F12[Income limit — qualified adult

7. (1) Other than a person to whom sections F13[141, 149, 210 and 214] apply, a person, being one of a couple, shall be regarded as wholly or mainly maintaining his or her spouse or civil partner or a cohabitant of that person where the weekly income of that spouse, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, calculated or estimated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed €100.

(2) F14[Subject to sub-article (2A), in the case of] a person to whom sections F13[141, 149, 210 and 214] apply, a person, being one of a couple, shall be regarded as wholly or mainly maintaining his or her spouse or civil partner or a cohabitant of that person.

F15[(2A) Sub-article (2) shall not apply where a person is entitled to or in receipt of jobseeker's allowance, and their spouse, civil partner, or cohabitant is a participant under a scheme provided by the Minister and known as Community Employment, and their participation commences on or after 1 January 2023.]

(3) Other than a person to whom sections F13[141, 149, 210 and 214] apply, a person, being one of a married couple or of a civil partnership who are not living together, shall be regarded as wholly or mainly maintaining his or her spouse or civil partner where that spouse or civil partner is not a cohabitant of another person and the weekly income of that spouse or civil partner, calculated or estimated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed €100 and the first-mentioned person is contributing towards the maintenance of his or her spouse or civil partner by a weekly amount which is equal to or in excess of the amount set down in column (3) of Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act.

(4) F16[Subject to sub-article (4A), in the case of] a person to whom sections F13[141, 149, 210 and 214] apply, a person, being one of a married couple or of a civil partnership who are not living together, shall be regarded as wholly or mainly maintaining his or her spouse or civil partner where the spouse or civil partner is not a cohabitant of another person and the first-mentioned person is contributing towards the maintenance of his or her spouse or civil partner by a weekly amount which is equal to or in excess of the amount set down in column (3) of Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act.

F17[(4A) Sub-article (4) shall not apply where a person is entitled to or in receipt of jobseeker's allowance, and their spouse, civil partner, or cohabitant is a participant under a scheme provided by the Minister and known as Community Employment, and their participation commences on or after 1 January 2023.]

(5) A person, being—

- (a) a single person,
- (b) a widow,
- (c) a widower,
- (d) a married person who is not living with and is neither wholly or mainly maintaining, nor being wholly or mainly maintained by, such married person's spouse,
- (e) a surviving civil partner, or
- (f) a civil partner who is not living with and is neither wholly or mainly maintaining, nor being wholly or mainly maintained by, his or her civil partner, shall be regarded as wholly or mainly maintaining another person where that other person, being over the age of 16 years and having the care of one or more than one qualified child of the first-mentioned person, resides with the first-mentioned person and his or her weekly income, calculated or estimated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed €100.

(6) In sub-articles (1) and (2) "couple" means—

- (a) a married couple who are living together,
- (b) both civil partners of a civil partnership who are living together, or
- (c) both cohabitants.]

Calculation of income limit

8. (1) For the purposes of article 7, weekly income shall, subject to this article, be calculated or estimated—

- (a) insofar as it comprises earnings from employment as an employee, by reference to the weekly average of the gross amount of all such earnings received in the previous 2 months where such earnings are received at monthly intervals or in the previous 6 weeks where such earnings are received at weekly or fortnightly intervals,
- (b) insofar as it comprises income from any form of self-employment, by reference to the weekly amount of such income calculated or estimated by dividing the income in the last complete income tax year by 52,
- (c) insofar as it consists of income from property (other than property referred to in paragraph (d)) which is invested or otherwise put to profitable use or which, though capable of investment or profitable use, is not invested or put to profitable use, by reference to the weekly value of the property, calculated as follows—
 - (i) the first €20,000 of the capital value of the property shall be excluded,
 - (ii) the weekly value of so much of the capital value of the property as exceeds €20,000 but does not exceed €30,000 shall be assessed at €1 per each €1,000,
 - (iii) the weekly value of so much of the capital value of the property as exceeds €30,000 but does not exceed €40,000 shall be assessed at €2 per each €1,000,
 - (iv) the weekly value of so much of the capital value of the property as exceeds €40,000 shall be assessed at €4 per each €1,000,
- (d) insofar as it consists of income from any other source (including rent or any other periodical payment receivable for the possession and use of property in all lands, tenements and hereditaments), by reference to the normal weekly amount of such income.

F18[(1A) In calculating or estimating weekly income under sub-article (1) for the purposes of the payment of an increase in—

- (a) State pension (contributory) for a qualified adult payable under Chapter 15 of Part 2 of the Principal Act, or
- (b) State pension (transition) for a qualified adult payable under Chapter 16 of Part 2 of the Principal Act, if it appears that a person in respect of whom such an increase for a qualified adult is being claimed has directly or indirectly deprived himself or herself of any income or property in order that—

- (i) an increase in that pension for a qualified adult would be paid in respect of that person, or
- (ii) an increase in that pension for a qualified adult would be paid in respect of that person at a higher rate than that which should otherwise have been paid, that income or the value of that property shall for the purposes of sub-article (1) be taken to be part of the weekly income.

(1B) Sub-article (1A) shall not apply to any assignment—

(a) which is an assignment to a child or children of the assignor, and

(b) which is an assignment of property consisting of a farm of land (together with or without the stock and chattels thereon) and of which the assignor is the owner and the occupier or the occupier only.

(1C) For the purposes of sub-article (1A), where the income or the value of the property taken to be part of a person's means for the purposes of that sub-article has reduced since the date of calculation, the calculation may be revised, but such a revision shall not cause the income or the value of the property taken to be part of that person's means to be increased.

(1D) For the purposes of sub-article (1B), 'assignment' includes any form of conveyance, transfer or other transaction by which a person parts with the ownership or possession of property.]

F19[(2) In calculating or estimating the weekly income under sub-article (1), any sums received by way of—

(a) disablement benefit under section 75,

(b) death benefit under section 83,

(c) guardian's payment (contributory),

(d) guardian's payment (non-contributory),

(e) a payment under section 186A,

(f) domiciliary care allowance,

(g) child benefit, F20[...]

(h) a payment from the Executive in respect of a child who is boarded out,

F21[(i) pandemic unemployment payment paid under section 202, or

(j) covid-19 pandemic unemployment payment under section 68L,]

shall be disregarded.]

F22[(3) In calculating or estimating the weekly income under sub-article (1), the following items shall be disregarded—

(a) any sums received from compensation awarded—

(i) by the Hepatitis C and HIV Compensation Tribunal,

(ii) by a court of competent jurisdiction to compensate certain persons who have contracted Hepatitis C or Human Immunodeficiency Virus within the State from the use of Human Immunoglobulin Anti-D, whole blood or other blood products,

(iii) by the Residential Institutions Redress Board,

(iv) in relation to disability caused by Thalidomide, or

(2) Sub-article (1) shall not apply in the case of—

(a) any claim for carer's benefit, State pension (transition) or invalidity pension which is made before 5 July 2012, and

(b) any claim for State pension (contributory) which is made before 6 July 2012.]

Normal residence of qualified child

13. (1) In this article—

"benefit" or "assistance" means any such payments under Parts 2 or 3 (other than guardian's payment (contributory), death benefit by way of orphan's pension, guardian's payment (non-contributory), one-parent family payment or supplementary welfare allowance);

"parent" means a parent or step-parent.

(2) The person with whom a qualified child shall be regarded as normally residing shall be determined in accordance with this article.

(3) A qualified child shall, subject to sub-articles (4) to (11), be regarded as normally residing with his or her parents.

(4) A qualified child who is resident with one parent only, shall be regarded as normally residing with that parent and with no other person provided that, where that parent is a member of a household, that the parent so elects.

F65[(5) Notwithstanding that a qualified child does not reside with one of his or her parents, the qualified child may be regarded as normally residing with the parent who—

(a) has custody of the qualified child, and

(b) is contributing substantially to the maintenance of the qualified child.]

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (4), a qualified child resident with one parent who is living apart from the other parent and who is not claiming or in receipt of benefit or assistance shall be regarded as residing with the other parent if that other parent is contributing substantially to the child's maintenance.

(7) If one parent dies, a qualified child shall be regarded as normally residing with the other parent provided that that parent is maintaining the child.

(8) Where the normal residence of a qualified child falls to be determined under sub-article (6) or (7), and the person with whom the child would thus be regarded as normally residing has abandoned or deserted the child or failed to contribute substantially to the child's maintenance, sub-article (6) or (7) shall cease to apply in respect of that child and the person with whom the child shall be regarded as normally residing shall be determined in accordance with sub-article (9).

(9) A qualified child, whose normal residence does not fall to be determined under the foregoing sub-articles, shall be regarded as normally residing with the head of the household of which the child is normally a member and with no other person.

(10) A qualified child who is a refugee within the State from another country shall be regarded as normally residing with the head of the household of which the child is for the time being a member and with no other person.

(11) Where a qualified child is resident in an institution, the child shall be regarded as normally residing only with the person (if any) who contributes towards the cost of the child's maintenance in the institution, and with whom the child would, under this article, be regarded as normally residing, if the child were not resident in an institution.

Persons regarded as receiving full-time education

14. (1) Subject to sub-articles (2), (3) (4) and (5), for the purposes of F66[sections 2(3) and 178B(3)], F67[and for the purposes of F68[Chapters 12, 12A and 12AA] of Part 2,] a person shall be regarded as receiving full-time education while he or she is attending on a full-time basis a course of full-time instruction by day at an institution of education.

(2) For the purposes of sub-article (1), a course of full-time instruction at an institution of education shall not be regarded as including a course of training or instruction—

(a) provided or approved by F69[Ant Seirbhís Oideachais Leanúnaigh agus Scileanna (SOLAS)] and in respect of which an allowance is payable, but excluding a course known as Youthreach,

(b) which forms part of an employment or work experience programme,

(c) which arises from employment,

(d) which comprises, in an academic year, a period of work experience in respect of which remuneration is paid, where such period exceeds the time spent receiving instruction or tuition at an institution of education, or

(e) a course of training or instruction provided or approved by Teagasc, where, in an academic year such training or instruction comprises a period of work experience which exceeds the time spent receiving instruction or tuition at an institution of education.

(3) For the purposes of sub-article (1), a person shall be regarded as continuing to receive full-time education—

(a) for periods during an academic year when that person is not attending an institution of education arising from the temporary interruption to the provision of a course of full-time instruction or part of a cycle of education by an institution of education, and

(b) for the period immediately following the completion by that person of part of a cycle of education, where such part finishes between 1 May and 30 June in an academic year, up to and including the 3rd Sunday of the next following October or an earlier date if the beneficiary so elects.

(4) Sub-article (3)(b) shall not apply to a person who completes the final part of a cycle of education, other than the final part of a cycle approved by the Minister for Education and Science for the Leaving Certificate Examination of the State Examinations Commission, and terminates his or her attendance at an institution of education.

(5) In this article “beneficiary” means a person in receipt of or entitled to an increase in any benefit or assistance in respect of a qualified child who is of or over the age of 18 years and under the age of 22 years.

(6) Subject to sub-articles (7) and (8), for the purposes of section 2(6), a person shall be regarded as attending a full-time day course of study, instruction or training at an institution of education while he or she is attending a full-time day course of study, instruction or training at an institution of education other than a course of study, training or instruction referred to in paragraphs (a) to (e) of sub-article (2).

(7) For the purposes of sub-article (6) a person shall be regarded as continuing to attend a full-time day course of study, instruction or training at an institution of education for periods immediately following the completion by that person of part of a cycle of second level education, where such part finishes on any date between 1 May and 30 June, up to and including the next following 1 September, except where a person completes the final part of a cycle of second level education or where that person terminates second level education.

(8) For the purposes of sub-article (7) “cycle of second level education” means a cycle of education approved by the Minister for Education and Science for the Leaving Certificate Examination of the State Examinations Commission.

F70[(9) This article shall not apply to a person who, but for sections 68A or 68K(2) would otherwise qualify for jobseeker’s benefit or jobseeker’s benefit (self-employed) F71[where the person has attained the age of 65 years and has not yet attained the age of 66 years and] where that person is a person—

(a) who, prior to that that date had commenced in full-time education or a course of study within the meaning of section 148(2), or

(b) who, on or after that date, commences full-time education or a course of study within the meaning of section 148.]

Persons regarded as available for employment

15. (1) Subject to F72[sub-articles (1A) and (2)], a person shall, for the purposes of F73[Chapters 12, 12A and 12AA] of Part 2 and Chapter 2 of Part 3, be regarded as being available for employment, if he or she can show to the satisfaction of the Minister, that he or she is willing and able, at once, to take up an offer of suitable full-time employment.

F74[(1A) For the purposes of sections 62(5)(a)(ii) and (iii) and 68C(2), F75[where a person has attained the age of 65 years and has not yet attained the age of 66 years who would otherwise qualify for jobseeker’s benefit or jobseeker’s benefit (self-employed), that person shall] be exempt from being required to be available for employment and genuinely seeking work, and this article shall not apply to such a person.]

(2) F76[Subject to sub-article (4), a person shall not be regarded] as being available for employment if he or she imposes unreasonable restrictions on—

(a) the nature of the employment,

(b) the hours of work,

(c) the rate of remuneration,

(d) the duration of the employment,

(e) the location of the employment, or

(f) other conditions of employment

he or she is prepared to accept.

(3) In determining what constitutes suitable full-time employment for the purposes of sub-article (1), regard shall be had to the following—

- (a) the skills, qualifications and experience of the person concerned,
- (b) the period for which the person has been unemployed, and
- (c) the availability of employment vacancies within travelling distance of his or her residence.

F77[(4) For the purposes of sub-article (2)(e), employment as a retained fire fighter shall not be regarded as an unreasonable restriction where that person is available for—

- (a) employment which is additional to his or her employment as a retained fire fighter and which would not necessitate cessation of the employment as a retained fire fighter, and/or
- (b) alternative employment which would necessitate cessation of the employment as a retained fire fighter.]

Persons regarded as genuinely seeking employment

16. (1) F78[Subject to sub-article (1A), for] the purposes of F79[Chapters 12 F80[, 12A F81[, 12AA] and 12B]] of Part 2 and Chapter 2 of Part 3, a person shall be regarded as genuinely seeking employment if he or she can show, to the satisfaction of the Minister, that he or she has, in the relevant period, taken reasonable steps which offer him or her the best prospects of obtaining employment.

F82[(1A) This article shall not apply to a person who, but for sections 62(7) and 68C(2) would otherwise qualify for jobseeker's benefit or jobseeker's benefit (self-employed), where that person is a person who has attained F83[years and has not yet attained the age of 66] years.]

(2) For the purpose of sub-article (1) "steps" shall include—

- (a) applications for employment made to persons—
 - (i) who have advertised the availability of employment, or
 - (ii) who appear to be in a position to offer employment,
- (b) seeking information on the availability of employment from—
 - (i) employers,
 - (ii) advertisements,
 - (iii) persons who have placed advertisements which indicate that employment is available, or
 - (iv) employment agencies,
- (c) availing of reasonable opportunities for training which is suitable in his or her circumstances,
- F84[(d) acting on advice given by an officer of the Minister or other placement service concerning the availability of employment, and]
- (e) taking steps towards establishing F85[or re-establishing] himself or herself in self-employment.

(3) For the purpose of this article, the taking of one step on a single occasion during the relevant period shall not be sufficient unless taking that step on that occasion, in that period, is all that is reasonable for the person concerned to do.

(4) F86[Subject to sub-article (4A), in] determining for the purposes of this article whether, in a relevant period, a person has taken the steps which are reasonable in his or her case, regard shall be had to his or her circumstances, including in particular—

- (a) his or her skills, qualifications and experience,
- (b) the steps which he or she has taken previously to seek employment,
- (c) the availability and location of vacancies for employment,
- (d) the duration of his or her period of unemployment, and
- (e) his or her family circumstances.

F87[(4A) In addition to the factors specified in sub-article (4) in the case of a person in receipt of Covid-19 pandemic unemployment payment, due regard shall also be had to the factors specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this sub-article in determining whether, in a relevant period, that person has taken steps which are reasonable in his or her case—

- (a) his or her normal occupation immediately prior to the onset of Covid-19 was an occupation where, due to ongoing public health restrictions related to Covid-19, the opportunity to work in that occupation is temporarily curtailed and where that person has a reasonable expectation of employment in that occupation within a period of 12 months from the date on which they first claimed Covid-19 pandemic unemployment payment, or
- (b) he or she has a reasonable expectation that he or she will return to their previous employment within 12 months of first claiming the Covid-19 pandemic unemployment payment.

(4B) (1) Where the circumstances specified in paragraph (a) of sub-article (4A) apply, a person shall not be required to seek employment outside of that occupation for the period during which they are in receipt of Covid-19 pandemic unemployment payment.

(2) Where the circumstances specified in paragraph (b) of sub-article (4A) apply, a person shall not be required to seek employment where he or she has a reasonable expectation of returning to their previous employment.]

(5) For the purposes of this article, “relevant period” means the period in respect of which the person concerned has made a declaration in accordance with articles 52 F88[, 52G]F89[, 52HG] and F90[118, or as the case may be, the period in which Covid-19 pandemic unemployment payment is claimed in accordance with section 68L of the Act.]

Expenses

17. The Minister shall pay such reasonable and necessary travelling and other expenses, as he or she may determine, which are incurred by a person who is required to attend for medical or other examination under—

- (a) article 24(2),
- (b) article 34(1),
- (c) article 58(1),

(d) article 78(1),

(e) article 135(1), or

(f) article 171(1).

Conversion of contributions paid under National Health Insurance Acts

18. In taking contributions paid by or in respect of an employed contributor under the National Health Insurance Acts into account under article 61(2) or article 69(2), every 2 such contributions under those Acts shall be reckoned as 3 contributions paid, with any odd contribution being reckoned as 2 contributions paid.

Qualified child increase — linked claims

19. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), for the purposes of section 2(3)(b)(ii), (iii), (iv) and (v), any periods during which the applicant was previously entitled to or in receipt of a relevant payment may be taken into account in calculating the 156 days, provided that not more than 13 weeks has elapsed since the applicant's last relevant payment.

(2) Periods referred to in sub-article (1) during which the applicant was entitled to or in receipt of a relevant payment will only be taken into account where successive periods are not separated by more than 13 weeks.

(3) In this article "relevant payment" has the meaning assigned to it by section 2(4).

