- F8[(ok) a return order under section 51A of the International Protection Act 2015, or]
- (p) such other decision, determination, recommendation, refusal or order as may be prescribed by the Minister under subsection (9), made on or after the date on which section 34 of the Employment Permits (Amendment) Act 2014 comes into operation, otherwise than by way of an application for judicial review under Order 84 of Rules of the Superior Courts (S.I. No. 15 of 1986) (hereafter in this section referred to as "the Order").

(2) An application for leave to apply for judicial review under the Order in respect of any of the matters referred to in subsection (1) (hereafter in this section referred to as an "application") shall be made within the period of 28 days commencing on the date on which the person was notified of the decision, determination, recommendation, refusal or making of the order concerned unless the High Court considers that there is good and sufficient reason for extending the period within which the application shall be made, and such leave shall not be granted unless the High Court is satisfied that there are substantial grounds for contending that the decision, determination, recommendation, refusal or order is invalid or ought to be quashed.

(3) Notwithstanding the period referred to in subsection (2), rules of court may require an applicant to lodge or file with the High Court, such number of days (which shall not exceed 4 days) as may be specified in the rules before the date on which the application is to be heard, all pleadings and written submissions relating to the application.

(4) Where the High Court considers that an application involves a point of law of exceptional public importance or that, having regard to the likely impact of the proceedings on the respondent or another party, the issues arising or any other matter, it is in the interests of justice to do so, it may —

- (a) direct that the application should be heard on notice,
- (b) adjourn the application for such period (which shall not be less than 28 days) and on such terms as it may direct,
- (c) give such directions as it thinks fit as to the service on the intended respondent and on any other person of notice of the application and copies of any documents lodged under rules of court referred to in subsection (3), and the mode of, and the time allowed for, such service, and
- (d) give such other direction or make such order as it considers appropriate.

(5) The High Court, having considered an application—

- (a) shall pronounce its determination of the application in public, and
- (b) where it grants an application for leave to apply for judicial review in respect of a matter referred to in subsection (1), shall state, in respect of that matter, the relief granted and the grounds upon which that relief is granted.

(6)(a) The determination of the High Court of an application for leave to apply for judicial review to which this section applies, or of an application for such judicial review, shall be final and no appeal shall lie from the decision of the High Court to the Supreme Court in either case except with the leave of the High Court which leave shall only be granted where the High Court certifies that its decision involves a point of law of exceptional public importance and that it is desirable in the public interest that an appeal should be taken to the Supreme Court.

(b) This subsection shall not apply to a determination of the High Court in so far as it involves a question as to the validity of any law having regard to the provisions of the Constitution.

(7) The High Court shall give such priority as it reasonably can, having regard to all the circumstances, to the disposal of proceedings in that Court under this section.

(8) The Superior Court Rules Committee may make rules to facilitate the giving of effect to subsection (7).

(9) (a) The Minister may prescribe any decision, determination, recommendation, refusal or order —

(i) made under a relevant enactment or, as the case may be, an instrument made under a relevant enactment, and

(ii) concerning the entry into, presence in, removal from or exclusion from the State of a person, the conditions under which a person may be present in the State or the entitlement of a person to international protection in the State, to be a decision, determination, recommendation, refusal or order to which subsection (1) applies.

(b) In exercising his or her power under paragraph (a), the Minister shall have regard to the need for the fair and efficient administration of the relevant enactment concerned and the interests of justice.

(c) In this subsection—

F5["international protection" has the meaning it has in section 2 of the International Protection Act 2015;]

"relevant enactment" means—

(i) the Aliens Act 1935,

(ii) the Refugee Act 1996,

(iii) the Immigration Act 1999,

(iv) the Immigration Act 2003,

(v) the Immigration Act 2004,

F6[(va) the International Protection Act 2015,]

(vi) the European Communities (Free Movement of Persons) Regulations 2006 and 2008,

(vii) the European Union (Subsidiary Protection) Regulations 2013 (S.I. No. 426 of 2013), and

(viii) any Act, or instrument made under an Act, giving effect to Regulation (EU) No. 604/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013¹.]

Amendment of Refugee Act, 1996.

