(4) Before making an order or regulation under this Act, the Minister shall consult such organisations or other bodies of persons representative of employers and such organisations or other bodies of persons representative of trades unions or bodies analogous to trades unions as the Minister considers appropriate.

(5) Subsections (1) to (4) do not apply to an order under section 1 (2).

(6) Every regulation made under this Act shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as practicable after it is made and, if a resolution annulling the regulation is passed by either such House within the next 21 days on which the House has sat after the regulation is laid before it, the regulation shall be annulled accordingly, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under the regulation.

Voidance or modification of certain provisions in agreements.

4.—(1) In this section “agreement” means an agreement, whether a contract of employment or not, and whether made before or after the commencement of this Act.

(2) A provision in an agreement shall be void in so far as it purports to exclude or limit the application of any provision of this Act or is inconsistent with any provision of this Act.

(3) A provision in an agreement which is or becomes less favourable in relation to an adopting parent than a similar or corresponding entitlement conferred on F17[the adopting parent] by this Act shall be deemed to be so modified as to be not less favourable to F17[the adopting parent].

(4) Nothing in this or any other enactment shall be construed as prohibiting the inclusion in an agreement of a provision (subsequently referred to in this section as “the additional provision”) in relation to adoption, in addition to those required by this Act, the effect of which would be to render the agreement more favourable to an adopting parent than it would be if it did not include the additional provision.

(5) The inclusion of the additional provision in an agreement shall not, by reason of the fact that it applies to an adopting parent only, confer any right under this or any other enactment on an employee who is not an adopting parent.

11. The additional adoptive leave for the purposes of section 10(1) (as amended by section 6 of the Act of 2005) of the Act of 1995 shall be for a period of —

(a) in case the adopting mother dies on or after the expiration of 24 weeks from the day of placement, 16 weeks less the period between the date of that expiration and the date of her death, or

(b) in any other case, 16 weeks.

Editorial Notes:

E18 Provision made for two substitutions, in subs. (1)(a), of "the qualifying adopter" for "the adopting mother" (1.04.2021) by Family Leave and Miscellaneous Provisions Act 2021 (4/2021), s. 7 and sch. item 41(a), (c), S.I. No. 148 of 2021. The second substitution cannot be made because a second instance of the "the adopting mother" is not present.

E19 Power pursuant to section exercised (1.02.2006) by Adoptive Leave Act 1995 (Extension of Periods of Leave) Order 2006 (S.I. No. 52 of 2006).

E20 Previous affecting provision: power pursuant to section exercised and application of section affected (1.02.2006) by Adoptive Leave Act 1995 (Extension of Periods of Leave) Order 2006 (S.I. No. 52 of 2006), art. 7, in force as per art. 2, superseded by art. 11 of the same instrument above.

- E21 Previous affecting provision: power pursuant to section exercised and application affected (8.02.2001) by Adoptive Leave Act, 1995 (Extension of Periods of Leave) Order 2001 (S.I. No. 30 of 2001), art. 7, in force as per art. 2; revoked (19.11.2004) by Adoptive Leave Act 1995 (Extension of Periods of Leave) Order 2004 (S.I. No. 667 of 2004), reg. 2 and Adoptive Leave Act 1995 (2/1995), s. 45 as inserted (28.11.2005) by Adoptive Leave Act 2005 (25/2005), S.I. No. 724 of 2005.

Entitlement of adopting father to additional adoptive leave before day of placement in certain circumstances.

11.—(1) In the case of a foreign adoption, where F41[the qualifying adopter] dies and F41[the surviving parent] requires a period of additional adoptive leave before the day of placement, for the purposes of familiarisation with the child who is to be adopted, some or all of the additional adoptive leave under section 10 may be taken immediately before the day of placement.

(2) Entitlement to a period of leave under subsection (1) shall be subject to F41[the surviving parent]—

(a) having, as soon as is reasonably practicable, caused F41[his or her] employer to be notified in writing of F41[his or her] intention to take such additional adoptive leave before the day of placement, and

F42[(b) causing F41[his or her] employer to be supplied with a copy of an applicable instrument, prepared by or on behalf of the Central Authority of the state of the adoption, that is equivalent to a "declaration of eligibility and suitability" (within the meaning of section 3 (1) of the Adoption Act 2010) as soon as reasonably practicable but not later than 4 weeks after the commencement of the leave, and]

(c) causing, if requested, F41[his or her] employer to be supplied with a copy of the death certificate made in respect of the deceased F41[qualifying adopter] as soon as is reasonably practicable.