PART 2

SOCIAL INSURANCE PAYMENTS

CHAPTER 1

Illness Benefit

Persons deemed to be incapable of work

20. (1) For the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, and for no other purpose, a person who is not incapable of work shall, if it is so decided under the provisions of the Principal Act, be deemed to be incapable of work by reason of some specific disease or bodily or mental disablement for any day when—

(a) he or she is under medical care in respect of such a disease or disablement and it is certified by a registered medical practitioner that by reason of such disease or disablement he or she should abstain from work and he or she does not work, or

(b) he or she is a probable source of infection with a disease specified in regulations under the Health Act 1947 (No. 28 of 1947), to be an infectious disease and he or she abstains from work in pursuance of a written order or written advice of a registered medical practitioner.

(2) A person who at the commencement of any day is, or thereafter on that day becomes, incapable of work by reason of some specific disease or bodily or mental disablement and does not work on that day shall be deemed to be so incapable throughout that day.

F91[Days to be treated as days of incapacity for work

20A. For the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, and for no other purpose, a day or days may be deemed to be a day or days of incapacity for work, and form part of a period of interruption of employment of a person, if it is a day or days falling immediately after the end date of a period of incapacity for work as determined in accordance with article 20.]

Days not to be treated as days of incapacity for work

21. For the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, F92[and subject to article 20A,] a day shall not be treated as a day of incapacity, for work if it is a day in respect of which a person—

- (a) fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Minister that he or she is incapable of work, or
- (b) is being paid by her employer in respect of health and safety leave in accordance with section 18(4) of the Act of 1994, or
- (c) does any work other than work of the nature specified in articles 24(3) and (4).

Night workers

22. (1) Where a person is employed to work continuously from a time on any day until a time on the next following day, that person shall be regarded, for the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, as being, by virtue of such employment, employed—

- (a) where the first day is a Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday and the employment on the first day is longer than that on the second, or where the first day is a Saturday, he or she shall be regarded as being employed only on the first day, or
- (b) in any other case, he or she shall be regarded as being employed only on the second day.

(2) Where by virtue of the provisions of sub-article (1), a person—

- (a) is to be treated as having been employed on 1 day only of 2 days, and
- (b) throughout that part of the other of those 2 days during which that person is incapable of work, that person shall, for the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, be deemed to be so incapable of work throughout that other of those 2 days.

(3) Where by virtue of the provisions of sub-article (1), a person—

- (a) is to be treated as having been employed on the second day only of 2 days, and
- (b) throughout the day immediately preceding the first of those 2 days is incapable of work, that person shall, for the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 2, be deemed to be so incapable of work throughout the first of those 2 days.

Special provision relating to delay or failure in claiming

23. Notwithstanding anything contained in article 21, a person who, in respect of any period of interruption of employment, would have been entitled to illness benefit for any day but for any delay or failure on his or her part to make or prosecute a claim, shall for the purposes of section 44 be treated as having been entitled to illness benefit for that day, but a person shall not be so treated where he or she shows that he or she did not intend, by failing to acquire or establish a right to illness benefit for that day, to avoid the necessity of re-qualifying for benefit under the said section.

Disqualifications

24. (1) A person shall be disqualified for receiving illness benefit for such period not exceeding 9 weeks as may be determined under the provisions of the Principal Act if he or she—

- (a) has become incapable of work through his or her own misconduct,
- (b) fails without good cause to attend for, or to submit himself or herself to, medical or other examination in accordance with sub-article (2),
- (c) fails without good cause to—
 - (i) comply with any instructions relating to his or her incapacity issued by a registered medical practitioner attending on him or her or to whom he or she attended for medical or other examination,
 - (ii) refrain from behaviour which is likely to hinder his or her recovery,
 - F93[(iii) see an officer of the Minister or a medical assessor and to answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer or medical assessor relating to his or her claim for illness benefit.]

- (2) (a) An officer of the Minister may, on giving not less than 7 days notice in writing, require any person who claims or is entitled to illness benefit to submit himself or herself to medical or other examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice.
- (b) Notice of the time and place of the examination referred to in paragraph (a) shall also be sent to the registered medical practitioner in attendance on the person required to submit himself or herself to such examination.

F94[(3) Notwithstanding section 46(1A), a person shall not be disqualified for receipt of illness benefit where that person, having become incapable of following his or her normal occupation and with the prior written permission of an officer of the Minister, undertakes a course of training for a specified period of time with a view to taking up some other occupation.

(3A) Notwithstanding section 46(1A), where a person has—

- (a) received the prior written permission of an officer of the Minister, and
- (b) is in receipt of illness benefit immediately before 13 February 2012 while also engaged in part-time work in the nature of rehabilitation or occupational therapy, that person may continue to receive illness benefit for the unexpired portion of the period of time specified in that written permission which occurs on or after 13 February 2012, if that person continues, during the unexpired portion of such specified period, to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to illness benefit.]

(4) A person may engage in the following limited work without prior written permission or specified period of time

- (a) light work for which no remuneration is, or would normally be, payable,
- (b) work undertaken primarily as a part of his or her treatment while he or she is a patient in, or of, a hospital, sanatorium, or other similar institution and his or her weekly earnings in respect of that work do not exceed €50,
- (c) work under a scheme which is, in the opinion of the Minister, charitable in character and purpose and his or her weekly earnings in respect of that work do not exceed €50.

Reckoning of periods of interruption of employment

25. For the purpose of reckoning periods of interruption of employment, and for that purpose only, any day in respect of which a person is entitled to and is in receipt of maternity benefit shall be treated as a day of incapacity for work.

Qualifying conditions — illness benefit

26. (1) For the purposes of section 41(1)(c)—

F95[(a) the prescribed period, other than in the case of a person to whom section 41(1)(c)(ia) applies, shall be the governing contribution year,

(aa) the prescribed period for section 41(1)(c)(ia) shall be—

(i) the governing contribution year, or

(ii) the governing contribution year applicable to the illness benefit claim referred to in clause (II) of section 41(1)(c)(ia), whichever is the more favourable,]

(b) subject to sub-article (2), the prescribed reckonable weekly earnings or, in the case of a person who qualifies for illness benefit by virtue of having paid optional contributions, reckonable weekly income, shall be calculated as the total reckonable earnings or total reckonable income, as the case may be, in the prescribed period divided by the number of qualifying contributions in the said period, and

(c) in the case of a claim where—

(i) the period of interruption of employment commenced before 29 December 2003, the prescribed amount shall be €88.87, and

F96[(ii) the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 29 December 2003 and before 5 January 2009, the prescribed amount shall be €149.99, and

(iii) the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 5 January 2009, the prescribed amount shall be €300.00.]

(2) In the case of a claimant whose reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, if any, are less than €32.00, as calculated in accordance with sub-article (1)(b), he or she shall be deemed to have reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income of €32.00.

(3) In the case of a claimant whose claim, by virtue of having been entitled to or in receipt of illness benefit or jobseeker's benefit in respect of any day in the 13 week period preceding 4 January 1993, forms part of a period of interruption of employment which commenced prior to that date, the provisions of this article shall not have the effect of reducing the rate of illness benefit payable below that to which he or she was previously entitled.

F97[(4). Where a claimant becomes entitled to illness benefit by virtue of solely having qualifying contributions under Chapter 6A of Part 2 of the Principal Act, that person shall satisfy the condition in sub-article (1)(c)(iii) to have weekly earnings or weekly income in excess of the prescribed amount of €300 in the governing contribution year, where the governing contribution year is 2021.]

Partial satisfaction of conditions for illness benefit

27. Where a claimant would be entitled to illness benefit but for the fact that the amount of his or her reckonable weekly earnings or, in the case of a person who qualifies for illness benefit by virtue of having paid optional contributions, reckonable weekly income, does not exceed the amount prescribed in article 26(1)(c), the following provisions shall apply—

(a) where, in the case of a claim to illness benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced before 29 December 2003, the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 5, there shall be entitlement to illness benefit, payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,

F98[(b) where, in the case of a claim to illness benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 29 December 2003 and before 5 January 2009, the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 6, there shall be entitlement to illness benefit payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,

(ba) where, in the case of a claim to illness benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 5 January 2009, the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 6A, there shall be entitlement to illness benefit payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,]

(c) (i) any increase of illness benefit payable under section 43(1), in respect of a qualified adult, whose weekly income, calculated or estimated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed the limit prescribed in article 7, shall be at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (3) of the said F99[Schedules 5, 6 or 6A] as the case may be, and

(ii) any increase of illness benefit payable under section 297, in respect of a qualified adult, whose weekly income, calculated or estimated in accordance with article 8, is an amount specified in column (1) of Schedule 7, shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule, and

(d) any increase of illness benefit in respect of a qualified child, payable under section 43(2), shall be the same as if the condition as respects the reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income had been fully satisfied.

Contribution conditions — illness benefit

28. Where a claimant would be entitled to illness benefit but for the fact that he or she does not satisfy the requirement contained in section 41(1)(b) that there must be qualifying contributions in respect of at least 13 contribution weeks in the governing contribution year, he or she shall be entitled to benefit if he or she—

(a) has qualifying contributions in respect of at least 13 contribution weeks in either of the 2 contribution years preceding the governing contribution year or in a subsequent contribution year,

(b) was immediately before claiming illness benefit in receipt of jobseeker's allowance and was a person to whom section 142(1)(a) applied, or

(c) was immediately before claiming illness benefit in receipt of—

(i) pre-retirement allowance, or

- (ii) invalidity pension, or
- (d) was, immediately before claiming illness benefit—
 - (i) in receipt of carer’s benefit or carer’s allowance,
 - (ii) a prescribed relative within the meaning of section 179 and in respect of whom an allowance is payable,
 - (iii) providing full-time care to a person who is in receipt of an increase of disablement pension under section 78 in respect of the need for constant attendance.

F100[CHAPTER 1A

Partial Capacity Benefit]

F101[Conditions for which person assessed as having a profound restriction on capacity for work

28A. (1) For the purposes of section 46A(1)(b), a person shall be regarded as having a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work where that person has a residual capacity for work which is not more than a quarter of the norm in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.

(2) In assessing whether a person has a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work for the purposes of section 46A(1)(b), a deciding officer shall have regard to any one or more of the following—

- (a) the opinion of a medical assessor,
- (b) medical evidence furnished by a registered medical practitioner,
- (c) the claimant’s own assessment of his or her capacity for work, or
- (d) any other relevant material evidence.]

F102[Conditions for which person assessed as having a mild restriction on capacity for work

28B. (1) For the purposes of section 46A(4), a person shall be regarded as having a mild restriction on his or her capacity for work where that person has a capacity for work which is not materially different to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.

(2) In assessing whether a person has a mild restriction on his or her capacity for work for the purposes of section 46A(4), a deciding officer shall have regard to any one or more of the following—

- (a) the opinion of a medical assessor,
- (b) medical evidence furnished by a registered medical practitioner,
- (c) the claimant’s own assessment of his or her capacity for work, or
- (d) any other relevant material evidence.]

F103[Reduced rates of partial capacity benefit

28C. (1) Where a person would be entitled to partial capacity benefit but for the fact that he or she does not satisfy the requirement specified in section 46A(1)(b) that he or she has a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, he or she shall be entitled to partial capacity benefit where he or she has—

(a) a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, or

(b) a moderate restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.

(2) For the purposes of sub-article (1)(a), a person shall be regarded as having a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work where that person—

(a) has a residual capacity for work which is not more than a half of the norm in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, and

(b) has not been assessed as having a profound restriction on his or her capacity for work.

(3) For the purposes of sub-article (1)(b), a person shall be regarded as having a moderate restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work where that person—

(a) has a residual capacity for work which is not more than four fifths of the norm in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, and

(b) has not been assessed as having a profound or a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work.

(4) In assessing whether a person has a severe or moderate restriction on his or her capacity for work for the purposes of this article, a deciding officer shall have regard to any one or more of the following—

(a) the opinion of a medical assessor,

(b) medical evidence furnished by a registered medical practitioner,

(c) the claimant's own assessment of his or her capacity for work, or

(d) any other relevant material evidence.

(5) Where a person qualifies for partial capacity benefit under this article, benefit shall be paid in accordance with Schedule 7A.]

F104[Rate of partial capacity benefit payable where person requalifies for benefit

28D. (1) In the case of a person to whom section 46A(1)(c)(ii) applies, not being a person to whom section 46C(3)(a)(ii) applies—

(a) where that person has been assessed as having the same restriction on his or her capacity for work as had been assessed in relation to the period of entitlement to partial capacity benefit immediately before the date of exhaustion of the previous period of entitlement, partial capacity benefit shall be paid at the same rate as had been paid immediately before the exhaustion of that period of entitlement to benefit,

(b) where that person has been assessed as having a different restriction on his or her capacity for work from that which had been assessed in relation to the period of entitlement to partial capacity benefit immediately before the date of exhaustion of the previous period of entitlement, partial capacity benefit shall be paid at the rate of benefit that would have been paid immediately before the exhaustion of the previous period of entitlement to benefit in accordance with—

(i) the revised restriction on that person's capacity for work, and

(ii) that person's other circumstances.

(2) Notwithstanding sub-article (1)—

(a) any change in circumstances that would have resulted in a variation in the rate of illness benefit, invalidity pension or partial capacity benefit payable, if that person had continued receiving the said benefit or pension, or

(b) any general variation in the weekly rates of benefits, pensions, allowances or supplements under the Principal Act, shall have similar effect in relation to the rate of partial capacity benefit payable in accordance with this article.]

F105[Partial capacity benefit where person deemed to satisfy qualifying conditions for invalidity pension in accordance with section 46C(3)(b)]

28E. (1) The rate of partial capacity benefit shall be determined in accordance with this article in the case of a person who, having initially qualified for partial capacity benefit by virtue of section 46A(1)(c)(i)(I), subsequently continues to qualify for partial capacity benefit by virtue of being deemed to satisfy the qualifying conditions for invalidity pension in accordance with section 46C(3)(b).

(2) The rate of partial capacity benefit payable in accordance with this article shall be the rate of invalidity pension that would have been appropriate to that person's circumstances at the time that person is deemed to have satisfied the qualifying conditions for invalidity pension, reduced, where appropriate, in accordance with article 28C.

(3) Notwithstanding sub-article (2)

(a) any subsequent change in circumstances that would have resulted in a variation in the rate of invalidity pension or partial capacity benefit payable, if that person had continued receiving the said benefit or pension, or

(b) any general variation in the weekly rates of benefits, pensions, allowances or supplements under the Principal Act, shall have similar effect in relation to the rate of partial capacity benefit payable in accordance with this article.]

F106[Reduced duration for partial capacity benefit in certain cases]

28F. Where a person qualifies for partial capacity benefit by virtue of F107[article 28C], the maximum period for which that benefit shall be paid shall be—

(a) 104 weeks in the case of a person F108[who has] a severe restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work, and

(b) 52 weeks in the case of a person F108[who has] a moderate restriction on his or her capacity for work in relation to the capacity for work of a person of the same age who has no restriction on his or her capacity for work.]

F109[Disqualifications for partial capacity benefit] 28G. (1) A person shall be disqualified for receiving partial capacity benefit for such period not exceeding 9 weeks if he or she fails without good cause to—

(a) attend for, or submit to, any medical or other examination in accordance with sub-article (2),

(b) comply with any medical advice and instructions provided by a registered medical practitioner relating to his or her incapacity,

F110[(c) see an officer of the Minister or a medical assessor and to answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer or medical assessor relating to his or her claim for partial capacity benefit.]

(2) An officer of the Minister may, on giving not less than 7 days notice in writing, require any person who claims or is entitled to partial capacity benefit to submit himself or herself to medical or other examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice.

(3) Notice of the time and place of the examination referred to in sub-article (2) shall also be sent to the registered medical practitioner in attendance on the person required to submit himself or herself to such examination.]

"medical officer of health" has the same meaning as it has in the Health Act 1947;

"Covid-19" means a disease caused by infection with the virus SARS-CoV-2 and specified as an infectious disease in accordance with Regulation 6 of, and the Schedule to, the Infectious Diseases Regulations 1981 (S.I. No. 390 of 1981) or any variant of the disease so specified as an infectious disease in those Regulations.]

F115[Persons deemed incapable of work] 28J. For the purpose of Chapter 8 of Part 2, and for no other purpose, a person who is not incapable of work shall, if it is so decided under the provisions of the Principal Act, be deemed to be incapable of work by reason of a specified infectious disease by virtue of—

(a) being certified in accordance with article 28Q by a registered medical practitioner as being a person who is a probable source of infection of Covid-19,

(b) having been notified by a medical officer of health that he or she is a probable source of infection of Covid-19, or

(c) being a person in respect of whom an order under section 38A(1) of the Health Act 1947 is in force.]

F116[Minimum contribution conditions

28K. Where a claimant is a person to whom section 40(7) applies and who would be entitled to illness benefit but for the fact that he or she does not satisfy the contribution conditions contained in section 41(1), he or she shall be entitled to benefit if, immediately before claiming illness benefit, he or she—

(a) is an employed contributor who—

(i) has qualifying contributions in respect of not less than 1 contribution week in the 4 weeks immediately before claiming illness benefit, and

(ii) has not engaged in employment since the date of his or her claim for illness benefit,
or

(b) is a self-employed contributor, or has verified that he or she was self-employed immediately before claiming illness benefit by making a declaration, in such form as the Minister may determine or consider appropriate having regard to the circumstances, whether in writing, by means of an electronic communication or in another manner, that he or she—

(i) was engaged in self-employment immediately before claiming illness benefit,

(ii) has not engaged in self-employment since the date of his or her claim for illness benefit, and

(iii) will have reckonable income in the current contribution year and will be liable for the payment of a self-employment contribution under section 21.]

F117[Additional conditions

28L. Where a claimant is a person to whom section 40(7) applies and has claimed illness benefit he or she must—

(a) not be carrying out his or her employment or self-employment,

(b) be following medical advice, and

(c) be following relevant guidelines set out by the Executive in relation to the specified infectious disease.]

