Short title, collective citation and commencement

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Civil Registration (Amendment) Act 2014.
- (2) The Civil Registration Acts 2004 to 2013 and this Act may be cited together as the Civil Registration Acts 2004 to 2014.
- (3) This Act, other than subsection (2) of section 19 and subsection (2) of section 26, shall come into operation on such day or days as the Minister for Social Protection may appoint by order or orders either generally or with reference to any particular purpose or provision and different days may be so appointed for different purposes or provisions.

Definition

2. In this Act “Principal Act” means the Civil Registration Act 2004.

PART 2

AMENDMENT OF PRINCIPAL ACT

Amendment of section 2 of Principal Act

3. Section 2 of the Principal Act is amended by—
 - (a) in subsection (1), the insertion of the following definitions:

‘civil partnership of convenience’ means a civil partnership where at least one of the parties to the civil partnership—

(a) at the time of entry into the civil partnership is a foreign national, and

(b) enters into the civil partnership solely for the purpose of securing an immigration advantage for at least one of the parties to the civil partnership;

‘cohabitant’ shall be construed in accordance with section 172 of the Act of 2010;

‘enactment’ means—

(a) an Act of the Oireachtas,

(b) a statute that was in force in Saorstát Éireann immediately before the date of the coming into operation of the Constitution and that continues in force by virtue of Article 50 of the Constitution, or

(c) an instrument made under an Act of the Oireachtas or a statute referred to in paragraph (b);

‘evidence’ includes documentary evidence;

‘foreign national’ means a person who is neither an Irish citizen, nor a citizen of a member state;

‘immigration advantage’ means a determination in a person’s favour by or on behalf of the Minister for Justice and Equality of any question relating to the grant of a visa to, or the entry into, presence in or removal from the State of a foreign national or any determination of a right to enter or reside in the State pursuant to the—

(a) European Communities (Aliens) Regulations 1977 (S.I. No. 393 of 1977),

(b) European Communities (Right of Residence for Non-Economically Active Persons) Regulations 1997 (S.I. No. 57 of 1997), or

(c) European Communities (Free Movement of Persons) (No. 2) Regulations 2006 (S.I. No. 656 of 2006);

‘immigration status’ means entitlement of a person to reside in the State and the basis for that entitlement;

‘marriage of convenience’ means a marriage where at least one of the parties to the marriage—

(a) at the time of entry into the marriage is a foreign national, and

(b) enters into the marriage solely for the purpose of securing an immigration advantage for at least one of the parties to the marriage;”,

(b) in subsection (2) —

(i) in paragraph (e), the substitution of “sex,” for “sex, or”,

(ii) in paragraph (f), the substitution of “partnership, or” for “partnership.”, and

(iii) the insertion of the following paragraph after paragraph (f):

“(g) the marriage would constitute a marriage of convenience.”,

and

(c) in subsection (2A)—

(i) in paragraph (e), the substitution of “sex,” for “sex, or”,

(ii) in paragraph (f), the substitution of “married, or” for “married.”, and

(iii) the insertion of the following paragraph after paragraph (f):

“(g) the civil partnership would constitute a civil partnership of convenience.”

Amendment of section 17 of Principal Act

4. Section 17 of the Principal Act is amended by the insertion of the following subsections after subsection (6):

“(6A) A Superintendent Registrar of a registration area, with the consent of the Executive given following consultation with an tArd-Chláraitheoir, may designate in writing a registrar assigned to that registration area to perform the functions of the Superintendent Registrar referred to in the designation in the absence (other than where the position of the Superintendent Registrar is vacant) of the Superintendent Registrar.

(6B) A registrar designated under subsection (6A) shall be accountable to the Superintendent Registrar concerned for the performance of the functions referred to in the designation.

(6C) The Superintendent Registrar shall be accountable to the Executive for the performance of the functions designated under subsection (6A).

(6D) The Superintendent Registrar, with the consent of the Executive, may in writing revoke a designation under subsection (6A).”

Amendment of section 19 of Principal Act

5. Section 19 of the Principal Act is amended by—

(a) the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (1):

“(1A) It is the duty of a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) to furnish to the registrar such evidence in his or her possession or within his or her power to so furnish, relating to the required particulars of the birth as may be requested by the registrar.”,

(b) in subsection (3) —

(i) in paragraph (b), the substitution of “the birth,” for “the birth, and”, and

(ii) the insertion of the following paragraph after paragraph (b):

“(ba) to furnish to the registrar such evidence in his or her possession or within his or her power to so furnish, relating to the required particulars of the birth as may be requested by the registrar, and”,

(c) the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (5):

“(5A) The registrar shall notify the Superintendent Registrar of the registration area to which the registrar is assigned, who shall advise an tArd-Chláraitheoir of a request in that behalf, and an tArd-Chláraitheoir, on production to him or her of such evidence as he or she considers adequate to show that exceptional circumstances exist such that it is necessary for the relief of undue hardship, may direct the Superintendent Registrar to cause the birth to be registered notwithstanding that a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) or a qualified informant has not signed the register.”,

and

- (d) in subsection (6), by the insertion of the following paragraph after paragraph (a):

“(aa) in so far as it relates to a child who makes a request under section 22(2)(d) or 23A(1), the child,”.

