(5) Sections 10 and 11 of the Criminal Justice Act 1960 shall apply to a person committed to a remand institution under this section.

Powers of adjournment and remand.

10. —The High Court may, in relation to a person brought before it under this Act, exercise all its powers of adjournment and remand, including, but not limited to, the powers in that respect which the Court has in relation to a person sent forward to it for trial.

Nomination of judge. 11. —The President of the High Court may nominate from time to time one or more judges of the Court, including himself or herself, to sit as soon as may be and from time to time as appears necessary so as to enable the requirements of this Act and the Agreement to be complied with.

Immunity of foreign officials. 12. —A person acting for or on behalf of a Convention state which is a party to the Agreement shall not be liable in any criminal proceedings in the State for anything done in the purported exercise of powers in relation to an Irish vessel

Restriction on arrest and proceedings. 14. —(1) Where a court or the Minister orders the release of a person who has been arrested, or of a vessel or thing which has been detained or retained, outside the F5[outer limit of the territorial sea] of the State, the release shall, subject to this Act and the Agreement, not of itself prejudice the commencement of proceedings in the State against that person or in relation to that vessel or thing in connection with the drug trafficking offence concerned or any other offence arising from the circumstances leading to or following the arrest, detention or retention.

(2) A person on board a vessel—

(a) which is registered in a Convention state which is a party to the Agreement, and

(ii) the offence is committed by the person after he or she has been taken into the territory of the State.

(3) A person on board a vessel—

(4) References in subsections (2) and (3) to the exercise of powers by an enforcement officer are to the exercise of those powers outside the outer limit of the territorial seas of the State.

Suspension of proceedings.

15. —(1) The High Court shall, on the application of the Minister, order the suspension of any proceedings commenced in any court in the State if it is satisfied that the suspension is necessary to give effect to the obligations of the State under paragraph 3 of Article 14 of the Agreement.

(2) Where it orders that proceedings be suspended, the High Court may make such other orders as are appropriate to give effect to the application by the Minister, including the revocation of any warrant of arrest issued in connection with the proceedings.

(3) For the purpose of considering an application under subsection (1), the High Court may order the adjournment of the proceedings for such period or periods, and on such conditions, as it thinks fit.

Removal of detained person to hospital or other place.

16. —The Minister may by order direct that a person in custody under this Act be removed to a hospital or other place if the Minister thinks it necessary to do so in the interests of the person's health and the person, while in or in transit to or from the hospital or other place, shall continue to be in the like custody.

Surrender of persons.

17. —(1) The Minister may by order direct that a person who has been committed under section 9, other than a person—

F6[(a) who has been released by order of the High Court under Article 40.4.2° of the Constitution or on the determination of an appeal from an order under that provision,

(aa) who has been released on the determination of an appeal to the Supreme Court (whether under Article 34.5.4° or on an appeal from a decision of the Court of Appeal),

(b) who has been released on the determination by the Court of Appeal of an appeal on a point of law,

(c) who has been released by order of the Minister under section 21, or

(d) whose surrender has been refused under section 22,]

be surrendered to such person as in the Minister's opinion is duly authorised by the requesting Convention state to receive him or her.

(2) Any person to whom an order under subsection (1) directs a person to be surrendered may receive, hold in custody and convey out of the State the person so surrendered and, if that person escapes from the custody to which he or she has been surrendered, he or she shall be liable to be retaken in the same manner as any person who escapes from lawful custody.

(3) An order under subsection (1) which is made in respect of a person who is subject to a sentence of a court in the State, may include a provision authorising the return of that person to the State in accordance with arrangements made by the Minister with—

(a) the court or tribunal exercising criminal jurisdiction in the Convention state concerned or a prosecuting authority in that state, or

(b) any other authority in that state that appears to the Minister to have the function of making such arrangements.

Surrender of vessels and any thing seized.

18. —(1) Where a vessel registered in a Convention state which is a party to the Agreement is taken by an enforcement officer to a port in the State and the vessel is detained or anything on the vessel is seized as evidence, and the Minister receives from that state a request under Article 15 of the Agreement for—

- (a) the surrender of the vessel,
- (b) the surrender of any thing seized from the vessel, or
- (c) the surrender of both the vessel and any such thing.

the Minister may, if satisfied that the request is in accordance with the Agreement, by order direct that the vessel or thing, or both the vessel and thing, as the case may be, be surrendered to such person as in the Minister's opinion is duly authorised by the requesting Convention state to receive it.