(3) The period of additional adoptive leave referred to in subsection (1) shall commence as soon as is reasonably practicable after the death of F41[the qualifying adopter].

(4) A notification under this section may be revoked by a further notification in writing by or on behalf of F41[the surviving parent] to F41[his or her] employer.

(5) Where the expected day of placement is postponed, commencement of the period of additional adoptive leave under this section shall also be postponed subject to F41[the surviving parent] causing F41[his or her] employer to be notified of the expected new day of placement as soon as is reasonably practicable.

F43[Time off to attend certain pre-adoption classes and meetings.

11A.—(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an employee shall be entitled to time off from work, without loss of pay, to attend any pre-adoption classes and meetings which the employee is obliged to attend.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply—

(a) to a member of the Defence Forces who is—

(i) on active service within the meaning of section 5 of the Defence Act 1954 or deemed to be on active service within the meaning of section 4(1) of the Defence (Amendment)(No. 2) Act 1960,

(ii) engaged in operational duties at sea,

(iii) engaged in operations in aid of the civil power,

(iv) engaged in training that is directly associated with any of the activities referred to in subparagraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) of this paragraph, or

(v) engaged in any other duty outside the State,

(b) if the Chief of Staff of the Defence Forces in exceptional circumstances so directs, to a member of the Defence Forces who is required to perform a duty which is, in the opinion of the Chief of Staff of the Defence Forces, of a special or urgent nature for so long as the member is performing the duty,

(c) to a member of the Garda Síochána who is on the direction, or with the consent, of the Commissioner of the Garda Síochána serving outside the State and performing duties of a police character or advising others on, or monitoring them in, the performance of such duties or any related duties for so long as the member is so serving, and

(d) if the Commissioner of the Garda Síochána in exceptional circumstances so directs, to a member of the Garda Síochána who is required to perform a duty which is, in the opinion of the Commissioner of the Garda Síochána, of a special or urgent nature for so long as the member is performing the duty.

(3) (a) In this subsection "classes" refers to the pre-adoption classes and meetings mentioned in subsection (1).

(b) The entitlement of an employee to time off under subsection (1) is subject to his or her having—

(i) notified the employer in writing of the dates and times of the classes concerned, or the date and time of each class, as soon as practicable but not later than 2 weeks before the date of the first class, or the class concerned, as the case may be, and

(ii) produced to the employer, on request, an appropriate document indicating the dates and times of the classes, or the date and time of the class, concerned.

(c) Where the circumstances are such that, in the case of a particular class, non-compliance by the employee with paragraph (b) is not due to any neglect or default by the employee in relation to attendance at the class, the employee is deemed to have complied with the requirements of that paragraph if, not later than one week after the date of the class concerned, he or she provides the employer with evidence of the attendance and an indication of the circumstances which gave rise to the non-compliance.

(4) References in this section to pre-adoption classes and meetings are references to such classes and meetings held within the State.]

F44 [Termination of additional adoptive leave on sickness of adopting parent.

11B.—(1) An adopting parent ("the employee")—

(a) who is sick while on adoptive leave or while entitled to, or on, additional adoptive leave, and

(b) who wishes to terminate the additional adoptive leave, may request the employer in writing to terminate the additional adoptive leave or cause such a request to be made.

(2) If the employer agrees to terminate the leave, it shall terminate on a date agreed by the employee and the employer that is—

(a) not earlier than the date on which the sickness began, and

(b) not later than the date on which the leave would have ended in accordance with the notification of intention to take it given by the employee to the employer under this Part or section 41, as the case may be.

(3) The employer shall notify the employee of the decision on the request as soon as is reasonably practicable after its receipt.

(4) On the termination of the additional adoptive leave—

(a) the absence from work of the employee owing to sickness after the termination shall be treated in the same way as any other absence from work of the employee owing to sickness, and

(b) the employee shall cease to be entitled to any leave not by then taken.]

F45 [Postponement of leave on hospitalisation of child.

11C.—(1) If—

(a) an adopted child is in hospital, and

(b) the child's adopting parent ("the employee") is entitled to, or is on, adoptive leave or additional adoptive leave, the employee may request the employer in writing (or cause such a request to be made) to postpone in accordance with this section—

(i) the whole of the adoptive leave and any additional adoptive leave,

(ii) the part of the adoptive leave not by then taken and any additional adoptive leave, or

(iii) the whole of the additional adoptive leave or any part not by then taken, as appropriate.

