(2) The instrument mentioned in column (2) of Part II of the Schedule is hereby revoked to the extent specified in column (3) of that Schedule.

PART II

REGULATION OF PAYMENT SYSTEMS

Definitions (Part II).

5. — In this Part—

“existing payment system” means a payment system operating at the time of the commencement of this section;

“payment system” means a system established in the State, or proposed to be established in the State, by any person, in which credit institutions or financial institutions participate and which provides for—

(a) all or any of the following, namely, the processing, handling, clearance and settlement of any means of payment or of any securities, or

- (b) the payment of any moneys by that means of payment, by or as between the members of the system or third parties, whether or not the processing, handling, clearance, settlement or payment of any of the moneys takes place in part or in whole within the State or outside the State;

“rules”, in relation to a payment system or a proposed payment system, means the rules governing or proposed to govern the membership and operation of the payment system.

Membership of payment system. 6. — The Bank may become a member of, or be a party to the establishment or operation of, a payment system.

Payment systems. 7. — No payment system, other than an existing payment system, shall be established or operated unless the persons who propose to establish the system have submitted the rules for such a proposed payment system (in this part referred to as a “proposed system”) to the Bank for approval and the Bank has approved of those rules.

Existing payment systems. 8. — (1) Within three months of the passing of this Act, every payment system which was in operation before such passing (in this Part referred to as “an existing system”) shall—

- (a) submit its rules to the Bank for approval, or
- (b) cease to operate.

(2) Pending a decision by the Bank to approve or not to approve of the rules of an existing system submitted to it under subsection (1) (a), the Bank may—

- (a) impose on the system such conditions or requirements as it considers appropriate to impose, or
- (b) issue a direction under section 12 as if the existing system were a system the rules of which had been approved of by the Bank.

(3) The operators of a payment system may appeal to the Court against the imposition of any condition or requirement or the giving of a direction under this section.

(4) On hearing an appeal under subsection (3) of this section, the Court may confirm, vary or rescind any condition, requirement or direction imposed under this section.

Approval of rules. 9. — (1) The Bank shall decide to approve or refuse to approve the rules of a system within three months of the receipt of a submission under section 8 (1) and where the Bank approves of the rules of an existing system or for a proposed system, it may—

- (a) make its approval subject to conditions or requirements or both as it thinks fit, and
- (b) at any time after approval, impose conditions or requirements or both on any class of payment system or amend or revoke any condition or requirement or both to which this subsection relates, whether or not previously amended by this subparagraph.

(2) Every condition or requirement imposed to which this subsection relates and every amendment thereto or revocation thereof shall be imposed, amended or revoked as the Bank sees fit in the interest of the proper and orderly regulation of the payment system concerned and of competition between payment systems and every such condition or requirement may be imposed on either or both—

- (a) that class of payment system, and
- (b) the members of that payment system.

(3) In respect of any condition or requirement to which subsection (1) (b) relates, a condition or requirement shall not be imposed, amended or revoked until—

- (a) the Bank has notified the operators or, when appropriate, the members of the payment system of its intention to so impose, amend or revoke, and
- (b) the Bank has considered any representations made by the payment system or any member thereof within such time limit as the Bank may specify when notifying the payment system.

(4) The approval by the Bank of the rules of, or for, a payment system shall not constitute a warranty as to the solvency of that system or of any member of that system and the Bank shall not be liable, by reason of its approval, in respect of any losses incurred through the insolvency or default of that system or any of its members.

(5) An application for approval of the rules of an existing system or for a proposed system shall be in such form and contain such particulars as the Bank may from time to time determine.

(6) The Bank shall not approve of the rules of an existing system or a proposed system unless the existing system or proposed system is a company incorporated under the Companies Acts, 1963 to 1990.

(7) The operator of an existing system or the promoter of a proposed system may appeal to the Court against the imposition of any condition or requirement within 21 days of the imposition thereof and the Court may, on hearing an appeal under this section, confirm, vary or rescind any condition or requirement under this section.

Refusal to approve of rules.

10. — (1) The Bank shall not refuse to approve of the rules of an existing system or for a proposed system without the consent of the Minister and unless it is satisfied that the approval would not be in the interest of the proper and orderly regulation of such a system, and the Minister shall not consent to the refusal unless he or she is satisfied that the approval would not be in the interest of the proper and orderly regulation of such a system.

(2) Whenever the Bank proposes to refuse to approve of the rules of an existing system or for a proposed system—

- (a) it shall notify the system or, in the case of a proposed system, the promoter of the system, in writing that it intends to seek the consent of the Minister to the proposed refusal and of its reasons for the refusal and that the system or the promoter may, within the period of 21 days after the date of the giving of the notification, make representations in writing to the Minister in relation to the proposed refusal,
- (b) the operators of the system or the promoter may make such representations in writing to the Minister within the time aforesaid, and
- (c) the Minister shall, before deciding to give or withhold his or her consent, consider any representations duly made to him or her under this subsection in relation to the proposed refusal.

F7[(3) In the performance of any function or duty by the Bank, or the exercise of any power by the Bank, required by or under the Treaty or the Statute, subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply.]

Application of section 17 of Act of 1971.

11. — Without prejudice to the provisions of section 9, section 17 (which relates to books and records of holders of licences) (as amended by section 36 of the Act of 1989) of the Act of 1971 shall apply as if—

- (a) every payment system to which this Part applies, and
- (b) every member of that system, who is not at the time of the commencement of this section the holder of a licence for the purpose of the Central Bank Acts, 1942 to 1989, and this Act, were the holder of such a licence.

Failure to comply with conditions or requirements.

12. — (1) Where the Bank is satisfied that a payment system or any member thereof has failed or is failing to comply with a condition or requirement under section 8 (2) (a) or section 9, the Bank may give a direction to—

- (a) the payment system to cease such activities as the Bank may specify, and
- (b) any or all of the members of the payment system to cease operating as a member or members of that system, for a specified period or until further notice by the Bank.

(2) (a) The payment system to which, or member or members thereof to whom, a direction is given under subsection (1) may apply in a summary manner to the Court for, and the Court may grant, an order setting aside the direction.

(b) The Bank may apply in a summary manner to the Court to have a direction by it under this section confirmed by the Court.

(3) The Court when considering the matter may make such interim or interlocutory order as it considers appropriate.

(4) Where the Court is satisfied, because of the nature or the circumstances of the case or otherwise in the interests of justice that it is desirable, the whole or any part of proceedings under this section may be heard otherwise than in public.

Revocation of approval of rules of payment system.

13. — (1) The Bank may—

(a) revoke an approval of the rules of a payment system if the system to which it was granted so requests,

(b) with the consent of the Minister, revoke an approval of the rules of a payment system, if—

(i) the system—

(I) has not commenced to operate within 12 months of the date on which the approval was granted, or

(II) has ceased operating for a period of more than one month,

(ii) the payment system being a company, the company is being wound up,

(iii) the payment system (being an existing system) or the promoter of a proposed system has obtained the approval of the Bank through false statements or any other irregular means,

(iv) the payment system becomes unable to meet its obligations to creditors or suspends payment lawfully due by the system or by any member thereof, or

(v) since the grant of the approval, the circumstances relevant to the grant have changed and are such that, if an application for an approval were made in the changed circumstances, it would be refused.

(2) Whenever the Bank proposes to revoke an approval (other than in pursuance of a request by the payment system to which it was granted to do so)—

(a) it shall notify the payment system concerned that it intends to seek the consent of the Minister to the revocation and of the reasons for that revocation and that the system may, within 21 days after the date of the giving of the notification, make representations in writing to the Minister in relation to the proposed revocation,

- (b) the payment system may make such representations in writing to the Minister within the time aforesaid, and
- (c) the Minister shall, before deciding to give or withhold his or her consent, consider any representations duly made to him or her under this subsection in relation to the proposed revocation.
- F8[(2A) (a) In the performance of any function or duty by the Bank, or the exercise of any power by the Bank, required by or under the Treaty or the Statute, subsections (1)(b) and (2) shall not apply.
- (b) In this subsection 'the Treaty' and 'the Statute' have the same meanings, respectively, as are assigned to them for the purposes of this Act by subsection (2) (inserted by the Central Bank Act, 1998) of section 24.]
- (3) Where an approval of the rules of a payment system is revoked and the system is not a company which is being wound up—
- (a) the system and the members thereof shall continue to be subject to the duties and obligations imposed by or under this Part or section 18 of the Act of 1971 until all liabilities of the system and its members have been discharged to the satisfaction of the Bank,
- (b) the system shall, as soon as possible after the approval is revoked, notify the Bank and such other persons (if any) as the Bank indicates are to be notified of the measures being taken or proposed to be taken to discharge in full and without undue delay the liabilities of the system and the members thereof,
- (c) in the case where—
- (i) that payment system has notified the Bank in accordance with paragraph (b) and the Bank is of the opinion that the measures being taken or proposed to be taken for the purposes of that paragraph are not satisfactory, or
- (ii) that payment system has not so notified the Bank and the Bank is of the opinion that the system has failed to so notify as soon as possible after the approval is revoked, or
- (iii) the Bank is of the opinion that the payment system has failed to take all reasonable steps to notify persons that the Bank has indicated, under paragraph (b), are to be notified,
- then, the Bank may give a direction in writing to that payment system or to any of its members for such period, not exceeding six months, as may be specified therein, prohibiting the payment system or the members thereof so directed from—
- (I) dealing with or disposing of any assets or specified assets of the payment system or of its members in any manner, or
- (II) engaging in any transaction or class of transaction or specified transaction, or
- (III) making payments,
- without the prior authorisation of the Bank, and the Bank may require that payment system or any of its members to prepare and submit to it for its approval within two months of the direction, a scheme for the orderly discharge in full of the liabilities concerned.
- (4) (a) Where the approval of the rules of a payment system is revoked and the system is a company which is being wound up, the liquidator of the company shall, in addition to the duties and obligations in respect of the winding up, be subject to the duties and obligations to which the payment system would be subject were it a payment system to which subsection (3) relates and that subsection shall, for the purpose of this subsection, be construed accordingly.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the Bank may, where it revokes an approval and considers it appropriate in the circumstances, remove in writing the duty and obligation imposed on the liquidator concerned to comply with paragraph (b) of subsection (3) and may impose in writing on that liquidator such further or other duty and obligation which corresponds to that set out in the said paragraph (b).

