. No. 71 of 1993 which was revoked by S.I. No. 540 of 2007. The SI is therefore obsolete and should be revoked.

[256] This SI amends S.I. No. 39 of 1993 which was revoked by S.I. No. 538 of 2007. The SI is therefore obsolete and should be revoked.

[257] The enabling provision is Irish Medicines Board Act 1995 (29/1995), s. 4(4) (Functions of board). This was substituted by Irish Medicines Board (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2006 (3/2006), s. 11, commenced by S.I. No. 543 of 2007. The substitution completely changes the subsection and there does not appear to be a saver provision, so that the order appears to have ceased to have effect due to deletion of its enabling provision. Further, this Order confers on the IMB "competent authority" status for the purposes of Directive 65/65/EEC. That Directive has since been replaced and s. 4(1)(b) of the 1995 Act (as amended by the 2006 Act) confers the competent authority role on the IMB under the new EU Pharmaceutical acquis, being Directive 2001/83/EC. Therefore the need for this order appears to have passed and it should be revoked.

[258] The enabling provisions are Irish Medicines Board Act 1995 (29/1995), ss. 32 (Regulations) and 34 (Repeal and transitional provisions). Section 34 remains in force. Section 32 has been amended by Irish Medicines Board (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2006 (3/2006), s. 16. The SI appears to remain in force. However, it replaces terms in a number of SIs which have since been revoked: S.I Nos. 76 of 1993 and 308 of 1996 (both revoked by S.I. No. 541 of 2007); S.I. Nos. 71 of 1993 (revoked by S.I. No. 540 of 2007) and 440 of 1994 (amending S.I. No. 71 of 1993 and therefore obsolete/spent on its revocation); S.I. Nos. 39 of 1993 (revoked by S.I. No. 538 of 2007) and 41 of 1996 (amending S.I. No. 39 of 1993 and therefore obsolete/spent on its revocation); and S.I. Nos. 40 and 68 of 1993 and 42 of 1996 (revoked by S.I. No. 539 of 2007). It is therefore obsolete and should be revoked.

[259] The enabling provision is Irish Medicines Board Act, 1995 (29/1995), s. 32 (Regulations), as amended by Irish Medicines Board (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2006 (3/2006), s. 16. The SI appears to remain in force.

[283] Public Exp (in part): see S.I. No. 418 of 2011.

[284] This SI prescribes a time period for the continuance of certain approvals that has now expired, is obsolete and should be revoked.

[285] Part VIII, and ss. 241, 276, 283 and 284 of the 1945 Act are retained by the Mental Health Act 2001.

[286] The enabling provisions are Mental Treatment Act 1945 (19/1945), ss. 8, 65(4)(c), 96(7), 97(7), 109A, 110, 129, 132, 151, 153, 161. This Act including these provisions was mostly repealed by Mental Health Act 2001 (25/2001), s. 6, commenced by S.I. No. 411 of 2006. The remaining sections are Part VIII (ss. 63-93), 241, 276, 283, 284 and s. 94 which only survives for a certain purpose. As the enabling provisions are no longer in effect (other than s. 65(4)(c) which relates to registration of officials' names), it appears that the SI or most of it may have ceased to have effect and should be revoked. Mental Health Act 2001 (Approved Centres) Regulations 2006 (S.I. No. 551 of 2006) deal with some of the same issues in relation to registration and records.