(2) If the employer agrees to the request—

- (a) the employee shall continue to work or, as the case may be, shall return to work on a date agreed by the employee and employer that is not later than the date on which the leave concerned is due to end in accordance with the notification given under section 7 or (as the case may be) given, or deemed under subsection (5) to have been given, under section 8(3),
 - (b) the leave concerned shall be postponed or, as the case may be, postponed with effect from the date agreed under paragraph (a),
 - (c) the employee shall be entitled in accordance with this section to the leave or the part of the leave not taken by reason of the postponement (in this Act referred to as "postponed leave"), and
 - (d) the postponed leave shall be taken as a continuous period beginning not later than 7 days after the child is discharged from hospital or such other date as may be agreed between the employer and the employee.
- (3) The employer shall notify the employee concerned in writing of the decision on the request as soon as is reasonably practicable after its receipt.
- (4) (a) Subject to subsection (6), entitlement to postponed leave shall be subject to the employee having notified the employer in writing (or having caused the employer to be so notified) of the employee's intention to take the leave.
- (b) The notification shall be given by the employee as soon as is reasonably practicable after the employee becomes aware of the date of the child's discharge from hospital.
- (c) The notification may be revoked by a further notification in writing given by or on behalf of the employee to the employer.
- (5) Notwithstanding that an employee who is on adoptive leave has not caused the employer to be notified in accordance with section 8(3) of his or her intention to take additional adoptive leave, the employee shall be deemed, for the purposes of paragraph (ii) or (iii) of subsection (1), to have done so.
- (6) An employer may waive the right to receive a notification in accordance with subsection (4).
- (7) The employer may require the employee to supply evidence of the child's hospitalisation and discharge from hospital.]

PART III

PROVISIONS RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS

F52[Preservation or suspension of certain rights, etc., while on adoptive leave.

15.—(1) While absent from work on adoptive leave, an employee—

(a) shall be deemed to have been in the employment of the employer, and

(b) shall, subject to subsection (6) and section 17, be treated as if the employee had not been so absent, and the absence shall not affect any right of the employee related to the employment (other than the right to remuneration during the absence), whether conferred by statute, contract or otherwise.

(2) While absent from work on additional adoptive leave an employee—

(a) shall be deemed to have been in the employment of the employer, and

(b) shall, subject to subsection (6) and section 17, be treated as if the employee had not been so absent, and the absence shall not affect any right or obligation related to the employee's employment (other than the employee's right to remuneration or superannuation benefits or any obligation to pay contributions in or in respect of the employment during the absence), whether conferred or imposed by statute, contract or otherwise.

(3) While absent from work attending pre-adoption classes or meetings in accordance with section 11A, an employee—

(a) shall be deemed to be in the employment of the employer, and

(b) shall, subject to subsection (6) and section 17, be treated as if the employee had not been so absent, and the absence shall not affect any right related to the employee's employment, whether conferred by statute, contract or otherwise.

(4) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of an employee to be offered suitable alternative employment under section 19.

(5) A period of absence from work in accordance with this Act shall not be treated as part of any other leave (including sick leave or annual leave) to which an employee is entitled.

(6) Where, on starting employment, an employee is on probation, is undergoing training in relation to it or is an apprentice, the probation, training or apprenticeship shall stand suspended during any absence from work in accordance with this Act and shall be completed by the employee on returning to work after the absence.

(7) An employee shall be deemed not to be an employed contributor for the purposes of the Social Welfare Acts for any contribution week (within the meaning of those Acts) while absent from work on adoptive leave or additional adoptive leave if the employee does not receive any reckonable earnings (within that meaning) in respect of that week.

(8) The Minister may by regulations prescribe a period or periods of training in relation to which subsection (6) shall not apply.]

F55 [General right to return to work after adoptive leave or additional adoptive leave.