(c) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as affecting any duty or obligation under this Part of the members of the payment system concerned.

(5) The Bank shall as soon as may be after the revocation of an approval of the rules of a payment system publish a notice of the revocation in such manner as it thinks fit.

(6) (a) The system to which a direction was given under subsection (3), or a liquidator to whom a direction was given under subsection (4), may apply in a summary manner to the Court for, and the Court may grant, an order setting aside the direction.

(b) The Bank may apply in a summary manner to the Court to have a direction by it under this section confirmed by the Court.

(7) The Court when considering the matter may make such interim or interlocutory order as it considers appropriate.

(8) Where the Court is satisfied, because of the nature or the circumstances of the case or otherwise in the interests of justice, that it is desirable, the whole or any part of proceedings under this section may be heard otherwise than in public.

Offences.

14. — Any person who contravenes section 7 or section 8(1) and a payment system or a member thereof who—

(a) commits by act or omission a breach of a condition or requirement duly imposed and which relates to the approval by the Bank of the rules of the system, or

(b) fails by act or omission to comply with a direction confirmed by the Court under section 12 or section 13, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable—

(i) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding £1,500 or, at the discretion of the court, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to both, or

(ii) on conviction on indictment, to a fine not exceeding £50,000 or, at the discretion of the court, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both,

and

(iii) if the contravention, breach or failure in respect of which such person, payment system or member was convicted is continued after conviction, that person, system or member shall be guilty of an offence on every day on which the contravention, breach or failure continues after conviction in respect of the original contravention, breach or failure and for each such offence that person, system or member shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £100 or on conviction on indictment to a fine not exceeding £5,000.

Imposition of requirements for membership.

15. — In approving the rules of a payment system or in imposing terms and conditions for the operation of a system, the Bank may, without prejudice to any other requirement it sees fit to impose in the interests of the proper and orderly regulation of the system, impose conditions in relation to all or any of the following:

(a) the requirements for membership and rules of operation of the system;

- (b) the code of conduct to be followed by the members of the system;
- (c) the apportionment of costs as between the members themselves or between the members and the system;
- (d) the fees, contributions or any other financial requirement in relation to membership of a payment system whatsoever imposed or to be imposed on an existing member of the system or an applicant for membership of the system.

Amendment of section 26 of Act of 1971.

16. — Section 26 of the Act of 1971 is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (7) (inserted by section 42 of the Act of 1989) of the following subsections:

“(7) The Minister may, after consultation with the Bank and where he or she is of the opinion that the proper and orderly regulation of financial markets so requires, by order—

- (a) in the case of either or both subsections (2) and (3) of this section, apply those subsections or restrict their application to any class of persons, and
- (b) in the case of subsection (6) of this section, amend that subsection by the addition thereto or deletion therefrom, of any instrument specified in that subsection, and, in the case of each subsection, whether or not previously affected by virtue of this subsection.

(8) In this section ‘holder of a licence’ shall be deemed to include a credit institution within the meaning of Regulation 2 of the European Communities (Licensing and Supervision of Credit Institutions) Regulations, 1992 (S.I. No. 395 of 1992).

(9) Where the Minister is of the opinion, after consulting the Bank and such other Ministers (if any) as he considers it appropriate to consult with, that there are adequate supervisory and inspection provisions contained in any enactment relating to a financial institution or a class or type of institution to which the provisions of this Chapter would apply, then the Minister may by order specify the enactment concerned and, where necessary in the context of that enactment, the institution or class or type of institution to which the order relates and, accordingly, those provisions shall not apply to an institution to which the order relates.

(10) The Minister may, after consulting the Bank and such other Ministers (if any) as he considers it appropriate to consult with, by order, revoke an order, under subsection (9).”.

Exemption of payment systems.

17. — The Bank may exempt a payment system or a class of payment system from some or all of the requirements of this Part on such terms and conditions as the Bank may decide, where it is of the opinion that the application of this Part to that system or class of system is not necessary in the interest of the proper and orderly regulation of financial transactions in the State.

Payment of fees.

18. — F9[(1) The Bank may, subject to the approval of the Minister, prescribe the fee that a person who operates a payment system must pay to the Bank in relation to the operation of the system. Different fees may be prescribed for different classes of operators of payment systems.]

(2) Where the F9[Bank] proposes to prescribe a fee under subsection (1), F9[it]—

- (a) shall notify the persons of the class to which the proposed fee relates of that proposed fee, and

(b) shall not prescribe the fee until F9[it] has considered any representations made to F9[it] within such period, being not less than two months after the date the notification was sent to each person concerned.

Prohibition of revocation of certain payments.

19. — Where any credit institution instructs the F10[Bank] to make a payment to the F10[Bank] or to another credit institution that instruction may not be revoked on or after the debiting of the account of such credit institution.

Electronic settlement of accounts.

20. — Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any enactment relating to settlement or other accounts held at the Bank, all payment instructions and authorisations to and from the Bank shall be effective if made through a computerised system established by the Bank or in any other electronic form and not otherwise recorded within the Bank (without the need for an instrument in writing).

Amendment of section 7 of Act of 1942.

21. — The following section is hereby substituted for section 7 of the Act of 1942:

“7.— (1) It shall be lawful for the Bank to do all or any of the following things, that is to say:

- (a) buy or sell coin or gold or silver bullion, or other precious metal, or any currency or currency units, however described;
- (b) receive deposits;
- (c) open accounts in other countries or act as agent, depository, or correspondent of any credit institution carrying on business in or outside the State;
- (d) with the consent of the Minister acquire, hold, or dispose of shares in a bank or other institution formed wholly or mainly by banks which are the principal currency authority in their respective countries;
- (e) re-discount any exchequer note or bill, local authority bill, bill of exchange or promissory note on such terms and conditions as the Bank sees fit;
- (f) make loans or advances to credit institutions on the security of such assets and subject to such terms and conditions as the Bank sees fit;
- (g) fix and publish from time to time the minimum rate or rates at which the Bank may re-discount any bill or debt instrument or otherwise make funds available to credit institutions;
- (h) buy, hold, or sell securities;
- (i) keep registers of securities generally;
- (j) operate or participate in any depository of securities or of other instruments;
- (k) keep the accounts for the clearing and settlement of securities or payment instruments;
- (l) become a member of, or a party to the establishment or operation of a payment system;
- (m) operate or participate in any system that provides a settlement service for transactions in securities or other instruments for its members;
- (n) enter into agreements with any depositories of securities or other instruments and to carry out any transactions under the terms of such agreements necessary for the settlement of transactions between members of such depositories and members of any depository operated by the Bank.”.

Power to make regulations for cross-border transfers.

22. — (1) The Minister may make regulations providing for the regulation of cross-border credit transfers and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the regulations may provide, in respect of such credit transfers, for all or any of the following:

- (a) transparency;
- (b) periods of time within which establishments may be bound to make a payment;
- (c) an obligation to execute transfers in accordance with instructions in payment orders, including instructions as regards allocation of costs;
- (d) an obligation, in the event of non-execution of transfers, to refund an amount up to and including the full amount, interest and charges;
- (e) dispute resolution procedures.

(2) In this section—

“cross-border credit transfer” means a transaction carried out on the initiative of an originator via an institution or its branch in one Member State of the European Union, with a view to making available an amount of money to a beneficiary at an institution or its branch in another Member State;

“transparency” means the making available to actual and prospective customers in writing, including where appropriate by electronic means, in a readily comprehensible form, information on conditions for cross-border credit transfers.

PART III

POWER OF THE BANK TO FORM OR ACQUIRE A COMPANY

Power of Bank to form or acquire a company.

23. — (1) Subject to subsection (4), the Bank may promote and take part in the formation or establishment of one or more than one company.

(2) The Bank may acquire, hold and dispose of shares or other interests in one or more than one company and become a member of a company.

(3) The Bank may exercise total or partial control of the composition of the board of directors that controls or manages a company promoted, formed or established by it.

(4) The exercise by the Bank of any power conferred by this section shall be subject to the consent of the Minister, given after consultation with any other Minister of the Government who, in the opinion of the Minister, having regard to the functions of that Minister of the Government, ought to be consulted.

(5) The consent of the Minister shall be required for the drawing up of or amending of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of any company formed or acquired by the Bank.

(6) The functions and powers of any subsidiary of the Bank shall be limited to those conferred on the Bank.

(7) Subsection (6) shall not apply where the Bank becomes a member of, or is a party to the establishment or operation of a payment system.

F11[PART IV

FUNCTIONS OF BANK WITH RESPECT TO REGULATED FINANCIAL SERVICE PROVIDERS

CHAPTER 1

Introductory]

F12[Interpretation (Part IV).