F118[Persons not entitled to illness benefit

28M. Where a claimant is entitled to illness benefit in respect of any day of incapacity arising from their being a person to whom subsection 40(7) applies, he or she—

(a) shall not be entitled to benefit in respect of any day of incapacity for work, if he or she is entitled to full wages, salary, or paid sick leave under a contract of employment, in respect of any such day, and

(b) shall be entitled to a reduced rate or reductions in the rate of illness benefit in respect of any day of incapacity for work, if he or she is entitled to reduced wages, salary, or paid sick leave, for those same days, which is less than the rate of illness benefit to which he or she would otherwise be entitled.]

F119[Information to be given when making a claim

28N. Where a claim for illness benefit is made by an employed contributor in respect of any day of incapacity arising from being a person to whom subsection 40(7) applies, his or her employer shall, on being so required by an officer of the Minister, furnish to the Minister the following information relating to the employee—

- (a) the nature of his or her employment,
- (b) the total amount of paid sick leave paid to the employee from his or her employment with the employer in respect of any period,
- (c) the total number of hours worked by the employee in that employment in any period, and
- (d) any other relevant information that may be required by the said officer.]

F120[Rate of benefit] 28O. The weekly rate of benefit to be paid for the purposes of section 40(11) shall be the rate of Illness Benefit as set out in Column 2 of Part 1 of Schedule 2, increased F121[to €350.]

F122[Duration of increased rate of benefit] 28P. For the purpose of section F123[40(7)] the prescribed period shall be—
(a) a maximum of ten weeks in the case of a person to whom section 40(7)(a)(i) applies, and
(b) F124[a maximum of] two weeks in the case of any other person to whom section 40(7) applies.]

F125[Manner of certification or notification] 28Q. (1) For the purposes of section 40(7)(a) the prescribed manner for certification of the nature and extent of a relevant person's incapacity by a medical practitioner shall be in the form for the time being approved by the Minister.
(2) For the purposes of sections 40(7)(b) and 40(7)(d) the prescribed manner for notification by a medical officer of health that a relevant person is a probable source of infection of a specified infectious disease shall be in the form for the time being approved by the Minister.
(3) For the purposes of section 40(7)(c) the prescribed manner for notification by a person who declares they are a probable source of infection of a specified infectious disease shall be in the form for the time being approved by the Minister.]

F126[Disqualifications] 28R. A person may be disqualified from receiving illness benefit in respect of absences from employment arising from their being a person to whom section 40(7) applies where—
(a) the person fails without good cause to comply with instructions relating to the infectious disease issued by a registered medical practitioner or the Executive, or
(b) the person engages in employment, self-employment or training.]

CHAPTER 2

Maternity Benefit

Expected week of confinement and duration of maternity benefit in certain cases 29. (1) The expected week of confinement to be specified in any certificate pursuant to section 47(1)(a) shall not be more than 16 weeks after the week in which the certificate is given.
(2) Where in respect of a claim to maternity benefit it is certified by a registered medical practitioner or otherwise to the satisfaction of an officer of the Minister that a woman has been confined, and no such certificate as is referred to in paragraph (a) of section 47(1) has been given, the said paragraph shall for the purpose of that claim, be modified and shall apply as if the said paragraph required that it had been certified by a registered medical practitioner or otherwise to the satisfaction of an officer of the Minister that the woman concerned had been confined.

(3) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (2) applies, maternity benefit shall, subject to article 35, be payable for such 24 week period as may be determined by a deciding officer.

Postponement of maternity benefit in event of hospitalisation of child

30. (1) Subject to this article, a claimant, upon written request to the Minister, in the form for the time being approved by the Minister, may postpone the payment of maternity benefit where the claimant is an employed contributor and it is certified by that person's employer that the claimant is entitled to the postponement of maternity leave under the provisions of sections 14B or 16B (as inserted by sections 7 and 12 of the Maternity Protection (Amendment) Act 2004 (No. 28 of 2004)) of the Act of 1994.

(2) Subject to sub-article (3), a claimant, upon written request to the Minister, in the form for the time being approved by the Minister, may be entitled to resume the payment of maternity benefit where the claimant is an employed contributor and it is certified by that person's employer that the claimant is entitled to resume postponed maternity leave under the provisions of sections 14B or 16B of the Act of 1994.

(3) For the purposes of sub-article (2), upon resumption of the period of entitlement to maternity leave, maternity benefit shall be paid—

(a) in one continuous period commencing not later than 7 days after the discharge of the child from hospital, and

(b) for the duration of the remaining period of maternity benefit to which that person is entitled, subject to a maximum of 12 weeks.

(4) The maximum period for which maternity benefit may be postponed under the provisions of this article is 6 months.

F127[Postponement of maternity benefit in the event of a serious health condition]

30A. (1) Subject to this article, a claimant, upon written request to the Minister, in the form for the time being approved by the Minister, may postpone the payment of maternity benefit where the claimant is an employed contributor and it is certified by that person's employer that the claimant is entitled to the postponement of maternity leave under the provisions of section 14C (inserted by section 3 of the Maternity Protection, Employment Equality and Preservation of Certain Records Act 2024 (No. 37 of 2024)) of the Act of 1994.

(2) Subject to sub-article (3), a claimant, upon written request to the Minister, in the form for the time being approved by the Minister, may be entitled to resume the payment of maternity benefit where the claimant is an employed contributor and it is certified by that person's employer that the claimant is entitled to resume postponed maternity leave under the provisions of section 14C of the Act of 1994.

(3) For the purposes of sub-article (2), upon resumption of the period of entitlement to maternity leave, maternity benefit shall be paid—

(a) in one continuous period commencing not later than 7 days after either:

(i) the 'end date' specified in relevant notification provided to their employer under section 14C(2) of the Act of 1994, or

(ii) the 'second end date' specified in a second notification provided to their employer under section 14C(7) of the Act of 1994,

and

(b) for the duration of the remaining period of maternity benefit to which that person is entitled, subject to a maximum of 26 weeks.

(4) The minimum period for which maternity benefit may be postponed under the provisions of this article is 5 weeks.

(5) The maximum period for which maternity benefit may be postponed under the provisions of this article is 52 weeks.

(6) Subject to sub-article (5), one, and only one, postponement of maternity benefit may be availed of under the provisions of this article, and the duration of the postponement may be extended on one, and only one, occasion.]

Volunteer development workers — qualifying conditions

31. (1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), a volunteer development worker shall be entitled to maternity benefit where the person would otherwise qualify therefor but for the fact that the contribution conditions in section 48 are not satisfied.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) the claimant must have qualifying contributions in respect of not less than 39 contribution weeks in the period beginning with the person's entry into insurance and ending immediately before the first day of maternity leave.

(2) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), a person who ceases to be a volunteer development worker shall be entitled to maternity benefit in respect of any claim made in the benefit year in which the person returns to the State from a developing country or in the next succeeding benefit year where the person would otherwise qualify therefor but for the fact that the contribution conditions in section 48 are not satisfied.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) the claimant must have qualifying contributions in respect of not less than 39 contribution weeks in the period beginning with the person's entry into insurance and ending immediately before the first day of maternity leave.

Determination of income tax year and prescribed weekly amount for purposes of maternity benefit

32. (1) The income tax year prescribed for the purposes of section 49 shall be the second last complete income tax year before the beginning of the benefit year in which the first day of maternity leave occurs.

(2) The amount prescribed for the purposes of F128[section 49(1)(a)(iii)] shall be F129[€217.80].

Calculation of reckonable weekly earnings

33. For the purposes of section 49(2), the average amount of reckonable weekly earnings, reckonable weekly emoluments and reckonable weekly income of a woman in any income tax year shall be calculated as her total reckonable earnings, reckonable emoluments and reckonable income for that income tax year, divided by the number of employment contributions and self-employment contributions in the said income tax year, up to a maximum of F130[€327.50].

Medical examination to determining validity of certificate

34. (1) Where any question arises as to the validity of a certificate by virtue of which a woman claims or is entitled to maternity benefit, she shall, unless the confinement has already occurred, on receipt of not less than 3 days notice in writing given by an officer of the Minister, submit herself to medical examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice with a view to obtaining a further certificate.

(2) Notice of the time and place of the medical examination referred to in sub-article (1) shall also be sent to the registered medical practitioner (if any) who is attending the woman required to submit herself to such examination.

Disqualifications

35. F131[(1) Subject to sub-article (2), a woman shall be disqualified for receiving maternity benefit for such period as may be determined by a deciding officer if, during the period for which the benefit is payable, the woman engages in any form of insurable employment, insurable (occupational injuries) employment, insurable self-employment, any employment referred to in paragraph 1, 2, 3 or 6 of Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Principal Act or any self-employment referred to in paragraph 1 or 5 of Part 3 of Schedule 1 to the said Act.

(2) A disqualification referred to in sub-article (1) shall—

- (a) commence not earlier than the first day on which the woman engages in any employment referred to in sub-article (1),
- (b) not apply for the day on which the confinement occurs where a woman engages in such employment before the confinement, and
- (c) cease, for any day after the confinement where the woman no longer engages in said employment.]

(3) Subject to sub-article (4), a person shall be disqualified for receiving maternity benefit for such period as may be determined by a deciding officer if, during the period for which the benefit is payable, the person fails without good cause to attend for or to submit herself to medical examination in accordance with article 34(1).

(4) A disqualification referred to in sub-article (3) shall—

- (a) commence not earlier than the day on which the failure occurs,
- (b) not apply for the day on which the confinement occurs in the event of the person being confined after such failure, and
- (c) cease, for any day after the confinement where the person submits herself to medical examination in accordance with article 34(1).

CHAPTER 3

Health and Safety Benefit

Qualifying conditions for benefit

36. (1) For the purposes of section 53(1)(b)—

- (a) the prescribed period shall be the second last complete contribution year before the beginning of the benefit year which includes the first day for which health and safety benefit is claimed,
- (b) subject to sub-article (2), the prescribed reckonable weekly earnings shall be calculated as the total reckonable earnings in the prescribed period divided by the number of qualifying contributions in the said period, and
- (c) in the case of a claim where—

F132[(i) the period of health and safety leave commenced on or after 29 December 2003 and before 5 January 2009, the prescribed amount shall be €149.99, and

(ii) the period of health and safety leave commenced on or after 5 January 2009, the prescribed amount shall be €300.00.]

(2) In the case of a claimant whose reckonable earnings, if any, are less than €32.00, as calculated in accordance with sub-article (1), she shall be deemed to have reckonable weekly earnings of €32.00.

Partial satisfaction of conditions for benefit

37. Where a claimant would be entitled to benefit but for the fact that her reckonable weekly earnings do not exceed the amount prescribed in article 36(1)(c), the following provisions shall apply—

F133[(a) where, in the case of a claim to health and safety benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 29 December 2003 and before 5 January 2009, the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 6, there shall be entitlement to health and safety benefit payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,

(b) where, in the case of a claim to health and safety benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 5 January 2009, the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 6A, there shall be entitlement to health and safety benefit payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,]

(c) any increase of health and safety benefit in respect of a qualified adult, payable under section 56(1) shall be at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (3) of the said F134[Schedules 6 or 6A] as the case may be, and

(d) any increase of health and safety benefit in respect of a qualified child, payable under section 56(2) shall be the same as if the condition regarding reckonable weekly earnings had been fully satisfied.

CHAPTER 4

Adoptive Benefit

Definitions

38. In this Chapter “relevant day” has the meaning assigned to it by section 59(2).

Volunteer development workers — qualifying conditions

39. (1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), a volunteer development worker shall be entitled to adoptive benefit where that person would otherwise qualify therefor but for the fact that the contribution conditions in section 59 are not satisfied.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) the claimant must have qualifying contributions in respect of not less than 39 contribution weeks in the period beginning with the person’s entry into insurance and ending immediately before the relevant day.

(2) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), a person who ceases to be a volunteer development worker shall be entitled to adoptive benefit in respect of any claim made in the benefit year in which that person returns to the State from a developing country or in the next succeeding benefit year where the person would otherwise qualify therefor but for the fact that the contribution conditions in section 59 are not satisfied.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a), the claimant must have qualifying contributions in respect of not less than 39 contribution weeks in the period beginning with the person's entry into insurance and ending immediately before the relevant day.

Determination of income tax year and prescribed weekly amount

40. (1) The income tax year prescribed for the purposes of section 60 shall be the second last complete income tax year before the beginning of the benefit year in which the relevant day occurs.

(2) The amount prescribed for the purposes of F135[section 60\(1\)\(a\)\(iii\)] shall be the amount specified in article 32(2).

Calculation of reckonable weekly earnings

41. For the purposes of section 60(2) the average amount of reckonable weekly earnings, reckonable weekly emoluments and reckonable weekly income of an adopting parent in any income tax year shall be calculated as that parent's total reckonable earnings, reckonable emoluments and reckonable income for that income tax year divided by the number of employment contributions or self-employment contributions in the said income tax year, up to the amount specified in article 33.

Disqualifications

F136[42. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), an adopting parent shall be disqualified for receiving adoptive benefit for such period as may be determined by a deciding officer if, during the period for which the benefit is payable, the adopting parent engages in any form of insurable employment, insurable (occupational injuries) employment, insurable self-employment, any employment referred to in paragraph 1, 2, 3 or 6 of Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Principal Act or any self-employment referred to in paragraph 1 or 5 of Part 3 of Schedule 1 to the said Act.

(2) A disqualification referred to in sub-article (1) shall commence not earlier than the first day on which the adopting parent engages in any employment referred to in sub-article (1).]

Postponement of adoptive benefit during hospitalisation of child

43. (1) Subject to this article, a claimant, upon written request to the Minister, in the form for the time being approved by the Minister, may postpone the payment of adoptive benefit where the claimant is an employed contributor and it is certified by that person's employer that the claimant is entitled to the postponement of adoptive leave under the provisions of section 11C (as inserted by section 9 of the Adoptive Leave Act 2005 (No. 25 of 2005)) of the Adoptive Leave Act 1995.

(2) Subject to sub-article (3), a claimant, upon written request to the Minister, in the form for the time being approved by the Minister, may be entitled to resume the payment of adoptive benefit where the claimant is an employed contributor and it is certified by that person's employer that the claimant is entitled to resume postponed adoptive leave under the provisions of section 11C of the Adoptive Leave Act 1995.

(3) For the purposes of sub-article (2), upon resumption of the period of entitlement to adoptive leave, adoptive benefit shall be paid—

(a) in one continuous period commencing not later than 7 days after the discharge of the child from hospital, and

(b) for the duration of the remaining period of adoptive benefit to which that person is entitled.

CHAPTER 5

Jobseeker's Benefit

Days not to be treated as days of unemployment

44. (1) For the purposes of Chapter 12 of Part 2, a day shall not be treated as a day of unemployment if it is a day in respect of which a person—

(a) fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Minister that he or she is unemployed, capable of work and available for employment, or

F150[(b) follows any occupation from which he or she derives any remuneration or profit, unless such occupation—

(i) could ordinarily have been followed by him or her in addition to his or her usual employment and outside the ordinary working hours of that employment and—

F151[(I) the total remuneration or profit from any days of such occupation does not exceed €7,500 on an annual basis, or, €144 on a weekly basis, or]

(II) not less than 117 employment contributions have been paid in respect of him or her in respect of the period of 3 years immediately preceding that day or in respect of the last 3 complete contribution years immediately preceding that day,

or

(ii) constitutes employment as a retained fire F152[fighter, or]]

F153[(iii) is subject to an agreement at the Workplace Relations Commission or the Labour Court under which the person is retained in their occupation by their employer, without undertaking any gainful employment for that employer, and the total remuneration does not exceed €144 on a weekly basis F154[and will be reviewed every 13 weeks.]]

(2) Where the provisions of sub-paragraph (1)(b)(ii) are satisfied as respects any day they shall continue to be regarded as satisfied in respect of any subsequent day which is in the same period of interruption of employment.

(3) For the purposes of Chapter 12 of Part 2 and notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1)(b), any day on which a person is undergoing a course of rehabilitation training provided by an organisation (being an organisation approved of by the Minister for Health and Children for the purposes of the provision of such training) shall be treated as a day of unemployment and the person shall be deemed to be available for employment on any such day.

F155[(4) For the purposes of Chapter 12 of Part 2, and notwithstanding any other provision in this article, where a person is entitled to jobseeker's benefit in respect of any day in a payment week, and that person commences employment in that payment week, which results in their claim to jobseeker's benefit being closed, any remaining days in that payment week where they would have been ordinarily entitled to jobseeker's benefit but for the reason that they commenced employment, shall be considered to be a day of unemployment.]

Night workers

45. F156[(1) Where a person is employed to work continuously from a time on any day until a time on the next following day, that person shall, for the purposes of jobseeker's benefit, be regarded as being employed by virtue of that employment—

(a) only on the first day where the employment on the first day is longer than that on the second day and in that case that first day shall not be treated as a day of unemployment, and

(b) only on the second day in any other circumstances, and in that case that second day shall not be treated as a day of unemployment.]

(2) Where by virtue of the provisions of sub-article (1), a person—

(a) is to be treated as having been employed on 1 day only of 2 days, and

(b) throughout that part of the other of those 2 days during which that person is not employed, or is deemed in accordance with regulations to be available for employment, that person shall, for the purposes of Chapter 12 of Part 2, be deemed to be so available for employment, throughout that other of those 2 days.

Special provision relating to delay or failure in claiming

46. Notwithstanding anything contained in article 44, a person who, in respect of any period of interruption of employment, would have been entitled to jobseeker's benefit for any day but for any delay or failure on his or her part to make or prosecute a claim, shall, for the purposes of section 67 be treated as having been entitled to jobseeker's benefit for that day, but a person shall not be so treated where he or she shows that he or she did not intend, by failing to acquire or establish a right to jobseeker's benefit for that day, to avoid the necessity of requalifying for jobseeker's benefit under the said section.

Qualifying conditions — jobseeker's benefit

47. (1) F157[Subject to article 52HA, for] the purposes of section 64(1)(c)—

F158[(a) the prescribed period, other than in the case of a person to whom section 64(1)(c)(ia) applies, shall be the governing contribution year,

(aa) the prescribed period for section 64(1)(c)(ia) shall be—

(i) the governing contribution year, or

(ii) the governing contribution year applicable to the jobseeker's benefit claim referred to in clause (II) of section 64(1)(c)(ia),

whichever is the more favourable,]

(b) subject to sub-article (2), the prescribed reckonable weekly earnings or, in the case of a person who qualifies for jobseeker's benefit by virtue of having paid optional contributions, reckonable weekly income, shall be calculated as the total reckonable earnings or total reckonable income, as the case may be, in the prescribed period divided by the number of qualifying contributions in the said period, and

(c) in the case of a claim where—

(i) the period of interruption of employment commenced before 25 December 2003, the prescribed amount shall be €88.87, and

F159[(ii) the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 25 December 2003 and before 1 January 2009, the prescribed amount shall be €149.99, and]

F160[(iii) the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 1 January 2009, the prescribed amount shall be €300.00]

(2) In the case of a claimant whose reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, if any, are less than €32.00, as calculated in accordance with sub-article (1)(b), he or she shall be deemed to have reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income of €32.00.