18.—(1) An adopting parent ("the employee") who is absent from work while on adoptive leave or additional adoptive leave shall be entitled to return to work—

- (a) either—
 - (i) with the employer with whom the employee was working immediately before the absence, or
 - (ii) if during the absence there was a change of ownership of the undertaking in which the employee was employed immediately before the absence, with the owner (in this Act referred to as "the successor") of the undertaking when the absence ended,
- (b) in the job which the employee held immediately before the absence began, and
- (c) under the contract of employment under which the employee was employed immediately before the absence began, or (as the case may be) under a contract of employment with the successor, which is identical to the contract under which the employee was employed immediately before the absence and (in either case) under terms or conditions—
 - (i) that are not less favourable than those that would have been applicable, and
 - (ii) that incorporate any improvements in the terms and conditions of employment to which the employee would have been entitled,

if the employee had not been so absent from work.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), where the job held by the employee immediately before the absence was not the employee's normal or usual job, the employee shall be entitled to return to work, either in the normal or usual job or in the job so held, as soon as is practicable.

return to work.

20.—F59[(1) An employee who is entitled to, or is on, adoptive leave or additional adoptive leave shall cause the employer (or, if aware of a change of ownership of the undertaking concerned, the successor) to be notified in writing of the employee's intention to return to work and of the date on which the employee expects to do so—

(a) where the leave is for a period of 4 weeks or less, at the same time as the employee notifies the employer of intention to take the leave,

(b) where the leave is for a period of more than 4 weeks—

(i) subject to subparagraph (ii), in case the leave is postponed leave, either—

(I) at the same time as the employee notifies the employer under section 11C(4) of intention to take the leave, or

(II) at least 4 weeks before the date of the expected return to work,

whichever is the later,

(ii) in case the employee is deemed under section 11D(1) to be on postponed leave, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the beginning of the absence from work of the employee owing to sickness but not later than the date on which the employee expects to return to work,

(iii) in any other case, not later than 4 weeks before the date on which the employee expects to return to work.]

(2) Where, in the opinion of a rights commissioner or the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds for an adopting parent's failure to give the notice under subsection (1) or for an adopting parent giving it otherwise than in the time limits specified thereunder, the rights commissioner or Tribunal, as the case may be, shall extend the time for service of the said notice.

(3) In the absence of reasonable grounds, failure to give notice under subsection (1) or the giving of it otherwise than in the time limits specified thereunder are matters that may be taken into account by a rights commissioner, the Tribunal or Circuit Court in determining the adopting parent's rights under the Act of 1977, this Act or any other relevant enactment so far as the remedies of reinstatement, re-engagement or compensation are concerned.

PART IV

AMENDMENT OR APPLICATION OF OTHER ENACTMENTS

Unfair Dismissals Act, 1977

Amendment of section 1 of Act of 1977.

22.—Section 1 of the Act of 1977 is hereby amended by the insertion after “In this Act—” and before “contract of employment” of the following:

“‘adopting parent’ means an employee who is an employed adopting mother, an adopting father or sole male adopter within the meaning of section 2 (1) of the Adoptive Leave Act, 1995;”.

Amendment of section 2 (2) of Act of 1977.

23.—Section 2 (2) of the Act of 1977 (which specifies dismissals in relation to which that Act does not apply) is hereby amended by the insertion after paragraph (c) (inserted by the Maternity Protection Act, 1994) of the following:

F62[(d) dismissal where—

- (i) the employee’s employer at the commencement of the employment informs the employee in writing that the employment will terminate on the return to work with that employer of an adopting parent who is absent from work in accordance with the Adoptive Leave Acts 1995 and 2005 during a period of adoptive leave or additional adoptive leave or a period of time off from work while attending certain pre-adoption classes or meetings, and
- (ii) the dismissal of the employee duly occurs for the purpose of facilitating the return to work of the adopting parent.]

Amendment of section 6 of Act of 1977.

25.—Section 6 of the Act of 1977 is hereby amended by the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (2A) (inserted by the Maternity Protection Act, 1994):

“(2A) Sections 3 and 4 of this Act do not apply to a case falling within paragraph (f), (g) or (h) of subsection (2) of this section and, for the purposes of those paragraphs, ‘employee’ and ‘adopting parent’ include a person who would otherwise be excluded from this Act by paragraph (a), (c), (f) or (g) of section 2 (1) of this Act.”.

Adopting parent not permitted to return to work.

26.—(1) This section applies to an adopting parent within the meaning of section 1 of the Act of 1977 as amended by section 22 who, having complied with section 20, is entitled to return to work but is not permitted to do so by F64[his or her] employer, the successor or an associated employer.

