PART 2

AMENDMENTS TO SOCIAL WELFARE ACTS

Amendment to definition of volunteer development worker.

3.— Section 2(1) of the Principal Act is amended by substituting the following for the definition of “volunteer development worker”:

“ ‘volunteer development worker’ means a person who is employed temporarily outside the State in a developing country and has secured that employment—

(a) by or through the Department of Foreign Affairs or by or through a non-governmental agency in the State, or

(b) by or through a governmental or non-governmental agency in any Member State other than the State, or

(c) directly with the government of a developing country, and who is employed by any of those agencies or by the government of the developing country or by both under conditions of remuneration similar to local conditions applying in that country and who was resident in the State immediately before taking up that employment;”.

Child benefit — new rates.

4.— (1) Schedule 4 to the Principal Act is amended by substituting the following for Part 4 (inserted by section 16 of the Act of 2006):

“PART 4

AMOUNTS OF CHILD BENEFIT

Amount for each of first 2 children (1)	Amount for each child in excess of 2 (2)
€160.00	€195.00

”.

(2) This section comes into operation on 1 April 2007.

Illness benefit — improvements.

5.— The Principal Act is amended—

(a) in section 40(3), by inserting the following after paragraph (e):

“(ea) notwithstanding paragraph (d), in the case of a person who, on or after 1 May 2007, has been in receipt of illness benefit for not less than 624 days in respect of a period of incapacity for work and who, within the same period of interruption of employment, has subsequent periods of incapacity for work, any 2 such subsequent periods of incapacity for work within that period of interruption of employment not separated by a period of more than 26 weeks shall be treated as one period of incapacity for work;”.

(b) in section 41—

(i) by inserting the following after subsection (1)(c)(i):

“(ia) prescribed weekly earnings, in the case of a person who immediately before the week of incapacity for which illness benefit was claimed—

(l) was in receipt of carer’s benefit or carer’s allowance, and

(II) was in receipt of illness benefit immediately before receiving a payment referred to in subparagraph (I),

or”,

and

(ii) in subsection (12), by inserting “made before 1 July in any year” before “where”,

and

(c) in section 46—

(i) by substituting the following for subsection (1)(b):

“(b) the person fails without good cause to comply with such requirements as may be specified by the regulations, including but not necessarily limited to:

(i) attending for or submitting to any medical or other examination or treatment;

(ii) complying with instructions relating to his or her incapacity issued by a registered medical practitioner;

(iii) refraining from behaviour likely to hinder his or her recovery;

(iv) being available to meet with an officer of the Minister regarding his or her claim for illness benefit.”,

and

(ii) by inserting the following after subsection (1):

“(1A) A person shall not be disqualified for receipt of illness benefit while engaging in such class or classes of employment or training and subject to such circumstances and conditions as may be prescribed.”.

Maternity benefit
— improvements.

6.— The Principal Act is amended—

(a) in section 47—

(i) in subsection (1)(a), by inserting “or it is certified by a registered medical practitioner or otherwise to the satisfaction of the Minister that a woman has been confined,” after “given”,

(ii) by substituting the following for subsection (4)(a):

“(a) Subject to this Act and paragraph (b), where a woman, who has been delivered of a living child, dies at any time before the expiry of the twenty-fourth week following the week of her confinement, the father of the child shall be entitled to benefit under this Chapter as if he were a woman and the provisions of this Chapter (other than sections 48 and 50(b)) apply in all respects in the case of that man.”,

and

(iii) by substituting the following for subsection (5)(c):

“(c) a man who—

- (i) is an employed contributor, for the period of leave to which he is entitled under section 16 of the Maternity Protection Act 1994 or for 6 weeks, whichever is the longer period of time, or
- (ii) is in insurable self-employment, for a period beginning on the day after the day on which the death of the mother occurs—
  - (I) where the mother dies before the expiry of the twenty-fourth week following the week of her confinement, to the end of the twenty-fourth week following the week of her confinement, or for 6 weeks, whichever is the longer period of time, or
  - (II) where the mother dies after the expiry of the twenty-fourth week but before the expiry of the fortieth week following the week of her confinement, to the end of the fortieth week following the week of her confinement, or for 6 weeks, whichever is the longer period of time, but if the beneficiary dies, the benefit shall not be payable for any subsequent day.”,

and

(b) by substituting the following section for section 50:

“Disqualifications.