(3) In the case of a claimant whose claim, by virtue of having been entitled to or in receipt of jobseeker's benefit or illness benefit in respect of any day in the 13 week period preceding 4 January 1993, forms part of a period of interruption of employment which commenced prior to that date, the provisions of this article shall not have the effect of reducing the rate of jobseeker's benefit payable below that to which he or she was previously entitled.

F161[(4) In the case of a claimant who, immediately before claiming jobseeker's benefit, was in receipt of jobseeker's pay-related benefit, reckonable weekly earnings means the reckonable weekly earnings that were used to calculate the rate of jobseeker's pay-related benefit payable to that claimant.]

F162[Exemption from disqualification for course of study

47A. (1) A person shall not be disqualified for receiving jobseeker's benefit—

(a) in accordance with section 68A(3)(a) while participating in a course provided or approved by an education and training board specified in Schedule 2 to the Education and Training Boards Act 2013 (No. 11 of 2013) and known as Youthreach,

(b) in accordance with section 68A(3)(c) while attending a course of study, where that person is a mature student, or

(c) in accordance with section 68A, where that person is participating in an activity within the meaning of article 120 and article 120(4) applies to that person.

(2) In this article—

“approved course”, “approved higher education course” and “approved post-leaving certificate course” shall be construed in accordance with section 8 of the Student Support Act 2011 (No. 4 of 2011) and Regulation 4 of the Student Support Regulations 2015 (S.I. No. 154 of 2015);

“course of study” has the meaning given to it in section 148;

“mature student” means a student who on 1 January—

(a) in the year of entry for the first time to an approved post-leaving certificate course,

(b) in the year of entry for the first time to an approved higher education course (other than a course known for the time being as a post-leaving certificate course), or

(c) in the year of re-entry to an approved course, is at least 23 years old.]

F163[Applications shall cease to be made for jobseeker's benefit

47B. For the purposes of section 62(12)(a), the 31st day of March 2025 is prescribed as the date on which applications for jobseeker's benefit shall not be made by a class or classes of persons to whom section 68KC(1)(a) and article 52HD apply.]

Partial satisfaction of conditions for jobseeker's benefit

48. F164[Subject to article 52HA, where] a claimant would be entitled to jobseeker's benefit but for the fact that the amount of his or her reckonable weekly earnings or, in the case of a person who qualifies for jobseeker's benefit by virtue of having paid optional contributions, reckonable weekly income, does not exceed the amount prescribed in sub-article 47(1)(c), the following provisions shall apply—

(a) in the case of a claim to jobseeker's benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced before 25 December 2003 and the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 5, there shall be entitlement to jobseeker's benefit, payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,

F165[(b) in the case of a claim for jobseeker's benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 25 December 2003 and before 1 January 2009 and the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 6, there shall be entitlement to jobseeker's benefit payable at the weekly rate shown opposite that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,

(ba) in the case of a claim for jobseeker's benefit where the period of interruption of employment commenced on or after 1 January 2009 and the amount of reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income, as the case may be, is an amount included in one of the groups of amounts specified in column (1) of Schedule 6A, there shall be entitlement to jobseeker's benefit payable at the weekly rate shown opposite that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,]

(c) (i) any increase of jobseeker's benefit payable under section 66(1), in respect of a qualified adult, whose weekly income, calculated or estimated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed the limit prescribed in article 7, shall be at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (3) of the said F166[Schedules 5, 6 or 6A] as the case may be, and

(ii) any increase of jobseeker's benefit payable under section 297, in respect of a qualified adult, whose weekly income, calculated or estimated in accordance with article 8, is an amount specified in column (1) of Schedule 7, shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of amounts in column (2) of the said Schedule,

and

(d) any increase of jobseeker's benefit in respect of a qualified child, payable under section 66(2), shall be the same as if the condition as to the reckonable weekly earnings or reckonable weekly income had been fully satisfied.

F167[Contribution conditions — jobseeker's benefit

48A. Where a claimant would be entitled to jobseeker's benefit but for the fact that he or she does not satisfy the requirement contained in section 64(1)(b) that there must be qualifying contributions in respect of at least 13 contribution weeks in the governing contribution year, he or she shall be entitled to benefit if he or she—

(a) has qualifying contributions in respect of at least 13 contribution weeks in either of the 2 contribution years preceding the governing contribution year or in a subsequent contribution year,

(b) was immediately before claiming jobseeker's benefit in receipt of jobseeker's allowance and was a person to whom section 142(1)(a) applied, or

(c) was immediately before claiming jobseeker's benefit in receipt of—

(i) pre-retirement allowance, or

(ii) invalidity pension, or

(a) fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Minister that he or she is not engaged in self-employment, is capable of work and is available for employment, or

(b) follows any occupation from which he or she derives any remuneration or profit, unless such occupation—

(i) could ordinarily have been followed by him or her in addition to his or her usual employment and outside the ordinary working hours of that employment and—

(I) the total remuneration or profit from any week of such occupation does not exceed €144, or where the remuneration or profit is in respect of a period longer than a week, such remuneration or profit does not on the weekly average exceed that amount, or

(II) not less than 117 employment contributions have been paid in respect of him or her in respect of the period of 3 years immediately preceding that week or in respect of the last 3 complete contribution years immediately preceding that week,

(ii) constitutes employment as a retained fire fighter.

F179[(1A) For the purposes of this article and Chapter 12A of Part 2, and notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1)(a), any week, where a person is a self-employed contributor solely in respect of reckonable income or reckonable emoluments arising from an approved retirement fund, as defined by section 784A of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997, and that person—

(i) has sustained the loss of self-employment in their usual occupation, and

(ii) the loss occurred not earlier than the first day of the second last complete calendar year before the year in which his or her application for jobseeker's benefit (self-employed) is made,

shall be regarded as a week of unemployment.]

(2) Where the provisions of sub-paragraph (1)(b)(ii) are satisfied in respect of any week they shall continue to be regarded as satisfied in respect of any subsequent week which forms part of the same claim.

(3) For the purposes of Chapter 12A of Part 2 and notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1)(b), any week where a person is undergoing a course of rehabilitation training provided by an organisation (being an organisation approved of by the Minister for Health and Children for the purposes of the provision of such training) shall be treated as a week of unemployment and the person shall be deemed to be available for employment in any such week.]

F180[Night workers 52B. (1) Where a person is employed to work continuously from a time on any day until a time on the next following day, that person shall, for the purposes of jobseeker's benefit (self-employed), be regarded as being employed by virtue of that employment—

(a) only on the first day where the employment on the first day is longer than that on the second day and in that case that first day shall not be treated as a day of unemployment, and

(b) only on the second day in any other circumstances, and in that case that second day shall not be treated as a day of unemployment.

(2) Where by virtue of the provisions of sub-article (1), a person—

(a) is to be treated as having been employed on 1 day only of 2 days, and

(b) throughout that part of the other of those 2 days during which that person is not employed, or is deemed in accordance with regulations to be available for employment, that person shall, for the purposes of Chapter 12A of Part 2, be deemed to be so available for employment, throughout that other of those 2 days.]

F181[Special provision relating to delay or failure in claiming

52C. Notwithstanding anything contained in article 52A, a person who, in respect of any period of interruption of employment, would have been entitled to jobseeker's benefit (self-employed) for any week but for any delay or failure on his or her part to make or prosecute a claim, shall, for the purposes of section 68H be treated as having been entitled to jobseeker's benefit (self-employed) for that week, but a person shall not be so treated where he or she shows that he or she did not intend, by failing to acquire or establish a right to jobseeker's benefit (self-employed) for that week, to avoid the necessity of requalifying for jobseeker's benefit (self-employed) under the said section.]

52D. (1) A person shall not be disqualified for receiving jobseeker's benefit (self-employed)—

CHAPTER 6

Carer's Benefit

Interpretation

53. In this Chapter—

“carer” has the meaning assigned to it by section 99;

“institution” means—

(a) a hospital, convalescent home or home for persons suffering from physical or mental disability or accommodation ancillary thereto and any other similar establishment providing residence, maintenance or care for the persons therein, or

(b) a private dwelling wherein a person is boarded out under an arrangement with the Executive;

“relevant person” has the meaning assigned to it by section 99.

Conditions to be satisfied by non-resident carer

54. (1) Subject to sub-article (2) the conditions prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “carer” contained in section 99(1) are that—

(a) a direct system of communication must exist between the carer’s residence and that of the relevant person, and

(b) the relevant person is not already receiving full-time care and attention within his or her own residence from a person other than the applicant.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of sub-article (1) a system of communication shall include a telephone or alarm system.

Prescribed manner for certification of disability

55. F238[...]

F239[Circumstances in which carer is to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention]

56. F240[Subject to article 56A, a carer may,], for the purposes of Chapter 14 of Part 2, be regarded as providing full time care and attention to a relevant person where—

(a) that carer would qualify for payment of benefit but for the fact that either the carer or the relevant person is undergoing medical or other treatment of a temporary nature in an institution for a period of not longer than 13 weeks, or

(b) the relevant person is attending —

(i) a non residential course of rehabilitation training provided by an organisation (being an organisation recognised by the Minister for Health and Children for the purposes of the provision of such training), or

(ii) a non residential place of day care approved by the Minister for Health and Children,
and

(c) that carer provides care for not less than 35 hours in a period of 7 consecutive days, and care is provided on any 5 days, whether consecutive or not, within a period of 7 consecutive days.]

F241[Circumstances in which carer is to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention – domiciliary care allowance]

56A. Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of article 56, a carer may be regarded as providing full-time care and attention—

(a) for a period not longer than 18 months where the relevant person is a person to whom article 140E(i) applies, or

(b) for a period of not longer than 26 weeks in a 12 month period where the relevant person is a person to whom article 140E(ii) applies.]

Conditions and circumstances under which a carer may engage in employment, self-employment, training and education

57. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), where it is shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that adequate provision has been made for the care of the relevant person, a carer may—

(a) engage, subject to sub-article (3), in employment, or

(b) engage, subject to sub-article (4), in self-employment, or

(c) undertake such training or course of education as the Minister may from time to time determine.

(2) The aggregate duration of the activities F242[...] referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of sub-article (1) shall not exceed F243[18.5] hours per week.

(3) The earnings derived from employment F242[...] under paragraph (a) of sub-article (1) and calculated in accordance with sub-article (5) shall not exceed F244[€625.00] per week.

(4) The conditions for the purposes of paragraph (b) of sub-article (1) are that the amount of gross income derived from such self-employment, F242[...], reduced by any expenses necessarily incurred, does not exceed F245[€625.00] per week.

(5) For the purposes of sub-article (3) the earnings shall be calculated as the gross earnings reduced by the aggregate of—

(a) any allowable contribution referred to in F246[Regulation 31 of the Income Tax (Employments) Regulations 2018 (S.I. No. 345 of 2018)],

F247[(aa) any participant contribution deducted from emoluments (within the meaning of Part 3 of the Automatic Enrolment Retirement Savings System Act 2024) in accordance with section 59(1)(b) of that Act,]

F285[Special partial State pension (contributory) where person attains pensionable age before 1 September 2012 and is not a person to whom section 109(10) applies

65A. (1) In the case of a person who—

- (a) became an employed contributor paying employment contributions reckonable for the purposes of entitlement to State pension (contributory) at the time of and as a consequence of the coming into operation of section 12 of the Act of 1973, having earlier ceased to be an employed contributor,
- (b) attained pensionable age before 1 September 2012 and is not a person to whom section 109(10) applies,
- (c) would be entitled to State pension (contributory) but for the fact that the relevant yearly average contribution conditions are not satisfied, and
- (d) is not entitled to State pension (contributory) under articles 62, 62A, 62B, 65 or 65B, that person shall, where he or she has a yearly average of not less than 5, be entitled to State pension (contributory) at a rate determined in accordance with this article.

(2) In the case of a person to whom sub-article (1) applies, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the bands of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 8A to these Regulations, the pension shall be payable at the weekly rate set out in column (2) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of numbers in column (1) that corresponds to the yearly average of that person.

(3) In the case of a person to whom sub-article (2) applies, any increase payable under section 112(1) shall be payable—

- (a) where his or her spouse or civil partner or a cohabitant of that person has not attained pensionable age, at the weekly rate set out in column (3) of Schedule 8A opposite the relevant band of numbers in column (1) of that Schedule that corresponds to the yearly average for that person, and

67. The provisions of this Chapter shall not operate so as to disentitle to a State pension (contributory), or to reduce the rate of such pension payable to, a person who satisfies the contribution conditions for State pension (contributory) contained in section 109(1) by virtue solely of his or her insurance under the Principal Act.

CHAPTER 8

State Pension (Transition)

Interpretation

68. In this Chapter—

“entry into insurance” in the case of a relevant person has the meaning assigned to it by section 114(5);

“relevant period” means the period over which the yearly average of contributions is calculated for State pension (transition) purposes in accordance with section 114(3);

“relevant person” has the meaning assigned to it by section 114(4);

F288[“yearly average” has the meaning assigned to it by section 108(2).]

Reckoning of contributions under National Health Insurance Acts

69. (1) Notwithstanding section 114(5), a person who—

(a) had not attained the age of 55 years before 5 January 1953, and

(b) had not entered into insurance before attaining that age,

shall be deemed to satisfy the condition for State pension (transition) contained in section 115(1)(a) if contributions as an employed contributor under the National Health Insurance Acts had been paid by or in respect of him or her, but, in any such case, the yearly average for the purposes of section 115(1)(c) shall be calculated in accordance with section 114(3).

(2) Notwithstanding section 114(5), for the purpose of satisfying the contribution condition for State pension (transition) contained in section 115(1)(b), contributions paid by or in respect of an employed contributor under the National Health Insurance Acts shall, subject to article 18, be taken into account, but, in any such case, the yearly average for the purposes of section 115(1)(c) shall be calculated in accordance with section 114(3).

Period of retirement

70. For the purposes of section 114, a period of retirement shall be—

(a) where the person has attained the age of 65 years and has not yet attained the age of 66 years, any period subsequent to his or her retirement from employment which is insurable employment or insurable self-employment under the Principal Act (other than employment which is insurable for occupational injuries benefit only) during which he or she does not engage in such employment, or

(b) where the person has attained the age of 66 years, any period subsequent to his or her attainment of that age whether he or she is engaged in employment or not.

F289[Partial satisfaction of contribution conditions for State pension (transition) where person attains 65 years of age on or after 1 January 2013

70A. (1) Where a person attains the age of 65 years on or after 1 January 2013 and would be entitled to State pension (transition) but for the fact that the relevant yearly average contribution conditions are not satisfied, he or she shall, where the person’s yearly average is not less than 24, be entitled to State pension (transition) at a rate determined in accordance with this article.

(2) In the case of a person to whom sub-article (1) applies, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the bands of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 10 to these

Regulations, the pension shall be payable at the weekly rate set out in column (2) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of numbers in column (1) that corresponds to the yearly average for that person.

(3) In the case of a person to whom sub-article (2) applies, any increase payable under section 117(1) shall be payable—

(a) where his or her spouse or civil partner or a cohabitant of that person has not attained pensionable age, at the weekly rate set out in column (3) of Schedule 10 opposite the relevant band of numbers in column (1) of that Schedule that corresponds to the yearly average for that person, and

(b) where his or her spouse or civil partner or a cohabitant of that person has attained pensionable age, at the weekly rate set out in column (4) of Schedule 10 opposite to the relevant band of numbers in column (1) of that Schedule that corresponds to the yearly average for that person.

(4) In the case of a person to whom sub-article (2) applies, any increase payable in accordance with section 297 shall be payable—

(a) where his or her spouse or civil partner or a cohabitant of that person has attained pensionable age and the weekly income of that spouse, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, calculated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed the highest amount specified in column (1) of Schedule 2 to these Regulations, at the weekly rate set out—

(i) in column (3) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of income in column (1) that corresponds to the said weekly income, where the yearly average of the claimant or beneficiary is less than 48, but not less than 40,

(ii) in column (4) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of income in column (1) that corresponds to the said weekly income, where the yearly average of the claimant or beneficiary is less than 40, but not less than 30, and

(iii) in column (5) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of income in column (1) that corresponds to the said weekly income, where the yearly average of the claimant or beneficiary is less than 30, but not less than 24,

and

(b) where his or her spouse or civil partner or a cohabitant of that person has not attained pensionable age and the weekly income of that spouse, civil partner or cohabitant, calculated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed the highest amount specified in column (1) of Schedule 3 to these Regulations, at the weekly rate set out—

(i) in column (3) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of income in column (1) that corresponds to the said weekly income, where the yearly average of the claimant or beneficiary is less than 48, but not less than 40,

(ii) in column (4) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of income in column (1) that corresponds to the said weekly income, where the yearly average of the claimant or beneficiary is less than 40, but not less than 30, and

(iii) in column (5) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of income in column (1) that corresponds to the said weekly income, where the yearly average of the claimant or beneficiary is less than 30, but not less than 24.]

(1) Where a person attains the age of 65 years F291[on or after 1 September 2012, but before 1 January 2013] and would be entitled to State pension (transition) but for the fact that the relevant yearly average contribution conditions are not satisfied, he or she shall, where the person's yearly average is not less than 24, be entitled to State pension (transition) at a rate determined in accordance with this article.

(2) In the case of a person to whom sub-article (1) applies, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the bands of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 10 to these Regulations, the pension shall be payable at the weekly rate set out in column (2) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of numbers in column (1) that corresponds to the yearly average for that person, but any increase payable under section 117 shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 115(1)(c) had been fully satisfied.