(2) Any person to whom an order under subsection (1) directs a vessel or thing to be surrendered may receive, hold in custody and convey out of the State the vessel or thing so surrendered.

Time lapse before surrender.

19. —(1) A person committed under section 9 shall not, except with his or her consent given before the High Court, be surrendered under the Agreement until—

- (a) a complaint under Article 40.4.2° of the Constitution (including proceedings on an appeal from a decision about the complaint),
- (b) an appeal on a point of law to the Court of Appeal, or]

F8[(c) an appeal to the Supreme Court (whether under Article 34.5.4° or on an appeal from a decision of the Court of Appeal);]

Release if not conveyed out of State.

20. —(1) An application may be made to the High Court for the release of a person who is awaiting surrender under this Act and who is not surrendered and conveyed out of the State within one month after—

- (a) the date of that person's committal under section 9, or
- (b) the conclusion of any appeal proceedings (as defined in section 19(2)) brought by or on behalf of that person, whichever is the later.

(2) If satisfied that the application has been made by or on behalf of a person referred to in subsection (1) and that the Minister has been given reasonable notice of the application, the Court shall, subject to subsection (3), order that the person be released from custody under this Act.

(3) If satisfied as to the matters specified in subsection (2) and also that—

(a) the person's state of health or other circumstances beyond the control of the State or the requesting Convention state have prevented him or her from being conveyed out of the State, and

(b) it is likely that within a reasonable time those circumstances will no longer prevent the person's conveyance out of the State, the Court may fix a period within which the person may be surrendered, and he or she shall be released from custody under this Act if not conveyed out of the State within that period.

Release by order of Minister.

21. —Where a person is remanded under section 6 or a vessel or thing is detained or retained by an enforcement officer, in the exercise of his or her powers under the Act of 1994, outside the F9[outer limit of the territorial sea] of the State and—

(b) no request has been received from the relevant Convention state for the surrender of the person, vessel or thing within 18 days of the arrest, detention or retention concerned,

(c) the relevant Convention state has given notice that it does not intend to make a request under the Agreement for the surrender of the person, vessel or thing, or

(d) the relevant Convention state has requested the release under the Agreement of the person, vessel or thing, the surrender of the person shall be refused unless that state gives such assurances as the Minister considers sufficient that the death penalty will not be carried out.

Custodial sentence not completed.

23. —Subject to section 14(2), where a court or the Minister orders the release of a person who is otherwise subject to a custodial sentence of a court in the State for an offence against the law of the State—

(a) the person shall continue to be liable to complete the term of imprisonment to which he or she has been sentenced by the court in the State, and

24. —(1) This section applies where a person, vessel or thing is detained in a Convention state pursuant to an authorisation under section 35(4) of the Act of 1994 and the State is entitled to have the person, vessel or thing surrendered to it.

(2) Where the Minister receives from a Convention state a notification of the detention of a person or the seizure of a vessel or thing under Article 10.2 of the Agreement together with a summary of the evidence of any alleged drug trafficking offences in accordance with Article 13.1 of the Agreement, the Minister, after consultation with the Director of Public Prosecutions, shall decide whether the State should exercise its preferential jurisdiction with respect to the person, vessel or thing; and, if any such jurisdiction is exercised, the Director of Public Prosecutions may apply to a judge of the District Court for a warrant for the arrest of the person detained or for the handing over of the vessel or thing seized.

(3) A judge of the District Court may issue a warrant referred to in subsection (2) if satisfied that the person, vessel or thing is the subject of a notification referred to in that subsection.

(4) A warrant for any alleged offence referred to in subsection (2) may be issued, and the offence may for all incidental purposes be treated as having been committed, in any place in the State.

(2) In any proceedings under this Act a document purporting to be a request by a Convention state which is a party to the Agreement for the surrender of a person or to have been furnished in support of such a request shall, without further proof, be admissible in evidence if it purports to be signed by a person authorised by the law of the requesting Convention state to sign the document.

(5) Where a document is admissible in evidence under this section, any document which purports to be a translation of that document shall be admissible as evidence of the translation if it is certified as correct by a person competent to do so; and a document purporting to be a certificate under this subsection shall be presumed to be such a certificate, and to be signed by a person who is competent to certify the document as correct, unless the contrary is shown.

