F8[(2) In this Act a reference to the island of Ireland includes a reference to its islands and seas.]

Regulations.

3. —(1) The Minister may make regulations in relation to any matter or thing referred to in this Act as prescribed or to be prescribed, but no such regulation shall be made in relation to the amount or collection of fees without the consent of the Minister for Finance.

(2) Every regulation made by the Minister under this section shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made, and if a resolution annulling the regulation is passed by either House within the next subsequent twenty-one days on which that House has sat after the regulation is laid before it, the regulation shall be annulled accordingly, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

Expenses.

4. —All expenses incurred by the Minister or by the Minister for External Affairs in carrying this Act into effect shall, to such extent as may be sanctioned by the Minister for Finance, be paid out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas.

F9[Service or notices of documents.

4A.—(1) A notice or other document that is required or authorised by or under this Act (other than section 27) to be served on or given to a person shall be addressed to the person concerned by name, and may be so served on or given to the person in one of the following ways:

- (a) by delivering it to the person;
- (b) by leaving it at the address at which the person ordinarily resides or, in a case in which an address for service has been furnished, at that address;
- (c) by sending it by post in a prepaid registered letter, or by any other form of recorded delivery service prescribed by the Minister, addressed to the person at the address at which he or she ordinarily resides or, in a case in which an address for service has been furnished, to that address;
- (d) by sending it to the person by electronic means in accordance with subsection (2), in a case in which the person has given notice in writing to the Minister of his or her consent to it (or notices or other documents of a class to which it belongs) being served on or given to him or her in that manner.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(d), a notice or other document is sent to a person by electronic means in accordance with this subsection—

- (a) if it is sent to an email address that the person has furnished to the Minister for that purpose, or
- (b) in a case in which the person is registered on an electronic interface, by leaving it on that electronic interface.

(3) Where a notice or other document referred to in subsection (1) has been sent to a person in accordance with—

- (a) paragraph (c) of subsection (1), the notice or other document shall be deemed to have been duly served on or given to the person on the third working day after the day on which it was so sent, and
- (b) paragraph (d) of subsection (1), the notice or other document shall be deemed to have been duly served on or given to the person when the sender's facility for the delivery of notices or other documents by electronic means generates a message or other record confirming the delivery of the notice or other document by the electronic means used.

(4) In this section, "electronic interface" means a secure information technology platform, portal, exchange, network or other similar interface maintained by, or on behalf of, the Minister which requires personal log-in details.]

(2) Every person who, immediately before the passing of this Act, was a citizen of Ireland shall remain an Irish citizen, notwithstanding the foregoing repeals.

PART II.

CITIZENSHIP.

F10[Citizenship
by birth in the island of Ireland.

6.—F11[(1) Subject to section 6A (inserted by section 4 of the Irish Nationality and Citizenship Act 2004), every person born in the island of Ireland is entitled to be an Irish citizen.]

(2) F11[(a) Subject to subsection (5), a person who is entitled under subsection (1) to be an Irish citizen shall be an Irish citizen from the date of his or her birth if—

(i) he or she does any act that only an Irish citizen is entitled to do, or

(ii) in the case of a person who is not of full age or who is suffering from a mental incapacity, any act is done on his or her behalf that only an Irish citizen is entitled to do.]

(b) The fact that a person so born has not done, or has not had done on his or her behalf, such an act shall not of itself give rise to a presumption that the person is not an Irish citizen or is a citizen of another country.

(3) A person born in the island of Ireland is an Irish citizen from birth if he or she is not entitled to citizenship of any other country.

(4) F12[...]

(5) A person born in the island of Ireland who has made a declaration of alienage under section 21 shall remain entitled to be an Irish citizen, but shall not be an Irish citizen unless, in the prescribed manner, that person declares that he or she is an Irish citizen; and such person shall be an Irish citizen from the date of the declaration.]

F13[(6) In this section "person" does not include a person born in the island of Ireland on or after the commencement of the Irish Nationality and Citizenship Act 2004—

(ii) a British citizen,

(iii) a person entitled to reside in the State without any restriction on his or her period of residence (including in accordance with a permission granted under section 4 of the Act of 2004), or

(iv) a person entitled to reside in Northern Ireland without any restriction on his or her period of residence, and

(b) at least one of whose parents was at that time F14[a person referred to in section 2(1) or section 2(1A) of the Immigration Act 2004].]

F15[Entitlement to Irish citizenship of persons born to certain non-nationals.

6A.—(1) A person born in the island of Ireland shall not be entitled to be an Irish citizen unless a parent of that person has, during the period of 4 years immediately preceding the person's birth, been resident in the island of Ireland for a period of not less than 3 years or periods the aggregate of which is not less than 3 years.