(3) In the case of a person to whom sub-article (2) applies, any increase payable in accordance with section 297 shall be payable—

(a) where his or her spouse or civil partner or a cohabitant of that person has attained pensionable age and the weekly income of that spouse, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, calculated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed the highest amount specified in column (1) of Schedule 2A to these Regulations, at the weekly rate set out in column (2) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of income in column (1) that corresponds to the said weekly income, where the yearly average of the claimant or beneficiary is less than 48, but not less than 24, and

(b) where his or her spouse or civil partner or a cohabitant of that person has not attained pensionable age and the weekly income of that spouse, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, calculated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed the highest amount specified in column (1) of Schedule 3A to these Regulations, at the weekly rate set out in column (2) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of income in column (1) that corresponds to the said weekly income, where the yearly average of the claimant or beneficiary is less than 48, but not less than 24.]

F292[Partial satisfaction of contribution conditions for State pension (transition) where person attains 65 years of age before 1 September 2012

71A. (1) Where a person has attained the age of 65 years before 1 September 2012 and would be entitled to State pension (transition) but for the fact that the relevant yearly average contribution conditions are not satisfied, he or she shall, where the person's yearly average is not less than 24, be entitled to State pension (transition) at a rate determined in accordance with this article.

(2) In the case of a person to whom sub-article (1) applies, where the yearly average is less than 48 but not less than 24, the pension shall be payable at the weekly rate of €225.80, but any increase payable under section 117 shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 115(1)(c) had been fully satisfied.

(3) In the case of a person to whom sub-article (2) applies, any increase payable in accordance with section 297 shall be payable—

(a) where his or her spouse or civil partner or a cohabitant of that person has attained pensionable age and the weekly income of that spouse, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, calculated in accordance with article 8, does not exceed the highest amount specified in column (1) of Schedule 2A to these Regulations, at the weekly rate set out in column (2) of that Schedule opposite the relevant band of income in column (1) that corresponds to the said weekly income, where the yearly average of the claimant or beneficiary is less than 48, but not less than 24, and

Entitlement to pro-rata State pension (transition)

72. In the case of a relevant person who—

(a) would, but for the fact that the contribution condition set out in section 115(1)(c) is not satisfied, be entitled to State pension (transition),

(b) is not entitled to pension under F293[article 70A, 71 or 71A],

(c) is not in receipt of a State pension (transition) by virtue of Regulation (EEC) 1408/71 of the Council of the European Communities or by virtue of a reciprocal agreement under the provisions of section 287, and

(d) had periods in which he or she had been—

(i) employed mainly in one or more of the employments in respect of which employment contributions at the rate specified in article 81(2)(a), 82(2)(a) or 83(2)(a) of the Regulations of 1996 were paid, and

F294[(ii) an employed contributor, or a self-employed contributor or a voluntary contributor in respect of whom an aggregate of at least 260 contributions, reckonable for the purposes of the contribution conditions for entitlement to State pension (transition), have been paid in respect of him or her.]

he or she shall be entitled to a State pension (transition) at the rate calculated in accordance with article 73.

Calculation of rate of pro-rata State pension (transition)

73. (1) The rate of State pension (transition) payable to a relevant person referred to in article 72 shall be calculated in accordance with the formula—

where—

A is the rate of State pension (transition) which would be payable to the relevant person if all of the contributions specified at C in respect of that person during the relevant period were reckonable for State pension (transition) purposes,

B is the number of—

(i) employment contributions paid in respect of or credited to the relevant person, and

(ii) voluntary contributions paid by him or her, during the relevant period, which are reckonable for the purposes of the contribution conditions for entitlement to State pension (transition), and

C is the total number of—

(i) all of the employment contributions (other than employment contributions payable by a person who becomes an insured person by virtue of section 12(1)(b) only) paid in respect of or credited to the relevant person,

(ii) all of the self-employment contributions paid by him or her, and

(iii) all of the voluntary contributions paid by him or her,

during the relevant period.

(2) Notwithstanding sub-article (1), any increase payable under section 117(2), (4), (5) or (6) shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 115(1)(c) had been fully satisfied.

75. The provisions of this Chapter shall not operate so as to disentitle to a State pension (transition), or to reduce the rate of such pension payable to, a person who satisfies the contribution conditions for State pension (transition) contained in section 115(1) by virtue solely of his or her insurance under the Principal Act.

CHAPTER 9

Invalidity Pension

Definition of permanently incapable of work

76. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), for the purposes of section 118, a person shall be regarded as being permanently incapable of work if immediately before the date of claim for the said pension—

(a) he or she has been continuously incapable of work for a period of one year and it is shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that the person is likely to continue to be incapable of work for at least a further year, or

(b) he or she is incapable of work and evidence is adduced to establish to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that the incapacity for work is of such a nature that the likelihood is that the person will be incapable of work for life.

(2) Sub-article (1) shall not apply where it is subsequently shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that the person is no longer likely to continue to be incapable of work for at least a further year or for life, as the case may be.

Conditions for receipt of invalidity pension

77. For the purposes of section 119(2)(b), the “relevant date” means any date subsequent to the commencement of a period of incapacity for work where evidence is adduced to establish to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that the incapacity for work is of such a nature that the likelihood is that the person will be incapable of work for life.

Disqualification

78. (1) A person shall be disqualified for receiving invalidity pension if and so long as he or she fails without good cause to—

(a) F296[attend for or submit to any] medical or other examination at such time or place as may be required by an officer of the Minister, provided that he or she has been given not less than 7 days notice in writing,

(b) obey any instructions, relating to his or her behaviour or any other matter concerning his or her incapacity, of a medical practitioner attending on him or her or whom he or she has attended for medical or other examination in accordance with paragraph (a),

F296[(c) see an officer of the Minister or a medical assessor and to answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer or medical assessor relating to his or her claim for invalidity pension.]

(2) F297[...]

F298[(3) Notwithstanding section 118(3A), a person shall not be disqualified for receipt of invalidity pension where that person, with the prior written permission of an officer of the Minister, undertakes for a specified period of time the following types of work or training—

(a) having become permanently incapable of following his or her usual occupation, a course of training with a view to taking up some other occupation, or

(b) light work for which no remuneration is or would ordinarily be payable.

(3A) Notwithstanding section 118(3A), where a person has—

(a) received the prior written permission of an officer of the Minister, and

(b) is in receipt of invalidity pension immediately before 13 February 2012 while also engaged in work in the nature of rehabilitation or occupational therapy, that person may continue to receive invalidity pension for the unexpired portion of the period of time specified in that written permission which occurs on or after 13 February 2012, if that person continues, during the unexpired portion of such specified period, to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to invalidity pension.]

Deserted Wife's Benefit

“deserted wife's benefit” means a payment referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “relevant payment” in section 178(1);

“relevant period” means the period over which the yearly average of contributions per contribution year is calculated for the purposes of deserted wife's benefit in accordance with section 178A(2)(b)(ii);

F305[“yearly average” has the meaning assigned to it by section 178A(3A).]

Conditions for receipt of deserted wife's benefit F306[85. A payment under paragraph (a) in the definition of ‘relevant payment’ in section 178(1) shall only be made where a woman who has been deserted by her husband is not a cohabitant.]

Income limit F307[86. The amount prescribed for the purpose of section 178A(1)(a) shall be 20,000.]

Partial satisfaction of contribution conditions 87. (1) Subject to article 89, where a woman would be entitled to deserted wife's benefit but for the fact that the yearly average contribution conditions are not satisfied, she shall be entitled to deserted wife's benefit, where the yearly average in the relevant period is not less than 24, at a rate determined in accordance with sub-article (2).

(2) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies and who has not attained the age of 66 years, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the groups of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 11, deserted wife's benefit shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of numbers in column (2) of the said Schedule, but any increase payable under section 178A(3) shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 178A(2)(b)(ii) had been fully satisfied.

(3) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies and who has attained the age of 66 years, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the groups of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 11, deserted wife's benefit shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of numbers in column (3) of the said Schedule, but any increase payable under section 178A(3) shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 178A(2)(b)(ii) had been fully satisfied.

Special partial payment

88. (1) Subject to article 89, in the case of a person who became an employed contributor as a consequence of the coming into operation of section 12 of the Act of 1973 having ceased to be an employed contributor and where there would be entitlement to deserted wife's benefit by virtue of the person's or the person's F308[husband's] social insurance contribution record but for the fact that the relevant contribution condition set out in section 178A(2)(b)(ii) is not satisfied and there is no entitlement to benefit under article 87, she shall be entitled to deserted wife's benefit, where the yearly average in the relevant period is not less than 5, at a rate determined in accordance with sub-article (2).

(2) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies and who has not attained the age of 66 years, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the groups of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 11 F309[...] deserted wife's benefit shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of numbers in column (2) of the said Schedule, but any increase payable under section 178A(3) shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 178A(2)(b)(ii) had been fully satisfied.

(3) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies and who has attained the age of 66 years, where the yearly average is a number included in one of the groups of numbers specified in column (1) of Schedule 11, fractions of whole numbers being disregarded, deserted wife's benefit shall be payable at the weekly rate shown opposite to that group of numbers in column (3) of the said Schedule, but any increase payable under section 178A(3) shall be the same as if the contribution condition set out in section 178A(2)(b)(ii) had been fully satisfied.

F312[Transitional payment]

90A. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), where a woman who has been in receipt of deserted wife's benefit for a period of 52 consecutive weeks, ceases to be entitled to the payment by virtue of her gross annual earnings exceeding the amount specified in article 86, she shall, notwithstanding the provisions of article 86, continue to be entitled to a payment under this article, calculated in accordance with sub-article (3), for a period of 6 months commencing from the date on which her gross annual earnings exceed the amount specified in article 86.

(2) A payment referred to in sub-article (1), may be made where a woman continues to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to deserted wife's benefit other than that specified in section 178A(1)(a).

(3) In the case of a woman to whom sub-article (1) applies, the amount payable shall be equal to 50 per cent of the weekly rate payable to the woman immediately before the day on which she ceases to be entitled to deserted wife's benefit and such amount shall be rounded up to the nearest 10 cent where it is a multiple of 5 cent but not also a multiple of 10 cent and shall be rounded to the nearest 10 cent where it is not a multiple of 5 cent or 10 cent.

(4) Where a woman has been entitled to a payment in accordance with sub-article (1) for a continuous period of 6 months she shall not be entitled to any further payment under that sub-article.]

F325[Treatment Benefit for Dependent Spouse, Civil Partner or Cohabitant]

96. A spouse, civil partner or cohabitant shall be entitled to treatment benefit where the contribution conditions specified in articles 94 or 95 are satisfied by his or her spouse, by his or her civil partner or by his or her cohabitant, as appropriate.]

F326[Continued Benefit to Dependent Spouse, Civil Partner or Cohabitant after the Death of an Insured Person]

97. On the death of an insured person whose dependent spouse, civil partner or cohabitant, at the date of the death, was or would have been entitled to treatment benefit under article 96, the dependent spouse, civil partner or cohabitant shall continue to be entitled to treatment benefit for as long as that person remains a widow, widower, surviving civil partner or surviving cohabitant, as the case may be.]

F327[Continued entitlement over age 60]

98. Where an insured person is or would have been entitled to treatment benefit under this Chapter at any time between the age of 60 and attaining pensionable age, he or she shall thereafter continue throughout his or her life to be so entitled.]

Reckoning of contributions paid under National Health Insurance Acts

99. (1) For the purposes of this article an “existing contributor” means a person whose insurance as an employed contributor or a voluntary contributor under the National Health Insurance Acts was effective immediately before 5 January 1953.

(2) In determining for the purposes of satisfying the contribution condition for treatment benefit contained in subparagraph (i) of article 94(1)(c), every two contributions paid by or in respect of an existing contributor under the National Health Insurance Acts shall be reckoned as three qualifying contributions paid under the Principal Act, and any odd contribution paid under the said Acts shall be reckoned as two qualifying contributions paid under the Principal Act.

Claim for treatment benefit 100. A claim for treatment benefit shall be made in the form and in such manner for the time being approved by the Minister.

Limitation on benefit for a claimant who is a member of the Defence Forces F328[101. Subject to article 94, a claimant to whom article 87 of the Regulations of 1996 applies shall be entitled to medical appliances benefit and to no other treatment benefit.]

Cost of medical certificates 102. A claimant for treatment benefit may be granted the cost of any medical certificate required by the Minister and necessarily incurred for the purposes of the claim.

Time limit for obtaining treatment benefit 103. (1) The time within which any treatment, service or appliance is to be obtained is 3 months.

(2) The Minister may, if he or she is satisfied that there are good grounds for so doing, extend the time within which any treatment, service or appliance is to be obtained.

(3) A grant of treatment benefit which is not obtained within the time as fixed or extended by the Minister shall lapse to the extent to which the benefit has not been obtained.

(4) The Minister may renew a grant of treatment benefit which has lapsed.

Notice of decision 104. (1) The Minister shall cause notification of the decision on a claim for treatment benefit to be given to the claimant and of the procedure to be complied with for the purpose of obtaining that benefit.

(2) The claimant shall be advised where he or she is required to pay any sum towards the cost of the treatment benefit and of the amount of such sum, if known.

Payment by the Minister 105. (1) The Minister shall—
(a) on being informed in writing by the claimant that he or she has received to his or her satisfaction the treatment, service or appliance in respect of which he or she is entitled to treatment benefit (not being benefit received in a case falling within paragraph (2)), and

(b) the audiologist, dentist, F329[hair replacement provider,] dispensing optician, ophthalmologist or optometrist, as the case may be, has entered into an agreement with the Minister in respect of the provision of dental, optical or medical appliance treatment and that agreement is for the time being in force, pay the sum which the Minister is liable to pay in respect of that benefit.

(2) The Minister shall, on being informed in writing by the claimant that he or she has received to his or her satisfaction the treatment, service or appliance in another Member State F330[or the United Kingdom,] in respect of which he or she is entitled to treatment benefit, pay the sum which the Minister is liable to pay in respect of that benefit.

Panels 106. The Minister may, for the purposes of information, from time to time, prepare and publish a list of—

(a) dentists, for the purposes of dental benefit,

F331[(b) ophthalmologist or optometrists for the purposes of optical benefit and medical appliance benefit, F332[...]]

(c) audiologists, for the purposes of medical appliance benefit, F333[and

(d) hair replacement providers, for the purposes of medical appliance benefit,] with whom agreements, in accordance with this Chapter, have been made by the Minister and which shall be known as the Dental Panel, the Optical Panel F334[, the Hair Replacement Provider Panel,] or the Hearing Aid Panel, as the case may be.

Limitation on dental benefit for a claimant who is a member of the Defence Forces 107. F335[...]

Amount payable in respect of dental benefit 108. The payment to be made by the Minister in respect of dental benefit shall be so much of the cost of the dental treatment, subject to the maximum cost defined in accordance with the scale of charges as may from time to time be fixed by the Minister, and the remainder of the said cost, if any, shall be paid by the claimant.

Benefit in respect of medical appliances 109. The appliances to be provided as benefit under articles 110 and 111 shall be contact lenses supplied for F336[medical reason, hearing aids and non-surgical hair replacement.]

Amount payable in respect of medical appliance benefit F337[110. The payment to be made by the Minister in respect of medical appliance benefit under this article and article 111 shall be F338[the cost of providing an appliance or of repairing a hearing aid,] subject to a maximum payment as may from time to time be fixed by the Minister, and the remainder of the said cost, if any, shall be paid by the claimant.]

F339[Hearing aids] 110A. A person shall be entitled to medical appliance benefit in relation to the provision of hearing aids once in every four years or such other frequency as may, from time to time, be fixed by the Minister.]

F340[Medical lenses] 110B. A person shall be entitled to medical appliance benefit in relation to the provision of medical lenses once in every two years, or such other frequency as may, from time to time, be fixed by the Minister.]

F341[Non-surgical hair replacement] 110C. A person shall be entitled to medical appliance benefit in relation to the provision of non-surgical hair replacement, relating to hair loss on the scalp area, once in every calendar year or such other frequency as may, from time to time, be fixed by the Minister.]

Claims for and payment of medical appliance benefit

111. (1) Subject to sub-article (2) a claimant for medical appliance benefit shall submit with the claim—

(a) a recommendation from his or her medical practitioner, and

F342[(b) an estimate of the cost of appliances or the repair of hearing aids, and

(c) in the case of hair replacement, confirmation from his or her medical practitioner that the hair loss is a result of a disease or the treatment of a disease,]

(2) The Minister may, if he or she thinks fit, dispense with the submission of a recommendation from the medical practitioner where the benefit claimed is in respect of the repair of an appliance.

(3) When a claim for medical appliance benefit is awarded, the Minister shall notify the claimant.

[(4) For the purposes of sub-article (1), in the case of hair replacement, any act to be performed by a medical practitioner may also be performed by a cancer nurse specialist.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of sub-article (1), “disease” shall mean any of the following:

(i) alopecia areata (which includes alopecia totalis/universalis, diffuse alopecia areata, alopecia ophiasis),

(ii) primary scarring alopecias (including cicatricial alopecia, frontal fibrosing alopecia and lichen planopilaris alopecia),

(iii) chemotherapy induced alopecia (anagen effluvium),

(iv) alopecia resulting from surgery or trauma, including burns,

(v) such other forms of alopecia as may be approved by the Minister.]

Claims for and payment of optical benefit

112. (1) The Minister may require a certificate from an ophthalmic surgeon to be submitted with a claim for optical benefit.

(2) Where a claim for optical benefit is awarded, the Minister shall notify the claimant.

Limitation on optical benefit for claimant who is a member of the Defence Forces

113. F343[...]

Amount payable in respect of optical benefit

114. The payment to be made by the Minister in respect of optical benefit shall be so much of the cost of the optical treatment, subject to the maximum cost defined in accordance with the scale of charges as may from time to time be fixed by the Minister, and the remainder of the cost, if any, shall be paid by the claimant.

Sight tests

115. (1) A person shall be entitled to optical benefit in respect of a sight test, once in any period of two years, save where the Minister is satisfied that there are good clinical reasons in a particular case for more frequent testing.

(2) Sight tests provided by way of optical benefit shall be undertaken at the optical practitioner's normal place of business.

PART 3

SOCIAL ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS

CHAPTER 1

Jobseeker's Allowance

Interpretation 116. In this Chapter “continuous period of unemployment” shall be read in accordance with section 141(3).

