(2) A housing authority may issue a tenancy warning under this section to a tenant where, in the opinion of the authority, the tenant or a member of his or her household has breached a specified term of the tenancy agreement.

- (3) A tenancy warning issued under this section shall, subject to subsection (5), set out the basis for its issue and the reason for its issue and for those purposes shall—
- (a) set out—
- (i) the specified term or specified terms that has or have, in the housing authority's opinion, been breached,
 - (ii) the nature of that breach, including the name of the household member (if that name is readily available to the housing authority) who caused that breach, the occasion of the breach and, where relevant, the significant or persistent detrimental effect of the breach on the quality of life of those in the locality of the dwelling to which the tenancy agreement relates,
- (b) require the tenant to ensure that the household member who caused that breach—

- (d) indicate that the housing authority may, during the period of 3 years following a tenancy warning coming into effect, take the tenancy warning into account when considering whether—
- (i) to consent, under subsection (12) of section 90 of the Principal Act, to a sale of a dwelling to the person identified in the tenancy warning as causing the breach of the specified term, where the grounds for refusal would be those set out in subparagraph (a)(ii) of that subsection,
 - (ii) to consent, under subsection (3) of section 48 of the Act of 2009, to a sale, during the charged period, of a dwelling to the person identified in the tenancy warning as causing the breach of the specified term, where the grounds for refusal would be those set out in paragraph (b) of that subsection,
 - (iii) to consent, under subsection (4) of section 76 of the Act of 2009, to a sale, during the charged period, of a dwelling to the person identified in the tenancy warning as causing the breach of the specified term or specified terms, where the grounds for refusal would be those set out in paragraph (b) of that subsection,
 - (iv) to consent, under subsection (3) of section 29, to a sale, during the charged period, of a house to the person identified in the tenancy warning as causing the breach of the specified term or specified terms, where the grounds for refusal would be those set out in paragraph (b) of that subsection,

(v) to refuse, under section 14(2) of the Act of 1997, to sell a dwelling to—

(I) the tenant (within the meaning of Part 4 of the Act of 2009 or to whom Part 3 applies) concerned,

(II) the eligible household (within the meaning of Part 3 or 5 of the Act of 2009) concerned, or

(III) the person concerned (in a case to which section 90 of the Principal Act relates), or

(vi) to refuse, under section 14(1) of the Act of 1997, to allocate a dwelling, or to defer the allocation of it, to the tenant or to the household member identified in the tenancy warning as causing the breach of the specified term, and

(e) set out the tenant's right, under section 10, to request a review of the tenancy warning.

(4) A tenancy warning shall be served on the tenant (either at the dwelling concerned or otherwise) or, in his or her absence from the dwelling, on such other person at the dwelling as may be prescribed or, if the housing authority has attempted to but has not been able to so serve, by so serving subsequently or by serving in such other manner as may be prescribed.

(5) In setting out the basis for a tenancy warning under this section, a housing authority shall have due regard to protecting the identity of persons informing it of the breach of the specified term in circumstances where, in the opinion of the authority, not to do so—

(a) could render those persons, or persons associated with them, liable to violence, threat or fear as a consequence of so informing, or

(b) might otherwise have prevented those persons from so informing because of such violence, threat or fear.

Tenancy warning relating to rent arrears

8. (1) A housing authority may issue a tenancy warning under this section to a tenant who is in breach of a rent-related obligation.

(2) The tenancy warning shall—

(a) set out the basis for the tenancy warning, that is to say, the rent-related obligation that has been breached, the amount of rent arrears that has accrued and the period during which the said amount was not paid,

(b) outline any previous occasion in the 5 years preceding that tenancy warning where the tenant or a member of his or her household was in breach of a rent-related obligation and the position as regards the payment of the rent arrears involved,

(c) require the tenant to pay the rent arrears immediately or, where such payment would cause undue hardship for the household, to contact the housing authority immediately with a view to entering into rescheduling arrangements in respect of the rent arrears involved,

(d) indicate that if, within 2 months after the tenancy warning comes into effect—

- (i) the rent arrears have not been paid to the authority, or
- (ii) rescheduling arrangements have not been entered into with the housing authority, the authority may initiate proceedings under section 12 to recover possession of the dwelling,