(2) This section does not apply to—

(a) a person born before the commencement of the Irish Nationality and Citizenship Act 2004,

(b) a person born in the island of Ireland—

(i) to parents at least one of whom was at the time of the person's birth an Irish citizen or entitled to be an Irish citizen,

(ii) if the person was born to parents one of whom was deceased at the time of the person's birth and—

(I) the other parent was at that time, or

(II) the deceased parent was, immediately before he or she died, an Irish citizen or entitled to be an Irish citizen, or

(iii) if the person was born to parents both of whom were deceased at the time of the person's birth, and at least one of whom was, immediately before his or her death, an Irish citizen or entitled to be an Irish citizen,

(c) a person born in the island of Ireland—

(i) to parents at least one of whom was at the time of the person's birth a British citizen or a person entitled to reside in Northern Ireland without any restriction on his or her period of residence,

(ii) if the person was born to parents one of whom was deceased at the time of the person's birth and—

(I) the other parent was at that time, or

(II) the deceased parent was, immediately before he or she died,

a British citizen or a person entitled to reside in Northern Ireland without any restriction on his or her period of residence, or

(iii) if the person was born to parents both of whom were deceased at the time of the person's birth and at least one of whom was, immediately before his or her death, a British citizen or a person entitled to reside in Northern Ireland without any restriction on his or her period of residence,

(d) a person born in the island of Ireland—

(i) to parents at least one of whom was at the time of the person's birth a person entitled to reside in the State without any restriction on his or her period of residence (including in accordance with a permission granted under section 4 of the Act of 2004),

(ii) if the person was born to parents one of whom was deceased at the time of the person's birth and—

(I) the other parent was at that time, or

(II) the deceased parent was, immediately before he or she died,

a person entitled to reside in the State without any restriction on his or her period of residence (including in accordance with a permission granted under section 4 of the Act of 2004), or

(iii) if the person was born to parents both of whom were deceased at the time of the person's birth and one of whom was, immediately before his or her death, a person entitled to reside in the State without any restriction on his or her period of residence (including in accordance with a permission granted under section 4 of the Act of 2004),

or

(e) a person born in the island of Ireland—

(i) neither of whose parents was at the time of the person's birth—

(I) an Irish citizen or entitled to be an Irish citizen,

(II) a British citizen,

(III) a person entitled to reside in the State without any restriction on his or her period of residence (including in accordance with a permission granted under section 4 of the Act of 2004), or

(IV) a person entitled to reside in Northern Ireland without any restriction on his or her period of residence, and

(ii) at least one of whose parents was at that time F16[a person referred to in section 2(1) or section 2(1A) of the Immigration Act 2004].

(3) In this section "British citizen" means a citizen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.]

F17[Residence in the island of Ireland for the purposes of section 6A.

6B.—(1) Where a parent of a person to whom section 6A (inserted by section 4 of the Irish Nationality and Citizenship Act 2004) applies dies before the person's birth, the period commencing on the date of the parent's death and expiring on the date of the person's birth shall be reckonable for the purposes of calculating a period of residence in the island of Ireland under that section, if—

(a) the parent was, immediately before his or her death, residing in the island of Ireland, and

(b) the period in respect of which he or she was, immediately before his or her death, resident in the island of Ireland is reckonable for the purposes of that section.

(2) Where a national of—

(a) a Member State (other than the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland),

(b) a state (other than a Member State) that is a contracting party to the EEA Agreement, or

(c) the Swiss Confederation, makes a declaration in such manner as may be prescribed that he or she has resided in the island of Ireland for such period as is stated in that declaration, he or she shall, for the purposes of section 6A, be regarded as having been resident in the island of Ireland—

(i) for that period, if during the entire of that period he or she was a national of a Member State, an EEA state or the Swiss Confederation, or

(ii) if he or she was such a national for part only of that period, for that part of the period,

unless the contrary is proved.

(3) (a) If a person who is the guardian of, or in loco parentis to, a person (in this paragraph referred to as the "second-mentioned person") who—

(i) has not attained the age of 18 years, and

(ii) is the child of a person (in this paragraph referred to as the "parent") who was, at the time of the second-mentioned person's birth, a national of a state referred to in subsection (2),

makes a declaration in such manner as may be prescribed that the parent resided in the island of Ireland for such period as is specified in that declaration, the parent shall, for the purposes of section 6A, be regarded as having been resident in the island of Ireland—

(I) for that period, if during the entire of that period he or she was a national of a Member State, an EEA state or the Swiss Confederation, or

unless the contrary is proved.

(b) If a person who is duly authorised to act on behalf of a person (in this paragraph referred to as the "second-mentioned person") who—

(i) is suffering from a mental incapacity, and

(ii) is the child of a person (in this paragraph referred to as the "parent") who was, at the time of the second-mentioned person's birth, a national of a state referred to in subsection (2),

makes a declaration in such manner as may be prescribed that the parent resided in the island of Ireland for such period as is specified in that declaration, the parent shall, for the purposes of section 6A, be regarded as having been resident in the island of Ireland—

(I) for that period, if during the entire of that period he or she was a national of a Member State, an EEA state or the Swiss Confederation, or

(II) if he or she was such a national for part only of that period, for that part of the period,

unless the contrary is proved.

