(2) The committee may omit from the final report any information that identifies or that could reasonably be expected to lead to the identification of a person who gave evidence to the committee or any other person if, in the committee’s opinion—

(c) it would be prejudicial to the person to have his or her identity made public and the omission of the information would not be prejudicial to the inquiry or any subsequent investigation or inquiry (whether under this Act or another Act) that has been commenced before the giving of the final report to the House,

(d) it would not be in the interests of justice to disclose the information, or

(e) for any other compelling reason, such information should be omitted.

- (e) otherwise obstructing the inquiry,

the Oireachtas Commission may give a notice in writing to the person setting out that belief and the grounds for that belief and stating that, if one or more of those grounds are confirmed by the Court under section 96(2), the Oireachtas Commission intends to exercise its power under subsection (2) relating to the recoupment of such costs so incurred relating to those grounds so confirmed (including such costs arising from any delay in completing the Part 2 inquiry).

(2) Where under section 96(2) the Court has confirmed any grounds referred to in subsection (1), the Oireachtas Commission may make a request in writing (which request shall be accompanied by the relevant documents) to the person to whom those grounds so confirmed relate to pay to the Oireachtas Commission, not later than 60 days after the request is made, the amount specified in the request, being the Part 2 inquiry legal costs that the Oireachtas Commission believes that the committee has incurred relating to those grounds so confirmed.

(3) Where the person the subject of a request under subsection (2)—

(a) fails to comply with the request within the 60 days referred to in that subsection, or

(b) gives a notice in writing to the Oireachtas Commission that he or she objects to the amount specified in the request, whichever first occurs, the Oireachtas Commission shall cause the Part 2 inquiry legal costs concerned to be adjudicated and ascertained by a parliamentary legal costs adjudicator (and, in any such case, the parliamentary legal costs adjudicator shall not be bound to treat the amount specified in the request as a maximum for the purposes of such adjudication and ascertainment).

(4) Subject to the guidelines (if any) issued under section 46, subsection (8) and section 96(1) and (2), where the Oireachtas Commission believes, on the basis of the final report of the committee after it has been finalised by the committee, that a person (in this section referred to as the “aggrieved person”) who has attended before or given evidence to the committee is adversely affected as a result of an act or omission referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (1) such that the aggrieved person has incurred Part 2 inquiry legal costs that would not otherwise have been incurred but for that act or omission, the Oireachtas Commission may, at the request in the specified form of the aggrieved person, give a notice in writing to the person, whose act or omission had that result, setting out that belief and the grounds for that belief and stating that, if one or more of those grounds are confirmed by the Court under section 96(2), the Oireachtas Commission intends to exercise its power under subsection (5) relating to the recoupment, on behalf of the aggrieved person, of such costs so incurred relating to those grounds so confirmed.

(5) Where under section 96(2) the Court has confirmed any grounds referred to in subsection (4), the Oireachtas Commission may make a request in writing (which request shall be accompanied by the relevant documents) to the person to whom those grounds relate to pay to the aggrieved person, not later than 60 days after the request is made, the amount specified in the request, being the Part 2 inquiry legal costs that the Oireachtas Commission believes that the aggrieved person has incurred relating to those grounds so confirmed.

(6) Where the person the subject of a request under subsection (5)—

(a) fails to comply with the request within the 60 days referred to in that subsection, or

(b) gives a notice in writing to the Oireachtas Commission that he or she objects to the amount specified in the request,

whichever first occurs, the Oireachtas Commission shall cause the Part 2 inquiry legal costs concerned to be adjudicated and ascertained by a parliamentary legal costs adjudicator (and, in any such case, the parliamentary legal costs adjudicator shall not be bound to treat the amount specified in the request as a maximum for the purposes of such adjudication and ascertainment).

(7) A person may be requested to pay Part 2 inquiry legal costs under this section even though the act or omission that resulted in the request is punishable as contempt or as an offence against a provision of this Act or otherwise renders the person liable to civil proceedings under this Act, and the request shall not prevent the person being punished for contempt or the bringing of proceedings in respect of the offence or the act or omission concerned.