(e) indicate that if—

- (i) the rent arrears are paid by or on behalf of the tenant within 2 months of the tenancy warning coming into effect, and
- (ii) in the 12-month period following the tenancy warning coming into effect there is a failure by or on behalf of the tenant to pay rent on the due date,

then the housing authority may, except where, during that period, the authority and either or both the tenant and other members of his or her household enter into rescheduling arrangements for payment of the rent arrears, apply under section 12 to recover possession of the dwelling without issuing a further tenancy warning to the tenant,

- (f) indicate that, where either or both the tenant and the other members of his or her household enters into rescheduling arrangements with the housing authority and during the term of those arrangements fails to make a repayment or pay rent on a due date, the authority may, except where the authority is satisfied that the failure to make a repayment or pay rent on a due date was due to circumstances outside the household's control and the authority and the tenant or the household enter into revised rescheduling arrangements for payment of the rent arrears, apply under section 12 to recover possession of the dwelling without issuing a further tenancy warning to the tenant,
- (g) outline the provisions in housing legislation relating to tenants or households in arrears of rent to any housing authority that have not entered into rescheduling arrangements for the payment of such arrears,
- (h) set out the tenant's right, under section 10, to request a review of the tenancy warning, and
- (i) where the housing authority is aware or suspects that the tenant has debts in addition to rent arrears, set out information on where the household may obtain debt advice and assistance.

- (3) A tenancy warning shall be served on the tenant (either at the dwelling concerned or otherwise) or, in his or her absence from the dwelling, on such other person at the dwelling as may be prescribed or, if the housing authority has attempted to but has not been able to so serve, by so serving subsequently or by serving in such other manner as may be prescribed.

Tenancy warning relating to other tenancy breach

- 9. (1) A housing authority may issue a tenancy warning to a tenant under this section where he or she or a member of his or her household has breached a term of the tenancy agreement other than a term to which section 7 or 8 relates.

(2) The tenancy warning shall—

- (a) subject to subsection (4), set out the basis for the tenancy warning, that is to say, the term of the tenancy that has been breached, the nature and occasion of the breach and the name of the person (if that name is readily available to the housing authority) who caused the breach,

(b) require—

(i) the person causing the breach, and

(ii) where appropriate, either or both the tenant and other household members, to cease, or not to repeat, specified actions or to undertake specified actions in order to prevent the breach from recurring or continuing,

(c) indicate that, if the breach continues in the period of, or is repeated within, 12 months of the tenancy warning coming into effect, the authority may apply under section 12 to recover possession of the dwelling without issuing a further tenancy warning to the tenant, and

(d) set out the tenant's right, under section 10, to request a review of the tenancy warning.

(3) A tenancy warning shall be served on the tenant (either at the dwelling concerned or otherwise) or, in his or her absence from the dwelling, on such other person at the dwelling as may be prescribed or, if the housing authority has attempted to but has not been able to so serve, by so serving subsequently or by serving in such other manner as may be prescribed.

(4) In setting out the basis for a tenancy warning under this section, a housing authority shall have due regard to protecting the identity of persons informing it of the breach of a term of the tenancy agreement in circumstances where, in the opinion of the authority, not to do so—

(a) could render those persons or persons associated with them liable to violence, threat or fear as a consequence of so informing, or

(b) might otherwise have prevented those persons from so informing because of such violence, threat or fear.

Review of tenancy warning

10. (1) This section applies where a tenant does not accept that a breach of a tenancy agreement or rent-related obligation has occurred in the terms set out in a tenancy warning issued to him or her under section 7, 8 or 9.

(2) A tenant may request in writing (in this section referred to as a "review request") a housing authority to review a tenancy warning issued to him or her.

(3) A review request shall—

(a) outline the grounds upon which the tenant disputes the basis for the tenancy warning and be accompanied by any relevant supporting documents, and

(b) state whether the tenant or a member of his or her household wishes to make oral representations to the housing authority as part of the review.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a review request shall be received by the housing authority within 10 working days from the issuing of the tenancy warning to the tenant.