F344[Days of unemployment] 117. (1) Other than in the case of a person to whom section 148A applies, for the purposes of Chapter 2 of Part 3, a day shall be treated as a day of unemployment if it is a day in respect of which a person—

(a) proves unemployment in accordance with article 118, and

(b) subject to sub-article (2), does not work for wages or other remuneration, whether paid in money or otherwise.

(2) Sub-article (1)(b) shall not apply to employment as a retained fire fighter.]

F345[(3) For the purposes of Chapter 2 of Part 3, and notwithstanding any other provision in this article, where a person is entitled to jobseeker's allowance in respect of any day in a payment week, and that person commences employment in that payment week, which results in their claim to jobseeker's allowance being closed, any remaining days in that payment week where they would have been ordinarily entitled to jobseeker's allowance but for the reason that they commenced employment, shall be considered to be a day of unemployment.]

F346[Prescribed manner for proving unemployment] 118. (1) A person shall prove unemployment for the purposes of subsections (1)(b) and (1A) of section 141 by—

(a) attending at an office of the Minister at such time as the Minister may direct for the purpose of making—

(i) a written declaration in such form as the Minister may determine, or

(ii) where the Minister considers it appropriate, a declaration by means of an electronic communication by way of the transmission of a signature in electronic form,

or

(b) making a declaration in such other manner as the Minister may consider appropriate having regard to the circumstances, including by way of an electronic communication transmitted by means of the internet, that he or she has been—

(I) continuously unemployed since the date of his or her claim for jobseeker's allowance, or

(II) unemployed or expects to be unemployed during each day in respect of which jobseeker's allowance is claimed.]

F347[Prescribed manner for making declaration under section 148A

118A. A person shall make a declaration for the purposes of subsections (2) and (3) of section 148A by—

- (a) attending at an office of the Minister at such time as the Minister may direct for the purpose of making—
 - (i) a written declaration in such form as the Minister may determine, or
 - (ii) where the Minister considers it appropriate, a declaration by means of an electronic communication by way of the transmission of a signature in electronic form,
- or
- (b) making a declaration in such other manner as the Minister may consider appropriate having regard to the circumstances, including by way of an electronic communication transmitted by means of the internet, that he or she—

- (I) is the parent, step-parent, adoptive parent or legal guardian of at least one child who has not attained the age of 14 years and who normally resides, in accordance with article 128, with that person, and
- (II) is not a cohabitant.]

F348[Night workers

119. Where a person is employed to work continuously from a time on any day until a time on the next following day, that person shall, for the purposes of jobseeker's allowance, be regarded as being employed by virtue of that employment—

- (a) only on the first day where the employment on the first day is longer than that on the second day and in that case that first day shall not be treated as a day of unemployment, and
- (b) only on the second day in any other circumstances, and in that case that second day shall not be treated as a day of unemployment.]

Persons deemed to be available for employment

120. (1) Where by virtue of the provisions of article 119 a person

- (a) is to be treated as having been employed on one day only of 2 days, and
- (b) throughout that part of the other of those 2 days during which that person is not employed, that person shall, for the purposes of Chapter 2 of Part 3, be deemed to be available for employment, throughout that other of those 2 days.

(2) A person shall be deemed to be available for employment on any day in which he or she is participating in an activity where that person—

- (a) commences and continues to participate in an activity in a continuous period of unemployment,
- (b) has given prior notice to the Minister of his or her intention to participate in that activity,
- (c) is aged 21 or over, and

CHAPTER 4

Carer's Allowance

Interpretation 131. In this Chapter—

“carer” has the meaning assigned to it by section 179;

“institution” means—

- (a) a hospital, convalescent home or home for persons suffering from physical or mental disability or accommodation ancillary thereto and any other similar establishment providing residence, maintenance or care for the persons therein, or
- (b) a private dwelling wherein a person is boarded out under an arrangement with the Executive;

“relevant person” has the meaning assigned to it by section 179.

Conditions to be satisfied by carer 132. Subject to article F366[136(1)(d)], the conditions prescribed for the purposes of section 180 are that the carer, being resident in the State—

- (a) is not engaged in employment or self-employment F367[...],
- (b) has attained the age of 18 years, and
- (c) is not residing in an institution.

Conditions to be satisfied by non-resident carer 133. (1) Subject to sub-article (2) the conditions prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “carer” contained in section 179(1) are that—

- (a) a direct system of communication must exist between the carer’s residence and that of the relevant person, and
- (b) the relevant person is not already receiving full-time care and attention within his or her own residence from a person other than the applicant.

(2) For the purposes of sub-article (1)(a) a system of communication shall include a telephone or alarm system.

Medical examination

135. (1) An officer of the Minister may, on giving not less than 3 days notice in writing, require a relevant person to submit himself or herself to medical or other examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice.

(2) Notice of the time and place of the examination referred to in sub-article (1) shall also be sent to the registered medical practitioner in attendance on the person required to submit himself or herself to such examination.

(3) Subject to sub-article (4), a carer shall be disqualified for receiving carer's allowance if and for so long as the relevant person fails without good cause to attend for or submit to medical examination in accordance with this article.

(4) A disqualification referred to in sub-article (3) shall not commence earlier than the day on which the failure to attend for or submit to the medical examination occurs.

F369[Circumstances in which carer is to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention

136. (1) For the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 3 of the Principal Act and this Chapter, a carer may—

(a) F370[subject to sub-article (1A) continue] to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention to a relevant person where he or she would qualify for payment of an allowance but for the fact that either the carer or the relevant person is undergoing medical or other treatment of a temporary nature in an institution for a period not longer than 13 weeks,

(b) continue to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention to a relevant person where—

(i) subject to subparagraph (ii), he or she would qualify for payment of an allowance but for the fact that the relevant person has been permanently admitted to an institution, and

(ii) the maximum period for payment of the allowance, under subparagraph (i), does not exceed 12 weeks,

(c) be regarded as providing full-time care and attention to a relevant person where the relevant person is attending—

(i) a non-residential course of rehabilitation training provided by an organisation (being an organisation recognised by the Minister for Health for the purposes of the provision of such training), or

(ii) a non-residential place of day care approved by the Minister for Health, or

(d) be regarded as providing full-time care and attention to a relevant person where, subject to sub-article (2), it is shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that adequate provision has been made for the care of the relevant person, and may—

- (i) engage in employment,
 - (ii) engage in self-employment, or
 - (iii) undertake such training or courses of education as the Minister may from time to time determine, and
- (e) be regarded as providing full-time care and attention to a relevant person, where the number of hours providing such care is not less than 35 hours in a period of 7 consecutive days, and care is provided on any 5 days, whether consecutive or not, within a period of 7 consecutive days.

F371[(1A) Notwithstanding sub-article (1)(a), a carer may be regarded as providing full-time care and attention—

- (a) for a period not longer than 18 months where the relevant person is a person to whom article 140E(i) applies, or
- (b) for a period of not longer than 26 weeks in a 12 month period where the relevant person is a person to whom article 140E(ii) applies.]

(2) The aggregate duration of the activities referred to in subparagraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) of sub-article (1)(d) shall not exceed 18.5 hours per week.]

F372[Circumstances and conditions under which a payment under section 186A may be made 136A. A payment under section 186A, in these regulations referred to as a “Half-Rate Carer’s Allowance”, may be made to a carer who—

 - (b) has attained the age of 18 years,
 - (c) is not resident in an institution, and
- (i) is a person entitled to or is in receipt of any benefit, pension, assistance or allowance under Part 2 or Part 3 of the Principal Act, or
 - (ii) is the spouse, civil partner or cohabitant of a person who is entitled to or is in receipt of any benefit, pension, assistance or allowance under Part 2 or Part 3 of the Principal Act (other than Supplementary Welfare Allowance under section 197), and, in respect of whom an increase for a qualified adult is in payment.]

F373[Circumstances in which carer in receipt of a Half-Rate Carer’s Allowance may engage in employment, self-employment, education or training

136B. (1) A carer in receipt of a Half-Rate Carer’s Allowance may, for the purposes of section 186A and this Chapter, and subject to sub-article (2), engage in employment, self-employment, education or training, where it is shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that adequate provision has been made for the care of the relevant person.

(2) The aggregate duration of the employment, self-employment, education or training referred to in sub-article (1) shall not exceed 18.5 hours per week.]

CHAPTER 5

Disability Allowance

Specified disability 137. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), for the purposes of section 210, a person shall be regarded as being substantially restricted in undertaking suitable employment by reason of a specified disability where he or she suffers from an injury, disease, congenital deformity or physical or mental illness which has continued or, in the opinion of a deciding officer or an appeals officer, may reasonably expect to continue for a period of at least 1 year.

(2) A person shall not be regarded as being substantially restricted in undertaking suitable employment where it is subsequently shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that he or she is no longer likely to continue to be substantially restricted in the undertaking of employment for a period of at least 1 year.

Disqualification

138. A person shall be disqualified for receiving disability allowance if and so long as he or she fails without good cause to—

(a) F374[attend for or submit to any] medical examination or other examination at such time or place as may be required by an officer of the Minister, provided that he or she has been given not less than 7 days notice in writing,

(b) obey any instructions, relating to his or her behaviour or any other matter concerning his or her disability, of a medical practitioner attending on him or her or whom he or she has attended for medical or other examination in accordance with paragraph (a),

F374[(c) see an officer of the Minister or a medical assessor and to answer any reasonable enquiries by any such officer or medical assessor relating to his or her claim for disability allowance.]

Temporary residence

139. A person who is ordinarily resident in an institution shall be entitled to receive disability allowance in respect of any week which forms part of a period of not less than 4 consecutive weeks in which that person is, under an arrangement administered by the said institution, temporarily resident outside of the institution for a period of consecutive days numbering not more than 3 and not less than 2 in respect of each such week.

Holidays

140. (1) Disability allowance may be paid to a person who is normally resident in an institution in respect of any week during which that person is temporarily resident elsewhere while absent from the institution during a period on holidays under an arrangement administered by the said institution.

(2) For the purposes of sub-article (1), "period on holidays" means a period consisting of at least 3 but not exceeding 13 consecutive weeks taken on holidays within the State in a calendar year.

(2) In the case a qualified child to whom sub-article (1) applies, the monthly amount of domiciliary care allowance payable shall be 50 per cent of the amount set out in Part 5 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act.

(3) The amount payable in accordance with sub-article (1) shall be rounded up to the nearest 10 cent.]

F383[Payment in respect of temporary full-time residence in an institution

140E. For the purpose of section 186E(3) domiciliary care allowance shall be payable in respect of a qualified child—

(i) for not more than 18 months where immediately after birth, the qualified child, being a child born on or after 1 January 2023, remains in hospital or is transferred to another hospital for medical or other treatment, or

(ii) for not more than 26 weeks in a 12 month period where the qualified child is admitted to an institution on a full-time basis for the purpose of receiving medical or other treatment of a temporary nature.]

140F. (1) An officer of the Minister may, giving not less than 7 days notice in writing, require that a qualified person shall submit such medical or other evidence in respect of the qualified child in the form for the time being approved by the Minister.

(2) An officer of the Minister may, giving not less than 7 days notice in writing, require that a qualified child shall attend for or submit to such medical or other examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice.

(3) Where a medical examination under sub-article (2) is deemed necessary a notice of the time and place of the examination referred to in sub-article (2) shall be sent to the qualified person.

(4) Subject to sub-article (5), a qualified person shall be disqualified for receiving domiciliary care allowance—

(a) where the evidence referred to in sub-article (1) is not submitted, or

(b) if and for so long as the qualified child in respect of whom domiciliary care allowance is payable fails without good cause to attend for or submit to such medical or other examination in accordance with sub-article (2).

(5) A disqualification referred to in sub-article (4) shall not commence earlier than the day on which the failure to submit the medical or other evidence requested or the failure to attend for or submit to the medical examination occurs.]

Miscellaneous Provisions for Assessment of Means

Exemption from assessment of property

F385[141. (1) The weekly value of property mentioned in Rules 1(1) of Part 2, 1(1) of Part 3 and 1(1) of Part 5 of Schedule 3 to the Principal Act, being property which though capable of investment or profitable use is not invested or put to profitable use by a person, shall not include the weekly value of a house in which the claimant or beneficiary ordinarily resides or resided but has vacated—

(a) on a temporary basis, or

(b) indefinitely, as a consequence of his or her old age or incapacity, or

(c) where the house is offered for sale by the claimant or beneficiary, for a period not exceeding 2 years from the date on which the house was vacated and remains unsold.]

(2) In this article, “house” means a dwelling house or part of a dwelling house which is, or has been occupied by the claimant or beneficiary as his or her principal residence or land which he or she has for his or her own occupation and enjoyment with that residence as its gardens or grounds up to an area not exceeding one acre.

Assessment of means — non-cash benefits

142. The non-cash benefits prescribed for the purposes of Rules 1(2) of Part 2, 1(2) of Part 3 and 1(2) of Part 5 of Schedule 3 to the Principal Act shall be—

(a) the net cash value to the person of his or her annual housing costs actually incurred and paid by a liable relative insofar as the cash value exceeds €4,952 per annum, and

F386[(b) where the cost is met in full by the State, the net cash value to the person of housing, food and associated benefits provided in kind by the Department of Justice and Equality to—

(i) a person who, having been granted refugee status, subsidiary protection or permission to remain under the Refugee Act 1996 or the International Protection Act 2015, receives, on an administrative basis, housing, food and associated benefits equivalent to those provided under the European Communities (Reception Conditions) Regulations 2018 (S.I. No. 230 of 2018) after the date of such grant of refugee status, subsidiary protection or permission to remain, or

Child regarded as continuing to receive full-time education

161. (1) For the purposes of article 160(1), a child shall be regarded as continuing to receive full-time education—

- (a) for periods during an academic year when that child is not attending an institution of education arising from the temporary interruption to the provision of a course of full-time instruction or part of a cycle of education by an institution of education, and
- (b) for the period immediately following the completion by that child of part of a cycle of education, where such part finishes between 1 May and 30 June in an academic year, up to and including the next following 30 September.

(2) Sub-article (1)(b) shall not apply to a child who completes the final part of a cycle of education and terminates his or her attendance at a course of full-time instruction at an institution of education.

PART 5

F486[CARER'S SUPPORT GRANT]

Interpretation

162. In this Part—

“carer” has the meaning assigned to it by section 224(1);

“institution” has the meaning assigned to it by section 224(1);

“relevant person” has the meaning assigned to it by section 224(1).

Date F487[carer's support grant] payable

163. The F487[carer's support grant] (referred to in this Part as “the grant”) shall be payable on the first Thursday in June of each year.

Entitlement to grant for certain classes of carer

164. Notwithstanding any other articles of these regulations, any person, who is a carer by virtue of paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of section 224(1), on the date on which the grant is payable, shall be deemed to have satisfied all the conditions for entitlement to the grant.

Period for which full-time care and attention to be given

165. For the purposes of paragraphs (d) and (e) of section 224(1), on the date on which the grant is payable, the carer shall have provided full-time care and attention, be likely to provide full-time care and attention, or a combination of both, to the relevant person for a continuous period of not less than 183 days, such period to include the date on which the grant is payable.

Carer — residence in institution

166. Subject to article 167(a), the carer shall not be resident in an institution.

Certain circumstances in which carer may continue to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention

167. A carer may, for the purposes of Part 5 of the Principal Act, continue to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention to a relevant person where—

(a) the carer is undergoing medical or other treatment of a temporary nature in an institution for a period or periods amounting to not more than F488[13 weeks, or]

F489[(b) subject to article 167A, the relevant person is, for a period or periods amounting to not more than 13 weeks—

(i) undergoing medical or other treatment of a temporary nature in an institution, or

(ii) temporarily being cared for by, or temporarily residing with, another person, or,

(c) the relevant person is attending—

(i) a non- residential course of rehabilitation training provided by an organisation (being an organisation recognised by the Minister for Health or the Minister for Children, Equality, Disability, Integration, and Youth for the purposes of the provision of such training), or

(ii) a non- residential place of day care approved by the Minister for Health or the Minister for Children, Equality, Disability, Integration and Youth.]

F490[(d) for the purposes of carer’s support grant payable in respect of full time care and attention provided on or after 1 June 2006, the carer is undertaking such training or course of education as the Minister may determine from time to time, subject to the limits with respect to duration imposed by article 169,]

F491[and

(e) the number of hours providing such care is not less than 35 hours in a period of 7 consecutive days, and care is provided on any 5 days, whether consecutive or not, within a period of 7 consecutive days.]

F492[Circumstances in which carer is to be regarded as providing full-time care and attention – domiciliary care allowance

167A. Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of article 167, a carer may be regarded as providing full-time care and attention—

(a) for a period not longer than 18 months where the relevant person is a person to whom article 140E(i) applies, or

(b) for a period of not longer than 26 weeks in a 12 month period where the relevant person is a person to whom article 140E(ii) applies.]

Conditions to be satisfied by non-resident carer

168. (1) Subject to sub-article (2) the conditions prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (e) of the definition of “carer” contained in section 224(1) are that—

(a) a direct system of communication exists between the carer’s residence and that of the relevant person, and

(b) the relevant person is not receiving full-time care and attention within his or her own residence from a person other than the claimant.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of sub-article (1) a system of communication shall include a telephone or alarm system.

F493[Conditions and circumstances under which a carer may engage in employment, self employment, training and education

169. For the purposes of a carer's support grant payable in respect of full time care and attention provided on or after 1 June 2006, where it is shown to the satisfaction of a deciding officer or an appeals officer that adequate provision has been made for the care of the relevant person, a carer may engage in employment or self employment or any training or course of education provided that the aggregate duration of such employment or self employment and any training or course of education referred to in article 167(d) shall not exceed 18.5 hours per week.]

170. F494[...]

Medical examination and disqualification

171. (1) An officer of the Minister may, on giving not less than 3 days notice in writing, require a relevant person to submit himself or herself to medical or other examination at such time and place as may be specified in the notice.

(2) Notice of the time and place of the examination referred to in sub-article (1) shall also be sent to the registered medical practitioner in attendance on the person required to submit himself or herself to such examination.

(3) A carer shall be disqualified for receiving the grant if and for so long as the person in respect of whose full-time care and attention the grant is payable, fails without good cause to attend for or submit to medical examination in accordance with this article.

PART 6

F495[WORKING FAMILY PAYMENT]

F496[Interpretation 172. In this Part—

"civil partner", "child", "family" and "spouse" have the meanings assigned to them in section 227;

"earnings from employment" means emoluments to which Part 5 of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997 (No. 39 of 1997) applies.]