50.— Regulations may provide for disqualifying a woman for receiving maternity benefit where—

- (a) during the period for which the benefit is payable, she engages in any form of insurable employment, insurable (occupational injuries) employment, insurable self-employment, any employment referred to in paragraph 1, 2, 3 or 6 of Part 2 of Schedule 1 or any self-employment referred to in paragraph 1 or 5 of Part 3 of Schedule 1, or
- (b) she fails, without good cause, to attend for or to submit herself to any medical examination that may be required in accordance with regulations made under this section.”.

Adoptive benefit
— improvements.

7.— The Principal Act is amended—

(a) in section 58(4)—

(i) by substituting the following for paragraph (a):

“(a) in the case of an employed contributor—

- (i) for the period of adoptive leave to which the adopting parent is entitled under section 6 of the Adoptive Leave Act 1995, or
- (ii) for the period of adoptive leave to which the adopting parent is entitled under section 9 of the Adoptive Leave Act 1995 or for 6 weeks, whichever is the longer period of time, and the provisions of section 59 shall not apply,”

and

(ii) by substituting the following for paragraph (b)(ii):

“(ii) an adopting parent within the meaning of subsection (1)(b)(ii), where the adopting mother dies—

(I) before the day of placement, for 24 consecutive weeks beginning on the day of placement, or

(II) on or after the day of placement, for a period of 24 weeks less a period equivalent to the period beginning on the day of placement and ending on the date of her death or for 6 weeks, whichever is the longer period of time, and the provisions of section 59 shall not apply,”

and

(b) by substituting the following section for section 61:

“Disqualification.

61.— Regulations may provide for disqualifying an adopting parent for receiving adoptive benefit where, during the period for which the benefit is payable, the adopting parent engages in any form of insurable employment, insurable (occupational injuries) employment, insurable self-employment, any employment referred to in paragraph 1, 2, 3 or 6 of Part 2 of Schedule 1 or any self-employment referred to in paragraph 1 or 5 of Part 3 of Schedule 1.”.

Jobseeker’s benefit — improvement.

8.— Section 64 of the Principal Act is amended by inserting the following after subsection (1)(c)(i):

“(ia) prescribed reckonable weekly earnings, in the case of a person who immediately before the week of unemployment for which jobseeker’s benefit was claimed—

(I) was in receipt of carer’s benefit or carer’s allowance and,

(II) was in receipt of jobseeker’s benefit immediately before receiving a payment referred to in subparagraph (I),

or”.

Jobseeker’s allowance, pre-retirement allowance, disability allowance and farm assist — amendments to means provisions.

9.— The Principal Act is amended—

(a) in section 141(2), by substituting the following for paragraph (d):

“(d) Subject to paragraph (e), where the spouse of a claimant for jobseeker’s allowance is a spouse referred to in any of subparagraphs (iii) to (vii) of section 2(2)(a), the means of the claimant shall be taken to be one-half the means.

(e) Notwithstanding paragraph (d), where, in the 4 weeks immediately before the commencement of section 9 of the Social Welfare and Pensions Act 2007 a person was entitled to or in receipt of jobseeker’s allowance in respect of any day of unemployment and the spouse of the claimant for jobseeker’s allowance is not the claimant's qualified adult, or is a spouse in respect of whom an increase is payable by virtue of regulations made under section 297, the means of the claimant shall be taken to be one-half the means or the means calculated in accordance with paragraph (d), whichever is the more favourable.

- (f) Where the means of a claimant are calculated at any time in accordance with paragraph (e) and are subsequently calculated in accordance with paragraph (d), paragraph (e) shall no longer apply to the claimant.
- (g) Where for any period of not less than 4 consecutive weeks after the commencement of section 9 of the Social Welfare and Pensions Act 2007, a claimant whose means were calculated in accordance with paragraph (e) ceases to be entitled to or in receipt of jobseeker's allowance, paragraph (d) shall apply to any subsequent claims.”,

(b) F1[...]

(c) by substituting the following section for section 146:

“Amount of increases payable in respect of qualified child in certain cases.

146.— Any increase of jobseeker's allowance payable under section 142(1) in respect of a qualified child who normally resides with the claimant or beneficiary and with the spouse of the claimant or beneficiary shall be payable at the rate of one-half of the appropriate amount in any case where the spouse of the claimant or beneficiary—

(a) is not a qualified adult, or

(b) is a spouse referred to in section 141(2)(d), and section 142(1) shall be read and have effect accordingly.”,

(d) in section 149, by substituting the following for subsection (4):

“(4) Subject to subsection (4A), where the spouse of a claimant for pre-retirement allowance is a spouse referred to in any of subparagraphs (iii) to (vii) of section 2(2)(a), the means of the claimant shall be taken to be one-half the means.

