(3) A limited partner shall be liable by virtue of subsection (2) only in respect of debts or obligations incurred by the investment limited partnership in favour of a person who at the time the debt or obligation was so incurred reasonably believed, based upon the conduct of the limited partner, that the limited partner was a general partner and whether or not such debts or obligations have since been assigned or otherwise transferred to another person.

shall be construed as including a reference to the limited partner, in and of itself, holding himself or herself as doing, or purporting to do, one or more of the acts specified in subsection (4) (irrespective of the frequency with which that holding out, or that purported doing of the act or acts concerned, occurs).]

(5) Subsection (4) shall not import any implication that the possession or exercise of any other power by a limited partner will necessarily constitute the taking part by such limited partner in the business of the investment limited partnership.

- (b) limited partners are not being given all the information relating to the affairs of the investment limited partnership which they might reasonably expect,

(3) The court may consider matters in exercising its discretion under this provision notwithstanding that they relate to events occurring outside the State.

(4) Before applying to the court to appoint an inspector under this section, the Bank may, if it is of the opinion that it would not be prejudicial to the interests of limited partners or creditors of the investment limited partnership, notify the general partner and F67[depository] of the investment limited partnership concerned in writing of the action which it proposes to take and of the grounds on which it proposes to take and, in such case, the general partner shall within such period as the Bank may set out in the notification, be entitled to give to the Bank a statement in writing explaining its activities.

(5) Where an inspector appointed under subsection (1) thinks it necessary for the purposes of his investigation to investigate the affairs of any other investment limited partnership or any body corporate or present or former associated undertaking of the investment limited partnership he shall apply to the court for an order to widen the scope of his investigation, which order the court may make if it thinks it necessary for the purposes of the investigation, and if granted such order, shall have power to do so, and shall report on the affairs of the investment limited partnership or body corporate or present or former associated undertaking so far as he thinks the results of the investigation are relevant to the investigation of the first mentioned investment limited partnership.

(6) Where the court appoints an inspector under subsection (1) it may, from time to time, give such directions as it thinks fit, whether to the inspector or otherwise with a view to ensuring that the investigation is carried out as efficiently and as cost effectively as is practicable in the circumstances.

(7) (a) It shall be the duty—

(i) of the general partner and F67[depository], of all officers and agents thereof, and of all agents of the investment limited partnership the affairs of which are being investigated under subsection (1), including persons outside the State, and to produce to an inspector appointed under subsection (1) all books, accounts, deeds, records or other documents of, or relating to, the business of an investment limited partnership being investigated under subsection (1) which are in their power, possession or procurement to attend before the inspector when required to do so at a specified place and time and otherwise to give to him all assistance in connection with the investigation which they are reasonably able to give.

(b) The inspector may examine on oath or by written interrogatories on oath the F67[depository], general partner, officer and agents thereof, and all agents of the investment limited partnership being investigated and any such person as is mentioned in subsection (a) of this provision in relation to its affairs and may—

(i) administer an oath accordingly,

(ii) reduce the answers of such person to writing and require that person to sign them.

(c) If an inspector has reasonable grounds for believing that a F67[depository], general partner, officers or agent thereof, or an agent of the investment limited partnership being investigated or other person being investigated or other person being investigated under subsection (5) maintains or has maintained either at that time or at any time in the past, an account of any description in a credit institution or an account with any other financial institution, including holdings of investment instruments, whether alone or jointly with another person and whether in the State or elsewhere, into or out of which has been paid any money which—

(i) had resulted from or been used in the financing of any transaction, arrangement or agreement relating to the business of the investment limited partnership,

(ii) has been in any way connected with any act or omission, or series of acts or omissions, which on the part of that F67[depository], general partner, officers or agent thereof, or an agent of the investment limited partnership, constituted misconduct (whether fraudulent or not) towards an investment limited partnership or any client or creditor of the investment limited partnership, the inspector may require the general partner, officers or agents thereof, or the agent of the investment limited partnership to produce to him all documents in his possession or under his control relating to that account and in this subsection "credit institution account" includes an account with any person exempt by virtue of section 7 (4) of the Central Bank Act, 1971 from the requirement of holding a licence granted under section 9 of that Act.