24.—(1) In this Part—

‘affiliate’, in relation to an auditor, means a firm or body corporate specified by subsection (2) as being an affiliate of the auditor;

‘company’ has the same meaning as in section 2 (1) of the Companies Act 1963;

F13[‘financial holding company’ has the same meaning as it has in the European Union (Capital Requirements) Regulations 2014 (S.I. No. 158 of 2014);]

‘firm’ has the same meaning as in section 4 of the Partnership Act 1890;

‘guideline’ means a guideline issued under section 27A or, if such a guideline is amended, means the guideline as amended;

F13[‘mixed financial holding company’ has the same meaning as it has in the European Union (Capital Requirements) Regulations 2014;]

‘public authority’ means a body (whether corporate or incorporate) established or constituted by or under an Act that performs one or more public functions;

‘relevant obligations’, in relation to a regulated financial service provider, means the service provider's obligations under—

(a) all designated enactments and all designated statutory instruments that apply to it, and

(b) all codes, guidelines and notices issued by the Bank that apply to it, and

(c) all other enactments and statutory instruments with which it must comply;

‘work’, in relation to an auditor, includes all work of an accounting, financial or advisory nature that an auditor does for a financial service provider as well as work involved in auditing the financial service provider's accounts.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, each of the following is an affiliate of an auditor in a financial year:

(a) in the case of an auditor that is a firm—

(i) any other firm that, at any time during the financial year, was under the same ownership and control as the auditor,

(ii) any body corporate in which the auditor, any firm mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (iv) or any body corporate mentioned in subparagraph (iii) or (iv) was, at any time in the financial year, entitled to exercise or control the exercise of 20 per cent or more of the voting rights at a general meeting,

(iii) any body corporate that was, at any time in the financial year, in the same group as a body corporate mentioned in subparagraph (ii),

(iv) any other firm, or body corporate, that because of the use of a common name or corporate identity or the sharing of common professional services could reasonably be considered to be associated with the auditor,

(b) in the case of an auditor who is a natural person—

(i) any partnership in which the auditor was, at any time in the financial year, a partner,

(ii) any body corporate in which the auditor, any partnership mentioned in subparagraph (i) or any body corporate mentioned in subparagraph (iii) was, at any time in the financial year, entitled to exercise or control the exercise of 20 per cent or more of the voting rights at a general meeting,

(iii) any body corporate that was, at any time in the financial year, in the same group as a body corporate mentioned in subparagraph (ii).

(3) For the purposes of this Part, a director of a regulated financial service provider that is a body corporate is taken to be concerned in the management of the financial service provider even though the director is not involved in its day to day management.]

F13[(4) In this Part—

- (a) a reference to a financial service provider shall include a reference to a financial holding company or a mixed financial holding company,
- (b) a reference to a regulated financial service provider shall include a reference to a financial holding company or a mixed financial holding company, and
- (c) a reference to a person concerned in the management of a financial service provider shall include a reference to a person concerned in the management of a financial holding company or a mixed financial holding company.]

CHAPTER 2

Compliance and related statements

F14[Obligation of regulated service provider to provide compliance statement when required to do so by the Bank.

25.—(1) The Bank may, whenever it considers appropriate, serve on a regulated financial service provider a notice requiring the service provider to comply with this section.

(2) The Bank may also serve such a notice at the request of another public authority only if it is of the opinion that it would be in the public interest to do so.

(3) A notice must specify a reasonable period within which the requirement is to be complied with and, if the notice is served at the request of another public authority, it must specify the name and address of that authority.

(4) A regulated financial service provider on whom a notice is served shall provide the Bank with a compliance statement within the required period.

(5) If the compliance statement is provided at the request of another public authority, the financial service provider concerned shall, also within the required period, provide the public authority with a copy of the statement.

(6) A compliance statement must, in accordance with any relevant guideline, specify whether the regulated financial service provider concerned has, during the compliance period specified in the notice, complied with its relevant obligations, or with such of them as are specified in the notice.

(7) A compliance statement must also comply with the guidelines (if any) from time to time issued under section 27A (1).

(7A) In the case of a regulated financial service provider that is a company to which section 205E of the Companies Act 1990 applies, the Bank may, instead of serving on the financial service provider a notice under this section, rely on a compliance statement prepared under that section if it is satisfied that the statement contains the information that would be required to be included in a compliance statement under this section.

(8) In this section—

‘notice’ means a notice in writing served under this section;

‘required period’, in relation to a notice served on a regulated financial service provider, means the period specified in the notice within which the service provider must comply with the notice or, if the Bank extends that period, that extended period.]

F15[Compliance statement to be accompanied by auditor's report if required.]

26.—(1) If a notice served under section 25 so requires, the financial service provider concerned shall request that service provider's auditor to prepare a report about the relevant compliance statement.

(2) Within such period as is specified in the notice, the auditor shall prepare a report about the relevant compliance statement and deliver the report to the financial service provider concerned.

(3) Such a report must—

(a) state whether the relevant compliance statement is, in the auditor's opinion, fair and reasonable in the light of the information obtained by the auditor, or by an affiliate of the auditor, in the course of undertaking work for the service provider, and

(b) if the auditor is of the opinion that the compliance statement is not fair and reasonable, specify the reasons why, in the auditor's opinion, that statement is not fair and reasonable.

(4) As soon as practicable after receiving a report prepared in accordance with this section, the financial service provider concerned shall—

(a) attach the report to the compliance statement, or

(b) if that statement has already been delivered to the Bank, deliver the report to the Bank, and if another public authority requested the compliance statement, also deliver a copy of the report to the public authority.

(5) If a report prepared in accordance with this section relates to a financial service provider that is a company, the auditor shall include a copy of the report in the auditor's report on the company's accounts that are required to be laid before the company in general meeting.]

F16[Offences under section 25 or 26.]

27.—(1) A regulated financial service provider who fails to comply with a requirement of section 25 or 26 commits an offence and is—

(a) if tried summarily, liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,000, or

(b) if tried on indictment, liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €75,000.

(2) A regulated financial service provider who, having been convicted of an offence of failing to comply with a requirement of section 25 or 26, continues to fail to comply with the requirement commits a further offence on each day or part of a day during which the failure continues after that conviction and—

(a) if tried summarily, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €200 for each such day or part of a day, or

(b) if tried on indictment, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €7,500 for each such day or part of a day.

(3) If a regulated financial service provider that is a body corporate commits an offence under subsection (1) or (2), each person who, at the time when the offence is found to have been committed, was concerned in the management of the body commits a separate offence, unless the person establishes that—

(a) the body committed the offence without the person's knowledge, or

(b) although the person did have that knowledge, the person took all reasonably practicable steps to prevent the commission of the offence.

(4) A person may be charged with having committed an offence under subsection (3) even if the financial service provider concerned is not charged with having committed an offence under subsection (1) in relation to the same matter.

(5) A person who is convicted of an offence under subsection (3) is liable to a fine not exceeding that prescribed by subsection (1) or (2) for a regulated financial service provider.]

F17[(6) (a) Subsection (1) does not apply if the regulated financial service provider concerned has a reasonable excuse.

(b) It is a reasonable excuse for the purposes of paragraph (a) for a regulated financial service provider to fail to comply with a requirement under section 25 or 26 that such compliance might tend to incriminate the regulated financial service provider.

(c) Paragraph (b) does not limit what is a reasonable excuse for the purposes of paragraph (a).]

F18[Bank may issue guidelines.

27A.—(1) The Bank may from time to time issue guidelines with which a compliance statement must comply.

(2) The Bank may also from time to time issue guidelines specifying the manner in which the persons concerned in the management of regulated financial service providers, or of regulated financial service providers of a specified class, are required to exercise control over those service providers so as to ensure that those service providers comply with their obligations under the designated enactments and designated statutory instruments that apply to them.

(3) Whenever the Bank issues guidelines under this section, or amends or revokes those guidelines, the Bank must publish in Iris Oifigiúil a notice—

(a) stating that the guidelines have been issued, or have been amended or revoked, and

(b) specifying a place or places where copies of the guidelines, or the amendment or revocation, may be obtained.

(4) The Bank shall publish guidelines issued under this section, or any amendment or revocation of those guidelines, in a publication chosen by the Bank.

(5) Guidelines issued under this section take effect on the date on which the notice of their issue is published in Iris Oifigiúil or on such later date as is specified in the publication.

(6) The Bank may amend or revoke guidelines issued under this section.

(7) An amendment or revocation of a guideline issued under this section takes effect on the date on which notice of the amendment or revocation is published in Iris Oifigiúil or on such later date as is specified in the notice.

(8) All courts and tribunals are required to take judicial notice of guidelines in force under this section.]

F19[CHAPTER 3

Obligations of auditors of regulated financial service providers

Auditor of regulated financial service provider to lodge annual report with Bank.

27B.—(1) This section applies to an auditor who is required by or in accordance with a prescribed enactment to report a matter to the Bank.

(2) Within 1 month after the date of the auditor's report on the financial service provider's accounts, or within such extended period as the Bank allows, the auditor of the service provider shall deliver a written report to the Bank—

(a) stating whether or not circumstances have arisen that require the auditor to report a matter to the Bank under a prescribed enactment and, if such circumstances have arisen, specify those circumstances, and

(b) where the service provider has, during that financial year, been required to provide the Bank with a compliance statement stating whether or not the requirement has been complied with.

(3) A report under this section must be in a form publicly notified by the Bank.

(4) The following are prescribed enactments for the purpose of this section:

- (a) section 35 of the Insurance Act 1989;
- (b) section 47 of the Central Bank Act 1989;
- (c) section 89 of the Building Societies Act 1989;
- (d) section 38 of the Trustee Savings Banks Act 1989;
- (e) section 258 of the Companies Act 1990;
- (f) section 15 of the Unit Trusts Act 1990;
- (g) section 16 of the Investment Limited Partnerships Act 1994;
- (h) section 33 of the Investment Intermediaries Act 1995;
- (i) section 34 of the Stock Exchange Act 1995;
- (j) section 122 of the Credit Union Act 1997;

F20[(k) Regulation 85 of the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2003;]

F20[(l) Regulation 52 of the European Union (Capital Requirements) Regulations 2014;]

F20[(m) Regulation 78 of the European Union (Insurance and Reinsurance) Regulations 2015;]

F21[(n) any other provision of an Act or regulations declared under subsection (5) to be a prescribed enactment for the purpose of this section.]

(5) The Bank may, by notice published in Iris Oifigiúil, declare a provision of an Act or regulations to be a prescribed enactment for the purpose of this section.]

F22[Auditor assurance.

27BA.— (1) Where the Bank considers it necessary owing to the nature, scale or complexity of the activities of a regulated financial service provider, it may, by notice in writing to the auditor of the regulated financial service provider, require the auditor to conduct an examination for the purpose of providing to the Bank a statement as to the extent to which the regulated financial service provider has complied with obligations imposed by or under such provisions of financial services legislation as are specified in the notice.