- (5) The Minister may prescribe the types of extenuating circumstances as a consequence of which the period of 10 working days referred to in subsection (4) may, at the discretion of the chief executive of the local authority concerned and upon being satisfied that any such circumstance does apply, be extended upon application by or on behalf of the tenant for such further period as decided by that chief executive, but any such further period as so decided shall not, taken together with the 10 working days from the issuing of the tenancy warning concerned, exceed 20 working days from such issue.
- (6) On receipt of a valid review request the chief executive of the local authority concerned shall appoint as the reviewer of the tenancy warning concerned an officer or employee of a local authority who was not involved in the decision to issue the tenancy warning and who is senior in rank to the officer or employee who decided to issue that warning.
- (7) The reviewer shall review the decision to issue the tenancy warning as if the matter were being decided for the first time and on the basis of the information available to him or her.
- (8) A reviewer may make such enquiries and meet with any person, including the tenant, a household member and a member of An Garda Síochána, that he or she considers it appropriate to meet in the circumstances.
- (9) Except where the reviewer and the tenant otherwise agree in writing, the reviewer shall make a decision on the review within 20 working days of his or her appointment or, where—
- (a) the tenant or a household member wishes to make oral representations,
 - (b) the reviewer wishes to meet the tenant or a household member as part of the review, or
 - (c) the tenant proposes a variation to the tenancy warning or is given the opportunity to comment or make representations (either orally or in writing) on a variation proposed by the reviewer to the tenancy warning, within 30 working days of his or her appointment.
- (10) A decision on a review request by a tenant shall—
- (a) confirm the tenancy warning in its original terms,
 - (b) vary the tenancy warning in specified terms, or
 - (c) annul the tenancy warning, and shall state the reasons for doing so and the housing authority shall send a copy in writing of the reviewer's decision and reasons to the tenant.
- (11) Any variation to a tenancy warning proposed by the reviewer under subsection (10) (b), other than to correct any clerical error of a non-material nature, shall not be made without first giving the tenant an opportunity to comment or make representations on such a variation.
- (12) A tenant who has made a review request may, at any time before the review is completed, notify the housing authority in writing that he or she is withdrawing the review request but any such withdrawal is subject to subsection (13).
- (13) A reviewer may, notwithstanding the withdrawal of a review request by the tenant and where the reviewer is satisfied that it is in order to do so continue the review under this section as if the withdrawal had not been made and the housing authority shall notify the tenant in writing accordingly.

- (14) Where, in a review under this section, a member of An Garda Síochána or an officer of a housing authority states that he or she believes that a person is or has been engaged in anti-social behaviour, then, if the reviewer is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for such belief and that another person would be deterred or prevented by violence, threat or fear from providing evidence in that regard, the reviewer may accept that statement as evidence of such anti-social behaviour.
- (15) In a review of a tenancy warning under this section, the housing authority concerned and the reviewer shall have due regard to protecting the identity of persons informing the authority or reviewer of the breach in circumstances where, in the opinion of the authority or the reviewer, not to do so—
- (a) could render those persons or persons associated with them liable to violence, threat or fear as a consequence of so informing, or
 - (b) might otherwise have prevented those persons from so informing because of such violence, threat or fear.

Day that tenancy warning comes into effect

11. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a tenancy warning comes into effect on the second working day after the expiration of the period within which a request to review that warning could be received.
- (2) Where a tenancy warning was the subject of a review request under section 10 and either—
- (a) the tenancy warning was not withdrawn before the day the review was completed, or
 - (b) section 10(13) applies to the tenancy warning, then, except where the tenancy warning is annulled on review, the tenancy warning comes into effect on the second working day after a copy of the reviewer's decision is sent to the tenant for the purposes of section 10(10) and in the terms specified in the review decision.
- (3) Where a tenancy warning was the subject of a review request under section 10 and that request was withdrawn before the day the review was completed then, except where section 10(13) applies, the tenancy warning comes into effect on whichever of the following days last occurs:
- (a) on the day determined in accordance with subsection (1) as if the request had not been made;
 - (b) on the second working day after the tenant notifies the housing authority in accordance with section 10(12) of the withdrawal.