(d) If any general partner, F67[depository], all officers and agents thereof and any agents of the investment limited partnership, and of all agents of the investment limited partnership or any such person as is mentioned in this subsection refuses to produce to the inspector any book or document which it is his duty under this section to produce, refuses to attend before the inspector when required to do so, or refuses to answer any question put to him by the inspector with respect to the affairs of the investment limited partnership or other person mentioned in this subsection, as the case may be, the inspector may certify the refusal under his hand to the court and the court may thereupon enquire into the case and, after hearing any witnesses who may be produced against or on behalf of the alleged offender and any statement which may be offered in defence, make any order or direction as it thinks fit including a direction to the person concerned to attend or re-attend before the inspector or produce particular books or documents or answer a particular question put to him by the inspector, or a direction that the person concerned need not produce a particular book or document or answer a particular question put to him by the inspector.

the Bank may give a direction in writing to that F85[depository] or general partner requiring it to take such steps, including the winding-up of the investment limited partnership or the suspension of the assignment of any partnership interest, as in the opinion of the Bank are necessary in the interests of the proper and orderly regulation of investment limited partnerships or for the protection of limited partners, creditors of the investment limited partnership or creditors of the partners in an investment limited partnership.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Bank may take into account any matter relating to the investment limited partnership, the general partner or F85[depository], a director or controller of the general partner or F85[depository] or any person employed by or associated with the general partner or F85[depository] in connection with the investment limited partnership.

(3) F86[On the receipt of such a direction, the general partner shall thereupon (or immediately after)] cause all limited partners of the investment limited partnership to be informed thereof.

(4) The Bank may revoke a direction under subsection (1) of this section unless an order under subsection (8) of this section has been made in respect of the direction.

(5) A F85[depository] or partner on whom a direction has been imposed under subsection (1) of this section, and any limited partner of an investment limited partnership in respect of which such a direction has been issued, may apply to the Court for, and the Court may grant, an order setting aside the direction.

(6) Upon an application made to it under subsection (5) of this section, the court shall not set aside a direction given by the Bank unless it is satisfied that the procedures laid down by, or the requirements of, this Act have not been complied with in any material respect, or that—

- (a) there was no evidence upon which the Bank could reasonably conclude that the public interest or the interests of the proper and orderly regulation of investment limited partners required such a direction, or
- (b) there was no evidence upon which the Bank could reasonably conclude that the state of affairs set forth in subsection (1) existed, or
- (c) having regard to the matters established before the court and the proper and orderly regulation of investment limited partnerships, that the direction was not reasonably proportionate to those matters so established.

(7) An application under subsection (5) of this section shall not be entertained after the expiry of twenty one days from the date of making of the direction.

(8) The Bank may apply to the court for, and the court may grant, an order confirming a direction given under subsection (1) of this section or confirming and extending the period of operation of the direction for such period as the court may consider appropriate.

(9) A direction to which subsection (8) of this section applies shall cease to have effect—

- (a) where the direction was confirmed, upon the expiration of the period to which the direction relates,
- (b) where the direction was confirmed and the period of its operation was extended, upon the expiration of that extended period,
- (c) from such date as the court by order determines,
- (d) upon the making of a winding-up order in respect of the investment limited partnership, or the dissolution of the investment limited partnership,
- (e) where the court is of the opinion that the circumstances which gave rise to the direction have ceased to exist and that it would be unjust and inequitable not to make an order to that effect, from such date as the court determines, which ever occurs first.

(10) (a) Where the Bank is of the opinion that even if the F85[depository] or partner on whom a direction has been imposed appears to be able to meet his obligations to creditors, but the circumstances giving rise to the direction are unlikely to be rectified it may forthwith apply to the court for, and the court may grant an order directing the F85[depository] or partner to prepare, in consultation with the Bank, a scheme for the orderly termination of his business and the discharge of his liabilities and to submit the final scheme to the court within three months for the court's approval;

(b) Notice of an application under paragraph (a) shall be given by the general partner to the limited partners;

(c) The court shall not grant an order under paragraph (a) of this section unless it is satisfied that the proper and orderly regulation of investment limited partnerships as a whole and the interests of the partners and creditors of the investment limited partnership in question together with the creditors of the F85[depository] or partners of the investment limited partnership, requires such an order;

(d) The court shall not approve the terms of the scheme without hearing the Bank and may adjudicate in the event of any dispute between the parties; and

(e) If the F85[depository] or partner fails to comply with the order of the court or to adhere to the scheme approved by the court, the Bank may apply to the court for and the court may make such further order as it considers appropriate, including an order of committal or a winding up order on the grounds that it is just and equitable that the F85[depository] or partner should be wound up.