(2) The notice—

- (a) shall be given not less than 3 months before the date on which the auditor's report on the regulated financial service provider's accounts is due to be submitted to the Bank, and
- (b) shall specify the standards in accordance with which the examination is to be conducted.

(3) The auditor shall conduct an examination in accordance with the notice and during the examination shall undertake such testing procedures and obtain such information as the auditor thinks appropriate.

(4) The auditor shall, not more than 2 months after the date on which the auditor's report on the regulated financial service provider's accounts is due to be submitted to the Bank, provide to the Bank a statement outlining the findings of the examination (including, in particular, the outcome of the testing procedures undertaken, and the information obtained, by the auditor during the examination).

(5) If the auditor is not satisfied that the regulated financial service provider has complied with an obligation imposed by or under the provisions of financial services legislation specified in the notice, the auditor shall include in the statement the reasons why the auditor is not so satisfied.

(6) The Bank may make regulations prescribing the obligations imposed by or under provisions of financial services legislation any or all of which may be specified in a notice under subsection (1).

(7) The Bank may prescribe an obligation imposed by or under a provision of financial services legislation in regulations under subsection (6) if and only if the provision concerns—

- (a) administrative or accounting procedures of regulated financial service providers,
- (b) internal control mechanisms of, or risk management by, regulated financial service providers, or
- (c) the organisational structure or governance of regulated financial service providers.

(8) Before making regulations under this section the Bank shall consult the Minister and the Minister for Jobs, Enterprise and Innovation.

(9) In specifying under subsection (2)(b) the standards in accordance with which an examination is to be conducted, the Bank shall have regard to internationally recognised standards for assurance and auditing.]

F23[Duty of auditor to provide Bank with copies of certain reports.

27C.—(1) If the auditor of a regulated financial service provider provides the financial service provider, or those concerned in its management, with a report on a matter that has come to the auditor's notice while auditing the accounts of the financial service provider or carrying out any other work for the financial service provider of a kind specified by the Bank, the auditor shall provide the Bank with a copy of the report. The copy must be provided at the same time as, or as soon as practicable after, the original is provided to the financial service provider or those concerned in its management.

(2) If—

- (a) an auditor of a regulated financial service provider invites the financial service provider, or the persons concerned in its management, to comment on a draft of a report referred to in subsection (1), and
- (b) the financial service provider or those persons comment on the draft in response to the invitation, the obligation of the auditor under that subsection applies only to the final version of the report.

(3) If, in relation to the financial year of a regulated financial service provider, there has been no reason for the auditor of the service provider to provide such a report, the auditor shall nevertheless notify the Bank in writing that this is the case.]

F24[Duty of auditor to provide Bank with copies of reports sent to Director of Corporate Enforcement.

27D.—Whenever an auditor of a regulated financial service provider that is a company provides the Director of Corporate Enforcement with a report or other document in accordance with a requirement imposed by the Companies Acts or any other enactment, the auditor shall also provide the Bank with a copy of that report or document. The copy must be provided at the same time as, or as soon as practicable after, the original is provided to the Director of Corporate Enforcement.]

F25[Bank may request auditor of regulated financial service provider to provide Bank with report on certain matters.

27E.—(1) The Bank may, by notice in writing, request an auditor of a regulated financial service provider, or an affiliate of the auditor, to provide the Bank with a report on all or any of the following:

- (a) the service provider's accounting or other records;
- (b) the systems (if any) that the service provider has in place to ensure that the service provider acts prudently in the interests of its members (if a company or firm) and the interests of those to whom the service provider provides financial services;

(c) any other matter in respect of which the Bank requires information about the service provider, or the service provider's activities, to enable the Bank to perform a function imposed on it by or under an Act.

(2) The auditor or affiliate shall comply with such a request within such period as is specified in the request, or within such extended period as the Bank may allow.

(3) If the Bank so directs, the auditor or affiliate shall not, without the consent of the Bank, disclose to the financial service provider concerned, or any person concerned in the management of, or employed by, that service provider—

(a) the fact that the auditor or affiliate has received a request under subsection (1), or

(b) any information that might lead that service provider, or any such person, to suspect that the auditor or affiliate has received such a request.]

F26[Bank may require auditor of regulated financial service provider to provide certain documents.

27F.—(1) The Bank may, by notice in writing, require an auditor of a regulated financial service provider, or an affiliate of the auditor, to provide the Bank with a copy of any record or information provided or obtained by the auditor or affiliate in connection with an audit of the financial service provider's accounts that is in the possession of the auditor or affiliate.

(2) The auditor or affiliate shall comply with such a request within such period as is specified in the request, or within such extended period as the Bank may allow.

(3) If the Bank so directs, the auditor or affiliate shall not, without the consent of the Bank, disclose to the financial service provider concerned, or any person concerned in the management of, or employed by, that service provider—

No. 644 of 2023), shall not be treated as carrying on a regulated business as a credit servicing firm.]

F70[Power of Bank to exempt certain persons from being required to hold authorisation as a retail credit firm.]

29A.— (1) The Bank may exempt a person F71[for the purposes of paragraph (e) of the definition of "retail credit firm" in section 28(1) if,] in the opinion of the Bank—

- F71[(a) the total amount or value of the relevant activities that are to be carried out by the person is such that it is reasonable to assume that the borrower or hirer, as the case may be, will be in a position to negotiate on equal terms or to obtain appropriate legal and financial advice, or]
- (b) the person is one who, under section 8 (2) of the Central Bank Act 1971, is exempted, or is a member of a class of persons that is exempted, from being required to hold a banking licence, or
- (c) the person is one who F71[carries out relevant activities] solely for charitable or public purposes and at a rate of interest or on other terms more favourable than those that are currently available commercially, and the exemption would not be inconsistent with the proper and F71[orderly regulation of relevant activities] and the protection of customers of retail credit firms.

(2) The Bank may also exempt the persons belonging to a specified class of persons F72[for the purposes of paragraph (e) of the definition of "retail credit firm" in section 28(1) if,] in the opinion of the Bank—

- F72[(a) the total amount or value of the relevant activities that are to be carried out by those persons is such that it is reasonable to assume that the borrowers or hirers, as the case may be, will be in a position to negotiate on equal terms or to obtain appropriate legal and financial advice, or]
- (b) the persons are ones who, under section 8 (2) of the Central Bank Act 1971, are exempted, or belong to a class of persons that is exempted, from being required to hold a banking licence, or
- (c) the persons are ones who F72[carry out relevant activities] solely for charitable or public purposes and at a rate of interest or on other terms more favourable than those that are currently available commercially, and the exemption would not be inconsistent with the proper and F72[orderly regulation of relevant activities] and the protection of customers of retail credit firms.

(3) The power to exempt a person, or the persons belonging to a specified class, F73[for the purposes of paragraph (e) of the definition of "retail credit firm" in section 28(1)] may be exercised by the Bank either on its own initiative or on an application made by or on behalf of the person, or the persons or any of the persons belonging to that class.

(4) An exemption granted under this section is subject to such conditions as the Bank thinks fit to impose.

(5) The Bank may at any time by notice in writing—

(a) impose additional conditions on a person to whom, or on the persons belonging to a class in respect of which, an exemption has been granted under this section, or

(b) vary or revoke a condition imposed under subsection (4) or this subsection.

(6) The Bank shall revoke an exemption granted under this section if it is satisfied—

(a) that the circumstances relevant to the exemption have changed and are now such that the exemption would no longer be granted, or

(b) that a condition of the exemption is not being, or has not been, substantially complied with.

(7) The Bank shall publish in Iris Oifigiúil a notice of every exemption granted, and every revocation made, under this section.

(8) Failure to comply with subsection (7) does not affect the validity of an exemption granted, or a revocation made, under this section.

(9) F74[An exemption granted under this section shall apply to a person who, or a person belonging to a class of persons that, is exempted under this section, so long as the person]—

(a) does not carry on any kind of regulated business other than that to which the exemption relates, and

(b) complies with all conditions subject to which the exemption is granted.]

F75[(10) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) and subsection (2)(a), “the total amount or value of the relevant activities that are to be carried out” means—

(a) in relation to the provision of credit, the total amount or value of credit that is to be provided, together with any interest payable in respect of the credit,

(b) in relation to a consumer-hire agreement, the sum of the instalments and any other amounts payable under the agreement, and

(c) in relation to a hire-purchase agreement, the hire-purchase price (within the meaning of section 65 of the Act of 1995).]

F76[CHAPTER 3

Authorisations to carry on regulated businesses]

F76[Applications for authorisations.

30.—(1) A person who wishes to carry on a regulated business can apply to the Bank for an authorisation to carry on such a business.

(2) An application must—

(a) be in a form provided or specified by the Bank, and

(b) contain such information, and be accompanied by such documents, as the Bank requests, and

(c) be accompanied by the fee (if any) prescribed under section 33K of the Central Bank Act 1942 for the purposes of this subsection.

(3) The Bank may, by written notice given to an applicant, require the applicant to provide such additional information and documents as are reasonably necessary to enable it to determine the application. If such a requirement is not complied with within a period specified in the notice, not less than 14 days, the Bank may refuse the application.]

F77[Grant and refusal of applications for authorisation.

31.—(1) Except as provided by subsection (2), the Bank shall grant an application for an authorisation that complies with section 30.

(2) The Bank may refuse an application for an authorisation that complies with section 30 only if it is of the opinion that—

- (a) to grant the application would be inconsistent with the effective enforcement of any law of the State the purpose of which is to prevent or inhibit money laundering or terrorism, or
- (b) the applicant has failed to satisfy the Bank that the applicant is, or will be, able to properly fulfil the obligations imposed on holders of authorisations by or under this Part F78[or any other designated enactment and or any designated statutory instrument], or
- (c) information given to the Bank by or on behalf of the applicant in connection with the application is materially false or misleading.