(c) If a person (in this paragraph referred to as the "declarant") who—

(i) has attained the age of 18 years, and

(ii) is the child of a person (in this paragraph referred to as the "parent") who was, at the time of the declarant's birth, a national of a state referred to in subsection (2),

makes a declaration in such manner as may be prescribed that the parent resided in the island of Ireland for such period as is stated in that declaration, the parent shall, for the purposes of section 6A, be regarded as having been resident in the island of Ireland—

(I) for that period, if during the entire of that period he or she was a national of a Member State, an EEA state or the Swiss Confederation, or

(II) if he or she was such a national for part only of that period, for that part of the period,

unless the contrary is proved.

(4) A period of residence in the State shall not be reckonable for the purposes of calculating a period of residence under section 6A if—

- (a) it is in contravention of section 5(1) of the Act of 2004,
- (b) it is in accordance with a permission given to a person under section 4 of the Act of 2004 for the purpose of enabling him or her to engage in a course of education or study in the State, or
- (c) it consists of a period during which a person (other than a person who was, during that period, a national of a Member State, an EEA state or the Swiss Confederation) referred to in F18[subsection (1) of section 16 of the International Protection Act 2015] is entitled to remain in the State in accordance only with the said subsection.

(5) A period of residence in Northern Ireland shall not be reckonable for the purposes of calculating a period of residence under section 6A—

- (a) if—
 - (i) the person concerned is not during the entire of that period a national of a Member State, an EEA state or the Swiss Confederation, and
 - (ii) the residence of the person concerned in Northern Ireland during that period is not lawful under the law of Northern Ireland,
- or
- (b) if the entitlement of the person concerned to reside in Northern Ireland during that period is subject to a condition that is the same as or similar to a condition which, if applicable in respect of an entitlement to reside in the State, would, by virtue of subsection (4), render a period of residence in the State pursuant to such an entitlement not reckonable for the purposes of calculating a period of residence under the said section 6A.

(6) A declaration referred to in subsection (2) or (3) shall be accompanied by such verifying documents (if any) as may be prescribed.]

by descent.

7.—(1) A person is an Irish citizen from birth if at the time of his or her birth either parent was an Irish citizen or would if alive have been an Irish citizen.

(2) The fact that the parent from whom a person derives citizenship had not at the time of the person's birth done an act referred to in section 6(2)(a) shall not of itself exclude a person from the operation of subsection (1).

(3) Subsection (1) shall not confer Irish citizenship on a person born outside the island of Ireland if the parent through whom he or she derives citizenship was also born outside the island of Ireland unless—

- (a) that person's birth is registered under section 27, or
- (b) the parent through whom that person derives citizenship was at the time of that person's birth abroad in the public service:

Provided that the Irish citizenship of a person who, after 1 July, 1986, is registered under section 27 shall commence only as on and from the date of such registration.

F20[(3A) A person to whom paragraph (b) of subsection (3) applies shall be deemed to have been born F21[in] the island of Ireland for the purposes of that subsection.]

F22[(3B) A person born outside the island of Ireland, other than a person to whom subsection (3)(b) applies, who derives citizenship through a parent who—

(a) was born in the island of Ireland, and

(b) at the time of the person's birth was abroad in the public service, shall be deemed to have been born in the island of Ireland for the purposes of this section.

(3C) Subsection (3B) shall apply to a person born before or after the coming into operation of section 5 of the Courts and Civil Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2023.]

(4) Nothing in this section shall confer Irish citizenship on a person not an Irish citizen immediately before its coming into operation, nor deprive of Irish citizenship a person who immediately before its coming into operation was an Irish citizen.]

F39[(h) has, in accordance with subsection (1A) or, as the case may be, subsection (1B), and in the prescribed manner—

(i) made a declaration of fidelity to the nation and loyalty to the State, and

(ii) undertaken to faithfully observe the laws of the State and respect its democratic values.]

F40[(1A) The declaration referred to in paragraph (h) of subsection (1) shall be made, and the undertaking referred to in that paragraph shall be given—

(a) subject to subsection (1B), in a citizenship ceremony, or

(b) in such manner as the Minister, for special reasons, allows.

(1B) The Minister may—

(a) dispense with the requirement under subsection (1A)(a) that the declaration be made and the undertaking be given in a citizenship ceremony, and

(b) allow the applicant to make the declaration and give the undertaking in such manner as the Minister may specify, where the Minister is of the opinion that, having regard to the number of applications of which he or she is in receipt, it is appropriate to do so in the interests of ensuring that such applications are dealt with in an efficient manner.]

(2) The Minister may, in his or her absolute discretion, waive the conditions at paragraph (c), (e), (f) or (g) of subsection (1) or any of them if satisfied that the applicant would suffer serious consequences in respect of his or her bodily integrity or liberty if not granted Irish citizenship.

(3) Paragraph (g) of subsection (1) shall not apply to an applicant for a certificate of naturalisation to whom subsection (4) applies.