9.—The Refugee Act, 1996, is hereby amended—

(a) in section 9, by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (4):

"(4A) An applicant shall inform the Commissioner of his or her address and shall inform the Commissioner as soon as possible of any change of address."

(b) in section 13(3)(c) (inserted by the Immigration Act, 1999), by the substitution of "15 working days" for "21 days",

(c) in section 16(3), by the substitution of "13(3)(b)" for "13(2)(b)",

(d) in the Second Schedule (inserted by the Immigration Act, 1999), by—

(i) the substitution in paragraph 1 of "5 years" for "10 years",

(ii) the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph 2—

"2. (a) The members of the Tribunal shall be appointed by the Minister.

(b) A person shall not be appointed to be the chairperson unless the Civil Service Commissioners, within the meaning of the Civil Service Commissioners Act, 1956, after holding a competition under section 29 of that Act, have selected him or her for appointment to the position."

and

(iii) the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph 5:

"5. (a) The chairperson shall hold office under a contract of service in writing, containing such terms and conditions (including terms and conditions relating to remuneration, allowances and expenses and superannuation), as the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Finance, may from time to time determine.

(b) Each ordinary member shall be paid such remuneration and allowances and expenses as the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Finance, may from time to time determine."

Amendment of Immigration Act,
1999.

10.—The Immigration Act, 1999, is hereby amended—

(a) in section 3—

(i) by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (1):

“(1A) A person the subject of a deportation order under this section may be detained in accordance with the provisions of this Act for the purpose of ensuring his or her deportation from the State.”,

and

(ii) in subsection (9), by the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph (a):

“(a) (i) Subject to paragraph (b), where the Minister has made a deportation order under this section, the notice under subsection (3)(b)(ii) may require the person the subject of the deportation order to do any one or more of the following for the purpose of ensuring his or her deportation from the State:

(I) present himself or herself to such member of the Garda Síochána or immigration officer at such date, time and place as may be specified in the notice;

(II) produce any travel document, passport, travel ticket or other document in his or her possession required for the purpose of such deportation to such member of the Garda Síochána or immigration officer at such date, time and place as may be specified in the notice;

(III) co-operate in any way necessary to enable a member of the Garda Síochána or immigration officer to obtain a travel document, passport, travel ticket or other document required for the purpose of such deportation;

(IV) reside or remain in a particular district or place in the State pending removal from the State;

(V) report to a specified Garda Síochána station or immigration officer at specified intervals pending removal from the State;

(VI) notify such member of the Garda Síochána or immigration officer as may be specified in the notice as soon as possible of any change of address.

(ii) Where the notice under subsection (3)(b)(ii) contains a requirement to do an act specified in subparagraph (i), a member of the Garda Síochána or immigration officer may, if he or she considers it necessary for the purpose of ensuring the deportation of the person concerned from the State, require the person in writing to do any one or more of the acts specified in subparagraph (i), and any such further requirement shall have effect as if it were a requirement in a notice under subsection (3)(b)(ii).

(iii) A further requirement under subparagraph (ii) shall, where necessary and possible, be given to the person concerned in a language that he or she understands.”,

(b) in section 5, by the substitution of the following subsection for subsection (1):

“(1) Where an immigration officer or a member of the Garda Síochána, with reasonable cause suspects that a person against whom a deportation order is in force—

- (a) has failed to comply with any provision of the order or with a requirement in a notice under section 3(3)(b)(ii),
- (b) intends to leave the State and enter another state without lawful authority,
- (c) has destroyed his or her identity documents or is in possession of forged identity documents, or
- (d) intends to avoid removal from the State, he or she may arrest him or her without warrant and detain him or her in a prescribed place.”,

and

(c) in section 6—

- (i) by the substitution in paragraph (b) for “to the Minister” of “to the Registration Officer pursuant to Article 11 of the Aliens Order, 1946 (S.R. & O., No. 395 of 1946), or to the Refugee Applications Commissioner pursuant to section 9(4A) of the Refugee Act, 1996, as the case may be”, and

(ii) by the insertion of the following subsection:

“(2) Where a notice under this Act has been sent to a person in accordance with paragraph (b) of the foregoing subsection, the notice shall be deemed to have been duly served on or given to the person on the third day after the day on which it was so sent.”.