(3) If the Bank proposes to refuse an application, it shall serve on the applicant a notice in writing—

- (a) specifying the grounds on which it is proposed to refuse the application, and
- (b) informing the applicant that the applicant may, within 21 days after the giving of the notice, make written representations to the Bank showing why the application should be granted.

(4) Not later than 21 days after being given a notice under subsection (3), the applicant may make written representations to the Bank showing why the application should be granted.

(5) The Bank may refuse an application only after having considered any representations made by the applicant in accordance with subsection (4).

(6) If the Bank refuses an application, it shall immediately give to the applicant written notice of the refusal. The notice must include a statement setting out the reasons for the refusal.

(7) On granting an application for an authorisation, the Bank shall—

- F79[(a) record the appropriate particulars of the applicant in the register of persons authorised to carry on any regulated business, and]
- (b) issue the applicant with an authorisation authorising the applicant to carry on the regulated business to which the application relates.]

F80[Provisions supplementary to section 31 applicable to retail credit and home reversion firms.

31A.— For the purposes of section 31(2)(b), in order to obtain and retain authorisation, a F81[person proposing to carry on, or carrying on, regulated business] shall satisfy the Bank—

- (a) that, where applicable, F81[its memorandum and articles of association] will enable it to operate in accordance with this Act, and any condition or requirement that the Bank may impose,
- (b) as to the probity and competence of F81[the person or (where it is a firm) of each of] the firm's directors and managers,
- (c) as to the suitability of F81[the person or (where it is a firm) of each of] the firm's qualifying shareholders or partners,
- (d) as to the organisational structure and management skills of the F81[person] and that adequate levels of staff and expertise will be employed to carry out its activities,

- (e) that the F81[person] has and will follow procedures that will enable the Bank to be supplied with all information necessary for the performance of the Bank's supervisory functions and to enable the public to be supplied with information that the Bank specifies,
- (f) that the organisation of the F81[person's] business structure is such that it, and any of its associated or related undertakings, (so far as appropriate and practicable) are capable of being supervised adequately by the Bank, and
- (g) as to the conduct of the F81[person's] business, financial resources and any other matters that the Bank considers necessary in the interests of the proper and orderly regulation and supervision of F81[regulated business] or in the interests of the protection of customers or potential customers.]

F82[Effect and term of authorisation.] 32.—(1) An authorisation authorises the holder to carry on a regulated business subject to and in accordance with the conditions of the authorisation.

(2) An authorisation remains in force until revoked under this Part.]

F83[Additional provisions applicable to retail credit and home reversion firms.] 32A.— (1) An authorisation granted by the Bank under section 31 to a F84[person] may specify classes of services, and additional services, that F84[the person] may provide.

(2) An authorisation granted by the Bank under section 31 of this Act to a retail credit firm may include an authorisation to act as a home reversion firm.

(3) The Bank may amend—

- (a) the classes of F85[...] services that may be provided in accordance with subsections (1) or (2), or
- (b) the designation or classification of F84[persons] or services.

(4) For the purposes of subsections (1) to (3), the Bank may use such designation or classification of F84[persons] or services as the Bank considers appropriate to describe the services provided.

(5) At any time before granting or refusing an authorisation to a F84[person], the Bank may—

- (a) request such further information from the F84[person], or
- (b) instruct an authorised officer F86[appointed under F87[Part 3 of the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013]] to make such inquiries, or carry out such investigations, as it considers necessary for the purpose of properly evaluating an application. Any such inquiries or investigations shall be carried out in accordance with this Act.

(6) In the case of a F84[person] authorised in another EEA Country, the Bank—

- (a) shall have regard to any requirements imposed on F84[the person] by an authority of that country that appears to the Bank to exercise a regulatory or supervisory role similar to that of the Bank in relation to F84[the person], and
- (b) may exchange with that authority information relevant to the carrying out of the Bank's functions under this Act or the functions of that authority under the laws of that country.]

F88[Bank may impose conditions when granting an application for an authorisation.] 33.—(1) In granting an application for an authorisation, the Bank may impose on the applicant such conditions as it considers necessary for the proper and orderly regulation of the applicant's business and, in particular, for preventing the business from being used to launder money or to finance terrorism.

(2) If the Bank grants an application subject to conditions, it shall specify those conditions in the authorisation granted to the applicant or in one or more documents annexed to that authorisation.]

F89[Imposition of conditions or requirements on authorised retail credit firms and home reversion firms.

33A.— (1) Without limiting section 33, the Bank may do all or any of the following in respect of F90[a person authorised to carry on a regulated business]:

- (a) make F90[the person's] authorisation subject to such conditions or requirements, or both, as it considers appropriate, relating to—
 - (i) the proper and orderly regulation and supervision of F90[persons authorised to carry on regulated business], and
 - (ii) the protection of their customers or potential customers;
- (b) impose conditions or requirements, or both, relating to the affairs or activities in an associated undertaking or a related undertaking;
- (c) require the display on F90[any relevant document] of a notice in a form provided or prescribed by the Bank of any information relevant to F90[the document];
- (d) at any time, impose conditions or requirements, or both, on an authorised F90[person] and either amend or revoke any condition or requirement imposed under this paragraph or under paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

(2) A condition or requirement referred to in subsection (1) may be imposed in relation to any or all of the following:

- (a) an authorised F90[person];
- (b) all authorised F90[persons];
- (c) a class or classes of authorised F90[persons];
- (d) a specified period of time or times;
- (e) an associated undertaking or related undertaking;
- (f) such matters relating to the proper and orderly regulation and supervision of authorised F90[persons], and the protection of their customers or potential customers, as the Bank considers appropriate.

(3) Without limiting subsections (1) and (2), the Bank may impose conditions or requirements on an authorised F90[person], or a class of authorised F90[persons] concerning—

- (a) the level of training, qualifications or professional competence of managers, officers or employees,
- (b) the provision of information to the Bank or to a person specified by the Bank, and
- (c) the application of a prescribed code of practice relating to—
 - (i) regulated financial service providers within the meaning of the Central Bank Act 1942, or
 - (ii) a class of regulated financial service providers whose business appears to be comparable to that of an authorised F90[person] or a class of authorised F90[persons].]

F91[(4) The Bank may also impose on persons authorised to carry on a money transmission business a condition or requirement to raise and maintain such capital or other financial resources as may be specified by the Bank.

(5) The Bank may also impose on a debt management firm F92[or credit servicing firm] a condition or requirement to effect a policy of professional indemnity insurance—

- (a) in such form,
 - (b) providing indemnification up to such sum and in respect of such matters, and
 - (c) valid for such minimum period,
- as the Bank may specify from time to time.]

F93[Bank may amend authorisation.

34.—The Bank may from time to time amend an authorisation—

- (a) by varying any of its conditions, or
- (b) by replacing or revoking an existing condition, or
- (c) by adding a new condition,

but only after giving to that holder a notice in writing of its intention to do so and an opportunity to be heard by, or to make written representations to, the Bank in relation to the proposed amendment.]

F94[Transitional provisions.

34C.— (1) Despite section 29, a person carrying on the business of a retail credit firm, or a home reversion firm, immediately before the commencement of Part 2 of the Markets in Financial Instruments and Miscellaneous Provisions Act 2007 is taken to be authorised as a regulated business until the Bank has granted or refused authorisation to the person, provided the person applies to the Bank under section 30 for authorisation no later than 3 months after that commencement.

(2) If a person is taken to be authorised as a regulated business under subsection (1), the Bank may do either or both of the following:

- (a) impose on that person such conditions or requirements or both as the Bank considers appropriate relating to the proper and orderly regulation and supervision of a regulated business;
- (b) direct that person not to carry on the business of a retail credit firm, or the business of a home reversion firm, for such period (not exceeding 3 months) as is specified in the direction.

(3) A condition or requirement imposed, or a direction given, under this section is an appealable decision for the purposes of Part VIIA of the Central Bank Act 1942.]

F95[Transitional provision for existing debt management firms.

34D.— (1) Notwithstanding section 29, a person carrying on the business of a debt management firm immediately before the commencement of Part 10 of the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 is taken to be authorised to carry on the business of a debt management firm until the Bank has granted or refused authorisation to the person, provided that the person applies to the Bank under section 30 for authorisation no later than 3 months after that commencement.

(2) If a person is taken to be authorised to carry on the business of a debt management firm under subsection (1), the Bank may do either or both of the following:

- (a) impose on that person such conditions or requirements or both as the Bank considers appropriate relating to the proper and orderly regulation and supervision of debt management firms;
- (b) direct that person not to carry on the business of a debt management firm for such period (not exceeding 3 months) as is specified in the direction.

(3) A condition or requirement imposed, or a direction given, under this section is an appealable decision for the purposes of Part VIIA of the Act of 1942.]

F96[Transitional provision for existing retail credit firms

34E. (1) Notwithstanding section 29, a person carrying on the business of a retail credit firm who did not require authorisation immediately before the coming into operation of the Consumer Protection (Regulation of Credit Servicing Firms) Act 2015 is taken to be authorised to carry on the business of a retail credit firm until the Bank has granted or refused authorisation to the person, provided that the person applies to the Bank under section 30 for authorisation no later than 3 months after that coming into operation.

(2) If a person is taken to be authorised to carry on the business of a retail credit firm under subsection (1), the Bank may do either or both of the following:

(a) impose on that person such conditions or requirements or both as the Bank considers appropriate relating to the proper and orderly regulation and supervision of retail credit firms;

(b) direct that person not to carry on the business of a retail credit firm for such period (not exceeding 3 months) as is specified in the direction.

F101[Transitional provision for existing credit servicing firms: further supplementary provision

34FB. (1) Notwithstanding section 29, where a person (other than a person taken to be authorised to carry on the business of a credit servicing firm by virtue of section 28(3), (3A), (4) or (5)) carrying on the business of a credit servicing firm, in so far as that business relates to—

- (a) specified credit matters, or
- (b) specified hire matters,

immediately before the coming into operation of section 2 (a)(iii) of the Consumer Protection (Regulation of Retail Credit and Credit Servicing Firms) Act 2022, applies to the Bank under section 30 for authorisation no later than 3 months after that coming into operation, that person is taken to be authorised to carry on the business of a credit servicing firm, in so far as that business relates to specified credit matters or specified hire matters, as the case may be, after such coming into operation until the Bank has granted or refused authorisation to the person.

