PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS OF PRINCIPAL ACT

Amendment of section 31 of Principal Act.

34.—Section 31 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the addition thereto of the following subsection:

"(10) Regulations under this section may, in particular, require the vaccination against smallpox of persons engaged in work at or about airports or seaports, and—

(a) the obligation to contain the provision referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (7) of this section shall not apply as respects such regulations, and

(b) section 32 of this Act shall not apply in relation to such vaccination."

Amendment of section 38 of Principal Act.

35.—An order made after the commencement of this section under subsection (1) of section 38 of the Principal Act shall have no effect unless, in addition to being signed by the chief medical officer, it is also signed by another registered medical practitioner.

Annotations

Modifications (not altering text):

C2 Reference to "registered medical practitioner" construed (3.07.2008) by Medical Practitioners Act 2007 (25/2007), s. 108(1), S.I. No. 231 of 2008.

108.— (1) Every reference to a registered medical practitioner contained in any enactment or any statutory instrument shall be construed as a reference to a registered medical practitioner within the meaning of section 2.

Amendment of section 44 of Principal Act.

36.—(1) Section 44 of the Principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of "or a disease suspected to be an infectious disease by the chief medical officer of the health authority in whose functional area such person ordinarily resides" after "infectious disease".

(2) F30[...]

(3) Sections 28 and 33 of this Act shall apply in relation to the service made available under section 44 of the Principal Act in like manner as they apply in relation to the services made available under Part III of this Act.

Annotations

Amendments:

F30 Repealed (9.10.2010) by Health (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2010 (18/2010), s. 3(1), commenced on enactment.

Amendment of section 48 of Principal Act.

37.—Subsection (1) of section 48 of the Principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution of the words "medical officer of health" for the words "district medical officer" in both places where the latter words occur, and

(b) by the substitution of the words "the area or district for which he acts" for the words "his district".

Regulations under Part V of Principal Act.

38.—(1) Regulations under Part V of the Principal Act may provide for all or any of the following matters:

(a) the licensing or registration of—

(i) persons engaged in the manufacture, preparation, importation, storage, distribution or sale of food for human consumption,

(ii) premises, vehicles or stalls in or at which food is manufactured, prepared, stored, distributed or exposed for sale for human consumption,

(b) the description of premises, vehicles or stalls so licensed or registered,

(c) the prohibition of the manufacture, preparation, importation, storage, distribution, exposure for sale or sale of food otherwise than by licensed or registered persons or in or at licensed or registered premises, vehicles or stalls (as the case may be),

(d) the cancellation or suspension of licences or registrations,

(e) matters ancillary to the foregoing matters.

(2) Where regulations under Part V of the Principal Act include, by virtue of subsection (1) of this section, provision for the keeping of registers by health authorities—

(a) any register kept pursuant to the regulations by a health authority shall be deemed to be in proper custody when in the custody of an officer of the health authority authorised in that behalf by the health authority and shall be admissible in evidence without further proof, on production from the proper custody,

(b) prima facie evidence of any entry in any register kept pursuant to the regulations by a health authority may be given in any Court or any legal proceedings by the production of a copy of such entry purporting to be certified to be a true copy by an officer of the health authority authorised in that behalf, and it shall not be necessary to prove the signature of such officer, or that he was in fact such officer or was so authorised,

(c) a certificate purporting to be under the hand of an officer of a health authority authorised in that behalf that a specified person, premises, vehicle or stall was not, during a specified period, registered in a specified register kept pursuant to the regulations by the health authority shall be accepted in any Court or any legal proceedings as prima facie evidence of the facts so certified, and it shall not be necessary to prove the signature of such officer, or that he was in fact such officer or was so authorised.

(3) Regulations under Part V of the Principal Act may provide for functions to be performed for the purposes of the regulations by Justices of the District Court or Peace Commissioners, being functions relating to any of the following matters:

(a) the making of orders in relation to the destruction or other disposal of food which is diseased, contaminated or otherwise unfit for human consumption,

(b) the reviewing of orders prohibiting the importation or the removal from the place of importation of articles of food or animals or materials intended for use in the manufacture of food,

(c) the annulment or confirmation of orders relating to the cancellation or suspension of licences or registrations or the prohibition of the user of premises, stalls or vehicles for any specified purpose,

(d) the direction of health authorities to license or register persons, premises, vehicles or stalls in specified circumstances.