(6) Requests, other communications and supporting documents shall be made in, or accompanied by a translation into, the Irish language or English language.

TEXT OF COUNCIL OF EUROPE AGREEMENT ON ILLICIT TRAFFIC BY SEA IMPLEMENTING ARTICLE 17 OF THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION AGAINST ILLICIT TRAFFIC IN NARCOTIC DRUGS AND PSYCHOTROPIC SUBSTANCES, DONE AT STRASBOURG ON 31 JANUARY 1995

AGREEMENT ON ILLICIT TRAFFIC BY SEA IMPLEMENTING ARTICLE 17 OF THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION AGAINST ILLICIT TRAFFIC IN NARCOTIC DRUGS AND PSYCHOTROPIC SUBSTANCES

The member States of the Council of Europe, having expressed their consent to be bound by the United Nations Convention against Illicit Traffic in Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances, done at Vienna on 20 December 1988, hereinafter referred to as “The Vienna Convention”,

Considering that the aim of the Council of Europe is to achieve a greater unity between its members;

Convinced of the need to pursue a common criminal policy aimed at the protection of society;

Considering that the fight against serious crime, which has become an increasingly international problem, calls for close co-operation on an international scale;

Desiring to increase their co-operation to the fullest possible extent in the suppression of illicit traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances by sea, in conformity with the international law of the sea and in full respect of the principle of right of freedom of navigation;

Considering, therefore, that Article 17 of the Vienna Convention should be supplemented by a regional agreement to carry out, and to enhance the effectiveness of, the provisions of that article,

Have agreed as follows:

CHAPTER I — DEFINITIONS

Article 1 — Definitions

For the purposes of this Agreement:

- a “Intervening State” means a State Party which has requested or proposes to request authorisation from another Party to take action under this Agreement in relation to a vessel flying the flag or displaying the marks of registry of that other State Party;
- b “Preferential jurisdiction” means, in relation to a flag State having concurrent jurisdiction over a relevant offence with another State, the right to exercise its jurisdiction on a priority basis, to the exclusion of the exercise of the other State’s jurisdiction over the offence;
- c “Relevant offence” means any offence of the kind described in Article 3, paragraph 1, of the Vienna Convention;
- d “Vessel” means a ship or any other floating craft of any description, including hovercrafts and submersible crafts.

CHAPTER II — INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION

Section 1 — General provisionsArticle 2 — General principles

- 1 The Parties shall co-operate to the fullest extent possible to suppress illicit traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances by sea, in conformity with the international law of the sea.
- 2 In the implementation of this Agreement the Parties shall endeavour to ensure that their actions maximise the effectiveness of law enforcement measures against illicit traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances by sea.
- 3 Any action taken in pursuance of this Agreement shall take due account of the need not to interfere with or affect the rights and obligations of and the exercise of jurisdiction by coastal States, in accordance with the international law of the sea.
- 4 Nothing in this Agreement shall be so construed as to infringe the principle of non bis in idem, as applied in national law.
- 5 The Parties recognise the value of gathering and exchanging information concerning vessels, cargo and facts, whenever they consider that such exchange of information could assist a Party in the suppression of illicit traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances by sea.
- 6 Nothing in this Agreement affects the immunities of warships and other government vessels operated for non-commercial purposes.

Article 3 — Jurisdiction

- 1 Each Party shall take such measures as may be necessary to establish its jurisdiction over the relevant offences when the offence is committed on board a vessel flying its flag.
- 2 For the purposes of applying this Agreement, each Party shall take such measures as may be necessary to establish its jurisdiction over the relevant offences committed on board a vessel flying the flag or displaying the marks of registry or bearing any other indication of nationality of any other Party to this Agreement. Such jurisdiction shall be exercised only in conformity with this Agreement.
- 3 For the purposes of applying this Agreement, each Party shall take such measures as may be necessary to establish its jurisdiction over the relevant offences committed on board a vessel which is without nationality, or which is assimilated to a vessel without nationality under international law.
- 4 The flag State has preferential jurisdiction over any relevant offence committed on board its vessel.
- 5 Each State may, at the time of signature or when depositing its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, or at any later date, by a declaration addressed to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe, inform the other Parties to the agreement of the criteria it intends to apply in respect of the exercise of the jurisdiction established pursuant to paragraph 2 of this article.