(8) Subject to section 96(5) and (6), where a request in the specified form referred to in subsection (4) is made to the Oireachtas Commission by the aggrieved person—

- (a) it shall, not later than 45 days after the request is made, give a notice in writing to the aggrieved person of what action (which may be no action) it proposes to take in respect of the request and its reasons for such action, and
- (b) if, as a result of that request, the Oireachtas Commission gives a notice referred to in subsection (4) or makes a request under subsection (5), it shall, at the same time as it gives the notice or makes the request, as the case may be, give a copy of it to the aggrieved person.

(9) The requests as to Part 2 inquiry legal costs which the Oireachtas Commission may make under this section include a request that a person shall pay any or any combination of the following:

- (a) a proportion of another person's such costs;
- (b) a stated amount in respect of another person's such costs;
- (c) such costs from or until a certain date only or in respect of a specified period;
- (d) such costs incurred after the resolution referred to in section 13(1) in respect of the Part 2 inquiry was passed but before the inquiry commenced or, in the case of a Part 2 inquiry which is a section 16 inquiry, after section 16 applies and the committee that is to conduct the section 16 inquiry was identified but before the section 16 inquiry commenced;
- (e) such costs relating to particular steps taken in or in relation to the inquiry by the committee;
- (f) such costs relating only to a distinct part of the Part 2 inquiry;
- (g) interest on such costs from or until a certain date or in respect of a specified period.

(10) In this section "relevant documents", in relation to an amount specified in a request under subsection (2) or (5), means—

- (a) a signed bill of costs, prepared in accordance with the guidelines (if any) issued under section 46, showing how that amount was calculated,
- (b) a copy of this Part,
- (c) a copy of Part 9,
- (d) a copy of the guidelines issued under section 46, and
- (e) a copy of the order of the Court under section 96(2) making the confirmation concerned.

Payment by Oireachtas Commission of Part 2 inquiry legal costs, etc.

49.— (1) Any Part 2 inquiry legal costs granted under this Chapter (other than such costs granted under section 48) shall be paid by the Oireachtas Commission as such costs are agreed between the Oireachtas Commission and the person to whom the costs are granted or, in the absence of such agreement, as adjudicated and ascertained by a parliamentary legal costs adjudicator.

(2) The Oireachtas Commission may request in writing the State Claims Agency to assist it in reaching an agreement referred to in subsection (1).

Proceedings for recoupment of Part 2 inquiry legal costs.

50.— Subject to section 97, a person shall not initiate proceedings for the recoupment of any Part 2 inquiry legal costs awarded under this Chapter until the expiration of the later of—

- (a) 3 months following delivery by the person of a signed bill of costs referred to in section 51(2)(a) upon the person to be charged, or
- (b) if the bill of costs is referred for adjudication under section 51(1) during the 3 months referred to in paragraph (a), until they are finally certified.

Application for assessment of Part 2 inquiry legal costs.

51.— (1) Subject to subsection (7), a party to whom payment of Part 2 inquiry legal costs under this Chapter is due, or a party who has been charged with, but who objects to, the Part 2 inquiry legal costs as stated in a bill of costs referred to in this Chapter, may apply in the specified form to the Oireachtas Commission, not later than 3 months after subsection (2)(a) has been complied with in respect of that bill of costs, for an adjudication of such costs by a parliamentary legal costs adjudicator.

- (2)(a) An application under subsection (1) may only be made once a signed bill of costs has been delivered to the party to be charged with the costs.
- (b) The delivery of a bill of costs referred to in paragraph (a) may be effected by ordinary prepaid post or by delivery to the solicitor of the person or, if the person is not represented by a solicitor, by ordinary prepaid post to the person's dwelling or place of employment.
- (3) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by a certified true copy of the bill of costs.
- (4) In circumstances where due notice was given and the solicitor or other person, or his or her representative, fails to attend the adjudication, a parliamentary legal costs adjudicator may proceed to adjudicate on and settle the bill of costs.
- (5) Pending adjudication, any proceedings brought to recover the Part 2 inquiry legal costs shall be stayed until such costs have been certified under section 52.
- (6) A parliamentary legal costs adjudicator shall, on completion of the assessment in accordance with the guidelines (if any) issued under section 46, deliver to the parties an assessment of costs in writing.
- (7) Where section 48(3) or (6) applies to a person the subject of a request under section 48(2) or (5), as the case may be, the Oireachtas Commission shall act under subsection (1) as if the person had made an application referred to in that subsection in respect of the Part 2 inquiry legal costs concerned, and the other provisions of this section shall, with all necessary modifications, be construed accordingly.