(11) While a direction under this section is in force—

(a) an investment limited partnership to which it relates shall not be dissolved;

(b) the court may restrain any disposal of the assets of the investment limited partnership which will have the effect of perpetrating a fraud on the investment limited partnership, its creditors or partners.

(12) A general partner who fails to comply with subsections (3) and (10) (b) shall be guilty of an offence.

Power of court in case of failure to comply with requirement or condition.

34.—(1) Where, on an application made in a summary manner by the Bank, the court is satisfied that there has occurred or is occurring a failure by an investment limited partnership to comply with a requirement or condition imposed under or by virtue of this Act, the court may, by order, prohibit the continuance of the failure or enforce compliance with the requirement by the investment limited partnership, general partner or F87[depository].

(2) In determining whether to grant an order under this section, the court shall consider—

- (a) the requirements of the orderly and proper regulation of investment limited partnerships;
- (b) the interests of creditors of the investment limited partnership, the limited partners and creditors of the partners;
- (c) the gravity of the non-compliance complained of.

(3) The court may grant such interim or interlocutory relief on an application under this section as in the light of the matters set forth in subsection (2), as it considers appropriate.

(4) An application under this section, other than application for interim relief, shall be made on notice to the investment limited partnership, the general partner and the F87[depository].

(5) Upon receipt of a notice of an application under this section, the general partner shall cause the limited partners to be forthwith informed thereof.

(6) A general partner who fails to comply with subsection (5) shall be guilty of an offence.

Personal liability of officers of general partner where failure to keep proper books or records.

35.—(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, if—

- (a) an investment limited partnership is being wound up and is unable to pay all of its debts, and
- (b) the court considers that there has been a contravention of section 16 (1) or section 25 (1) which has contributed to the inability of the investment limited partnership to pay all of its debts or has resulted in substantial uncertainty as to the assets and liabilities and client money or investment instruments of the said investment limited partnership or has substantially impeded its orderly winding up, the court, on the application of the liquidator or the Bank or any creditor or limited partner may, if it thinks it proper to do so, declare that any one or more of the officers or former officers or both of the general partner who is or are responsible for the contravention shall be personally liable, without any limitation of liability, for all, or such part as may be specified by the Court, of the debts and other liabilities of the said investment limited partnership.

(2) On the hearing of an application under subsection (1) of this section, the person bringing the application may give evidence or call witnesses.

- (3) (a) Where the court makes a declaration under subsection (1) of this section, it may give such directions as it thinks proper for the purpose of giving effect to the declaration and in particular may make provision for making the liability of any such person under the declaration a charge on any debt or obligation due from the investment limited partnership to him, or on any mortgage or charge or any interest in any mortgage or charge on any assets of the investment limited partnership held by or vested in him or any company or other person on his behalf, or any person claiming as assignee from or through the person liable under the declaration or any company or person acting on his behalf, and may from time to time make such further order as may be necessary for the purpose of enforcing any charge imposed under this subsection.

(b) In paragraph (a) of this subsection “assignee” includes any person to whom or in whose favour, by the directions of the person liable, the debt, obligation or mortgage was created, issued or transferred or the interest created but does not include an assignee for valuable consideration (not including consideration by way of marriage) given in good faith and without notice of any of the matters on the grounds of which the declaration is made.

(c) A copy of the declaration referred to in paragraph (a) above shall be lodged with the registrar of companies and made available for public inspection.

(4) The court shall not make a declaration under subsection (1) of this section in respect of a person if it considers that—

(a) he took all reasonable steps to secure compliance by the investment limited partnership with section 16 (1) or section 25 (1) of this Act, or

(b) he had reasonable grounds for believing and did believe that a competent and reliable person, acting under the supervision or control of a person who has been formally allocated such responsibility, was charged with the duty of ensuring that these sections were complied with and was in a position to discharge that duty.

(5) This section shall have effect notwithstanding that the person concerned may be liable to be prosecuted for a criminal offence in respect of the matters on the ground of which the declaration is to be made or that such person has been convicted of such an offence.

(6) In this section “officer”, in relation to a general partner includes a director, a person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the directors are accustomed to act, or the secretary.

(7) If—

(a) (i) an investment limited partnership is being wound up and is unable to pay all of its debts and has contravened section 16 (1) or section 25 (1) of this Act, and

(ii) the court considers that such contravention has contributed to the inability of the investment limited partnership to pay all of its debts or has resulted in substantial uncertainty as to the assets and liabilities or client money and investment instruments of the investment limited partnership or has substantially impeded the orderly winding up thereof,

F88[every general partner of the investment limited partnership, and every officer of such a general partner,] who is in default shall be guilty of an offence.