- 6 Any State which does not have in service warships, military aircraft or other government ships or aircraft operated for non-commercial purposes, which would enable it to become an intervening State under this Agreement may, at the time of signature or when depositing its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, by a declaration addressed to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe declare that it will not apply paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article. A State which has made such a declaration is under the obligation to withdraw it when the circumstances justifying the reservation no longer exist.

Article 4 — Assistance to flag States

- 1 A Party which has reasonable grounds to suspect that a vessel flying its flag is engaged in or being used for the commission of a relevant offence, may request the assistance of other Parties in suppressing its use for that purpose. The Parties so requested shall render such assistance within the means available to them.
- 2 In making its request, the flag State may, inter alia, authorise the requested Party, subject to any conditions or limitations which may be imposed, to take some or all of the actions specified in this Agreement.
- 3 When the requested Party agrees to act upon the authorisation of the flag State given to it in accordance with paragraph 2, the provisions of this Agreement in respect of the rights and obligations of the intervening State and the flag State shall, where appropriate and unless otherwise specified, apply to the requested and requesting Party, respectively.

Article 5 — Vessels without nationality

- 1 A Party which has reasonable grounds to suspect that a vessel without nationality, or assimilated to a vessel without nationality under international law, is engaged in or being used for the commission of a relevant offence, shall inform such other Parties as appear most closely affected and may request the assistance of any such Party in suppressing its use for that purpose. The Party so requested shall render such assistance within the means available to it.
- 2 Where a Party, having received information in accordance with paragraph 1, takes action it shall be for that Party to determine what actions are appropriate and to exercise its jurisdiction over any relevant offences which may have been committed by any persons on board the vessel.

Section 2 — Authorisation procedures

Article 6 — Basic rules on authorisation

Where the intervening State has reasonable grounds to suspect that a vessel, which is flying the flag or displaying the marks of registry of another Party or bears any other indications of nationality of the vessel, is engaged in or being used for the commission of a relevant offence, the intervening State may request the authorisation of the flag State to stop and board the vessel in waters beyond the territorial sea of any Party, and to take some or all of the other actions specified in this Agreement. No such actions may be taken by virtue of this Agreement, without the authorisation of the flag State.

Article 7 — Decision on the request for authorisation

The flag State shall immediately acknowledge receipt of a request for authorisation under Article 6 and shall communicate a decision thereon as soon as possible and, wherever practicable, within four hours of receipt of the request.

Article 8 — Conditions

- 1 If the flag State grants the request, such authorisation may be made subject to conditions or limitations. Such conditions or limitations may, in particular, provide that the flag State's express authorisation be given before any specified steps are taken by the intervening State.
- 2 Each State may, at the time of signature or when depositing its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, by declaration addressed to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe declare that, when acting as an intervening State, it may subject its intervention to the condition that persons having its nationality who are surrendered to the flag State under Article 15 and there convicted of a relevant offence, shall have the possibility to be transferred to the intervening State to serve the sentence imposed.

Section 3 — Rules governing action

Article 9 — Authorised actions

- 1 Having received the authorisation of the flag State, and subject to the conditions or limitations, if any, made under Article 8, paragraph 1, the intervening State may take the following actions:
 - i

 - e seize, secure and protect any evidence or material discovered on the vessel.
- 2 Any action taken under paragraph 1 of this article shall be without prejudice to any right existing under the law of the intervening State of suspected persons not to incriminate themselves.

Article 10 — Enforcement measures

- 1 Where, as a result of action taken under Article 9, the intervening State has evidence that a relevant offence has been committed which would be sufficient under its laws to justify its either arresting the persons concerned or detaining the vessel, or both, it may so proceed.
- 2 The intervening State shall, without delay, notify the flag State of steps taken under paragraph 1 above.
- 3 The vessel shall not be detained for a period longer than that which is strictly necessary to complete the investigations into relevant offences. Where there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the owners of the vessel are directly involved in a relevant offence, the vessel and its cargo may be further detained on completion of the investigation. Persons not suspected of any relevant offence and objects not required as evidence shall be released.
- 4 Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the intervening State and the flag State may agree with a third State, Party to this Agreement, that the vessel may be taken to the territory of that third State and, once the vessel is in that territory, the third State shall be treated for the purposes of this Agreement as an intervening State.