(4) Any period of residence outside the island of Ireland, during which—

(a) the applicant for a certificate of naturalisation to which this section applies was—

- (i) married to and living with his or her spouse, or
- (ii) in a civil partnership with and living with his or her civil partner,
- and
- (b) the applicant's spouse or, as the case may be, civil partner was in the public service, shall be reckoned as a period of residence in the island of Ireland for the purposes of calculating—
 - (i) continuous residence under paragraph (e) of subsection (1), or
 - (ii) total residence under paragraph (f) of that subsection.]]

F41[Naturalisation of minors born in State] 15B.— (1) Upon receipt of an application under this section for a certificate of naturalisation in respect of a minor, the Minister may, in his or her absolute discretion, grant the application if satisfied that the minor—

- (a) was born in the State,
- (b) subject to subsection (2), is of good character,
- (c) has had a period of one year's continuous residence in the State immediately before the date of the application and, during the eight years immediately preceding that period, has had a total residence in the State amounting to two years, and
- (d) subject to subsection (3), has, before a judge of the District Court in open court, in a citizenship ceremony or in such manner as the Minister, for special reasons allows—
 - (i) made a declaration, in the prescribed manner, of fidelity to the nation and loyalty to the State, and
 - (ii) undertaken, in the prescribed manner, to faithfully observe the laws of the State and to respect its democratic values.

(2) Where a minor is under 14 years of age on the date of his or her application under this section for a certificate of naturalisation, the condition at paragraph (b) of subsection (1) shall apply to him or her only where he or she—

- (a) is charged with, and is awaiting trial for, or
- (b) is or has been convicted of, murder, manslaughter, rape, rape under section 4 of the Criminal Law (Rape) (Amendment) Act 1990 or aggravated sexual assault within the meaning of section 3 of that Act.

(3) The condition at paragraph (d) of subsection (1) shall not apply to a minor who is under 14 years of age on the date of the application for a certificate of naturalisation.

(4) The Minister may, in his or her absolute discretion, waive the conditions at paragraph (b) or (d), or both, of subsection (1) in respect of a minor who is 14 years of age or over on the date of the application for a certificate of naturalisation, if the Minister considers it appropriate to do so having regard to the particular circumstances of the minor concerned.

(5) An application under this section in respect of a minor shall be made on behalf of the minor by his or her parent or guardian, or by a person who is in loco parentis to him or her.]

F42[Calculation
of continuous residence for purposes of sections 15, 15A
and 15B

15C.— (1) When calculating a period of one year's continuous residence in the State for the purposes of section 15 or 15B, the periods specified in subsection (3) during which—

- (a) an applicant for a certificate of naturalisation under section 15, or
- (b) a minor (in this section referred to as a "minor applicant") in respect of whom an application for a certificate of naturalisation is made under section 15B, was not present in the State shall be reckoned as a period of residence in the State.

(2) When calculating a period of one year's continuous residence in the island of Ireland for the purposes of section 15A, the periods specified in subsection (3) during which an applicant for a certificate of naturalisation under that section was not present in the island of Ireland shall, subject to subsection (4), be reckoned as a period of residence in the island of Ireland.

(3) The following periods are specified for the purposes of subsections (1) and (2):

- (a) a period not exceeding, or periods the aggregate of which do not exceed, 70 days, and
- (b) an additional period not exceeding, or such additional periods the aggregate of which do not exceed, 30 days, where the Minister is satisfied that the person's not being present in the State or in the island of Ireland, as the case may be, during such additional period or periods was necessitated by—
 - (i) in the case of a minor applicant, exceptional circumstances relating to the minor applicant, or the person who made the application on his or her behalf, or both, and
 - (ii) in any other case, exceptional circumstances relating to the person.

(4) Where section 15A(4) applies to an applicant for a certificate of naturalisation, the periods specified in subsection (3) shall be in addition to any period of residence outside the island of Ireland referred to in section 15A(4).

(5) In this section—

"day" does not include part of a day;

"exceptional circumstances", in relation to a person not being in the State or the island of Ireland, means one or more of the following:

- (a) the family or personal circumstances of the person;
- (b) the health requirements of the person or of a family member of the person;
- (c) requirements arising out of, or in the course of, the employment, trade or profession of the person;
- (d) requirements in pursuance of a course of study or a professional qualification of the person;
- (e) any voluntary service by the person for humanitarian purposes;
- (f) such other circumstances resulting in the person's not being present in the State or in the island of Ireland, as the case may be, as the Minister considers to be outside the control of the person;

"family member", in relation to a person, means—

- (a) the spouse, civil partner or cohabitant of the person,
- (b) a child, step-child, son-in-law or daughter-in-law of the person,

- (c) a parent, step-parent, mother-in-law or father-in-law of the person,
- (d) a brother, sister, step-brother, step-sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, half-brother or half-sister of the person,
- (e) a grandparent or grandchild of the person, or
- (f) an aunt, uncle, nephew or niece of the person.]

F43[Saver for certificates of naturalisation

15D.— A certificate of naturalisation granted under this Act before the coming into operation of sections 6, 7 and 8 of the Courts and Civil Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2023 shall be valid so long as the certificate remains unrevoked.]