(ii) he had reasonable grounds for believing and did believe that a competent and reliable person, acting under the supervision or control of the investment limited partnership who has been formally allocated such responsibility, was charged with the duty of ensuring that that section was complied with and was in a position to discharge that duty.

(8) F89[An investment limited partnership, a general partner of an investment limited partnership or an officer of such a general partner that] fails to take all reasonable steps to secure compliance by the investment limited partnership with the requirement of section 16 (1) or section 25 (1) of the Act or has by his own wilful act been the cause of any default by the investment limited partnership thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided, however, that—

- (a) in any proceedings against a person in respect of an offence under this section consisting of a failure to take reasonable steps to secure compliance by the investment limited partnership with the requirements of section 16 (1) or section 25 (1), it shall be a defence to prove that he had reasonable grounds for believing and did believe that a competent and reliable person was charged with the duty of ensuring that those requirements were complied with and was in a position to discharge that duty, and
- (b) a person shall not be sentenced to imprisonment for such an offence unless, in the opinion of the Court, the offence was committed wilfully.

- (b) particulars as to the capacity in which the officer or employee is acting.

(4) The Registrar shall delete from the central register information entered in it in relation to an investment limited partnership if 10 years have elapsed from the date on which the final distribution is made under the investment limited partnership (should such occur) and, as soon as may be after that deletion, the Registrar shall destroy that information.

- (a) the Registrar shall not disclose that number, and
- (b) that number shall be stored securely by the Registrar.

(6) The Registrar shall, as respects any information that has been received under subsection (3) and recorded by the Registrar, destroy the information as soon as may be after 10 years have elapsed from the date on which the final distribution is made (should such occur) under the investment limited partnership to which it relates.

F108[Duty to keep information in beneficial ownership register and central register aligned and up to date.

54. (1) The purpose of this section is to require that any changes that occur in the information contained in an investment limited partnership's beneficial ownership register be reflected by a corresponding change being made in the central register; accordingly there is imposed on the general partner of an investment limited partnership by this section an obligation — referred to in this section as the 'follow up obligation' - to deliver information to the Registrar so as to allow any such change to be reflected in the central register.

(5) The general partner's follow up obligation is to deliver to the Registrar, as appropriate—

- (a) the same information as that which (as mentioned in subsection (4)(a)) the general partner is required to enter in the investment limited partnership's beneficial ownership register, or
- (b) the appropriate information that will enable the Registrar to make the same amendment or deletion of information in the central register as that which

(as mentioned in subsection (4)(b)) the general partner is required to make in the investment limited partnership's beneficial ownership register, and the follow up obligation shall be discharged within 14 days from the date on which the first-mentioned obligation in subsection (3) falls to be discharged by the general partner.

(6) Section 52(2) to (7) and, as the case may be, section 53 shall apply in a case where information is delivered to the Registrar under subsection (5) as they apply in a case where information is delivered to the Registrar under section 51(1), (2) or (3).]

 - (I) a submission as to why the general partner considers the opinion of the relevant person concerned not to be well founded, or
 - (II) if the general partner considers the opinion of the relevant person concerned to be well founded, such amended particulars (for entry in the central register) as are required where the general partner is satisfied that the delivery of such is the appropriate means by which the discrepancy can be resolved, and such a request shall be complied with by the general partner accordingly.

shall, of itself, be regarded as constituting defamatory matter.

(4) Subsections (2) to (7) of section 52 shall, with any necessary modifications, apply to amended particulars that are to be, or have been delivered, under subsection (2)(b)(ii)(II) as they apply to information that is to be, or has been, delivered under section 51(1) or (2).]

F112[Fees may be charged for access to central register.

58. (1) The Registrar may require any of the persons referred to in section 56(1), (3) or (4) to pay to the Registrar a fee of such an amount as the Registrar may determine in respect of the access afforded to the central register under section 56(1), (3) or (4).

(2) The amount of a fee required to be paid under subsection (1) shall not exceed the administrative cost incurred in affording access to the information concerned.]

F117[Registration documents. 61. (1) In this Chapter "registration documents", in relation to a migrating partnership, means the following documents:

F118[Continuation of migrating partnership.