(4) Where any repairs, structural alterations or additions to premises are required by any authority enforcing regulations under Part V of the Principal Act to comply with those regulations—

(a) the repairs, structural alterations or additions may be carried out notwithstanding any covenant, agreement or condition in any lease or other contract of tenancy under which the premises are held,

(b) before the repairs, structural alterations or additions are carried out, the person required to carry them out shall—

(i) if he is not the rated occupier of the premises, inform the rated occupier, and

(ii) if he holds the premises under a lease or other contract of tenancy, inform the immediate landlord or his agent.

(5) In sections 56 and 57 of the Principal Act, the word "food" shall be construed, in addition to referring to any individual food, as referring to any class whatsoever of food.

(6) This section and the repeal by section 5 of this Act of section 55 of the Principal Act shall be deemed to have come into operation on the day on which Part V of the Principal Act came into operation.

Shelter and maintenance in county home.

54.—(1) In this section "institutional assistance" means shelter and maintenance in a county home or similar institution.

(2) A person who is unable to provide shelter and maintenance for himself or his dependants shall, for the purposes of this section, be eligible for institutional assistance.

(3) It shall be the duty of a health authority, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this section and the regulations thereunder, to give to every person in their functional area who is eligible for institutional assistance such institutional assistance as appears to them to be necessary or proper in each particular case.

(4) The Minister may make regulations governing the giving of institutional assistance and such regulations may, in particular, provide for requiring persons to contribute in specified cases towards the cost of providing them with institutional assistance.

(5) Every person maintained by a health authority in a county home or similar institution who behaves in a disorderly manner in such home or institution, or causes unreasonable disturbance to other persons maintained in such home or institution or to persons employed therein, shall be guilty of an offence under this subsection and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twenty-one days.

(6) Where the Minister directs by order that a specified class of persons shall not be sheltered or maintained under this section by or on behalf of a health authority in a specified institution, the authority shall not (except in cases of urgent necessity) shelter or maintain, or arrange for the shelter or maintenance of, any persons of that class in that institution.

(7) (a) Where a person maintained by a health authority in a county home or similar institution does work on behalf of the authority, he shall be deemed, in relation to the doing of the work, to be for the purposes of the Workmen's Compensation Acts, 1934 to 1953, a workman in the employment of the authority, but, save as aforesaid, the doing of the work by such person shall not operate to create or imply the relation of master and servant or a contract of service between the authority and such person.

(b) In any proceedings under the Workmen's Compensation Acts, 1934 to 1953, brought by virtue of paragraph (a) of this subsection, the applicant shall be deemed to have worked for remuneration and the amount of the remuneration shall be estimated by the Court by reference to the value of the work.

Regulations as to filling materials.

58.—(1) The Minister may make regulations—

(a) prescribing a standard of cleanliness for filling material either generally or as respects a particular type of filling material,

(b) prohibiting the sale or keeping for sale, or use or keeping for use for the purpose of making bedding, cushions, articles of upholstery, toys or similar articles, of filling material which does not conform with the prescribed standard,

(c) prohibiting the sale or keeping for sale of any bedding, cushion, article of upholstery, toy or similar article containing filling material which does not conform with the prescribed standard.

(2) Regulations under this section—

(a) may provide for the enforcement and execution of the regulations by officers of the Minister, by health authorities and their officers and, with the consent of the Minister for Local Government, by officers of sanitary authorities,

(b) may provide for the empowering of specified persons (being authorised officers for the purpose of Part IX of the Principal Act) to seize and remove, and to detain and destroy or have otherwise suitably disposed of, filling material which does not conform with the prescribed standard,

(c) may provide for the giving and taking (without payment) of samples and the carrying out of tests, examinations and analyses of such samples,

(d) may prescribe the classes of persons to be responsible for the carrying out of tests, examinations and analyses of samples of filling material and the means by and the manner in which any such test, examination or analysis is to be made,

(e) may prescribe the certificate or other evidence to be given of the result of any such test, examination or analysis and the classes of persons by and to whom any such certificate or evidence is to be given,

(f) may provide that any certificate or other evidence prescribed under paragraph (e) of this subsection and given in respect of the test, examination or analysis of a sample shall as respects that sample be evidence for all purposes of the result of the test, examination or analysis,

(g) may provide for the licensing or registration of premises in which filling material is kept for sale or for use for the purpose of making bedding, cushions, articles of upholstery, toys or similar articles and for the prohibition of the keeping for sale or for the said use of filling material in premises which are not licensed or registered,

(h) may provide for conditions governing the grant, retention or renewal of licences or registrations,

(i) may provide for the imposition of charges in respect of the grant, retention or renewal of licences or registrations,

(j) may provide for the marking or labelling in a specified manner of bedding, cushions, articles of upholstery, toys or similar articles containing filling material,

(k) may provide for the keeping of records by persons engaged in the manufacture, preparation, importation, storage, distribution or sale of filling material or bedding, cushions, articles of upholstery, toys or similar articles containing filling material and for the production of such records for inspection by officers concerned in the enforcement or execution of the regulations.