(4A) Notwithstanding subsection (4), where, in the 4 weeks immediately before the commencement of section 9 of the Social Welfare and Pensions Act 2007 a person was entitled to or in receipt of pre-retirement allowance in respect of any day of retirement and the spouse of the claimant for pre-retirement allowance is not the claimant's qualified adult, or is a spouse in respect of whom an increase is payable by virtue of regulations made under section 297, the means of the claimant shall be taken to be one-half the means or the means calculated in accordance with subsection (4), whichever is the more favourable.

(4B) Where the means of a claimant are calculated at any time in accordance with subsection (4A) and are subsequently calculated in accordance with subsection (4), subsection (4A) shall no longer apply to the claimant.

(4C) Where for any period of not less than 4 consecutive weeks after the commencement of section 9 of the Social Welfare and Pensions Act 2007, a claimant whose means were calculated in accordance with subsection (4A) ceases to be entitled to or in receipt of pre-retirement allowance, subsection (4) shall apply to any subsequent claims.”,

(e) in section 150—

(i) F1[...]

(ii) by substituting the following for subsection (3):

“(3) Any increase of pre-retirement allowance payable under subsection (1)(b) in respect of a qualified child who normally resides with the claimant or beneficiary and with the spouse of the claimant or beneficiary shall be payable at the rate of one-half of the appropriate amount in any case where the spouse of the claimant or beneficiary—

(a) is not a qualified adult, or

(b) is a spouse referred to in section 149(4),

and subsection (1)(b) shall be read and have effect accordingly.”

(f) in section 210, by substituting the following for subsection (2):

“(2) Subject to subsection (2A), where the spouse of a claimant for disability allowance is a spouse referred to in any of subparagraphs (iii) to (vii) of section 2(2)(a), the means of the claimant shall be taken to be one-half the means.

(2A) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where, in the 4 weeks immediately before the commencement of section 9 of the Social Welfare and Pensions Act 2007 a person was entitled to or in receipt of disability allowance and the spouse of the claimant for disability allowance is not the claimant’s qualified adult, or is a spouse in respect of whom an increase is payable by virtue of regulations made under section 297, the means of the claimant shall be taken to be one-half the means or the means calculated in accordance with subsection (2), whichever is the more favourable.

(2B) Where the means of a claimant are calculated at any time in accordance with subsection (2A) and are subsequently calculated in accordance with subsection (2), subsection (2A) shall no longer apply to the claimant.

(2C) Where for any period of not less than 4 consecutive weeks after the commencement of section 9 of the Social Welfare and Pensions Act 2007, a claimant whose means were calculated in accordance with subsection (2A) ceases to be entitled to or in receipt of disability allowance, subsection (2) shall apply to any subsequent claims.”

(g) in section 211—

(i) F1[...]

(ii) by substituting the following for subsection (3):

“(3) Any increase of disability allowance payable under subsection (1)(b) in respect of a qualified child who normally resides with the claimant or beneficiary and with the spouse of the claimant or beneficiary shall be payable at the rate of one-half of the appropriate amount in any case where the spouse of the claimant or beneficiary—

(a) is not a qualified adult, or

(b) is a spouse referred to in section 210(2),

and subsection (1)(b) shall be read and have effect accordingly.”

(h) in section 214, by substituting the following for subsection (2):

“(2) Subject to subsection (3), where the spouse of a claimant for farm assist is a spouse referred to in any of subparagraphs (iii) to (vii) of section 2(2)(a), the means of the claimant shall be taken to be one-half the means.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where, in the 4 weeks immediately before the commencement of section 9 of the Social Welfare and Pensions Act 2007 a person was entitled to or in receipt of farm assist and the spouse of the claimant for farm assist is not the claimant's qualified adult, or is a spouse in respect of whom an increase is payable by virtue of regulations made under section 297, the means of the claimant shall be taken to be one-half the means or the means calculated in accordance with subsection (2), whichever is the more favourable.

(4) Where the means of a claimant are calculated at any time in accordance with subsection (3) and are subsequently calculated in accordance with subsection (2), subsection (3) shall no longer apply to the claimant.

(5) Where for any period of not less than 4 consecutive weeks after the commencement of section 9 of the Social Welfare and Pensions Act 2007, a claimant whose means were calculated in accordance with subsection (3) ceases to be entitled to or in receipt of farm assist, subsection (2) shall apply to any subsequent claims.”