Proceedings for possession of local authority dwelling

12. (1) Where a tenant or a member of his or her household breaches a tenancy agreement or rent-related obligation, the housing authority may, subject to subsection (3), apply (in this section referred to as a "possession application") to the District Court for a possession order under this section.
- (2) A housing authority may make a possession application in respect of a dwelling under this section notwithstanding the fact that there may be in progress a review of a tenancy warning that relates to a breach of a type referred to in subsection (1) that is of a similar nature to the breach to which the possession application relates.

- (3) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), a housing authority shall, not less than 10 working days before the hearing by the District Court of a possession application under this section in respect of a dwelling, give the tenant notice in writing of—
- (i) the authority's intention to make such an application,
 - (ii) the information to be included in the application, and
 - (iii) the date on which the authority intends to make the application.
- (b) In a case where the housing authority is satisfied that the breach of the tenancy agreement to which the possession application relates has had or is having a significant or persistent detrimental effect on the quality of life of those in the locality of the dwelling, the authority shall, not later than at the time that it makes the possession application, give a copy of the possession application to the tenant.
- (4) A possession application shall set out—
- (a) the grounds for the application, that is to say, the term of the tenancy agreement or rent-related obligation that is alleged to have been breached and the nature and occasion of the breach including the name of the person (if that name is readily available to the housing authority) who caused the breach and, where relevant, the significant or persistent detrimental effect of the breach on the quality of life of those in the locality of the dwelling,
 - (b) where any housing authority previously issued a tenancy warning to or in respect of a person within the period of 5 years prior to the date of the application and such person is the tenant of the dwelling to which the application relates or is a member of the tenant's household, the terms of that warning and the outcome of any request for its review, irrespective of whether or not the breach the subject of that warning is of a similar nature to the breach to which the possession application relates,
 - (c) where the housing authority did not issue a tenancy warning in relation to the breach to which the application relates, a statement as to why the housing authority did not do so,
 - (d) where the housing authority did not issue a notice to the tenant under subsection (3) (a), a statement as to why the housing authority did not do so, and
 - (e) whether or not the situation specified in subsection (2) applies and, if it does apply, a statement as to why the housing authority is seeking the possession order while the tenancy warning is under review.
- (5) In setting out the grounds for a possession application under this section, a housing authority shall, where appropriate, have due regard to protecting the identity of persons who informed it of the breach in circumstances where, in the opinion of the housing authority, not to do so—
- (a) could render those persons or persons associated with any of them liable to violence, threat or fear as a consequence of so informing, or
 - (b) might otherwise have prevented those persons from so informing because of such violence, threat or fear.
- (6) The grounds for a possession application referred to in subsection (4) may be provided by information on oath given by an officer or employee of the housing authority concerned duly authorised to give that information and, for the purposes of this section shall—

- (a) form part of the possession application, and
 - (b) be served on the tenant concerned in accordance with subsection (3).
- (7) Where the tenant does not, without due cause, appear at the hearing of the possession application under this section and subject to subsection (8), the District Court may, where it is satisfied that there is a prima facie case for doing so, grant an order in the terms sought by the authority.
- (8) The District Court may, as it thinks fit, adjourn proceedings under this section for a period fixed by the Court, with or without imposing conditions as to the conduct of the tenant or a household member, payment of either or both rent and rent arrears, or otherwise.
- (9) (a) Without prejudice to subsection (7), the District Court shall make a possession order in respect of the dwelling the subject of a possession application under this section if it appears to the Court that the housing authority has grounds for the recovery of possession and that it is reasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the case to make the order.
- (b) In considering the reasonableness of making a possession order under this section, the District Court shall, where appropriate, have regard to the following:
- (i) the steps taken by the housing authority to secure the cessation or non-repetition of the breach of the term of the tenancy agreement or rent-related obligation, including the issue of any tenancy warning;
 - (ii) the response of the tenant to the steps taken by the housing authority referred to in subparagraph (i) ;
 - (iii) the effect, if any, that the breach of the tenancy agreement had or is having on the quality of life of those in the locality of the dwelling;

- (10) A possession order under this section shall specify the commencement date for the period during which the housing authority has the right to recover possession of the dwelling and the length of that period, which shall not be less than 2 months or more than 9 months, and shall have the effect of terminating the tenancy on the date that the housing authority recovers possession of the dwelling in pursuance of the order.
- (11) Where the District Court (or the Circuit Court on appeal) is satisfied that it is desirable, because of the nature or circumstances of the proceedings before it under this section or that it is otherwise in the interest of justice, the whole or any part of those proceedings may be heard otherwise than in public.