(2) For the purposes of the Act of 1977 an adopting parent shall be deemed to have been dismissed on the date specified in the relevant notification under section 20 (1), and the dismissal shall be deemed to be an unfair dismissal unless, having regard to all the circumstances, there were substantial grounds justifying the dismissal.

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Alternative notification procedure.

41.—(1) Where an adopting parent commences employment within a period of 6 weeks before the day of placement F78[he or she] shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable but not later than the day on which F78[he or she] commences adoptive leave, cause F78[his or her] employer to be notified in writing of F78[his or her] intention to take adoptive leave, and where such notification is given, the provisions of section 7 (1) (a), 7 (2) (a) or 9 (2) (a) (i), as the case may be, shall not apply in respect of that period of leave.

(2) Where an adopting parent commences employment within a period of 6 weeks before the day of placement and wishes to take a period of additional adoptive leave before the day of placement under section 8 (5) or section 11, as the case may be, the adopting parent shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, but no later than the day on which F78[he or she] commences such leave, cause F78[his or her] employer to be notified in writing of F78[his or her] intention to take additional adoptive leave before the day of placement, and when such notification is given the provisions of section 8 (6) (a) or 11 (2) (a), as the case may be, shall not apply in respect of that period of leave.

(3) Where a child is to be placed with an adopting parent within the period of 6 weeks beginning on the commencement of this Act, the adopting parent shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable but not later than the day of placement, cause F78[his or her] employer to be notified in writing of F78[his or her] intention to take adoptive leave, and where such notification is given, the provisions of section 7 (1) (a), 7 (2) (a) or 9 (2) (a) (i), as the case may be, shall not apply in respect of that period of leave.

(4) Where a child is to be placed with an adopting parent within the period of 6 weeks beginning on the commencement of this Act and the adopting parent wishes to take a period of additional adoptive leave before the day of placement under section 8 (5) or section 11, as the case may be, the adopting parent shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, but no later than the day on which F78[he or she] commences such leave, cause F78[his or her] employer to be notified in writing of F78[his or her] intention to take additional adoptive leave before the day of placement, and when such notification is given the provisions of section 8 (6) (a) or 11 (2) (a), as the case may be, shall not apply in respect of that period of leave.

(5) An employer, who receives a notification under this section within 2 weeks of the notified day of commencement of the leave, may require the adopting parent to delay commencement of the leave, in respect of which the notification was given, for up to 2 weeks from the day on which the notification was received.

Right to adoptive leave where child placed before commencement of Act.

42.—(1) Where a child has been placed with an adopting parent at any time within the period of 10 weeks before the commencement of this Act—

- (a) the adopting parent shall be entitled to adoptive leave for a period of 10 weeks less a period equivalent to the period beginning on the day of placement and ending on the date of commencement of this Act, or
- (b) the adopting father shall, in circumstances where the adopting mother dies after the commencement of this Act, be entitled to leave for a period of 10 weeks less a period equivalent to the period beginning on the day of placement and ending on the date of the adopting mother's death.

(2) The adopting parent shall commence a period of leave referred to in subsection (1) (a) within the period of 7 days beginning on the date of commencement of this Act and shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable but not later than the day on which the leave is commenced, cause F79[his or] her employer to be notified in writing of F79[his or] her intention to take such leave.

(3) The adopting father shall commence a period of leave referred to in subsection (1) (b) within the period of 7 days beginning on the date of the death of the adopting mother and shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable but not later than the day on which the leave is commenced, cause his employer to be notified in writing of his intention to take such leave.

(4) (a) In the case of an adoption other than a foreign adoption, entitlement to leave under subsection (1) (a) shall be subject to an adopting parent causing F79[his or] her employer to be supplied with the certificate of placement as soon as is reasonably practicable but not later than 4 weeks after the commencement of the leave.

(b) In the case of a foreign adoption, entitlement to leave under subsection (1) (a) shall be subject to an adopting parent—

(i) causing F79[his or] her employer to be supplied with a copy of the declaration made pursuant to section 5 (1) (iii) (II) of the Adoption Act, 1991, before the commencement of the leave, and

(ii) causing F79[his or] her employer to be supplied with particulars in writing of the placement as soon as reasonably practicable.

(5) Paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of section 9 (2) shall apply in respect of an adopting father taking leave under subsection (1) (b).

(6) An employer who receives a notification under this section may require the adopting parent to delay commencement of the leave, in respect of which the notification was given, for up to 2 weeks from the notified day of commencement of the leave.