62. (1) A general partner of a migrating partnership may apply to the Bank for the migrating partnership to be authorised under this Act as an investment limited partnership in the State by way of continuation; subject to the subsequent subsections of this section—

- (a) such an application shall be regarded as an application under this Act for authorisation of the migrating partnership as an investment limited partnership, and
- (b) the provisions of this Act in relation to—
 - (i) an application for such authorisation,
 - (ii) the conditions for such authorisation,
 - (iii) the grant of such authorisation,
 - (iv) all of the other requirements of this Act in respect of the authorisation of an investment limited partnership and of matters precedent and incidental to such authorisation and all of the provisions of this Act concerning an investment limited partnership that have effect on and from the grant of an authorisation in relation to it, shall apply in respect of, as appropriate—

- (I) the application referred to in this subsection or, as appropriate, the granting of the authorisation, on foot thereof, and
- (II) every other matter concerning the investment limited partnership, as provided by or under this Act, on and from the grant of the authorisation.

(2) For the purposes of an application referred to in subsection (1)—

(a) the general partner concerned shall notify, in writing, the Bank of its intention to make such an application,

(b) the Bank, on receipt of that notification, shall request the general partner to make an application for an authorisation under section 8 in respect of the migrating partnership, and

(i) the consideration by the Bank of the documentation specified in subsection (3) shall be postponed until such time as the Bank has notified the general partner, as provided under paragraph (ii), of the decision referred to in that paragraph (but this paragraph does not apply if the decision of the Bank, with regard to the relevant application, is otherwise than as stated in paragraph (ii) and, in the latter case, the foregoing documentation shall not be considered by it), and

(ii) the Bank, following the relevant application made to it under section 8, shall (where such is the decision that it has made) notify the general partner that it proposes to grant the relevant authorisation under that section.

(3) The notification under subsection (2) in respect of the application concerned shall be accompanied by—

(a) a statement, in such form as may be specified by the Bank, and signed by a general partner of the migrating partnership,

(b) the registration documents, and

(c) a statutory declaration, in such form as may be specified by the Bank, made by a solicitor engaged for this purpose by the migrating partnership, or by the general partner, and stating that the list and schedule specified in paragraphs (c) and (f), respectively, of the definition of "registration documents" in section 61(1) are accurate in all material respects, and the Bank may accept the declaration referred to in paragraph (c) as sufficient evidence as to the accuracy, as referred to in that paragraph, of the list and schedule concerned.

(4) Subsection (5) applies unless, on foot of its consideration of the documentation specified in subsection (3), the Bank has grounds to doubt, as appropriate—

(a) the authenticity of, or

(b) the accuracy in any material respect of any fact stated in, that documentation.

(5) Where this subsection applies, the Bank shall issue under section 8(6) a certificate of authorisation in respect of the migrating partnership following the notification to the general partner of its decision as referred to in subsection (2)(ii); that certificate shall include an indication that the authorisation granted under this Act in respect of the migrating partnership is an authorisation as an investment limited partnership in the State by way of continuation.

(6) A general partner of the migrating partnership shall, as soon as may be after the certificate referred to in subsection (5) has been issued in respect of the migrating partnership, apply for the migrating partnership to be de-registered (if applicable or required) in the relevant jurisdiction.

(7) From the date of the issue of the certificate referred to in subsection (5) in respect of it, the migrating partnership shall be deemed to be an investment limited partnership authorised under this Act and shall continue for all purposes under this Act, and the provisions of this Act shall apply to the migrating partnership, but this section does not operate—

- (a) to create a new legal entity,
- (b) to prejudice or affect the identity or continuity of the migrating partnership as previously formed and where relevant registered under the laws of the relevant jurisdiction for the period that the migrating partnership was formed and where relevant registered under the laws of the relevant jurisdiction,
- (c) to affect any contract made, resolution passed or any other act or thing done in relation to the migrating partnership during the period that the migrating partnership was so formed and where relevant registered,
- (d) to affect the rights, authorities, functions and liabilities or obligations of the migrating partnership or any other person, or
- (e) to render defective any legal proceedings by or against the migrating partnership.

(8) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (7)—

- (a) the failure of a general partner of a migrating partnership to send to the Bank the particulars of a charge or security interest created before the date of issue of the certificate referred to in subsection (5) shall not prejudice any rights which any person in whose favour the charge was made or security interest created may have under it, and
- (b) any legal proceedings that could have been continued or commenced by or against the migrating partnership or any general partner of it in respect of that migrating partnership before the date of issue of that certificate may, notwithstanding the issue of that certificate, be continued or commenced by or against the migrating partnership or a general partner of it in respect of that migrating partnership after the date of issue of that certificate.]