(i) F1[...]

(j) by substituting the following section for section 216:

“Amount of increases payable in respect of qualified child in certain cases.

216.— Any increase of farm assist payable under section 215(1) in respect of a qualified child who normally resides with the claimant or beneficiary and with the spouse of the claimant or beneficiary shall be payable at the rate of one-half of the appropriate amount in any case where the spouse of the claimant or beneficiary—

(b) in section 184(1), by substituting “carer’s allowance or a payment under section 186A” for “carer’s allowance”,

(c) in section 185—

(i) by substituting “carer’s allowance or a payment under section 186A” for “carer’s allowance” where it occurs, and

(ii) in subsection (2), by substituting “the allowance or payment, as the case may be” for “the allowance”,

(d) in section 186(2)(a), by substituting “carer’s allowance or a payment under section 186A” for “carer’s allowance”,

(e) by inserting the following section after section 186 but in Chapter 8:

“Payment of carer’s allowance in certain circumstances.

186A.— (1) Subject to this Act, a payment shall, in the circumstances and subject to the conditions that may be prescribed, be made to a carer.

(2) A carer shall not be entitled to a payment under this section unless the carer is habitually resident in the State at the date of the making of the application for the payment.

(3) Subject to subsection (5), the rate of payment under this section shall be calculated in accordance with section 181 (other than subparagraphs (i), (ia) and (ii) of subsection (1)).

(4) The amount payable under this section shall be half the amount calculated in accordance with subsection (3).

(5) Notwithstanding this section—

(a) only one payment under this section shall be made to a carer, and only one such payment shall be made in any week in respect of the full-time care and attention being provided to a relevant person,

(b) a payment under this section shall not be made in respect of the full-time care and attention being provided to a relevant person in any case where a carer's benefit under Part 2 is being paid to any person in respect of the full-time care and attention being provided to the same relevant person,

(c) a payment under this section shall not be made to a relevant person,

(d) a payment under this section shall not be made where the carer—

(i) engages in employment, self-employment, or any course of education or training,

(ii) is entitled to or in receipt of jobseeker's benefit or jobseeker's allowance,

(iii) is a person to whom Article 58 of the Regulations of 1996 applies in respect of proven unemployment, or

(iv) is entitled to or in receipt of weekly supplementary welfare allowance under section 197.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5)(d)(i), for the purposes of a payment under this section, the Minister may make regulations to provide that a carer may engage in employment, self-employment, or any course of education or training, subject to the conditions and in the circumstances that may be prescribed.”,

(f) in section 224(1)(a), by substituting “carer's benefit, carer's allowance or a payment under section 186A” for “carer's benefit or carer's allowance”, and

(g) in section 247—

(i) in subsection (1)(b), by inserting “a payment under section 186A,” before “supplementary welfare allowance”,

(ii) by inserting the following after subsection (3):

“(3A) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) and subject to subsection (3B), where disablement benefit and any benefit described in section 39(1) (including any increase thereof) or assistance described in section 139(1) (including any increase thereof) would be payable to or in respect of a person in respect of the same period, both such payments may be paid to or in respect of that person in respect of that period.

(3B) For the purposes of subsection (3A), disablement benefit shall not include an increase—

- (a) on account of incapacity by virtue of section 77,
- (b) in respect of a qualified adult or a qualified child, by virtue of section 76,
- (c) in respect of constant attendance by virtue of section 78, other than where a benefit, as described in section 39(1), is payable.”,

  - (iii) a scheme administered by the Minister and known as the Back to Work Allowance Scheme, and the person has been accepted as being in need of accommodation under a scheme funded by the Minister for the Environment, Heritage and Local Government and known as the Rental Accommodation Scheme.

(3B) Subject to subsection (3C), a payment referred to in subsection (3) shall not be payable in respect of a person’s residence where his or her residence is situated in an area notified to the Minister by the Minister for the Environment, Heritage and Local Government as being an area of regeneration for the purpose of providing for greater social integration.

(3C) Subject to the conditions and circumstances that may be prescribed, subsection (3B) shall not apply—

- (a) to a person who is in receipt of rent supplement in respect of his or her residence immediately before the area in which his or her residence is situated is notified to the Minister as being an area of regeneration as referred to in subsection (3B),
- (b) to a person who is living in an area notified to the Minister as being an area of regeneration as referred to in subsection (3B) and becomes entitled to a payment under subsection (3) where, on the making of an application for a supplement under subsection (3), the Executive is satisfied that the person—
  - (i) in so far as was reasonable in all the circumstances, had, at the commencement of the tenancy, an expectation that he or she would continue to be able to pay the amount of the rent, and
  - (ii) has experienced a substantial change in his or her circumstances such that he or she is unable to pay the amount of the rent.