(2) If a person is taken to be authorised to carry on the business of a credit servicing firm under subsection (1), the Bank may do either or both of the following:

- (a) impose on that person such conditions or requirements or both as the Bank considers appropriate relating to the proper and orderly regulation and supervision of credit servicing firms;
- (b) direct that person not to carry on the business of a credit servicing firm for such period (not exceeding 3 months) as is specified in the direction.

(3) A condition or requirement imposed, or a direction given, under this section is an appealable decision for the purposes of Part VIIA of the Act of 1942.

(4) In this section—

"specified credit matters" means credit servicing within the meaning of paragraph (a) of the definition of "credit servicing" in subsection (1) of section 28 relating to classes of credit included within the definition of "credit" in that subsection which were not included in that definition immediately before the coming into operation of section 2 (a)(ii) of the Consumer Protection (Regulation of Retail Credit and Credit Servicing Firms) Act 2022;

"specified hire matters" means credit servicing within the meaning of paragraph (b) of the definition of "credit servicing" in section 28(1).]

F102 [Obligation on credit servicing firm and holder of legal title to credit

34G. (1) A credit servicing firm shall not, on its own behalf or on behalf of, or on the instructions of, a person F103 [who holds the legal title to the rights of the creditor under a credit agreement or the legal title to the rights of the owner under a consumer-hire agreement or a hire-purchase agreement], take or fail to take an action, if the taking of or the failure to take the action would otherwise be a prescribed contravention if a retail credit firm took or failed to take that action.

(2) A person F103 [who holds the legal title to the rights of the creditor under a credit agreement or the legal title to the rights of the owner under a consumer-hire agreement or a hire-purchase agreement] shall not instruct a credit servicing firm to take or fail to take an action, if the taking of or the failure to take the action would otherwise be a prescribed contravention if a retail credit firm took or failed to take that action.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to a class A fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or both, or
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine not exceeding €250,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or both.]

F104 [Offence to fail to comply with certain conditions and requirements.

35.—(1) The holder of an authorisation shall comply with—

- (a) the requirements imposed on holders of authorisations by this Part, and
- (b) the conditions (if any) of the authorisation, and
- (c) the requirements (if any) imposed by regulations in force under this Part.

(2) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and—

- (a) if tried summarily, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,000, or
- (b) if tried on indictment, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €75,000.]

F105 [Revocation of authorisation by Bank on application of holder.

36.—The Bank shall revoke an authorisation on the application of the holder of the authorisation, but only if satisfied that the holder of the authorisation has fully complied with the provisions of this Part F106 [and such of the other designated enactments and designated statutory instruments as apply] and the conditions of the authorisation.]

F107 [Revocation of authorisation by Bank otherwise than on application of holder.

36A.—(1) The Bank may revoke an authorisation on being satisfied on reasonable grounds that—

- (a) the holder of the authorisation has not begun to carry on a regulated business within 12 months after the date on which the authorisation was granted, or
- (b) the holder of the authorisation has not carried on such a business within the immediately preceding 6 months, or
- (c) the authorisation was obtained by means of a false or misleading representation, or
- (d) the holder of the authorisation has contravened or is contravening, or has failed or is failing to comply with a provision of this Part F108 [or any other designated enactment or designated statutory instrument], a condition of

- the authorisation or a requirement imposed by or under this Part F108[or any other designated enactment or designated statutory instrument], or
- (e) if the holder of the authorisation is a natural person, the holder is adjudicated bankrupt, or
- (f) if the holder of the authorisation is a partnership, the partnership is dissolved by the death or bankruptcy of a partner or because of the operation of a provision of the Partnership Act 1890, or
- (g) if the holder of the authorisation is a body corporate, the winding-up of the body has commenced, or
- (h) the holder of the authorisation is so structured, or business of the holder is so organised, that the holder is no longer capable of being regulated to the satisfaction of the Bank, or
- (i) the circumstances under which the authorisation was granted have changed to the extent that an application for authorisation would be refused had the application been made in the changed circumstances, or
- (j) the holder of the authorisation suspends payments due to creditors, or is unable to meet any other obligations to creditors of the holder, or
- (k) if the holder of the authorisation is a branch or subsidiary of a body corporate that has its head office in another country that is an EEA country, the authority of that other country that performs functions similar to those of the Bank under this Part has terminated the authority of that body to carry on a regulated business in that other country, or
- (l) the holder of the authorisation, or officer of that holder, is convicted of—
- (i) an offence against this Part or against any other designated enactment or designated statutory instrument, or
- (ii) an offence involving fraud, dishonesty, breach of trust, money laundering or financing F109[terrorism, or]
- F108[(m) the holder of the authorisation is not, in the opinion of the Bank, a fit and proper person to hold the authorisation, or
- (n) any officer or qualifying shareholder of the holder of the authorisation is not, in the opinion of the Bank, a fit and proper person to be such an officer or shareholder, or
- (o) it is necessary in the interests of the proper and orderly regulation and supervision of the regulated business concerned.]
- (2) If the Bank proposes to revoke an authorisation, it shall serve on the holder of the authorisation a notice in writing informing the holder of the Bank's intention to revoke the authorisation. The notice must—
- (a) specify the grounds on which it is proposed to revoke the authorisation, and
- (b) inform the holder of the authorisation that the holder may, within 21 days after service of the notice, make written representations to the Bank showing why the authorisation should not be revoked.
- (3) Not later than 21 days after a notice is served on the holder of an authorisation in accordance with subsection (2), the holder may make written representations to the Bank showing why the authorisation should not be revoked.
- (4) The Bank may revoke the authorisation only after having considered any representations made by the holder of the authorisation in accordance with subsection (3).
- (5) As soon as practicable after revoking an authorisation under this section, the Bank shall give written notice of the revocation to the person who was the holder of the authorisation. The notice must include a statement of the reasons for revoking the authorisation.

(6) Revocation of an authorisation under this section takes effect on and from the date of the notice of revocation or, if a later date is specified in the notice, on and from that date, irrespective of whether an appeal against the revocation is made under Part VIIA of the Central Bank Act 1942.]

F110[Bank may direct holder of authorisation to suspend business.]

36B.—(1) If the Bank reasonably believes that there may be grounds for revoking an authorisation under section 36A, it may give to the holder of the authorisation a direction in writing prohibiting it from carrying on a regulated business otherwise than in accordance with conditions specified by the Bank.

(2) A direction given under this section—

(a) must include a statement of the Bank's reasons for giving the direction and specify the conditions with which the holder of the authorisation must comply, and

(b) remains in force for such period (not exceeding 6 months) as is specified in the direction.

(3) A direction takes effect from the date of the direction or, if a later date is specified in the direction, from that date, irrespective of whether or not the holder of the authorisation appeals against the direction.

(4) The holder of an authorisation shall comply with a direction given under this section and the conditions (if any) contained in the direction.

(5) The Bank may, by notice in writing given to the holder of the authorisation concerned, amend or revoke a direction given under this section.

(6) Without limiting subsection (5), the Bank may from time to time, by notice in writing given to the holder of the authorisation concerned, extend the period during which a direction remains in force by a further period not exceeding 6 months.

(7) A direction given under this section ceases to have effect—

(a) at the end of the period specified in the direction, or if the period is extended under subsection (6), at the end of the extended period, or

(b) on the revocation of the holder's authorisation under this Part, whichever first occurs.

(8) A person who contravenes a direction given under this section, or fails to comply with a condition of the direction, commits an offence and—

(a) if tried summarily, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €2,000, or

(b) if tried on indictment, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €75,000.]

F111[Bank to publish notice of revocation or suspension.]

36C.—As soon as practicable after revoking an authorisation under section 36 or section 36A, or giving a direction under section 36B, the Bank shall publish in a publication of its choice a notice giving particulars of the revocation or direction.]

F112[Bank to keep register of persons authorised to carry on regulated businesses.]

36D.—(1) The Bank is required to establish and keep a register of persons authorised to carry on regulated businesses.

(2) The register must contain the name and the address of the principal place of business of each person authorised to carry on a regulated business and such other information as the Bank determines.

(3) The register may be in book form, electronic form or such other form as the Bank determines from time to time. If the register is kept in an electronic form that is not visually readable, it must be capable of being reproduced in a visually readable form.

(4) The Bank is to keep the register at its head office or at such other place as it specifies by notice published in Iris Oifigiúil.

(5) Members of the public are entitled, without charge, to inspect the register during the ordinary business hours of the Bank.

- (a) contravening a provision of this Part, or
- (b) attempting to contravene such a provision, or
- (c) aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring a person to contravene such a provision, or
- (d) inducing or attempting to induce, whether by threats, promises or otherwise, a person to contravene such a provision, or
- (e) being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or a party to, the contravention by a person of such a provision, or
- (f) conspiring with others to contravene such a provision, the Court may make an order restraining the person from engaging in the conduct. The Court may include in the order a requirement that the person do a specified act.

(2) If a person has refused or failed, is refusing or failing, or is about to refuse or fail, to do an act that the person is required to do by or under a provision of this Part, the Court may make an order requiring the person to do that act.

(3) An order under this section may be made only on the application of the Bank or some other person whose interests have been, are or would be affected by the conduct or by the refusal or failure to do the act concerned.

(4) The Court may hear an application for an order under this section only if it is satisfied that the person in relation to whom the order is sought has been served with a copy of the application at least 7 days before the hearing.

(5) An order under this section may be made on such terms as the Court thinks appropriate.

(6) The Court may grant an interim order pending the determination of an application under this section.

(7) If the Bank applies to the Court to make an order under this section, the Court may not require the applicant or any other person to give an undertaking as to damages as a condition of granting an interim order.

(8) The Court may discharge or vary an order made under this section.