Certificate of costs.

52.— (1) Following an assessment under section 51 where no question of law has been referred to the Court under section 98 or, if such a reference has been made, the reference has been withdrawn or abandoned or determined by the Court, on application by the party concerned, the Oireachtas Commission shall issue a certificate of costs.

- (2) The certificate of costs shall be treated for the purposes of any proceedings as evidence of—
 - (a) the matters to which the Part 2 inquiry legal costs relate,
 - (b) the amount of Part 2 inquiry legal costs allowed on the assessment, and
 - (c) how much of that amount is, as at the date of the certificate, outstanding.
- (3) Where in proceedings to recover costs certified under this section, the respondent states, whether in writing or otherwise, that he or she is not liable to pay such costs (or part of such costs), the certificate of costs is to be treated for the purposes of any proceedings as evidence only of such amount (if any) as the claimant may recover from the respondent as a result of the first-mentioned proceedings.

(4) At any time after the issue of a certificate of costs, the party entitled to an adjudicated bill of costs may demand the full certified amount thereof, from one or more persons liable to the payment.

(5) Following a demand by a person under subsection (4) for payment of an adjudicated bill of costs, where no payment is made to the person, he or she may recover the same as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) In the case of a certificate of costs requiring more than one person to be liable for a specified sum, any person from whom the amount of costs or sum certified under this section has been recovered or is to be recovered may claim from the other persons, or any of them, who are liable to the payment of such costs or sum certified a proportionate share thereof, according to the number of persons so liable, and according to the extent of the liability of each person.

Oireachtas Commission to issue guidelines in respect of Part 2 inquiry expenses.

53.— (1) The Oireachtas Commission may, after consultation with such persons as it considers appropriate, prepare and issue guidelines for the information of witnesses and other persons affected by Part 2 inquiries in respect of the recoupment of the Part 2 inquiry expenses incurred in relation to Part 2 inquiries, and such guidelines may provide for one or more than one of the following:

- (a) setting out general principles governing the payment of such expenses;
- (b) restricting the types of matters for which payment may be made;

54.— (1) Subject to the guidelines (if any) issued under section 53, a witness in, or other person affected by, the proceedings of a Part 2 inquiry may apply in the specified form to the Oireachtas Commission to be paid the Part 2 inquiry expenses incurred by him or her.

(2) Subject to the guidelines (if any) issued under section 53 and to section 67(3), the Oireachtas Commission may pay, out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas, the reasonable Part 2 inquiry expenses the subject of an application under subsection (1).

(3) An application under subsection (1) may be refused in whole or in part if the circumstances referred to in section 55(1) or (2) apply.

Award of Part 2 inquiry expenses against third parties, etc.

55.— (1) Subject to section 96(3) and (4), where the Oireachtas Commission believes that the committee has incurred Part 2 inquiry expenses that the committee would not otherwise have incurred as a result of a person—

- (a) failing, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any direction under this Act,
- (b) failing, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement that the committee was entitled to issue,
- (c) engaging in conduct that is unreasonably prolix, dilatory or evasive or which otherwise results in the Part 2 inquiry being needlessly prolonged or in unnecessary Part 2 inquiry expenses being incurred,
- (d) acting in a manner that has resulted in a finding of relevant misbehaviour being made in respect of him or her, or
- (e) otherwise obstructing the inquiry,

the Oireachtas Commission may, after the finalisation of the final report, direct in writing (which direction shall be accompanied by the relevant documents) the person to pay to the Oireachtas Commission such expenses (including such expenses arising from any delay in completing the Part 2 inquiry).

(2) Subject to the guidelines (if any) issued under section 53, subsection (5) and section 96(3) and (4), where the Oireachtas Commission believes that a person (in this section referred to as the “aggrieved person”) who has attended before or given evidence to the committee is adversely affected as a result of an act or omission referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (1) such that the aggrieved person has incurred Part 2 inquiry expenses that would not otherwise have been incurred but for that act or omission, the Oireachtas Commission may, after the finalisation of the final report and at the request in the specified form of the aggrieved person, direct in writing (which direction shall be accompanied by the relevant documents) the person whose act or omission had that result to pay to the aggrieved person such expenses.