- (12) Where the grounds for a possession application are anti-social behaviour by a household member other than, where there is no joint tenant, the tenant, then the District Court—
- (a) may decide that, as an alternative to determining the possession application, the possession application shall be deemed to be an application by the housing authority under section 3(2) of the Act of 1997 for an excluding order against that household member, notwithstanding that the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of the said section 3(2) have not been complied with, and
- (b) where the District Court so deems an application under subsection (3), shall require such notice (if any) to be given to the member of the household as the District Court considers appropriate in the circumstances.
- (13) In proceedings under this section, a document purporting to be the relevant tenancy agreement produced by the housing authority shall be prima facie evidence of the agreement and it shall not be necessary to prove any signature on the document.
- (14) The jurisdiction of the District Court in respect of an application under this section may be exercised, as regards the District Court, by a judge of the District Court for the time being assigned to the District Court district where the dwelling in relation to which that application was made is situate.
- (15) Where a judge of the District Court to whom subsection (14) relates is not immediately available, the jurisdiction of the District Court under that subsection may be exercised by any judge of the District Court.
- (16) Nothing in the Landlord and Tenant Acts 1967 to 2008 or the Housing (Private Rented Dwellings) Acts 1982 and 1983 relating to the obtaining of possession of a dwelling or building or part thereof shall be deemed to affect this section.

 - (4) A housing authority shall, not less than 10 working days before the hearing by the District Court of a possession application under this section in respect of a dwelling, give to the person that the authority has reasonable grounds for believing to be the person occupying the dwelling, notice in writing—

 - (7) The District Court may, as it thinks fit, adjourn proceedings under this section for a period fixed by the Court, with or without imposing conditions as to the conduct of the person in occupation or of persons associated with the person in occupation.

 - (c) it is reasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the case to make the order.
 - (9) A possession order under this section has the effect of giving the housing authority the right to recover possession of the dwelling, which right may be specified not to come into effect before a date specified in the order, but the date so specified shall not be more than 6 months after the date the order is made.

- (10) Where the District Court (or the Circuit Court on appeal) is satisfied that it is desirable, because of the nature or circumstances of the proceedings before it under this section or that it is otherwise in the interest of justice, the whole or any part of those proceedings may be heard otherwise than in public.
- (11) The jurisdiction of the District Court in respect of an application under this section may be exercised, as regards the District Court, by a judge of the District Court for the time being assigned to the District Court district where the dwelling in relation to which that application was made is situate.

- (2) The charging order shall create a charge in favour of the housing authority in respect of an undivided percentage share (in this Part referred to as the "charged share") in the house equivalent to the percentage (referred to in this Part as the "discount") by which the purchase price of the house was reduced for the purposes of calculating the purchase money payable by the purchaser.

- (3) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the charged share shall be reduced annually by a proportion equivalent to 2 per cent of the total equity in the house (which proportion is referred to in this section as an “incremental release”), on the anniversary of the vesting date, in respect of each complete year after that date during which the terms and conditions of the transfer order and the charging order have been complied with, until whichever of the following first occurs—
- (i) subject to section 29, the first resale of the house,
 - (ii) the payment by the purchaser to the housing authority of the full amount of the outstanding charge in accordance with section 28(1)(a),

 - (iv) subject to section 27, the expiration of the charged period.
- (b) The reduction of the charged share for the period of 5 years from the vesting date shall be cumulative and shall not apply until the expiration of that period, but if during that period the terms and conditions of the transfer order and the charging order have not been complied with by the purchaser in any of those years, then the reduction of the charged share for that period shall not take into account a reduction otherwise due in respect of any years for which there has not been such compliance.
- (c) Where under paragraph (b) the reduction of the charged share for the period concerned is not to be taken into account, then the housing authority shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, notify the purchaser in writing of that fact and the reasons why it is not being taken into account.
- (4) The housing authority shall, at any time where requested by the purchaser, give a statement in writing, in the prescribed form, to the purchaser indicating, in respect of the charge in the house—
- (a) the charged share specified in the charging order,
 - (b) the accumulated per cent of incremental releases that have been applied to the charged share under this section, including incremental releases applied under section 28(1)(b),