(9) The power of the Court to make an order restraining a person from engaging in conduct may be exercised—

- (a) whether or not it appears to the Court that the person intends to repeat, or to continue, the conduct, and
- (b) whether or not the person has previously engaged in that kind of conduct, and
- (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any other person if the person engages in that kind of conduct.

(10) The power of the Court to grant an injunction requiring a person to do an act may be exercised—

- (a) whether or not it appears to the Court that the person intends to refuse or fail again, or to continue to refuse or fail, to do that act, and
- (b) whether or not the person has previously refused or failed to do that act, and
- (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any other person if the person refuses or fails to do that act.

(11) Whenever the Court has power under this section to make an order restraining a person from engaging in particular conduct, or requiring a person to do a particular act, it may, either in addition to or instead of making such an order, order the person to pay damages to another person.]

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1)—

(a) the authorisation or revocation of authorisation or supervision or regulation of any person under any of its statutory functions shall not constitute a warranty as to the solvency or performance of a person and neither the State nor the Bank shall be liable for any losses incurred through the insolvency, default or performance of such person,

(b) the approval or revocation of approval or supervision or regulation of any exchange or the approval, amendment, revocation or imposition of rules or the consent or refusal of consent to amendments of rules under any of its statutory functions shall not constitute a warranty as to the solvency or performance of any exchange or member of any exchange and neither the State nor the Bank shall be liable for any losses incurred through the insolvency, default or performance of any exchange or member of any exchange.”.

Amendment of Act of 1971.

70. — The Act of 1971 is hereby amended—

(a) by the deletion of subsection (1) (as amended by the European Communities (Deposit Guarantee Schemes) Regulations, 1995 (S.I. No. 168 of 1995)) of section 7 and the substitution therefor of the following subsection:

“(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a person, other than the Bank, shall not, in or outside the State, carry on banking business or hold himself out or represent himself as a banker or as carrying on banking business or on behalf of any other person accept deposits or other repayable funds from the public, unless he is the holder of a licence.”,

(b) by the substitution in section 2 (as amended by section 29 of the Act of 1989) for the definition of “ banking business ” of the following definition:

“ ‘ banking business ’ means—

(a) the business of accepting, on own account, sums of money from the public in the form of deposits or other repayable funds whether or not involving the issue of securities or other obligations, howsoever described, or

(b) the business aforesaid and any other business normally carried on by a bank, which may include the granting of credits on own account;

but excluding—

(i) deposits with a trader from persons employed by him in his trading business or from his customers in the normal course of his trading business and deposits or instalments in respect of the letting, leasing or selling of goods under a hire-purchase agreement, or a leasing agreement or a credit-sale agreement, or

(ii) a sum or sums of money accepted as security or collateral or as a bond for the repayment of a debt or the performance of a contract related to goods or services, or

(iii) a sum or sums of money accepted by way of advance or part payment under a contract for the sale, hire or other provision of goods or services, and repayable only in the event that the goods or services are not in fact sold, hired or otherwise provided, or

- (iv) a sum or sums of money accepted solely as a premium in respect of the issue or renewal of a life assurance policy issued by a holder of an authorisation under the European Communities (Life Assurance) Regulations, 1984 (S.I. No. 57 of 1984), or
 - (v) a sum or sums of money accepted as a contribution within the meaning of the Pensions Acts, 1990 to 1996, or
 - (vi) a sum or sums of money accepted by a person where it can be shown that—
 - (I) no part of the business activities of the person so accepting or of any other person is financed wholly or substantially out of those funds, and
 - (II) such funds are, in the normal course of business, accepted on a casual or incidental basis only, or
 - (vii) a sum or sums of money accepted under financial contracts, (within the meaning of the Netting of Financial Contracts Act, 1995) which may include the acceptance of collateral,
- and ‘banking’ and cognate words shall be construed accordingly.”,
- (c) by the insertion in section 2 of the following subsection:
- “(2) Where the Minister is of the opinion that it is consistent with the orderly and proper regulation of banking he may, after consultation with the Bank, by order amend this section to add thereto any category of funds or delete therefrom any category of funds mentioned therein for the time being.”,
- (d) by the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph (a) of section 8 (2) (as amended by section 31 of the Act of 1989):
- “(a) Subject to such conditions, if any, as it may consider appropriate, the Bank may exempt any person or any class or classes of person from the requirement to hold a licence in respect of the issuing of any category or categories of securities or other obligations, howsoever described, where—
- (i) the requirements would arise only out of the issuing of such securities or other obligations to which the definition of banking business relates; and
 - (ii) the Bank is of the opinion that the exemption would not conflict with the orderly and proper regulation of banking.”, and
- (e) by the substitution of the following section for section 27 (as amended by section 43 of the Act of 1989 and the Regulations of 1992) of the Act of 1971:
- “27.— (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, a person shall not advertise for or otherwise solicit deposits or other repayable funds from the public on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person.
- (2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to advertising for or otherwise soliciting deposits or other repayable funds from the public—
- (a) by the holder of a licence or the Bank or a person to whom, by virtue of section 7(4) of this Act, section 7(1) of this Act does not apply, or
 - (b) by a person authorised by virtue of the European Communities (Licensing and Supervision of Credit Institutions) Regulations, 1992, to carry on business in the State, or
 - (c) by any person on behalf of a person specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection.

(3) If an advertisement or other solicitation for deposits or other repayable funds from the public is published and it does not include the name and address of the person who arranged with the publisher for the advertisement or solicitation, then the Bank may, at any time within the period of twelve months after any publication of the advertisement, request the publisher to supply the name and address of that person to the Bank and the publisher shall forthwith comply with that request.

(4) In this section ‘deposits or other repayable funds from the public’ does not include the acceptance of a sum or sums of money excluded from the definition of banking business under section 2 of the Act of 1971.

(5) Reference in this section or section 58(3) of this Act (as amended by section 9 of the Act of 1989) to the solicitation of deposits, however expressed, includes every form of solicitation for deposits including, in particular, the display or publication of any such matter by way of notice, leaflet, circular, pamphlet, brochure, photograph, film, video, sound broadcasting, television, electronic communication or personal canvassing.”.

Amendment of section 11 of Act of 1971. 71. — Section 11 (as amended by section 34 of the Central Bank Act, 1989) of the Act of 1971 is hereby amended—

(a) by the insertion of the following subparagraph after subparagraph (b) in subsection (1)—

“(bb) with the consent of the Minister, revoke the licence if the business of, or the corporate structure of, the holder of the licence has been so organised or the holder of the licence has come under the control of any other undertaking not supervised by the Bank such that the holder is no longer capable of being supervised to the satisfaction of the Bank.”.

(b) by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (5)—

“(6) In this section, “control”, “fellow subsidiary”, “parent undertaking” and “subsidiary undertaking” have the meanings they have in the European Communities (Licensing and Supervision of Credit Institutions) Regulations, 1992 (S.I. No. 395 of 1992), and “associated undertaking” has the meaning it has in the European Communities (Companies: Group Accounts) Regulations, 1992 (S.I. No. 201 of 1992).”.

Amendment of section 48 of Act of 1971. 72. — Section 48 of the Act of 1971 is hereby amended by the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (3):

Amendment of section 51 of Act of 1971. 73. — (1) Section 51 of the Act of 1971 is hereby amended by the substitution of the following subparagraph for subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subsection (1)—

“(i) altering the objects and powers of the Bank of Ireland by abandoning, restricting or amending any existing object or power or by adopting a new object or power, or”.

(2) This section shall be deemed to have come into operation on the 1st day of September, 1971.

Injunction to prevent an unauthorised person acting as a credit institution. 74. — The Bank may apply to the Court to seek an injunction to prohibit the continuance by any person of any contravention of section 7 (as amended by section 30 of the Act of 1989, as amended by the European Communities (Deposit Guarantee Schemes) Regulations, 1995 (S.I. No. 168 of 1995) and as amended by this Act) of the Act of 1971, or section 27 (as amended by section 43 of the Act of 1989, as amended by the Regulations of 1992 and as amended by this Act) of the Act of 1971 where such a person is not a credit institution.

Powers of inspection. 75. — F130[...]

Search and seizure. 76. — F131[...]

Examination by Comptroller and Auditor General. 77. — (1) The Comptroller and Auditor General may, in relation to the Bank or any subsidiary F132[...] of the Bank, carry out such examinations as he or she considers appropriate for the purposes of ascertaining—

(a) whether and to what extent the resources of the Bank or any subsidiary of the Bank—

(i) have been used, and

(ii) if acquired or disposed of by the Bank or any subsidiary of the Bank, have been so acquired or disposed of, economically and efficiently,

and

(b) whether any such disposal has been effected upon the most favourable terms available.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the systems, procedures and practices employed by the Bank or any subsidiary of the Bank to evaluate the effectiveness of its operations may be examined by the Comptroller and Auditor General.

(3) The Comptroller and Auditor General may, if he or she considers it appropriate to do so, prepare a special report in writing in relation to an examination carried out by him or her under this section or any general matters arising in relation to any such examination and shall submit a copy of the report to the Minister and shall, as soon as may be, submit a copy to the Bank.

(4) The Minister shall cause a copy of a report submitted under subsection (3) to be laid before Dáil Éireann not later than three months after the date of submission to him or her.

(5) The Comptroller and Auditor General may, with the consent of the Minister, require the Bank or any subsidiary of the Bank to pay to the Comptroller and Auditor General a fee of an amount calculated on such basis as he or she may determine after consultation with the Minister in respect of an examination under this section in relation to the Bank or any subsidiary of the Bank carried out by him or her pursuant to this Act or any other enactment.

(6) A fee under this section may be recovered by the Comptroller and Auditor General as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) A fee paid under this section shall be paid into or disposed of for the benefit of the Exchequer in accordance with the directions of the Minister.

(8) The Public Offices Fees Act, 1879, shall not apply in relation to a fee paid under this section.

(9) The expenses incurred by the Comptroller and Auditor General in the administration of this section shall, to such extent as may be sanctioned by the Minister, be paid out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas.