(3) Subject to section 96(3) and (4), any sum payable pursuant to a direction under subsection (1) or (2) may be recovered as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) A person may be directed to pay Part 2 inquiry expenses under this section even though the act or omission that resulted in the direction is punishable as contempt or as an offence against a provision of this Act or otherwise renders the person liable to civil proceedings under this Act, and the direction shall not prevent the person being punished for contempt or the bringing of proceedings in respect of the offence or the act or omission concerned.

(5) Subject to section 96(5) and (6), where a request in the specified form under subsection (2) is made to the Oireachtas Commission by the aggrieved person—

- (a) it shall, not later than 45 days after the request is made, give a notice in writing to the aggrieved person of what action (which may be no action) it proposes to take in respect of the request and its reason for such action, and
- (b) if, as a result of that request, the Oireachtas Commission gives a direction referred to in subsection (2), it shall, at the same time as it gives the direction, give a copy of it to the aggrieved person.

CHAPTER 4

Private bill legal costs

Oireachtas Commission to issue guidelines in respect of private bill legal costs.

56.— (1) The Oireachtas Commission may, after consultation with a Taxing Master and bodies representative of legal practitioners or of legal costs accountants, and such other persons as it considers appropriate, prepare and issue guidelines for the information of promoters and petitioners in respect of the recoupment of private bill legal costs, and such guidelines may provide for one or more than one of the following:

- (a) setting out general principles governing the payment of such costs consistent with the effective and efficient conduct of proceedings of the Oireachtas on private bills;
- (b) restricting the types of services, persons or other matters in respect of which payment may be made;
- (c) setting maximum amounts in relation to the payment for one or more types of services or other matters.

(2) A parliamentary legal costs adjudicator may on any adjudication of a signed bill of costs referred to in section 60(1)(a) allow all fair and reasonable private bill legal costs in respect of any matters not included in the guidelines prepared and issued pursuant to this section.

Awarding of private bill legal costs (promoter) to promoters.

57.— (1) Subject to the guidelines (if any) issued under section 56, subsections (4) and (6) and section 96(1) and (2), where, in proceedings of the Oireachtas on a private bill—

(a) a committee decides that the preamble to the private bill is proved, and

(b) the committee has given the promoter a notice in writing stating—

(i) that the committee believes that the promoter has been vexatiously exposed to private bill legal costs (promoter) as a result of opposition to the private bill by a petitioner, and

(ii) setting out the grounds for that belief,

the Oireachtas Commission shall, at the request in the specified form of the promoter, give a copy of that notice to the petitioner together with a notice in writing (in this section referred to as the “relevant notice”) by the Oireachtas Commission stating that, if one or more of those grounds are confirmed by the Court under section 96(2), the Oireachtas Commission intends to exercise its power under subsection (2) relating to the recoupment, on behalf of the promoter, of such costs so incurred relating to those grounds so confirmed.

(2) Where under section 96(2) the Court has confirmed any grounds referred to in subsection (1), the Oireachtas Commission may make a request in writing (which request shall be accompanied by the relevant documents) to the petitioner to whom those grounds relate to pay to the promoter, not later than 60 days after the request is made, the amount specified in the request, being the private bill legal costs (promoter) that the Oireachtas Commission believes that the promoter has incurred relating to those grounds so confirmed.

(3) Where the petitioner the subject of a request under subsection (2)—

(a) fails to comply with the request within the 60 days referred to in that subsection, or

(b) gives a notice in writing to the Oireachtas Commission that he or she objects to the amount specified in the request, whichever first occurs, the Oireachtas Commission shall cause the private bill legal costs (promoter) concerned to be adjudicated and ascertained by a parliamentary legal costs adjudicator (and, in any such case, the parliamentary legal costs adjudicator shall not be bound to treat the amount specified in the request as a maximum for the purposes of such adjudication and ascertainment).

(4) A petitioner who owns an interest in property and who, at his or her own risk and cost, opposed a private bill which proposed the acquisition of all or any part of that interest shall not be liable to pay any private bill legal costs (promoter) under this section in respect of such opposition.

(5) A petitioner may be requested to pay private bill legal costs (promoter) under this section even though the vexatious behaviour that resulted in the request is punishable as a contempt or as an offence against a provision of this Act or otherwise renders the petitioner liable to civil proceedings under this Act, and the request shall not prevent the petitioner being punished for contempt or the bringing of proceedings in respect of the offence or vexatious behaviour concerned.