(3) Where regulations made under subsection (1) of this section provide that any particular certificate or other evidence shall be evidence for all purposes of the result of a test, examination or analysis of a sample, such certificate or other evidence shall, as respects that sample, be accepted by all Courts of Justice as evidence of the result of such test, examination or analysis and shall also be accepted by all Courts of Justice as evidence that such test, examination or analysis was carried out under and in accordance with the regulations.

(4) Where a person is charged with having, in contravention of regulations made under this section, kept for sale any filling material or any bedding, cushion, article of upholstery, toy or similar article and it is shown that the material or article was in the possession of such person, the material or article shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been kept by him for sale.

(5) Where a person is charged with having, in contravention of regulations made under this section, kept any filling material for use for the purpose of making bedding, cushions, articles of upholstery, toys or similar articles and it is shown that the material was in the possession of such person, the material shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been kept by him for that use.

(6) If the defendant in any prosecution for an offence under this section proves—

(a) that he purchased—

(i) filling material as of a standard of cleanliness which would not have contravened any regulation under this section, or

(ii) an article as containing only filling material of such a standard and with a written warranty to that effect, and

(b) that he had no reason to believe at the time when he committed the offence with which he is charged that the filling material did not conform with the prescribed standard of cleanliness, and

(c) that at the said time the filling material was in the same state as when he purchased it, the defendant shall be discharged from the prosecution, but shall be liable to pay the costs incurred by the prosecutor unless he gave due notice to the prosecutor that he proposed to rely on the said defence.

(7) A statement by the manufacturer, importer or seller of any filling material or any bedding, cushion, article of upholstery, toy or similar article containing filling material which is a statement as to the standard of cleanliness of the filling material and which is in an invoice or on a label attached to the filling material or article or on the container in which the filling material is sold shall be deemed for the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (6) of this section to be a warranty.

(8) Where it appears to the authority or officer enforcing regulations made under this section that an offence has been committed in respect of which proceedings might be taken under this section against some person but that such person could establish a defence under subsection (6) of this section by proving that the offence complained of was due to an act or default of some other person, such authority or officer may take proceedings against that other person without taking proceedings against the first-mentioned person.

(9) A person who contravenes a regulation under this section or who wilfully obstructs the execution of a regulation under this section shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or, at the discretion of the Court, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(10) An offence under this section may be prosecuted by the health authority in whose functional area the offence is committed.

(11) In this section, the expression "filling material" includes—

(a) rag flock which is produced wholly or in part by tearing up woven, knitted, felted or spun material or other like articles whether new or old, and

(b) hair, fibre, down, feathers, wood shavings, sawdust, straw, and other similar materials, whether new or old, used in the making of bedding, cushions, articles of upholstery, toys, or similar articles, and

(c) linings, webbings and coverings (other than outer coverings) used in the making of bedding, cushions, articles of upholstery, toys or similar articles.

Control of use, etc., of radio-active substances and irradiating apparatus.

59.—(1) In this section—

the word "substance" means a natural or artificial substance, whether in solid or liquid form or in the form of a gas or vapour, including a preparation or manufactured article or article which has been subjected to any artificial treatment or process;

the expression "radio-active substance" means a substance which consists of or contains any radio-active chemical element, whether natural or artificial;

the expression "medical radio-active substance" means a radio-active substance which may be used as a prophylactic, diagnostic or therapeutic agent in the prevention or treatment of any human ailment, infirmity, injury or defect;

the expression "medical irradiating apparatus" means irradiating apparatus which may be used as a prophylactic, diagnostic or therapeutic agent in the prevention or treatment of any human ailment, infirmity, injury or defect.

(2) The Minister may make regulations for the control of the storage, use, exportation or other disposal of medical radio-active substances generally or of any particular medical radio-active substance.

(3) The Minister may make regulations for the control of the manufacture, importation, distribution, sale, offering or keeping for sale, use, exportation or other disposal of medical irradiating apparatus generally or of any specified class of such apparatus.

(4) The Minister may F46[, after consultation with the Radiological Protection Institute of Ireland,] make regulations for—

(a) the prevention of danger to the health of persons occupied in the use of F46[medical] radio-active substances or F46[medical] irradiating apparatus and of other persons whose health may be endangered by such use,

(b) F47[...]