(10) The Comptroller and Auditor General or an officer of the Comptroller and Auditor General being a person referred to in section 16 \(2\) of the Comptroller and Auditor General \(Amendment\) Act, 1993, for the purpose of obtaining any information that is required for the performance of his or her functions, on production, in the case of the officer, of his or her authorisation, if so requested—

(a) shall have access to and may take or at his or her request, shall be given such copies of or such extracts from such books, documents and records of the Bank or any subsidiary of the Bank as he or she may reasonably require,

- (b) shall have access to and may take or at his or her request, shall be given such copies of or such extracts from any data or data material of the Bank or any subsidiary of the Bank as he or she may reasonably require and may extract information from any such data,
- (c) may obtain from any officer, servant or employee of the Bank or any subsidiary of the Bank such information within his or her knowledge or control as he or she may reasonably require, including information in relation to the contents of any such books, documents or records as aforesaid, or in relation to the data aforesaid or the sources from which they are obtained or the data material aforesaid or any information extracted from such data.

(11) An officer of the Comptroller and Auditor General or person referred to in section 16 (2) of the Comptroller and Auditor General (Amendment) Act, 1993, exercising powers conferred on him or her under this section shall be authorised in writing by the Comptroller and Auditor General to exercise the powers conferred on him or her under this section for the purposes of this section.

F133[(12) In this section—

‘automated data’ means information that—

- (a) is being processed by means of equipment operating automatically in response to instructions given for that purpose, or
- (b) is recorded with the intention that it should be processed by means of such equipment;

‘data’ means automated data and manual data;

‘data equipment’ means equipment for processing data;

‘data material’ means any document or other material used in connection with, or produced by data equipment;

‘manual data’ means information that is recorded as part of a relevant filing system or with the intention that it should form part of a relevant filing system;

‘relevant filing system’ means any set of information relating to individuals to the extent that, although the information is not processed by means of equipment operating automatically in response to instructions given for that purpose, the set is structured, either by reference to individuals or by reference to criteria relating to individuals, in such a way that specific information relating to a particular individual is readily accessible.]

(13) The provisions of section 16 of the Comptroller and Auditor General (Amendment) Act, 1993, shall apply in respect of the functions of the Comptroller and Auditor General under this section.

Amendment of
*Building Societies
Act, 1989.*

78. — The Building Societies Act, 1989, is hereby amended by the insertion after section 101 of the following section:

“101A.— (1) This section shall apply where a conversion scheme specifies rights of members of the society entitling them to shares in the successor company, to acquire shares in the successor company in priority to other subscribers or to any distribution of the funds of the society.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where—

- (a) a member held shares in the society for the whole of the specified period,
- (b) any shares held by that member were jointly held for the whole or part of the specified period,
- (c) that member is named second in the records of the society for the whole or part of the period the shares were jointly held, and

(d) no person who has priority, in accordance with sub section (3), over the member referred to in paragraph (a) held shares in the society throughout the specified period, the shares jointly held shall be regarded as having been held alone by the member referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) The following persons shall be regarded, for the purposes of subsection (2), as having priority over the member referred to in paragraph (a) of that subsection, namely—

- (a) where that member was the representative joint holder of the shares for part of the period the shares were jointly held, any person who was the representative joint holder for a later part of that period,
- (b) where that member was not the representative joint holder of the shares for any part of the period the shares were jointly held—
 - (i) any person who was the representative joint holder of the shares for the whole or part of the period, and
 - (ii) if, in relation to the shares jointly held, that member is named second in the records of the society for part only of the period the shares are so held, any person who was joint holder of the shares and who was named second in the records of the society for a later part of that period.

(4) Where a member dies during the specified period at a time when the name of that member appears in the records of the society as a joint holder of shares, this section shall have effect in relation to any later time as if the member had never been so named.

(5) In this section—

“conversion scheme” means a conversion scheme where the conversion date falls after the passing of this Act;

“specified period” means the period beginning two years before the end of the day on which notice is given to members of the conversion resolution and ending on the day on which the conversion resolution is passed.”.

Information to be supplied by mortgage lenders.

79. — Every mortgage lender shall submit to the Minister for the Environment such information and returns within such period as that Minister may require from time to time for the purposes of his functions in relation to the national housing programme.

Amendment of Trustee (Authorised Investments) Act, 1958.

“Variation by order of authorised investments.

80. — The Trustee (Authorised Investments) Act, 1958, is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution of the following section for section 2:

2.— (1) The Minister for Finance may by order vary by addition or deletion and may specify such conditions as he considers proper in respect of the investment of trust funds in—

- (a) the investments specified in section 1 (as amended by section 1 of this Act) of the Trustee Act, 1893, or
- (b) where those investments have been varied by order under this subsection or under any other statutory authority, those investments as so varied.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made and if either such House, within the next subsequent twenty-one days on which it has sat after such order is laid before it, passes a resolution annulling such order, such order shall be annulled accordingly, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

(3) Before making an order under this section the Minister shall consult—

- (a) the President of the High Court,
- (b) the Governor of the Central Bank,
- (c) the Public Trustee,
- (d) the Chairperson of the Irish Bankers Federation,
- (e) the President of the Law Society of Ireland, and
- (f) the Chairperson of the Irish Stock Exchange, in regard to the terms of the proposed order.

(4) Nothing in this Act or in any order made under it shall authorise a trustee to do anything which he or she is expressly forbidden to do by the instrument creating the trust nor shall it prevent a trustee from doing anything which he or she is expressly permitted to do by the instrument creating the trust.”,

and

(b) by the substitution of the following section for section 5:

“Saver for certain investments.

5.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act where trust funds within the meaning of the Trustee Act, 1893, or money under the control of or subject to the order of any Court stand or stands invested in a manner which was authorised by law when the investment was effected but which, apart from this section, has ceased to be so authorised, authority is hereby given to continue to keep the funds or money invested in that manner.

(2) Where any condition specified in any order made under this Act would have the effect of requiring a trustee to dispose of any investment which was not in breach of any condition specified in any order made under this Act at the time the investment was effected, such trustee is hereby authorised to retain such investment.

(3) Nothing in this section shall have the effect of removing from a trustee an obligation to comply with any condition specified in any order made under this Act in respect of any investment effected by such trustee after the coming into operation of any order made under this Act.”.

Amendment of European Communities (Deposit Guarantee Schemes)
Regulations,
1995.

81. — The European Communities (Deposit Guarantee Schemes) Regulations, 1995 (S.I. No. 168 of 1995) are hereby amended—

(a) in Regulation 3 (1), by the substitution in the definition of “relevant beneficial owner” of “10 per cent.” for “20 percent.”,

and

(b) in Regulation 16 (1), by the insertion of the following after paragraph (1) (i):

“(j) deposits by financial institutions (as defined in Regulation 2 of the European Communities (Licensing and Supervision of Credit Institutions) Regulations, 1992);

(k) deposits by an insurer (as defined in section 2 of the Insurance Act, 1989);

(l) deposits by the Government of any State or central administrative authority;

(m) deposits by provincial, regional, local and municipal authorities;

(n) deposits by—

(i) undertakings for collective investments in transferable securities within the meaning of the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations, 1989 (S.I. No. 78 of 1989),

(ii) a unit trust, or

(iii) other collective investment schemes;

(o) deposits by pension and retirement funds;

(p) debt securities issued by the same institution and liabilities arising out of own acceptances and promissory notes;

(q) deposits by companies which are not permitted to draw up abridged balance sheets pursuant to section 10 (1) of the Companies (Amendment) Act, 1986, as amended by the European Communities (Accounts) Regulations, 1993 (S.I. No. 396 of 1993).”.

References to company in ICC Bank Act, 1992.

82. — F134[...]

Amendment of Stock Transfer Act, 1963.

83. — The Stock Transfer Act, 1963, is hereby amended—

(a) in section 2, by the substitution—

(i) in paragraphs (d) and (e) (inserted by the Stock Transfer (Forms) Regulations, 1991 (S.I. No. 77 of 1991)) of subsection (1), and

(ii) in subsection (5) (inserted by those Regulations), for “Gilts Settlement Office”, in each place where it occurs, of “Central Bank of Ireland Securities Settlements Office”, and

(b) in section 5, by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (4) (inserted by the Companies (Amendment) Act, 1977):

“(5) The Minister, having consulted with the Bank, may by regulation provide for the substitution for the references in that section of that name, of references to another name.”.

Representative offices.

84. — (1) Subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified by the Bank, nothing in section 7 of the Act of 1971 shall prohibit the establishment of a representative office in the State of a credit institution that is authorised in any state other than a Member State of the European Economic Area.

(2) Every representative office to which subsection (1) relates shall comply with each and every term or condition specified by the Bank under that subsection in the interests of the proper and orderly regulation of banking.

(3) Where the Bank is satisfied that the terms or conditions specified by the Bank under subsection (1) are not being complied with, it may direct the representative office to close and the office shall comply with any such direction within such period as may be specified by the Bank.

(4) A representative office shall transact no banking business in the State other than the provision of advice and information on the services provided from outside the State by the credit institution concerned.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Central Bank Acts F135[...], a representative office may use in its name or title the words “bank”, “banker” or “banking” or any variant or derivative thereof, subject to such terms or conditions as may be specified by the Bank.

(6) In this section “representative office” includes a place of business not being a branch within the meaning of the Regulations of 1992.

(7) (a) A representative office to whom a direction is given under subsection (3) may apply in a summary manner to the Court for, and the Court may grant, an order setting aside the direction.

(b) The Bank may apply in a summary manner to the Court to have a direction by it under this section confirmed by the Court.

Amendment of 85. — Section 4 (3) of the Decimal Currency Act, 1969, is hereby amended by the Decimal Currency Act, 1969 insertion of the following paragraph:

“(c) paragraph (b) of this subsection shall not apply in the case of coins made for commemorative purposes and where the coins to which the order relates are composed in whole or in part of silver or gold.”.