(6) Where a request in the specified form under subsection (1) is made to the Oireachtas Commission by the promoter—

(a) it shall, at the same time as it gives the relevant notice to the petitioner, give a copy of it to the promoter, and

(b) in any case where the request results in the Oireachtas Commission making a request under subsection (2), it shall, at the same time as it gives the second-mentioned request to the petitioner, give a copy of it to the promoter.

(7) The requests as to private bill legal costs (promoter) which the Oireachtas Commission may make under this section include a request that a petitioner shall pay any or any combination of the following:

- (a) a proportion of the promoter's such costs;
- (b) a stated amount in respect of the promoter's such costs;
- (c) such costs from or until a certain date only or in respect of a specified period;
- (d) such costs relating to particular steps taken in relation to the private bill;
- (e) interest on such costs from or until a certain date or in respect of a specified period.

(8) In this section "relevant documents", in relation to an amount specified in a request under subsection (2), means—

- (a) a signed bill of costs, prepared in accordance with the guidelines (if any) issued under section 56, showing how that amount was calculated,
- (b) a copy of this Part,
- (c) a copy of Part 9,
- (d) a copy of the guidelines (if any) issued under section 56, and
- (e) a copy of the order of the Court under section 96(2) making the confirmation concerned.

Awarding of private bill legal costs (petitioner) to petitioners.

58.— (1) Subject to the guidelines (if any) issued under section 56, subsection (5) and section 96(1) and (2), where, in proceedings of the Oireachtas on a private bill—

- (a) a committee decides—
 - (i) that the preamble to the private bill has not been proved, or
 - (ii) to amend the private bill in order to protect a petitioner,
- and
- (b) the committee has given a petitioner (in this section referred to as the "relevant petitioner") a notice in writing stating—
 - (i) that the committee believes that the relevant petitioner has been unreasonably exposed to costs in defending his or her rights with which the private bill proposes to interfere, and
 - (ii) setting out the grounds for that belief,

the Oireachtas Commission shall, at the request in the specified form of the relevant petitioner, give a copy of that notice to the promoter together with a notice in writing (in this section referred to as the "relevant notice") by the Oireachtas Commission stating that, if one or more of those grounds are confirmed by the Court under section 96(2), the Oireachtas Commission intends to exercise its power under subsection (2) relating to the recoupment, on behalf of the relevant petitioner, of such costs relating to those grounds so confirmed.

(2) Where under section 96(2) the Court has confirmed any grounds referred to in subsection (1), the Oireachtas Commission may make a request in writing (which request shall be accompanied by the relevant documents) to the promoter to whom those grounds relate to pay to the relevant petitioner, not later than 60 days after the request is made, the amount specified in the request, being the private bill costs (petitioner) that the Oireachtas Commission believes that the relevant petitioner has incurred relating to those grounds so confirmed.

(3) Where the promoter the subject of a request under subsection (2)—

- (a) fails to comply with the request within the 60 days referred to in that subsection, or
- (b) gives a notice in writing to the Oireachtas Commission that he or she objects to the amount specified in the request, whichever first occurs, the Oireachtas Commission shall cause the private bill legal costs (petitioner) concerned to be adjudicated and ascertained by a parliamentary legal costs adjudicator (and, in any such case, the parliamentary legal costs adjudicator shall not be bound to treat the amount specified in the request as a maximum for the purposes of such adjudication and ascertainment).

(4) A promoter may be requested to pay private bill legal costs (petitioner) under this section even though the unreasonable behaviour that resulted in the request is punishable as a contempt or as an offence against a provision of this Act or otherwise renders the petitioner liable to civil proceedings under this Act, and the request shall not prevent the promoter being punished for contempt or the bringing of proceedings in respect of the offence or unreasonable behaviour concerned.

(5) Where a request in the specified form under subsection (1) is made to the Oireachtas Commission by the relevant petitioner—

- (a) it shall, at the same time as it gives the relevant notice to the promoter, give a copy of it to the relevant petitioner, and
- (b) in any case where the request results in the Oireachtas Commission making a request under subsection (2), it shall, at the same time as it gives the second-mentioned request to the promoter, give a copy of it to the relevant petitioner.