(5) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make provision for all or any of the following matters:

(a) the enforcement and execution of the regulations—

(i) by officers of the Minister,

(ii) by health authorities and their officers,

(iii) with the consent of the Minister for Finance, by officers of Customs and Excise,

(iv) with the consent of the Minister for Industry and Commerce, by officers of that Minister,

(v) with the consent of the Minister for Agriculture, by officers of that Minister,

F46[(vi) by members of the staff of the Radiological Protection Institute of Ireland,]

(b) the prohibition of the storage, use, exportation or other disposal of medical radio-active substances either absolutely or save subject to specified conditions (including the grant of a licence for such storage, use, exportation or other disposal),

(c) the prohibition of the manufacture, importation, distribution, sale, offering or keeping for sale, use, exportation or other disposal of irradiating apparatus either absolutely or save subject to specified conditions (including the grant of a licence for such manufacture, importation, distribution, sale, offering or keeping for sale, use, exportation or other disposal),

(d) the determination of the classes of persons to whom licences under the regulations are to be granted,

(e) the prescribing of conditions governing the grant, retention or renewal of licences under the regulations,

(f) the refusal or revocation of licences under the regulations,

(g) the giving and the taking, with or without payment (as the regulations may provide), of samples of radio-active substances,

(h) the imposition of charges (whether fixed, variable or partly fixed and partly variable) in respect of the grant, retention or renewal of licences under the regulations.

(6) Regulations under this section shall not prohibit absolutely the use by a registered medical practitioner in medical practice or by a registered dentist in dental practice of any radio-active substance or any irradiating apparatus, or require a registered medical practitioner or registered dentist to hold a licence for the use of radio-active substances or irradiating apparatus in medical practice or dental practice, as the case may be, or for the storage of such quantities of radio-active substances as may be reasonably required for his practice.

(7) A person who contravenes a regulation under this section shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five hundred pounds and to forfeiture of any substance or apparatus in relation to which the offence was committed.

(8) An offence under this section may be prosecuted by the Minister or by the health authority in whose functional area the offence is committed.

Amendment of Tuberculosis (Establishment of Sanatoria) Act, 1945.

70.—(1) In this section "the Act" means the Tuberculosis (Establishment of Sanatoria) Act, 1945 (No. 4 of 1945).

(2) Section 6 of the Act is hereby amended by the insertion after subsection (2) of the following subsection:

"(2a) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, when the establishment under this Act of a sanatorium has, in the opinion of the Minister, been completed, the Minister, if he so thinks proper, may transfer his estate or interest in the land on which the sanatorium has been established and the equipment of the sanatorium to a joint board established by an order under section 45 of the Health Act, 1953, and, in the case of any such transfer, subsection (2) of this section shall have effect with the substitution of 'joint board' for 'county authority or county authorities'".

(3) The following section shall be added to the Act after section 17:

Disposal of surplus land.

"18. (1) Where the Minister has acquired land under this Part of this Act and, as respects such land or any part thereof—

(a) the Minister has not transferred his estate or interest therein under subsection (2) or subsection (2a) of section 6 of this Act, and

(b) it appears to the Minister that such land or part is no longer required for the purposes of the establishment of a sanatorium, the Minister may dispose of such land or part in such manner as he thinks proper.

(2) All moneys received by the Minister in respect of the disposal of land under this section shall be paid by the Minister to the Hospitals Trust Board and shall form part of the Hospitals Trust Fund."

Amendment of Health Services (Financial Provisions) Act, 1947.

72.—(1) In this section—

"the Act" means the Health Services (Financial Provisions) Act, 1947;

"standard expenditure", "health service" and "net health expenditure" have the same meanings as in the Act.

(2) Where the boundary between the functional areas of two health authorities has been altered (whether before or after the commencement of this section), the Minister may adjust the sums which are the standard expenditures for the authorities—

(a) by such amounts as he considers proper in respect of the year in which the alteration has become operative, and

(b) by such amounts as he considers proper in respect of each subsequent year, and the sums so adjusted shall, subject to any subsequent adjustment under this section or under section 3 of the Act become and be, in respect of the years to which they relate, the standard expenditures for the authorities.

(3) The Minister may, in respect of a particular year and for a particular body, fix a sum which shall be the maximum expenditure which may be included in respect of a health service or part of a health service in the calculation of the net health expenditure of that body in respect of that year.

(4) The Minister, to correct errors or omissions, may at any time amend a certificate of net health expenditure given by him under the Act.

(5) Where, with reference to the Act, any doubt, dispute or question arises, or, in the opinion of the Minister, is likely to arise as to—

(a) whether a particular item of expenditure or class of items of expenditure is or is not capital expenditure, or

(b) the year to which any item of expenditure or any receipt is to be attributed, the doubt, dispute or question shall be decided by the Minister.