F119[Supplementary provision in relation to section 62.] 63. (1) A general partner of the migrating partnership shall notify the Bank, within 3 days after the date of de-registration in the relevant jurisdiction, of that de-registration in such manner and, where relevant, form as may be specified by the Bank.

(2) If there is any material change in any of the information contained in the statutory declaration specified in paragraph (d) of the definition of 'registration documents' in section 61(1) after the date of the declaration and before the date of the issue of the certificate referred to in section 62(5), the general partner who made that statutory declaration, and any other general partner who becomes aware of that material change, shall forthwith deliver a new statutory declaration to the Bank relating to the change.

(3) If a general partner of the migrating partnership fails to comply with any provision of section 62 or this section, the Bank may give notice to the general partner that, unless it rectifies the failure within 30 days after the date of the giving of notice and confirms that it has rectified the failure, the Bank may, with view to exercising its powers under section 29(1)(c) to revoke the authorisation of the migrating partnership, publish a notice, as referred to in subsection (4), that states its intention to so revoke the migrating partnership's authorisation and indicates, in brief terms, the grounds on which it will rely for such revocation.

(4) If the failure mentioned in subsection (3) is not rectified within 30 days after the date of the giving of the notice referred to in that subsection, the Bank may publish a notice stating that, at the expiration of 1 month after the date of that notice, the Bank, unless the matter is resolved, may exercise its powers under section 29(1)(c) to revoke the authorisation of the migrating partnership and indicating, in brief terms, the grounds on which it will rely for such revocation.

(5) At the expiration of the time mentioned in the notice the Bank may, unless cause to the contrary is previously shown by the migrating partnership, revoke the authorisation of the migrating partnership under section 29(1)(c).

(6) The provision made by this section imposing requirements—

(a) in relation to a proposed revocation under section 29(3) of an authorisation, as concerns the giving of a particular notice to a general partner of a migrating partnership, or

(b) in relation to such a proposal, as concerns publishing a particular notice as respects the proposal, shall not be construed as imposing like requirements in cases generally of the proposed exercise of the power of revocation under section 29(3) (which cases shall, instead, be governed by the general law regarding procedural fairness).]

(2) Where an application is made under subsection (1), the Bank shall not revoke the authorisation of the investment limited partnership, the subject of the application, unless it is satisfied that all of the requirements of this Act in respect of that revocation and of matters precedent and incidental to that revocation have been complied with and, in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, it is satisfied that—

- (a) the general partner of the partnership has delivered to the Bank an application for the purpose, in such form as may be specified by the Bank and signed by the general partner, together with the transfer documents,

(6) The orders which the court may so make include an order—

(a) directing or prohibiting any act or cancelling or varying any transaction (including cancellation of the revocation by the Bank of the partnership's authorisation),

(b) for the purchase of the partnership interest of the partner who has made the application under subsection (4) by other partners of the partnership, and

(c) for the payment by the partnership of compensation to the partner who has made the application under subsection (4).]

(2) A declaration under subsection (1) shall have no effect for the purposes of this Chapter unless—

(a) it is made not more than 28 days before the date on which the application is made to the Bank,

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the independent person shall be a person who, at the time the report is made, is—

(a) in the case of an application under Chapter 1, qualified to be the auditor of the migrating partnership under the laws of the relevant jurisdiction, and

(b) in the case of an application under Chapter 2, qualified to be the auditor of the exiting partnership.

(5) A general partner who makes a declaration under this section without having reasonable grounds for the opinion that the migrating partnership or exiting partnership, as appropriate, is able to pay its debts as they fall due shall be guilty of an offence.

(6) Where the migrating partnership or exiting partnership is wound up within 1 year after the date on which the application is made to the Bank under Chapter 1 or 2 and its debts are not paid or provided for in full within that year, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that the general partner referred to in subsection (1) did not have reasonable grounds for his or her opinion.]

F126[SCHEDULE

*UMBRELLA INVESTMENT LIMITED PARTNERSHIPSDefinitions

1. In this Schedule—

"sub-fund" means a separate portfolio of assets maintained by a general partner of an investment limited partnership for and on behalf of one or more limited partners in accordance with the partnership agreement;

"umbrella fund" means an investment limited partnership which is divided into a number of sub-funds.