F44[Transitional provisions relating to applications for

15E.— (1) Where, before the date on which this subsection comes into operation, an application for a certificate of naturalisation has been made—

- (a) under section 15 in respect of a person who is of full age, or
- (b) under section 15A in respect of a non-national spouse or civil partner of an Irish citizen, and, by that date, the application has not been determined under section 15 or section 15A, as the case may be, the application shall be deemed to have been made under section 15 (as amended by section 6 of the Courts and Civil Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2023) or 15A (as amended by section 7 of the Courts and Civil Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2023), as the case may be, and this Act shall apply accordingly.

(2) Where, before the date on which this subsection comes into operation, an application for a certificate of naturalisation has been made under section 15 on behalf of a minor and, by that date, the application has not been determined, the application shall be deemed to have been made on behalf of that minor under section 15B (inserted by section 8 of the Courts and Civil Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2023) and this Act shall apply accordingly.]

dispense with conditions of naturalisation in certain cases.

F45[16. —(1) The Minister may, in his absolute discretion, grant an application for a certificate of naturalisation in the following cases, although the conditions for naturalisation (or any of them) are not complied with:

- (a) where the applicant is of Irish descent or Irish associations;
- (b) where the applicant is a parent or guardian acting on behalf of a minor of Irish descent or Irish associations;
- (c) where the applicant is a naturalised Irish citizen acting on behalf of a minor child of the applicant;
- (d) F46[...]
- (e) F46[...]
- (f) where the applicant is or has been resident abroad in the public service;
- (g) where the applicant is a person who is a refugee within the meaning of the United Nations Convention relating to the Status of Refugees of the 28th day of July, 1951, and the Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees of the 31st day of January, 1967, or is a Stateless person within the meaning of the United Nations Convention relating to the Status of Stateless Persons of the 28th day of September, 1954.]

F47[(2) For the purposes of this section a person is of Irish associations if—

(a) he or she is related by blood, affinity or adoption to F48[, or is the civil partner of,] a person who is an Irish citizen or entitled to be an Irish citizen, or

(b) he or she was related by blood, affinity or adoption to F48[, or was the civil partner of,] a person who is deceased and who, at the time of his or her death, was an Irish citizen or entitled to be an Irish citizen.]

F49[Calculation of period of residence in relation to application for naturalisation.

16A.—F50[(1) A period of residence in the State shall not be reckoned when calculating a period of residence for the purposes of granting a certificate of naturalisation if—

(a) it is in contravention of section 5(1) of the Act of 2004,

(b) it is in accordance with a permission given to a person under section 4 of the Act of 2004 for the purpose of enabling him or her to engage in a course of education or study in the State, or

(c) it consists of a period during which a person (other than a person who was, during that period, a national of a Member State, an EEA state or the Swiss Confederation) referred to in F51[subsection (1) of section 16 of the International Protection Act 2015] is entitled to remain in the State in accordance only with the said subsection.]

(2) This section does not apply to a person to whom the provisions of the Aliens Act, 1935, do not apply by virtue of an order made under section 10 of that Act.

(3) This section does not apply in the calculation of a period of residence in the State for the purposes of an application for a certificate of naturalisation made before the commencement of section 6 of the Irish Nationality and Citizenship Act, 2001.]

F52[(4) Where a person referred to in section 2 (1) or 2(1A) of the Immigration Act 2004 is resident in the State, such residence shall not be reckonable as a period of residence in the State for the purposes of granting a certificate of naturalisation.]

Form of application.

F53[17. —An application for a certificate of naturalisation shall be—

(a) in the prescribed form, and

(b) accompanied by—

(i) such fee (if any) as may be prescribed, and

(ii) such evidence (including statutory declarations) to vouch the application as the Minister may require.]

Effect and operation of certificate of naturalisation.

18. —(1) Every person to whom a certificate of naturalisation is granted shall, from the date of issue and so long as the certificate remains unrevoked, be an Irish citizen.

(2) A certificate of naturalisation shall be in the prescribed form and be issued on payment of the prescribed fee, and notice of issue shall be published in the prescribed manner in Iris Oifigiúil.

Revocation of certificates of naturalisation.

19. —(1) The Minister may revoke a certificate of naturalisation if he is satisfied—

(a) that the issue of the certificate was procured by fraud, misrepresentation whether innocent or fraudulent, or concealment of material facts or circumstances, or

(b) that the person to whom it was granted has, by any overt act, shown himself to have failed in his duty of fidelity to the nation and loyalty to the State, or

- (c) that (except in the case of a certificate of naturalisation which is issued to a person of Irish descent or associations) the person to whom it is granted has been ordinarily F55[resident outside the State or, in the case of an application for a certificate of naturalisation granted under section 15A, resident outside the island of Ireland] (otherwise than in the public service) for a continuous period of seven years and without reasonable excuse has not during that period registered annually in the prescribed manner his name and a declaration of his intention to retain Irish citizenship with an Irish diplomatic mission or consular office or with the Minister, or
- (d) that the person to whom it is granted is also, under the law of a country at war with the State, a citizen of that country, or
- (e) that the person to whom it is granted has by any voluntary F56[act, other than marriage or entry into a civil partnership,] acquired another citizenship.