(3D) The Executive may determine that a payment referred to in subsection (3) is not payable where a notification is received by the Executive from a housing authority (within the meaning of the Housing \(Miscellaneous Provisions\) Act 1992) regarding non-compliance with standards prescribed for the time being under section 18 of the Housing \(Miscellaneous Provisions\) Act 1992.”

(2) F2[...]

(a) in Rule 1—

(i) by substituting the following for paragraph (1):

“(1) other than in the circumstances and subject to the conditions and for the periods that may be prescribed, the weekly value of property belonging to the person (not being property personally used or enjoyed by the person or a farm of land leased by him or her) which is invested or is otherwise put to profitable use by the person or which, though capable of investment or profitable use is not invested or put to profitable use and the weekly value, calculated in accordance with reference 3 of Table 1 to this Schedule, constitutes the weekly means of a person from that property;”,

(ii) in paragraph (2)(b)—

(I) in clause (iv), by deleting “and”,

(II) by inserting the following after clause (iv):

“(iva) any moneys received by way of guardian’s payment (contributory), guardian’s payment (non-contributory) or respite care grant, and”,

and

(III) by substituting the following for clause (v):

“(v) in the case of a person in receipt of a supplement under section 198 towards the amount of mortgage interest or rent payable by the person in respect of his or her residence:

(I) an amount equal to any additional income, where that income arises from any employment or training that may be prescribed and is not in excess of €75, or an amount equal to 25 per cent of any such additional income in excess of €75 and subject to a minimum disregard of €75, when such additional income has been reduced by the aggregate of—

(A) any allowable contribution referred to in Regulations 41 and 42 of the Income Tax (Employments) (Consolidated) Regulations 2001 (S.I. No. 559 of 2001),

(B) any amount deducted from reckonable earnings under section 13 and regulations made under section 14,

(C) any amount deducted from reckonable earnings under section 5 of the Health Contributions Act 1979, and

(D) an amount equal to the amount of reduction, if any, in the rate of jobseeker’s allowance or one-parent family payment under Part 3 consequent on receipt of those earnings from employment;

(II) the amount by which carer’s allowance exceeds the amount of supplementary welfare allowance set out in column (3) at reference 10 of Part 1 of Schedule 4, in the case of a claimant, or his or her spouse, who is in receipt of carer's allowance under Part 3;

(III) the amount by which carer's allowance exceeds the amount of supplementary welfare allowance set out in column (2) at reference 10 of Part 1 of Schedule 4, in the case of a claimant who, not being one of a couple, is in receipt of carer's allowance under Part 3;

(IV) the amount payable under section 186A;”

and

(b) by inserting the following Rule after Rule 1:

“1A. (1) For the purposes of determining non-cash benefits referred to in Rule 1(2) in determining entitlement to a rent or mortgage interest supplement payable under section 198, the weekly net cash value to the person of his or her annual housing costs actually incurred and paid by a liable relative shall be calculated as follows:

(a) the weekly value of €4,952 per annum shall be assessed in full;

(b) the weekly value of so much of the housing costs actually incurred and paid by a liable relative as exceeds €4,952 per annum but does not exceed €8,852 per annum, shall be disregarded;

(c) the weekly value of so much of the housing costs actually incurred and paid by a liable relative as exceeds €8,852 per annum shall be assessed at 75 cent per each €1.

(2) In assessing the means of a person for the purpose of a rent or mortgage interest supplement payable under section 198, where a claimant has attained the age of 65 years, and his or her combined household income is greater than the rate of supplementary welfare allowance appropriate to his or her circumstances, an amount equal to the difference between the maximum rate of State pension (contributory) appropriate to his or her circumstances and the said rate of supplementary welfare allowance shall be disregarded.

(3) Where a person or his or her spouse has any additional income to which Rule 1(2)(b)(iv), Rule 1(2)(b)(v)(I) or Rule 1A(1) may apply, only one such Rule shall apply, being whichever is the more favourable.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), Rules 1(1), 1(2)(b)(iva), 1(2)(b)(v) and 1A shall not have the effect of reducing the rate of supplementary welfare allowance below the rate payable immediately before the commencement of section 36 of the Social Welfare and Pensions Act 2007.

(5) Paragraph (4) shall cease to apply to any person where his or her means have increased.”