(6) The requests as to private bill legal costs (petitioner) which the Oireachtas Commission may make under this section include a request that a promoter shall pay any or any combination of the following:

- (a) a proportion of the relevant petitioner's such costs;
- (b) a stated amount in respect of the relevant petitioner's such costs;
- (c) such costs from or until a certain date only or in respect of a specified period;
- (d) such costs relating to particular steps taken in relation to the private bill;
- (e) interest on such costs from or until a certain date or in respect of a specified period.

(7) In this section "relevant documents" in relation to an amount specified in a request under subsection (2), means—

- (a) a signed bill of costs, prepared in accordance with the guidelines (if any) issued under section 56,
- (b) a copy of this Part,
- (c) a copy of Part 9,
- (d) a copy of the guidelines (if any) issued under section 56, and

(e) a copy of the order of the Court under section 96(2) making the confirmation concerned.

Proceedings for recoupment of private bill legal costs.

59.— Subject to section 97, a person shall not initiate proceedings for the recoupment of any private bill legal costs awarded under this Chapter until the expiration of the later of—

- (a) 3 months following delivery by the person of a signed bill of costs referred to in section 60(1)(a) upon the person to be charged, or
- (b) if the bill of costs is referred for adjudication under section 57(3) or 58(3) during the 3 months referred to in paragraph (a), until they are finally certified.

Provisions supplementary to sections 57 and 58.

60.— (1) (a) An adjudication referred to in section 57(3) or 58(3) may only be made once a signed bill of costs has been delivered to the party to be charged with the costs and a certified true copy of that bill of costs has been given to the Oireachtas Commission.

(b) The delivery of a bill of costs referred to in paragraph (a) may be effected by ordinary prepaid post or by delivery to the solicitor of the person or, if the person is not represented by a solicitor, by ordinary prepaid post to the person's dwelling or place of employment.

(2) In circumstances where due notice was given and the solicitor or other person, or his or her representative, fails to attend the adjudication, a parliamentary legal costs adjudicator may proceed to adjudicate on and settle the bill of costs.

(3) Pending adjudication, any proceedings brought to recover the private bill legal costs shall be stayed until such costs have been certified under section 61.

(4) A parliamentary legal costs adjudicator shall, on completion of the assessment in accordance with the guidelines (if any) issued under section 56, deliver to the parties an assessment of costs in writing.

Certificate of costs.

61.— (1) Following an assessment under section 60 where no question of law has been referred to the Court under section 98 or, if such a reference has been made, the reference has been withdrawn or abandoned or determined by the Court, on application by the party concerned, the Oireachtas Commission shall issue a certificate of costs.

(2) The certificate of costs shall be treated for the purposes of any proceedings as evidence of—

- (a) the matters to which the private bill legal costs relate,
- (b) the amount of private bill legal costs allowed on the assessment, and
- (c) how much of that amount is, as at the date of the certificate, outstanding.

(3) Where in proceedings to recover costs certified under this section, the respondent states, whether in writing or otherwise, that he or she is not liable to pay them (or part of them), the certificate of costs is to be treated for the purposes of any proceedings as evidence only of such amount (if any) as the claimant may recover from the respondent as a result of the first-mentioned proceedings.

(4) At any time after the issue of a certificate of costs, the party entitled to an adjudicated bill of costs may demand the full certified amount thereof, from one or more persons liable to the payment.

(5) Following a demand by a person under subsection (4) for payment of an adjudicated bill of costs, where no payment is made to the person, he or she may recover the same as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) In the case of a certificate of costs requiring more than one person to be liable for a specified sum, any person from whom the amount of costs or sum certified under this section has been recovered or is to be recovered may claim from the other persons, or any of them, who are liable to the payment of such costs or sum certified a proportionate share thereof, according to the number of persons so liable, and according to the extent of the liability of each person.

CHAPTER 5

Miscellaneous

Further application of Part 5.

62.— The provisions of this Part and Part 9 shall, with all necessary modifications, apply to the ascertainment, or the adjudication, or both, of any parliamentary costs (including costs arising under proceedings referred to in section 117(1)) which are not otherwise ascertained, or adjudicated, or both, pursuant to those provisions.

Power of Oireachtas Commission to specify form of documents.

63.— (1) The Oireachtas Commission may specify the form of documents required for the purposes of this Part as it thinks fit.

(2) The Oireachtas Commission's power under subsection (1) may be exercised in such a way as to—

(a) include in the specified form of any document referred to in that subsection a statutory declaration—

(i) to be made by the person completing the form, and
