11.— (1) Where in respect of a multi-unit development the development stage has ended and either section 3(7) or 4(2) applies, the owner of every beneficial interest in the relevant parts of the common areas and the reversion in the residential units which is reserved by virtue of those provisions shall, subject to subsection (2), as soon as practicable thereafter make a statutory declaration for the benefit of the owners' management company that the beneficial interest concerned stands transferred to the owners' management company concerned, and the effect of the making of such declaration is that the beneficial interest and legal interest stand merged.

(2) A declaration under subsection (1) shall be made with the consent of each mortgagee or owner of a charge in relation to the interest of the owner of the common areas and reversion in the residential units concerned which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Determination of certain beneficial interests in common areas in certain cases.

12.— (1) Where in respect of a multi-unit development the development stage has not ended and either section 3(7) or 4(2) applies, and the owners of 60 per cent of the residential units in a multi-unit development or a relevant part of the development request the owner of every beneficial interest in the common areas concerned and the reversion in the residential units which is reserved by virtue of those provisions to do so, such owner shall, subject to subsection (2), or unless good and sufficient cause is shown, as soon as practicable thereafter make a statutory declaration for the benefit of the owners' management company that as respects the development or the relevant part of the development concerned the beneficial interest concerned stands transferred to the owners' management company concerned, and the effect of the making of such declaration is that the beneficial interest and legal interest in the common areas concerned and in the reversion in the residential units concerned stand merged.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (1) good and sufficient cause includes the reason that to do so would interfere in a material manner with the completion of the entire multi-unit development and that the interference could not be removed, overcome or resolved in any other effective manner than by the beneficial interest in the development or relevant part of the development continuing to be retained by the developer.

(5) Where the unit owners in the multi-unit development or a relevant part of the development do not accept that good and sufficient cause has been shown as to why a declaration should not be made under subsection (1) the owners concerned may make application to the Circuit Court under section 24 for an order directing that a declaration be made as respects the development or part of the development in respect of which the request was made under subsection (1) or such other part of the development as the Court considers appropriate.

(3) Where the voting rights of members of an owners' management company to which this section applies are allocated on a basis other than that specified in subsection (2) a person who, but for this section, would be entitled to exercise such voting rights, shall not exercise such rights unless that person has applied for and has been granted an authorisation to exercise those rights by the Circuit Court which application shall be made under section 24.

(4) The Court shall not make an order authorising the exercise of voting rights referred to in subsection (3) unless it is satisfied—

(13) The annual service charge shall be calculated on a transparent basis and shall be equitably apportioned between unit owners.

(14) (a) The owners' management company in setting the annual service charge shall do so by reference to the actual or projected expenditure for the year in respect of which the same is levied.