Manner of calculation or estimation of weekly family income

173. (1) Subject to this Part, weekly family income within the meaning of section 227 shall be calculated or estimated—

(a) insofar as it comprises earnings from employment as an employee, by reference to the weekly average of the gross amount of such earnings received in the 2 months immediately prior to the date on which the claim for F497[working family payment] has been made where such earnings are received at monthly intervals, or in the 4 weeks immediately prior to such date where such earnings are received at weekly or fortnightly intervals,

(b) insofar as it comprises income from any form of self-employment, by reference to the weekly amount of such income calculated or estimated by dividing the income in the 12 months preceding the date of claim by 52,

(c) insofar as it consists of income from any other source, by reference to the normal weekly amount of such income.

(2) Where in any case a deciding officer or appeals officer considers that the periods mentioned in sub-article (1) would not suffice to determine the amount of weekly family income, he or she may, for the purposes of this article have regard to such other period which appears to him or her to be appropriate for that purpose.

174. In calculating or estimating weekly family income the following items shall be disregarded—

F498[(a) any sums received by way of death benefit by virtue of orphan's pension, guardian's payment (contributory), F499[guardian's payment (non-contributory), domiciliary care allowance,] supplementary welfare allowance, F500[child benefit, family income supplement or back to work family dividend,]]

 - (l) a person, other than the registered medical practitioner who certified the claimant or beneficiary under sub-article (1)(b), who appears to the Minister to have a good and sufficient interest in the welfare of the claimant or beneficiary.
- (4) (a) Where a claimant or beneficiary within the meaning of sub-article (1) is or is likely to be resident in an institution for a continuous period of at least four weeks and where no other suitable person is available and willing to be appointed under sub-article (3), the Minister may appoint a representative of the institution to exercise on behalf of the claimant or beneficiary any right or power otherwise exercisable under the Principal Act by the claimant or beneficiary.
- (b) Where a representative of an institution is appointed pursuant to paragraph (a), payment of benefit may be made directly to a central account of the Executive.
- (5) The Minister shall not appoint a person under this article to act on behalf of the claimant or beneficiary if that person has been—
- (a) adjudicated a bankrupt unless the bankruptcy has been discharged or the adjudication annulled,
 - (b) convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty, or
 - (c) convicted of an offence against the person or property of the claimant or beneficiary concerned.
- (6) This article does not apply to a claimant or beneficiary within the meaning of sub-article (1)(b) who—
- (a) is a ward of court, or
 - (b) has appointed a person to be his or her attorney under an enduring power of attorney^{F646}[, appointed in accordance with the Powers of Attorney Act 1996 (No. 12 of 1996), or as the case may be, the Assisted Decision-Making (Capacity) Act 2015 (No. 64 of 2015),] and—
 - (i) the attorney is not prohibited or restricted by the terms of the power from performing any matter to which this article applies, and

(ii) the enduring power of attorney has been registered and the registration has not been cancelled.

F647[(6A) This article does not apply to a claimant or beneficiary within the meaning of sub-article (1)(b) in respect of whom notice of any of the following has been made to the Minister:

- (a) a decision-making representative has been appointed under the Assisted Decision-Making (Capacity) Act 2015 in respect of the claimant or beneficiary and in respect of the management of social welfare matters concerning him or her within the meaning of paragraph (k) of the definition of "property and affairs" in section 2(1) of the aforementioned Act of 2015;
- (b) a decision-making assistant has been appointed by the claimant or beneficiary under a decision-making assistance agreement in accordance with the Assisted Decision-Making (Capacity) Act 2015;
- (c) a co-decision-maker has been appointed by the claimant or beneficiary under a co-decision-making agreement in accordance with the Assisted Decision-Making (Capacity) Act 2015 .]

F648[(7) An appointment made under sub-article (3) or (4) shall terminate on the day on which the Minister receives notice that—

- (a) a Committee of the estate of the claimant or beneficiary has been appointed,
- (b) a decision-making representative has been appointed under the Assisted Decision-Making (Capacity) Act 2015 in respect of the claimant or beneficiary and in respect of the management of social welfare matters concerning him or her within the meaning of paragraph (k) of the definition of "property and affairs" in section 2(1) of the aforementioned Act of 2015,
- (c) a decision-making assistant has been appointed by the claimant or beneficiary under a decision-making assistance agreement in accordance with the Assisted Decision-Making (Capacity) Act 2015, or
- (d) a co-decision-maker has been appointed by the claimant or beneficiary under a co-decision-making agreement in accordance with the Assisted Decision-Making (Capacity) Act 2015.]

(8) Anything required to be done by a claimant or beneficiary in relation to benefit may be done as respects a claimant or beneficiary, who is unable to act, by the person appointed under this article to act on his or her behalf.

(9) In this article, "institution" has the same meaning as in section 224(1).]

F649[Obligations of appointed person

202A. (1) Where a person is appointed under article 202(3) or (4) F650[he or she shall act at all times in good faith and for the benefit of] the claimant or beneficiary and shall—

- (a) act in a personal capacity and shall not delegate responsibility to any other person,
- (b) subject to paragraph (c), receive and deal with any sum payable by way of benefit on behalf of the claimant or beneficiary,
- (c) in the case of a person appointed under article 202(4)(a) where payment of benefit is made directly to the Executive pursuant to article 202(4)(b), deal with the balance of any sum payable by way of benefit after deductions specified in the Health (Charges for in-patient Services) Regulations 2005 (S.I. No. 276 of 2005) (as amended by the Health (Charges For In-Patient Services) (Amendment) Regulations 2008 (S.I. No. 521 of 2008)), have been made in respect of in-patient care in the institution, (k) in respect of continued payment for qualified children, so much as is payable by virtue of section 235.

Payments on death 205. In the case of any benefit, other than child benefit F657, [domiciliary care allowance] and death grant, on the death of any claimant or beneficiary, the Minister may allow such person as he or she may think fit to proceed with or to make a claim for such benefit in the name of such claimant or beneficiary.

F658[Sum payable on death for child benefit and domiciliary care allowance] 206. (1) Subject to this Chapter, the Minister may pay a sum payable on death if a claim to such sum is made to him or her within 6 months of the date of death or such longer time as the Minister may determine, having regard to the circumstances of the particular case.

2. In this article “sum payable on death” in relation to a deceased person means—

(a) where he or she was entitled to child benefit and domiciliary care allowance, any sum on account of such benefit which became payable within 6 months before the date of his or her death but has not been paid,

(b) where he or she applied for child benefit and domiciliary care allowance for which he or she was qualified and died before the claim was allowed, any sum which would have become payable on account of such benefit up to the date of his or her death, if the claim had been allowed immediately before his or her death.]

Distribution of sum payable on death 207. (1) On the death of a claimant or beneficiary any sum payable in respect of any benefit including a sum payable on death within the meaning of article 206(2) may be paid or distributed by the Minister, without probate or other proof of title of the personal representative of the deceased as follows—

(a) where the claimant or beneficiary dies leaving a will or other testamentary writing, the said sum may be paid or distributed to or among such of the persons appearing to be beneficially entitled thereto under the said will or testamentary writing as the Minister thinks proper and that to the exclusion of all others, without prejudice to any remedy which such others may have for recovery of the sum so paid or distributed as aforesaid against the persons receiving that sum,

(b) where the claimant or beneficiary dies intestate, the said sum may be paid or distributed to or among such persons as appear to the Minister to be beneficially entitled thereto, whether as next-of-kin or otherwise according to law or as creditors (including any person entitled to be paid or repaid the funeral expenses of the claimant or beneficiary) or to or among such of the said persons as the Minister thinks fit and that to the exclusion of all others.

(2) The receipt by any person of or over the age of 16 years of any sum paid in accordance with this article shall be a good discharge to the Minister (and, in the case of benefit under Part 2, to the Minister and to the Social Insurance Fund) for the sum so paid.

(3) Where the Minister is satisfied that any sum or part thereof payable under this article is needed for the benefit of any person under the age of 16, he or she may obtain a good discharge therefor by paying the sum or part thereof to a person over that age who satisfies the Minister that he or she will apply the sum so paid for the benefit of the person under the age of 16.

(4) The Minister upon making any payment in accordance with this article shall be discharged from all liability in respect of any sum so paid.

Payments after death

208. (1) For the purposes of this article—

“deceased beneficiary” means a person in respect of whom a continued payment is payable;

F659[“related person” means—

(a) the person in respect of whom the deceased beneficiary was receiving an increase in respect of a qualified adult, or in respect of whom such an increase would have been payable but for the receipt by the spouse, civil partner or cohabitant of the deceased beneficiary of a benefit in his or her own right, or

(b) the person entitled to payment of the benefit in accordance with paragraph (b), (c), (d), (e), (ea), (eb), (ec) or (ed) of section 248(2).]

(2) A continued payment shall be made to the related person of the deceased beneficiary.

(3) (a) Where the related person entitled to a continued payment—

(i) is unable to act, or

(ii) dies and the continued payment includes an increase in respect of a qualified child, the Minister may appoint some other person to exercise on behalf of such related person any right or power which such related person may be entitled to exercise in relation to the continued payment.

(b) The receipt of a person appointed to act under this sub-article shall be a good discharge to the Minister (and, in the case of benefit under Part 2, to the Minister and to the Social Insurance Fund) for any amounts so paid.

(c) Where the related person entitled to a continued payment dies and the continued payment does not include an increase in respect of a qualified child the right to the continued payment shall be extinguished.

(4) Subject to sub-article (5), a continued payment shall be subject to the following conditions—

(a) evidence of the death of a deceased beneficiary shall be furnished by or on behalf of the related person,

(b) the provisions of Chapter 4 of this Part shall not apply to continued payments.

(5) The application of F660[sub-article (4)] shall not be read as entitling a related person to a continued payment at a higher rate than the rate of benefit which had been payable to the deceased beneficiary.

(6) (a) In any case where the amount of the continued payment is less than the amount of the pension, allowance or benefit which, but for the provisions of section 248(2)(f) would have been payable for the same period, the provisions of the said section shall not apply, but any amount already paid by way of continued payment shall be treated as payment on account of such pension, allowance or benefit.

(b) In any case where payment has been made to a related person of any pension, allowance or benefit referred to in section 248(2)(f) in respect of the whole or part of the period in respect of which a continued payment is due the amount so paid by way of such pension, allowance or benefit shall be treated as having been paid on account of the continued payment.

(7) F661[...]

Offences

F662[209. A person who fails to comply with F663[article 188(1), 201(7) or 202A] shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to the penalties provided for in section 257(a).]

F664[Provisions relating to nominations and appointments

210. (1) The Minister may at any time revoke an appointment made under article 202, 203 or 204 and a person appointed may resign on giving to the Minister one months notice of his or her intention to do so.

(2) The receipt of benefit by a person—

(a) nominated under article 201 or 201A, or

(b) appointed under article 202, 203 or 204, shall be a good discharge to the Minister and, in the case of benefit payable under Part 2 of the Principal Act, to the Minister and to the Social Insurance Fund of any amount so paid.]

CHAPTER 3

Loss of Purchasing Power

Definitions

211. In this Chapter—

“arrears” means arrears of benefit due to a person in respect of the relevant period, having been reduced, where appropriate, in accordance with sections 205 or 251(11);

“consumer price index” means the All Items Consumer Price Index Number supplied by the Central Statistics Office;

$$(\text{present index} / \text{previous index}) - 1;$$

- (a) for the purposes of article 213, means the last available consumer price index on the date on which the arrears are paid, and
- (b) for the purposes of article 214, means the last available consumer price index on the date on which the payment in respect of the loss of purchasing power is paid;

“previous index”—

- (a) for the purposes of article 213(a), means the consumer price index appropriate to the end of the 12 month period or to the end of the period for which arrears are due if less than 12 months,
- (b) for the purposes of article 213(b) and (c) means the consumer price index appropriate to each period for which a payment in respect of loss of purchasing power is being calculated, and
- (c) for the purposes of article 214 means the consumer price index on the date arrears are paid;

“the Central Statistics Office” means the Central Statistics Office established by the Statistics Act 1993 (No. 21 of 1993).

Payment in respect of loss of purchasing power

212. (1) Payment in respect of the loss of purchasing power shall be made to a person who makes a claim for any benefit (including any increase thereof) where—

- (a) the payment of his or her claim is delayed for a period exceeding 12 months, and
- (b) a deciding officer or an appeals officer, decides that the delay was due solely or mainly to circumstances within the control of the Department, and

(c) the person has not contributed to the delay.

(2) A payment under sub-article (1) shall be made in respect of such period as a deciding officer or an appeals officer decides that the delay continued, having regard to the facts of the case.

Calculation of amount

213. Payment to a person by virtue of article 212 shall be the sum of—

(a) an amount if any, calculated by multiplying the arrears due for the period of 12 months from the date of commencement of the relevant period by the inflation factor, plus

(b) an amount if any, calculated by multiplying the arrears due for each calendar quarterly period or part of quarterly period thereafter, where the period occurs prior to 1 January 1997, by the inflation factor, plus

(c) an amount if any, calculated by multiplying the arrears due for each calendar month thereafter, where the period occurs on or after 1 January 1997, by the inflation factor.

Delay in issue of purchasing power payment

214. In the case of a person to whom article 212 applies and to whom arrears have issued in advance of the payment in respect of the loss of purchasing power, the payment calculated in accordance with article 212, shall be increased, where appropriate, by the inflation factor.

Payment of an amount of costs

215. Where a person to whom article 212 applies has necessarily incurred incidental expenses as a result of the delay in payment of the benefit, he or she shall be entitled to a payment of the expenses in so far as they exceed €12.70 and subject to a maximum of €63.50 provided he or she produces such evidence as may be required of such expenditure.

Rounding

216. The amount payable under this Chapter shall be rounded up to the nearest 10 cent where it is a multiple of 5 cent but not also a multiple of 10 cent and shall be rounded to the nearest 10 cent where it is not a multiple of 5 cent or 10 cent.

Exception from disqualification during penal servitude, imprisonment or detention in legal custody

218. (1) F680[(a) Section 249 shall not operate so as to disqualify a person for receiving illness benefit, maternity benefit, jobseeker's benefit, F681[jobseeker's benefit (self-employed),] State pension (contributory), State pension (transition), invalidity pension, F682[bereaved partner's (contributory) pension,] bereavement grant or guardian's payment (contributory), (including in each case, subject to paragraph (b), any increase thereof), in respect of any period during which the person is detained (other than in the case of a person found not guilty by reason of insanity under the provisions of the Criminal Law (Insanity) Act 2006 (No. 11 of 2006)) in any institution for the treatment of mental illness or infectious disease.]

(b) No increase in respect of a qualified child under section 43, 66, F681[68G,] 112, 117, 122 or 127 shall be payable to a person to whom paragraph (a) applies.

(2) Subject to sub-article (1), section 249 shall not operate so as to disqualify a person undergoing a period of penal servitude, imprisonment or detention in legal custody—

(a) for receiving bereavement grant,

F683[(b) for receiving illness benefit, invalidity pension, State pension (transition), F684[bereaved partner's (contributory) pension, one-parent family payment, a payment by virtue of section 178, State pension (contributory), bereaved partner's (non-contributory) pension] (including, in each case, any increase thereof) if—

(i) the detention is in respect of his or her being charged with a criminal offence, and

(ii) the charge is subsequently withdrawn or he or she is acquitted of the offence, and

(iii) in the case of illness benefit, immediately before the detention he or she was entitled to the said benefit or would, but for section 40(2) have been so entitled,

(c) for receiving invalidity pension, State pension (transition), F685[bereaved partner's (contributory) pension, one-parent family payment, a payment by virtue of section 178, State pension (contributory), bereaved partner's (non-contributory) pension] (including, in each case, any increase thereof) if, in a case of imprisonment, the imprisonment is undergone as the alternative to payment of a fine.]

(3) Subject to sub-article (1), section 249 shall not operate so as to prohibit payment of an increase in respect of a qualified adult under sections 43, 66, 112, 117 and 122 for any period during which the qualified adult is undergoing detention in legal custody if—

(a) the detention is in respect of his or her being charged with a criminal offence, and

(b) the charge is subsequently withdrawn or he or she is acquitted of the offence.

(4) F686[(a) Subject to paragraph (b) and notwithstanding that a person, by reason of undergoing a period of penal servitude, imprisonment or detention in legal custody is disqualified by virtue of section 249 for receiving illness benefit, invalidity pension, State pension (transition), F687[bereaved partner's (contributory) pension, one-parent family payment, a payment by virtue of section 178, State pension (contributory), bereaved partner's (non-contributory) pension] (including, in each case, any increase in respect of a qualified adult or qualified child), the increase shall be paid to any person appointed by the Minister to receive and deal with any sums payable on account of such increase for the benefit of the person or persons in respect of whom the increase is payable, and the receipt of any person so appointed shall be a good discharge to the Minister and the Social Insurance Fund, where appropriate, for any sum so paid.]

(b) In the case of illness benefit, paragraph (a) shall only apply where the said person is a person detained in an institution for the treatment of mental illness or is a person who was entitled to such benefit immediately before the commencement of any such period, or would, but for section 40(2) have been so entitled.

Suspension of payment of benefit during penal servitude, imprisonment or detention in legal custody

219. (1) Subject to the provisions of articles 218(1) and (4) and sub-article (2), the payment to any person of any benefit, grant, pension or payment or increase of that benefit, pension or payment—

(a) which is excepted from the provisions of section 249 by virtue of article 218, or

(b) which is payable otherwise than in respect of a period during which he or she is undergoing penal servitude, imprisonment or detention in legal custody, shall be suspended while that person, or, in the case of an increase, the person in respect of whom the increase is payable, is undergoing penal servitude, imprisonment or detention in legal custody.

F688[(2) Bereavement grant, invalidity pension, State pension (transition), F689[bereaved partner's (contributory) pension, one-parent family payment, a payment by virtue of section 178, State pension (contributory), guardian's payment (contributory), bereaved partner's (non-contributory) pension] to which sub-article (1) applies may be paid during any such period to any person appointed by the Minister to receive and deal with any sums payable on behalf of the beneficiary, and the receipt of any person so appointed shall be a good discharge to the Minister and the Social Insurance Fund, where appropriate, for any sum so paid.