F54[(1A) Where the Minister is satisfied that one or more of the grounds specified in subsection (1) exists, the Minister shall, prior to revoking a certificate of naturalisation under this section, give the person to whom the certificate of naturalisation was granted such notice as may be prescribed of the Minister's intention to revoke the certificate of naturalisation (in this section referred to as a 'notice of intention to revoke').

(1B) A notice of intention to revoke shall—

(a) inform the person of—

- (i) the Minister's intention to revoke the certificate of naturalisation, and
- (ii) subject to subsection (1O), the reasons for the opinion of the Minister referred to in subsection (1A),

and

(b) include a statement of the effect of subsection (1D).

(1C) A person to whom a notice of intention to revoke is given may, within the period of 28 days beginning on the date the notice of intention to revoke is given to the person, make representations in writing to the Minister regarding the intended revocation.

(1D) After the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (1C), the Minister shall—

- (a) decide whether to revoke the certificate and in making that decision shall have regard to the representations, if any, made by the person under that subsection, and
- (b) give the person concerned a notification in writing of his or her decision.

(1E) Where the Minister decides under subsection (1D) to revoke the certificate of naturalisation, the notification under paragraph (b) of that subsection shall—

(a) include a statement informing the person of—

- (i) the Minister's decision to revoke the certificate,
 - (ii) subject to subsection (1O), the reasons for the decision, and
 - (iii) the right of the person under subsection (1F) to request that an inquiry be held into the decision, and
- (b) include a statement of the effect of subsection (1J).

(1F) A person who is the subject of a notification to which subsection (1E) applies may, in the prescribed manner and within the period of 14 days beginning on the date on which the notice is given to the person, request that an inquiry be held into the Minister's decision to revoke his or her certificate of naturalisation.

(1G) The Minister, on receipt of a request made in accordance with subsection (1F), shall appoint a Committee of Inquiry to hold an inquiry into the decision to revoke the certificate of naturalisation concerned.

(1H) A Committee of Inquiry appointed under subsection (1G) shall consist of the following members:

- (a) a chairperson, who shall be a retired Judge of the Circuit Court, the High Court, the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court, and
- (b) 2 ordinary members, being persons with such experience and qualifications as the Minister considers appropriate having regard to the functions of the Committee of Inquiry.

(1I) A Committee of Inquiry shall be independent in the performance of its functions.

(1J) Where a person does not, within the period specified in subsection (1F), request that an inquiry be held into the Minister's decision to revoke the certificate of naturalisation, the revocation of the certificate of naturalisation shall take effect 14 days after the date the notice is given to the person.

(1K) A Committee of Inquiry shall consider the Minister's decision to revoke the certificate of naturalisation, and may in accordance with subsection (1L) decide to—

- (a) affirm the decision, or
- (b) set aside the decision.

(1L) In arriving at its decision under subsection (1K), a Committee of Inquiry shall have regard to—

- (a) the reasons for which the Minister made the decision to revoke the certificate of naturalisation,
- (b) any representations made by the person to the Minister under subsection (1C),
- (c) any submissions made or information provided (where applicable, in accordance with regulations under subsection (1P)) to the Committee by the Minister or person concerned,
- (d) where an oral hearing is held, the evidence adduced and any submissions made by the Minister or the person concerned at the hearing, and
- (e) any other circumstances or matters that the Committee considers relevant.

(1M) Where a Committee of Inquiry decides under paragraph (a) of subsection (1K) to affirm the decision of the Minister to revoke the certificate of naturalisation—

- (a) the Committee of Inquiry shall—
 - (i) give the person a notification in writing which shall include a statement informing the person of—
 - (I) its decision,
 - (II) subject to subsection (1O), the reasons for the decision, and
 - (III) the effect of paragraph (b),
 - and
 - (ii) inform the Minister of its decision and of the reasons for its decision,

and

(b) the revocation shall take effect 3 days after the date on which the notification under paragraph (a)(i) is given to the person.

(1N) Where a Committee of Inquiry decides under paragraph (b) of subsection (1K) to set aside the decision of the Minister to revoke the certificate of naturalisation, the Committee of Inquiry shall—

(a) give the person a notification in writing of its decision, and

(b) inform the Minister of its decision.

(1O) Subsections (1B)(a)(ii), (1E)(a)(ii) and (1M)(a)(i)(II) shall not apply where the Minister or the Committee of Inquiry, as the case may be, considers that specifying the reasons for the decision would be contrary to the interests of national security.

(1P) The Minister may, in consultation with the chairperson of the Committee of Inquiry and having regard to the need to observe fair procedures, prescribe procedures for and in relation to an inquiry under this section, including the circumstances in which oral hearings may be held.]

(2) F57[...]

(3) F57[...]

(4) Where there is entered in a certificate of naturalisation granted to a person under the Act of 1935 the name of any child of that person, such entry shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a certificate of naturalisation under the Act of 1935.

