10.— (1) A designated body may from time to time make distributions to the Minister or such other person or body as the Minister may direct.

(2) A designated body may from time to time transfer, to the Minister or such other person or body as the Minister may direct, outstanding mortgage loan payments representing the principal and interest amounts of securitised local authority mortgage payments due to the designated body.

(3) Any asset of a designated body remaining on its winding-up shall be transferred to the Minister or such other person or body as the Minister may direct.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), ‘asset’ includes money, an interest and a right of action in respect of money and an interest accruing, receivable or vesting subsequent to the winding-up.”.

Amendment of the Markets in Financial Instruments and Miscellaneous Provisions Act 2007.

12.— The Markets in Financial Instruments and Miscellaneous Provisions Act 2007 is amended by inserting after section 6—

“Regulations in relation to transparency in trading in certain financial instruments.

6A.— (1) In this section ‘financial instruments’ has the same meaning as in the European Communities (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2007 (S.I. No. 60 of 2007).

(2) For the purposes of ensuring that trading in financial instruments in the State is and remains fair, orderly and transparent, or where the Minister considers it necessary or expedient to do so to advance the objectives of a Directive of the European Communities relating to the oversight of financial markets and trading in financial instruments (or of a law of the State giving effect to such a Directive), the Minister may, after consulting the Bank, make regulations requiring persons (or persons of specified classes) who have entered into transactions in specified financial instruments or classes of financial instruments to disclose to the Bank or the public (or both) such information as may be specified in the regulations.

(3) Regulations under subsection (2)—

- (a) may provide for the method of disclosure and the form in which the disclosure is to be made, and
- (b) may make such incidental, supplementary or consequential provision as the Minister considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of the regulations, including provisions creating offences (but only providing penalties in respect of summary convictions for such offences).

(4) Every regulation made under subsection (2) shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made and, if a resolution annulling the regulation is passed by either such House within the next 21 days on which that House has sat after the regulation is laid before it, the regulation shall be annulled accordingly but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under the regulation.”.

Short title and commencement.

13.— (1) This Act may be cited as the Investment of the National Pensions Reserve Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act 2009.

(2) This Act (other than paragraphs (d) and (e) of section 3) shall come into operation on such day or days as the Minister may, by order or orders, appoint either generally or with reference to any particular purpose or provision, and different days may be so appointed for different purposes or different provisions.