Article 11 — Execution of action

- 1 Actions taken under Articles 9 and 10 shall be governed by the law of the intervening State.
- 2 Actions under Article 9, paragraph 1 a, b and d, shall be carried out only by warships or military aircraft, or by other ships or aircraft clearly marked and identifiable as being on government service and authorised to that effect.

- 4 The master of a vessel which has been boarded in accordance with this Agreement shall be entitled to communicate with the authorities of the vessel's flag State as well as with the owners or operators of the vessel for the purpose of notifying them that the vessel has been boarded. However, the authorities of the intervening State may prevent or delay any communication with the owners or operators of the vessel if they have reasonable grounds for believing that such communication would obstruct the investigations into a relevant offence.

Article 12 — Operational safeguards

- 1 In the application of this Agreement, the Parties concerned shall take due account of the need not to endanger the safety of life at sea, the security of the vessel and cargo and not to prejudice any commercial or legal interest. In particular, they shall take into account:
 - a the dangers involved in boarding a vessel at sea, and give consideration to whether this could be more safely done at the vessel's next port of call;
 - b the need to minimise any interference with the legitimate commercial activities of a vessel;
 - c the need to avoid unduly detaining or delaying a vessel;
 - d the need to restrict the use of force to the minimum necessary to ensure compliance with the instructions of the intervening State.
- 2 The use of firearms against, or on, the vessel shall be reported as soon as possible to the flag State.

Section 4 — Rules governing the exercise of jurisdiction

Article 13 — Evidence of offences

- 1 To enable the flag State to decide whether to exercise its preferential jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of Article 14, the intervening State shall without delay transmit to the flag State a summary of the evidence of any offences discovered as a result of action taken pursuant to Article 9. The flag State shall acknowledge receipt of the summary forthwith.
- 2 If the intervening State discovers evidence which leads it to believe that offences outside the scope of this Agreement may have been committed, or that suspect persons not involved in relevant offences are on board the vessel, it shall notify the flag State. Where appropriate, the Parties involved shall consult.
- 3 The provisions of this Agreement shall be so construed as to permit the intervening State to take measures, including the detention of persons, other than those aimed at the investigation and prosecution of relevant offences, only when:
 - a the flag State gives its express consent; or

- b such measures are aimed at the investigation and prosecution of an offence committed after the person has been taken into the territory of the intervening State.

Article 14 — Exercise of preferential jurisdiction

- 1 A flag State wishing to exercise its preferential jurisdiction shall do so in accordance with the provisions of this article.
- 2 It shall notify the intervening State to this effect as soon as possible and at the latest within fourteen days from the receipt of the summary of evidence pursuant to Article 13. If the flag State fails to do this, it shall be deemed to have waived the exercise of its preferential jurisdiction.

- 4 The flag State shall submit the case forthwith to its competent authorities for the purpose of prosecution.
- 5 Measures taken by the intervening State against the vessel and persons on board may be deemed to have been taken as part of the procedure of the flag State.

- 2 The request for the surrender of arrested persons shall be supported by, in respect of each person, the original or a certified copy of the warrant of arrest or other order having the same effect, issued by a judicial authority in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the law of the flag State.
- 3 The Parties shall use their best endeavours to expedite the surrender of persons, vessels, cargoes and evidence.
- 4 Nothing in this Agreement shall be so construed as to deprive any detained person of his right under the law of the intervening State to have the lawfulness of his detention reviewed by a court of that State, in accordance with procedures established by its national law.
- 5 Instead of requesting the surrender of the detained persons or of the vessel, the flag State may request their immediate release. Where this request has been made, the intervening State shall release them forthwith.

Article 16 — Capital punishment

If any offence for which the flag State decides to exercise its preferential jurisdiction in accordance with Article 14 is punishable by death under the law of that State, and if in respect of such an offence the death penalty is not provided by the law of the intervening State or is not normally carried out, the surrender of any person may be refused unless the flag State gives such assurances as the intervening State considers sufficient that the death penalty will not be carried out.

Article 24 — Confidentiality

The Parties concerned shall, if this is not contrary to the basic principles of their national law, keep confidential any evidence and information provided by another Party in pursuance of this Agreement, except to the extent that its disclosure is necessary for the application of the Agreement or for any investigations or proceedings.