(5) A certificate of naturalisation granted or deemed under subsection (4) to have been granted under the Act of 1935 may be revoked in accordance with the provisions of this section and, upon such revocation, the person concerned shall cease to be an Irish citizen.

(6) Notice of the revocation of a certificate of naturalisation shall be published in Iris Oifigiúil.

F58[Acquisition of citizenship by person who is married or a civil partner.

20.— Acquisition of Irish citizenship by a person shall not of itself confer Irish citizenship on his or her spouse or civil partner.]

PART IV.

LOSS OF CITIZENSHIP.

Renunciation of citizenship.

21. —F59[(1) If an Irish citizen of full age is or is about to become a citizen of another country and for that reason desires to renounce citizenship, he or she may do so, if ordinarily resident outside the State, by lodging with the Minister a declaration of alienage in the prescribed manner, and, upon lodgment of the declaration or, if not then a citizen of that country, upon becoming such, shall cease to be an Irish citizen.]

(2) An Irish citizen may not, except with the consent of the Minister, renounce Irish citizenship under this section during a time of war as defined in Article 28.3.3° of the Constitution.

F60[Non-effect of death or loss of citizenship on person's spouse, civil partner or children.]

22. —(1) The death of an Irish citizen shall not affect the citizenship of his or her surviving spouse, civil partner or children.

(2) Loss of Irish citizenship by a person shall not of itself affect the citizenship of his or her spouse, civil partner or children.]

F61[Marriage or civil partnership not to effect loss of citizenship.]

23. —A person who marries, or enters into a civil partnership with, a non-national shall not, merely by virtue of the marriage or civil partnership, cease to be an Irish citizen, whether or not he or she acquires the nationality of the non-national.]

Loss of citizenship by operation of foreign law under section 21 of Act of 1935.

24. —No person shall be deemed ever to have lost Irish citizenship under section 21 of the Act of 1935 merely by operation of the law of another country whereby citizenship of that country is conferred on that person without any voluntary act on his part.

Preservation of obligations on cesser of citizenship.

25. —If a person ceases to be an Irish citizen the cesser of his citizenship shall not of itself operate to discharge any obligation, duty or liability undertaken, imposed or incurred before the cesser.

PART V.

GENERAL.

Mutual citizenship rights.

26. —(1) Where the Government are satisfied that under the law of another country (whether by virtue of a convention between that country and the State or otherwise) Irish citizens enjoy in that country some or all of the rights and privileges of a citizen of that country, the Government may by order (in this section referred to as a citizenship rights order) declare that citizens of that country shall enjoy in the State similar citizenship rights and privileges to those enjoyed by Irish citizens in that country, but subject to such conditions (if any) as the Government may think fit to impose.

(2) Every citizenship rights order shall have effect in accordance with its terms.

(3) The Government may by order revoke or amend an order under this section.

(4) The Government shall not, by a citizenship rights order, confer upon a citizen of another country any right or privilege reserved by law to any class or group of persons, howsoever defined, of which he is, at the relevant time, not a member.

(5) Every order under this section shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made, and if a resolution annulling the order is passed by either House within the next twenty-one days after that House has sat after the order was laid before it, the order shall be annulled accordingly but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

(6) Every order made before the passing of this Act under section 23 of the Act of 1935 conferring citizenship rights on the citizens of another country shall continue in full force and effect until revoked or amended by an order made under this section.

Registry of births abroad.

27. —F62[(1) A foreign births entry book shall be kept at such Irish diplomatic missions and consular offices as the Minister for Foreign Affairs may, from time to time, specify in regulations.]

F63[(1A) A foreign births register shall be kept in the Department of Foreign Affairs in Dublin.]

(2) The F62[birth outside the island of Ireland] of a person deriving citizenship through a father or mother F62[so born] may be registered, in accordance with the foreign births regulations, either in any foreign births entry book or in the foreign births register, at the option of the person registering the birth.

(3) Particulars of all births entered in a foreign births entry book shall be transmitted, from time to time, in accordance with the foreign births regulations, to the Department of F62[Foreign Affairs] for entry in the foreign births register.

F64[(3A) A register for the purpose of the registration of gender recognition of foreign births shall be kept in the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, and on receipt of an application in that behalf by a person referred to in subparagraph (iii) of section 9 (1)(a) of the Gender Recognition Act 2015 to whom a gender recognition certificate is issued, particulars of the person's gender recognition shall be entered in that register.]

(4) A document purporting to be a copy of an entry in a foreign births entry book or in the foreign births register F64[or, where applicable, an entry in the register referred to in subsection (3A)], and to be duly authenticated, shall be admitted in evidence without proof of the signature or seal whereby it is authenticated or of the authority of the person whose signature or seal appears thereon and shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed a true copy of the entry and accepted as proof of the fact and terms thereof.