General

2. Where an investment limited partnership is established as an umbrella fund, the assets shall belong exclusively to the partners holding interests in a relevant sub-fund and shall not be used to discharge directly or indirectly the liabilities of, or claims against, any other sub-fund and shall not be available for any such purpose. The general partner may in its absolute discretion operate, establish or designate classes of interest with differing rights and obligations for accounting purposes or otherwise within the investment limited partnership.

Segregated liability of investment limited partnership sub-funds

3. (1) Notwithstanding any statutory provision or rule of law to the contrary—

(a) any liability incurred on behalf of or attributable to any sub-fund of an umbrella fund shall be discharged solely out of the assets of that sub-fund, and

(b) no umbrella fund nor any general partner, limited partner, receiver, liquidator, provisional liquidator or other person shall apply, nor be obliged to apply, the assets of any such sub-fund in satisfaction of any liability incurred on behalf of or attributable to any other sub-fund of the same umbrella fund.

(2) The general partner of an umbrella fund to which this Schedule applies shall—

(a) ensure that the words "An umbrella fund with segregated liability between sub-funds" are included in all its letterheads and in any agreement entered into on its behalf in writing with a third party, and

(b) disclose to a third party that it is a segregated liability umbrella fund before the general partner enters into an oral contract with the third party.

(3) If the general partner of an umbrella fund fails to comply with subparagraph (2)(a) or (b), the general partner and any officer of it who is in default shall be guilty of an offence.

(4) There shall be implied in every contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction entered into on behalf of an umbrella fund to which this Schedule applies the following terms, that:

(a) the party or parties contracting with respect to the umbrella fund shall not seek, whether in any proceedings or by any other means whatsoever or wheresoever, to have recourse to any assets of any sub-fund of the umbrella fund in the discharge of all or any part of a liability which was not incurred on behalf of that sub-fund;

- (b) if any party contracting with respect to the umbrella fund shall succeed by any means whatsoever or wheresoever in having recourse to any assets of any sub-fund of the umbrella fund in the discharge of all or any part of a liability which was not incurred on behalf of that sub-fund, that party shall be liable to the umbrella fund to pay a sum equal to the value of the benefit thereby obtained by it; and
- (c) if any party contracting with respect to the umbrella fund shall succeed in seizing or attaching by any means, or otherwise levying execution against, any assets of a sub-fund of an umbrella fund in respect of a liability which was not incurred on behalf of that sub-fund, that party shall hold those assets or the direct or indirect proceeds of the sale of such assets on trust for the umbrella fund and shall keep those assets or proceeds separate and identifiable as such trust property.
- (5) All sums recovered by an umbrella fund as a result of any such trust as is described in subparagraph (4)(c) shall be credited against any concurrent liability pursuant to the implied term set out in subparagraph (4)(b).
- (6) Any asset or sum recovered by an umbrella fund pursuant to the implied term set out in clause (b) or (c) of subparagraph (4) or by any other means whatsoever or wheresoever in the events referred to in those clauses shall, after the deduction or payment of any costs of recovery, be applied so as to compensate the sub-fund affected.
- (7) In the event that assets attributable to a sub-fund to which this Schedule applies are taken in execution of a liability not attributable to that sub-fund, and in so far as such assets or compensation in respect thereof cannot otherwise be restored to that sub-fund affected, the general partner of the umbrella fund, with the consent of the depositary, shall certify or cause to be certified, the value of the assets lost to the sub-fund affected and transfer or pay from the assets of the sub-fund or sub-funds to which the liability was attributable, in priority to all other claims against such sub-fund or sub-funds, assets or sums sufficient to restore to the sub-fund affected, the value of the assets or sums lost to it.

Further matters respecting an umbrella fund

4. (1) Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Schedule, a sub-fund of an umbrella fund is not a legal person separate from that umbrella fund, but the general partner of an umbrella fund may sue and be sued in respect of a particular sub-fund and may exercise the same rights of set-off, if any, as between its sub-funds as apply at law in respect of companies and the property of a sub-fund is subject to orders of the court as it would have been if the sub-fund were a separate legal person.
- (2) Nothing in this paragraph or any other provision of this Schedule shall prevent the application of any enactment or rule of law which would require the application of the assets of any sub-fund in discharge of some or all of the liabilities of any other sub-fund on the grounds of fraud or misrepresentation.]