(3) Where by virtue of sub-article (1) payment of invalidity pension, State pension (transition), F690[bereaved partner's (contributory) pension, one-parent family payment, a payment by virtue of section 178, State pension (contributory), guardian's payment (contributory), bereaved partner's (non-contributory) pension], is suspended for any period, the period of suspension shall not be taken into account in calculating any period under article 113.]

Payment of half-rate benefit to recipients of certain payments

223. F703[...]

F704[Payment of maternity, health and safety, adoptive or paternity benefit at reduced rate with other social welfare payments

223A. (1) Notwithstanding subsection (1) and (2) of section 247, where in respect of any period maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, F705[adoptive benefit, paternity benefit or parent's benefit] and any payment specified in sub-article (7) would be payable to or in respect of a person, such maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, F706[adoptive benefit, paternity benefit or parent's benefit,] as the case may be, and such payment specified in sub-article (7) may, subject to article 223E, be paid, in the manner provided for in this article, to or in respect of that person during that period.

(2) Subject to sub-articles (3) to (7), where maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, F705[adoptive benefit, paternity benefit or parent's benefit] is payable in accordance with sub-article (1) in respect of any period—

- (a) no increase in that benefit shall be paid in respect of a qualified child during that period, and

(b) such maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, F705[adoptive benefit, paternity benefit or parent's benefit] (exclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child, where appropriate) shall be reduced by half during that period.

(3) Where in respect of any period a person is in receipt of—

(a) F707[bereaved partner's (contributory) pension] or a payment referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of "relevant payment" in section 178(1) at a rate less than that specified in Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Principal Act, or

(b) F708[bereaved partner's (non-contributory) pension], one-parent family payment or a payment referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of the definition of 'relevant payment' in section 178(1) at a rate less than that specified in Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act by reason of means, and during that period that person is also entitled to maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, F706[adoptive benefit, paternity benefit or parent's benefit,] the amount payable to that person by way of such maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, F705[adoptive benefit, paternity benefit or parent's benefit] shall be calculated in accordance with sub-articles (4) and (5).

(4) The amount of maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, adoptive benefit or paternity benefit payable to or in respect of a person to whom sub-article (3) applies shall be the aggregate of—

(a) the difference between the amount of such reduced pension or payment specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of sub-article (3) and the maximum scheduled rate of such pension or payment, as the case may be, appropriate to that person's circumstances, and

(b) one-half of the rate of maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, F706[adoptive benefit, paternity benefit or parent's benefit,] as the case may be, (exclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child, where appropriate) payable to that person, but the amount of benefit so payable shall not exceed—

(i) in the case of maternity benefit, the rate of such benefit payable in accordance with section 49 and, where paragraph (b) of section 49(1) applies, the rate of such maternity benefit shall be inclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child,

(ii) in the case of health and safety benefit, the rate of such benefit appropriate to that person's circumstances (inclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child),

(iii) in the case of adoptive benefit, the rate of such benefit payable in accordance with section 60 and, where paragraph (b) of section 60(1) applies, the rate of such adoptive benefit shall be inclusive of any increase in respect of a F709[qualified child]

(iv) in the case of paternity benefit, the rate of such benefit payable in accordance with section 61D (inclusive of any increase in respect of a F710[qualified child), and]

F711[(v) in the case of parent's benefit, the rate of such benefit payable in accordance with section 61I (inclusive of any increase in respect of a qualified child).]

(5) In sub-article (4) "scheduled rate" means—

(a) the rate of F712[bereaved partner's (contributory) pension] or a payment referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of 'relevant payment' in section 178(1), appropriate to the person's circumstances, as set out in Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Principal Act, or

(b) the rate of F713[bereaved partner's (non-contributory) pension], one-parent family payment or a payment referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of the definition of 'relevant payment' in section 178(1), appropriate to the person's circumstances, as set out in Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Principal Act, as the case may be.

(6) Notwithstanding sub-articles (1) to (5), maternity benefit, health and safety benefit, F705[adoptive benefit, paternity benefit or parent's benefit] shall not be payable to or in respect of a person in respect of any period during which that person is in receipt of a payment specified in sub-article (7) and is also in receipt of a blind pension payable in accordance with article 224.

(7) The following payments are specified for the purposes of sub-articles (1) and (6)—

F714[(a) death benefit by way of bereaved partner's pension, (b) bereaved partner's (contributory) pension,]

(b) widow's (contributory) pension, widower's (contributory) pension or surviving civil partner's (contributory) pension,

(c) a payment referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c) of the definition of 'relevant payment' in section 178(1),

F715[(d) bereaved partner's (non-contributory) pension, or]

(e) one-parent family payment.]

F716[Payment of illness, jobseeker's, injury benefit etc. with other social welfare payments in certain circumstances

(b) a payment specified in sub-article (7) of article 223A,

that person shall, notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) of section 247, continue to be entitled to such injury benefit and such specified payment during the unexpired portion of the period of 156 days that occurs on or after 1 February 2012, if that person continues, during the unexpired portion of that period of 156 days, to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to such injury benefit and to such payment specified in sub-article (7) of article 223A.

(3) Where, in respect of a period of interruption of employment which commenced before 2 February 2012, a person was in receipt of—

(a) jobseeker's benefit by virtue of article 223, and

(b) a payment specified in sub-article (7) of article 223A,

that person shall, notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) of section 247, continue to be entitled to such jobseeker's benefit and such specified payment during the unexpired portion of that period of interruption of employment that occurs on or after 2 February 2012, if that person continues, during the unexpired portion of that period of interruption of employment, to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to such jobseeker's benefit and to such payment specified in sub-article (7) of article 223A.

(4) Subject to article 223C, where, in respect of a period of entitlement to incapacity supplement which commenced before 3 February 2012, a person was in receipt of—

(a) incapacity supplement by virtue of article 223 for less than 390 days, and

(b) a payment specified in sub-article (7) of article 223A,

that person shall, notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) of section 247, continue to be entitled to such incapacity supplement and such specified payment during the unexpired portion of the period of 390 days that occurs on or after 3 February 2012, if that person continues, during the unexpired portion of that period of 390 days, to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to such incapacity supplement and to such payment specified in sub-article (7) of article 223A.]

F721[Transitional arrangements for payment of maternity, health and safety benefit or adoptive benefit with other social welfare payments in certain circumstances

223E. Where a person is in receipt of a payment specified in sub-article (7) of article 223A and on 31 January 2012 that person is also in receipt of maternity benefit, health and safety benefit or adoptive benefit by virtue of article 223 for less than the maximum period for which that benefit is payable in accordance with section 47, 54 or 58, as appropriate, that person shall, notwithstanding subsection (1) and (2) of section 247, continue to be entitled to such benefit as was payable in accordance with article 223 for the unexpired portion of that period that occurs on or after 1 February 2012, if that person continues, during that unexpired portion of that period, to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to maternity benefit, health and safety benefit or adoptive benefit, as the case may be.]

F722[Payment of Covid-19 pandemic unemployment payment with other social welfare payments

223F. (1) Notwithstanding section 247(1) or (2), where, a person is entitled to, a payment under Chapter 12B of the Act and any payment specified in sub-article (2) would be payable to or in respect of a person, both such payments may be paid to or in respect of that person in respect of that period, if the person meets the eligibility conditions of both payments.

(2) The following payments are specified for the purposes of this article—

(a) partial capacity benefit;

(b) health and safety benefit;

(c) disablement benefit;

- (d) carer's benefit;
- F723[(e) bereaved partner's (contributory) pension;]
- (f) F724[...]
- (g) F724[...]
- (h) guardian's payment (contributory);
- (i) jobseeker's allowance payable in accordance with section 148A of the Principal Act;
- (j) blind pension;
- F725[(k) bereaved partner's (non-contributory) pension;]
- (l) F726[...]
- (m) F726[...]
- (n) guardian's payment (non-contributory);
- (o) one-parent family payment;
- (p) a relevant payment within the meaning of paragraphs (a) or (b) of section 178(1) of the Principal Act;
- (q) carer's allowance;
- (r) disability allowance;
- (s) F727[subject to article 52M,] child benefit;
- (t) working family payment;
- (u) back to work family dividend;
- (v) daily expenses allowance as defined in the European Communities (Reception Conditions) Regulations 2018 (S.I. No. 230 of 2018).]

Payment of blind pension with other social welfare payments

224. Notwithstanding section 247(1) or (2), where, in respect of the same period, blind pension and any payment specified in sub-article (2) would be payable to or in respect of a person who has not attained pensionable age, both such payments may be paid to or in respect of that person in respect of that period.

(2) The following payments are specified for the purposes of this article—

- (a) any benefit other than carer's benefit, State pension (contributory), State pension (transition) or invalidity pension,
- (b) any assistance other than jobseeker's allowance, pre-retirement allowance, State pension (non-contributory), carer's allowance, disability allowance or farm assist.

Payment on account

225. (1) Where—

- (a) in respect of any period, a payment specified in section 247(1) or (2) (in this article referred to as the "specified payment") has been paid to or in respect of a person who, though entitled to any other payment specified in the said subsection (1) or (2) (in this article referred to as the “other payment”), is not at that time in receipt of such other payment, and

(b) such specified payment would not have been paid if that person had been in receipt of such other payment, and

(c) any sum (in this article referred to as the “arrears”) accruing in respect of any part of the said period on account of the other payment subsequently becomes payable to that person,

F728[the Minister] may reduce the arrears by an amount not exceeding the amount paid by way of the specified payment to such person.

(2) Where on revision or appeal it is decided that benefit or assistance is payable to a person in lieu of F729[working family payment] payable to him or her by virtue of the original decision, any payments already made on account of the supplement in respect of any period covered by the decision on revision or appeal shall be treated as having been made on account of the benefit or assistance made payable by that decision.

Payment on account of qualified adult and qualified child

226. F730[(1) Where in respect of any period a person is in receipt of any benefit or assistance, which includes an increase in respect of a qualified adult or a spouse, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, and in that period that qualified adult, spouse, civil partner or cohabitant becomes entitled in his or her own right to any benefit or assistance, any such increase shall be regarded as payment on account of the said benefit or assistance payable to that qualified adult, spouse, civil partner or cohabitant in respect of the said period.]

F731[(1A) Where in respect of any period a person is in receipt of any benefit or assistance, which includes an increase in respect of a qualified adult or a spouse, civil partner or cohabitant, as the case may be, and in that period that qualified adult, spouse, civil partner or cohabitant is entitled in his or her own right to pandemic unemployment payment paid under section 202 or Covid-19 pandemic unemployment payment under section 68L, payment of any such increase shall not be regarded as payment on account and both such payments may be paid in respect of that period.]

(2) Where in respect of any period a person is in receipt of any benefit or assistance, which includes an increase in respect of a qualified child, and in that period that qualified child becomes entitled in his or her own right to any benefit or assistance, any such increase shall be regarded as payment on account of the said benefit or assistance payable to that qualified child in respect of the said period.

F732[(3) Where in respect of any period a person is in receipt of any benefit or assistance, which includes an increase in respect of a qualified child, and in that period the spouse, civil partner or a cohabitant of that person becomes entitled in his or her own right to any benefit or assistance which also includes an increase in respect of that qualified child, half of any sums paid to that person in that period in respect of that qualified child shall be regarded as payment on account of the said benefit or assistance.]

Supplementary welfare allowance granted to persons in receipt of long-term payments

227. F733[(1) Any arrears of a relevant payment payable to or in respect of a person, which the Minister, by virtue of section 204, may reduce by the amount of the excess, shall include any such arrears payable to or in respect of the spouse, civil partner or a cohabitant of that person.]

(2) In this article “excess” and “relevant payment” have the meanings assigned to them by section 204.

Payment of increase for qualified child where child becomes entitled to payment in his or her own right

228. Notwithstanding section 247(1) or (2) where, in respect of any period to which article 14(3)(b) applies, an increase in any payment specified in section 247(1) or (2) is payable in respect of a qualified child and that qualified child becomes entitled to any payment specified in section 247(1) or (2) in his or her own right, the following provisions shall apply—

- (a) the increase in payment payable in respect of the qualified child shall continue to be paid, and
- (b) the payment to which the qualified child becomes entitled to in his or her own right shall be reduced by an amount not exceeding the amount of the increase specified in paragraph (a).

State pension (non-contributory) — qualified child

229. F734[...]

Rounding

230. Where, by virtue of this Chapter, the amount of any benefit or assistance (including any increase thereof) is reduced, the amount so payable shall be rounded up to the nearest 10 cent where it is a multiple of 5 cent but not also a multiple of 10 cent and shall be rounded to the nearest 10 cent where it is a multiple of 5 cent.

Saver

231. (1) Subject to sub-article (2) where, before 1 November 1991, more than one of the payments specified in section 247(1) or (2) was payable to or in respect of a person in respect of the same period by virtue of article 21(1) of the Social Welfare (Overlapping Benefits) Regulations 1990 (S.I. No. 342 of 1990), section 247 shall not operate so as to disentitle such person to any such payment.

(2) Where, on 1 November 1991, more than one of the payments specified in section 247(1) or (2) continued to be payable to or in respect of a person in respect of the same period by virtue of sub-article (1), and that person subsequently ceases to be entitled to any such payment for any period, sub-article (1) shall cease to apply to that person from the date that such payment ceases.

- (iv) the date of commencement of the employment,

(b) be recorded at the time of commencement of the relevant employment, and

(c) be held readily accessible at the construction site where the person to whom the record relates is employed for the duration of his or her employment.

(d) for the purposes of this article, "construction site", means the premises or place at which the employee or sub-contractor is carrying out the work for which he or she is contracted.

OVERPAYMENTS

Provision of information on overpayments

242. Where an overpayment has been assessed against a person, in accordance with Part 11 of the Principal Act, that person shall be—

- (a) informed of the factors which gave rise to the overpayment,
- (b) informed of the amount of overpayment,
- (c) informed of the proposed method of recovery, and
- (d) afforded an opportunity to bring to the notice of F755[the Department]—
 - (i) any view he or she may wish to offer on the assessment of the overpayment,
 - (ii) any view he or she may wish to offer on the proposed method of recovery of the overpayment, and
 - (iii) any facts or circumstances which he or she considers relevant to the recovery of the overpayment, before any decision is made regarding the recovery of the overpayment.

Recovery of overpayment

243. F756[The Minister] shall make every effort to recover overpayments in full having regard to the provisions of these Regulations and shall, subject to these Regulations, determine the method and rate of repayment and such repayment may take the form of lump sum payment or periodic payments or both.

Determining the method of recovery

244. When determining the method and rate of repayment of an overpayment, F757[the Minister] shall take account of—

- (a) the amount of the overpayment and the circumstances in which it arose, and
- (b) any facts or circumstances relevant to the recovery which have come to the notice of F758[the Department].

F759[Recovery of overpayment by means of deduction from social welfare and other payments

245. (1) Where a person is required in accordance with section 335, 336, 337 or 338 to repay an amount of any benefit, assistance, F760[F761[working family payment], continued payment for qualified children or back to work family dividend] (in this article referred to as the "relevant benefit") and that person is or becomes entitled to—

- (a) a payment of any relevant benefit, or
- (b) a payment under—
 - (i) section 34A or 36,

(ii) regulations made under section 34, 34A, 35 or 37,

(iii) section 32 of the Redundancy Payments Act 1967, or

(iv) section 6 of the Protection of Employees (Employers' Insolvency) Act 1984, recovery of the relevant benefit may, without prejudice to any other method of recovery, take the form of—

(i) withholding all or part of—

(I) any arrears of any relevant benefit,

(II) any grant or gratuity under Part 2 or Part 3 of the Principal Act, or

(III) any payment specified in paragraph (b), to which that person is or becomes entitled,

(ii) making deductions from ongoing payments of any relevant benefit to which that person is or becomes entitled, having regard to the total amount to be recovered and the person's ability to repay, or

(iii) any combination of the methods specified in paragraphs (i) and (ii).

(2) Where, in accordance with sub-article (1)(ii), repayment of any relevant benefit is made by way of weekly deduction from the weekly rate of any benefit or assistance, it shall not, without the prior written consent of the person liable to repay that amount, exceed the percentage of such weekly rate of benefit or assistance specified in section 341(7A).

(3) In this article—

"assistance" has the meaning assigned to it in section 2(1);

"benefit" has the meaning assigned to it in section 2(1);

F761["working family payment"] means F761[working family payment] under Part 6 of the Principal Act;

"continued payment for qualified children" means continued payment for qualified children under Part 7 of the Principal Act;

"weekly rate" has the meaning assigned to it in section 341(7B).]

Reduction or cancellation of sum to be repaid

246. (1) The amount of an overpayment to be repaid may be reduced or cancelled where the overpayment arose because of—

(a) a failure by F763[the Department] to act within a reasonable period on information which was provided by or on behalf of the person concerned, or

and the person concerned could not reasonably have been expected to be aware that a failure or error had occurred.

(2) The amount to be repaid shall, where the facts or circumstances warrant, be reduced to the amount accepted in settlement.

F764[(3) Other than in the case of a person to whom section 342A applies, the amount of an overpayment to be repaid may be reduced by the amount of any relevant benefit (within the meaning of article 245(1)) to which the person would otherwise have been entitled in the period to which the overpayment relates had he or she not been in receipt of the relevant benefit which gave rise to the overpayment.]

(4) In determining whether repayment of an overpayment is to be reduced or cancelled, account shall be taken of any omission made by or on behalf of the person concerned, which contributed in whole or in part to the overpayment being made.

(5) The repayment of an overpayment may be cancelled where there is no reasonable prospect of securing repayment in whole or in part.

Proceedings for recovery of overpayment

247. These Regulations are without prejudice to any right of F765[the Minister] to recover overpayments by proceedings taken under statute or simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Obligations of personal representatives

248. These Regulations do not affect the obligation of the personal representative of a deceased person who was at any time in receipt of a social assistance payment to—

- (a) give notice of his or her intention to distribute the assets of that person and to furnish a schedule of such assets at least 3 months before commencing to distribute the assets,
- (b) ensure that sufficient assets are retained to repay any assistance overpaid, and
- (c) be personally liable to repay the amount of an overpayment outstanding as a result of failure to meet these obligations.

F766[Decisions as to the application of Part 9]

249. All questions which arise in the application of this Part shall be determined by an officer of the Minister.]