(5) The Minister for F62[Foreign Affairs] may make regulations (in this Act referred to as the foreign births regulations) respecting the form and manner of keeping of foreign births entry books and the foreign births register, the registration of births therein, F63[the amendment or deletion of incorrect entries therein,] the transmission of particulars of births from foreign births entry books for entry in the foreign births register, the inspection of the books and register by the public, the furnishing of extracts therefrom, and (with the consent of the Minister for Finance) the fees (if any) to be charged for registration of births in the books and register, for the inspection thereof and for furnishing extracts therefrom.

F64[(5A) Regulations may also be made under subsection (5) for the purposes of the register referred to in subsection (3A) respecting the form and manner of keeping of the register, the registration of gender recognition therein, the persons to whom extracts there from may be furnished, the amendment or deletion of incorrect entries therein, the amendment or deletion of an entry in the register to correspond with an amendment or deletion of an incorrect entry in the foreign births register, the amendment or deletion of an entry where the Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade is notified under the Gender Recognition Act 2015 that a gender recognition certificate is amended or revoked, making a traceable connection between the foreign births register and the register referred to in subsection (3A), confidentiality attaching to such traceable connection and to the register referred to in subsection (3A) and (with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform) the fees (if any) to be charged for registration of gender recognition in the register and for furnishing extracts thereof.]

F63[(6) Where the foreign births regulations provide for the amendment or deletion of incorrect entries made in any foreign births entry book or the foreign births register, the regulations may, at the discretion of the Minister for Foreign Affairs, also provide for notice to be given and the time in which notice shall be given, before any such proposed amendment or deletion is made, to any person (whose whereabouts is known and can readily be found) affected by the proposal and the manner, the time in which and to whom representations may be made in respect of the proposal by any such person.]

F64[(7) In this section "gender recognition certificate" has the same meaning as it has in the Gender Recognition Act 2015;]

nationality.

28. —(1) Any person who claims to be an Irish citizen, other than a naturalised Irish citizen, may apply to the Minister or, if resident outside F65[the island of Ireland], to any Irish diplomatic officer or consular officer for a certificate of nationality stating that the applicant is, at the date of the certificate, an Irish citizen; and the Minister or officer, if satisfied that—

(a) the applicant is an Irish citizen, and

(b) the issue of the certificate is necessary in all the circumstances of the case, may issue a certificate of nationality to him accordingly.

(2) A document purporting to be a certificate of nationality, duly authenticated by the seal of the Minister or of a diplomatic or F66[consular officer, or by the signature of an officer of the Minister duly authorised in that behalf by the Minister,] shall, until the contrary is proved, be evidence that the person named therein was, at the date thereof, an Irish citizen.

F67[(3) The Minister may revoke a certificate of nationality if he or she is satisfied that the issue of the certificate was obtained by fraud, misrepresentation (including innocent misrepresentation) or failure to disclose material information.]

F68[Applications for certificates of nationality by persons to whom section 6A applies.

28A.—(1) A person who makes an application under section 28 shall make and provide to the Minister or an Irish diplomatic or consular officer a declaration in such manner as may be prescribed that his or her parent resided in Northern Ireland for such period as is stated in that declaration.

(2) The Minister or an Irish diplomatic or consular officer may require a person who makes an application under section 28 to produce to him or her—

(a) documents of such a class as may be prescribed, or

(b) such other documents as he or she considers necessary or expedient to enable him or her to perform his or her functions under this section.

(3) For the purposes of this section different classes of documents may be prescribed in respect of different classes of person making an application under section 28.

(4) This section applies to a person who claims to be entitled to be an Irish citizen under section 6A(1) by virtue of one of his or her parents having resided—

(a) in Northern Ireland for a period of not less than 3 years or periods the aggregate of which is not less than 3 years, or

(b) in Northern Ireland and the State for periods the aggregate of which is not less than 3 years, but shall not include a person one of whose parents was, during the entire of that period or those periods and at the time of the person's birth, a national of a Member State, an EEA state or the Swiss Confederation.

(5) An application under section 28 in respect of a minor shall be made on his or her behalf by his or her parent or guardian, or by a person who is in loco parentis to him or her.

(6) An application under section 28 in respect of a person who is suffering from a mental incapacity shall be made on his or her behalf by a person duly authorised to act on his or her behalf.]

Extension to all citizens of statutory rights conferred on persons born in Ireland.

29. —An Irish citizen, wherever born, shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges conferred by the terms of any enactment on persons born in F69[the State].

F70[Offences.

29A.—A person who knowingly or recklessly makes (whether in the State or outside the State)—

(a) a declaration under this Act, or

(b) a statement for the purposes of any application under this Act, that is false or misleading in any material respect shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable—

(i) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €3,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to both, or

(ii) on conviction on indictment to a fine not exceeding €50,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or to both.]

Fees payable on declaration.

30. —Whenever any person is by this Act required or empowered to make a declaration for the purposes of this Act, regulations made under this Act may require that such person shall pay, on the making of such declaration, such fee as may be prescribed.

Collection and disposal of fees.

31. —(1) All fees payable under this Act shall be collected and taken in such manner as the Minister for Finance shall, from time to time, direct and shall be paid into or disposed of for the benefit of the Exchequer in accordance with the directions of the said Minister.