 - (d) the outstanding charged share, and
 - (e) the remaining duration of the charged period.
- (5) A charging order shall be deemed to be a legal mortgage under Part 10 of the Land and Conveyancing Law Reform Act 2009 and to have been executed, on the vesting date for the house, in favour of the housing authority for a charge in the terms provided for in this section.
- (6) Accordingly, the housing authority shall, as on and from the making of the charging order—

- (a) be deemed to be a mortgagee of the house for the purposes of Part 10 of the Land and Conveyancing Law Reform Act 2009, and
 - (b) have, in relation to the charge referred to in subsection (5), all the powers conferred by that Act on mortgagees under mortgages made by deed.
- (7) Where a housing authority makes a charging order, it shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, cause the order to be registered in the Registry of Deeds or the Land Registry, as appropriate, and it shall be a sufficient description of the charge in respect of which the order is being registered to state that charge to be the charge referred to in section 26(2).
- (8) A charging order affecting a house which is registered land within the meaning of the Registration of Title Act 1964 shall be registrable as a burden affecting such land whether the person named in the order as the owner of the land is or is not registered under that Act as the owner of the land.
- (9) A housing authority may, subject to subsection (10), enter into an agreement with a holder of a licence under the Central Bank Act 1971, a building society or other financial institution that a charge proposed to be created by it by a charging order shall have a priority, as against a mortgage or charge proposed to be created in favour of that holder, society or institution, that is different from the priority the charge would otherwise have if this subsection had not been enacted.
- (10) A housing authority may only enter into an agreement referred to in subsection (9) if it considers that the agreement will—
- (a) enable a tenant to whom it is proposing to sell a house under this Part to obtain an advance of moneys from the holder, society or institution referred to in subsection (9) for the purposes of purchasing the house, or
 - (b) enable a purchaser—
 - (i) to refinance an existing advance of moneys from the holder, society or institution referred to in subsection (9), or
 - (ii) to obtain a further advance of moneys from the holder, society or institution referred to in subsection (9) for any purpose.
- (11) Any amount that becomes payable to a housing authority under section 27 or 29, as the case may be, may, without prejudice to any other power in that behalf, be recovered by the authority from the person concerned as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- (12) For the avoidance of doubt, neither a charging order nor a charge that arises under it shall be regarded as a conveyance for the purposes of section 3 of the Family Home Protection Act 1976 or section 28 of the Civil Partnership and Certain Rights and Obligations of Cohabitants Act 2010.
- (13) (a) On the occurrence of the earlier of the events specified in subsection (3) (a) and subject to the terms and conditions of the transfer order and the charging order having been complied with, the housing authority shall, where requested to do so by the purchaser, execute a deed of discharge in respect of the charging order.
- (b) The housing authority shall be liable for any expenses incurred in the execution and registration of a deed of discharge but shall not otherwise be liable for any expenses incurred by a purchaser under this section or under section 27, 28 or 29.

Suspension of incremental release

27. (1) Except where otherwise provided for by section 26\(3\)\(b\) in respect of the period of 5 years from the vesting date, a housing authority may suspend an incremental release provided for under section 26 in respect of any year ending on the anniversary of the vesting date, where the purchaser fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions of the transfer order or the charging order.
- (2) Where a housing authority has suspended an incremental release under subsection (1) —
- (a) the housing authority shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, notify the purchaser in writing of the suspension and the reasons for the suspension, and
- (b) subject to section 28, the housing authority shall, on the expiration of the charged period, give a statement to the purchaser in writing, in the prescribed form, indicating the amount representing the value of the outstanding charged share in the house on the date of expiration of the charged period, calculated by applying that share to the relevant market value of the house on the date of the expiration of the charged period.

- (5) Where the amount payable under any of the provisions of this section would reduce the proceeds of the sale (disregarding solicitor and estate agent's costs and fees) below the purchase money, the amount payable under the charging order shall be reduced to the extent necessary to avoid that result.
- (6) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), where a purchaser resells a house which is subject to a charging order the charged period of which has expired and in respect of which the amount referred to in section 27(2) has not been paid in accordance with that section, section 26(11) applies.