Amendment of section 22 of Principal Act

6. (1) Section 22 of the Principal Act is amended by—

- (a) the deletion of subsection (1),

- (b) the insertion of the following subsections after subsection (1):

“(1A) Subject to subsection (1E)(a), the duty of a person referred to in section 19(1)(a) to comply with this Part applies notwithstanding that the father and mother of the child whose birth falls to be registered were not married to each other at the date of the child’s birth or at any time during the period of 10 months before such birth.

- (1B) Where the mother of the child to whom subsection (1A) applies (in this section referred to as ‘the mother’)—

- (a) attends under section 19(1) without the person (in this subsection and subsections (1C) to (1K) referred to as ‘the person’) whom she identifies to the registrar as the father of the child,

- (b) gives, unless subsection (1D) applies, to the registrar the required particulars of the birth, and

- (c) signs the register,

the registrar shall—

- (i) register the birth of the child with required particulars, other than the surname of the child and those relating to the father of the child, and

- (ii) make all reasonable efforts to give notice in writing to the person requiring him to within 28 days attend before a registrar, at the office of the registrar or such other (if any) convenient place in the registration area concerned, as may be specified by the registrar in the notice, and there to inform the registrar if he agrees that he is the father of the child.

- (1C) A person given notice under subsection (1B)(ii) who agrees that he is the father of the child shall furnish to the registrar a statutory declaration, in a form for the time being standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, that he is the father of the child, and his required particulars and the required particulars relating to the surname of the child, and the registrar, subject to section 25A, shall complete the registration of the birth of the child with those required particulars and the person shall sign the register in the presence of the registrar and in that case the signature provided by the mother under subsection (1B)(c) shall be retained on the register.

- (1D) A mother may furnish to a registrar a statutory declaration made by her and relied on by her to satisfy the registrar that one or more than one of the following compelling reasons exists so as to exempt her from her duty to furnish to the registrar required particulars in so far as they relate to the father of the child:

- (a) she does not know the identity of the father of the child;

- (b) she does not know the whereabouts of the father of the child;

- (c) she believes that providing the information is not in the best interests of the safety of the child and in that case the statutory declaration shall contain and, as necessary, exhibit information, particulars and evidence relating to that belief.
- (1E) The registrar, having considered the statutory declaration furnished under subsection (1D) shall—
 - (a) if satisfied that a compelling reason exists, register the birth of the child with required particulars, other than those relating to the father of the child, or
 - (b) if not satisfied that a compelling reason exists—
 - (i) register the birth of the child with required particulars, other than the surname of the child and those relating to the father of the child, and
 - (ii) notify the mother of the child in writing that he or she is not satisfied that a compelling reason exists, giving reasons for the decision and requesting the mother to furnish required particulars in so far as they relate to the father of the child, and stating that she may appeal the decision of the registrar not later than 28 days from the day on which the notice is sent by the registrar.
- (1F) The mother may appeal against the decision of the registrar under subsection (1E)(b) in writing, in a form standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir or in a form to the like effect stating the reasons for the appeal, to a Superintendent Registrar in whose registration area the application to register the birth was made, not later than 28 days from the day on which the notice under subsection (1E)(b) is sent by the registrar, and the Superintendent Registrar shall determine the appeal in accordance with subsection (1G).
- (1G) In considering an appeal referred to him or her under subsection (1F) the Superintendent Registrar shall consider—
 - (a) all information furnished by the mother under subsection (1D)(c),
 - (b) the reasons furnished by the registrar under subsection (1E)(b),
 - (c) the notice of appeal under subsection (1F), and
 - (d) any additional information furnished in response to a request by the Superintendent Registrar for further information.
- (1H) Having considered the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (1G) the Superintendent Registrar shall decide to either—
 - (a) annul the decision of the registrar under subsection (1E)(b) and direct the registrar to register the birth of the child under subsection (1E)(a), or
 - (b) confirm the decision of the registrar under subsection (1E)(b).
- (1I) A mother may appeal to the Circuit Court against the decision of the Superintendent Registrar under subsection (1H)(b).
- (1J) The jurisdiction conferred on the Circuit Court by subsection (1I) shall be exercised by a judge of the circuit in which the mother ordinarily resides and the appeal may be heard otherwise than in public.
- (1K) The registrar, if satisfied having made all reasonable efforts under subsection (1B)(b) (ii) that no contact can be made with the person, shall complete the registration of the birth of the child with the required particulars other than those relating to the father.”,

(c) in subsection (2) —

(i) the substitution of “(in this subsection referred to as ‘the person’) for ‘(the person)’”,

(ii) in paragraph (a) the deletion of “of the child (‘the mother’)”, and

(iii) the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph (d):

“(d) if the mother, person, or the child to whom the registration relates, if he or she has attained the age of 18 years and so requests the registrar in writing and produces to him or her a document purporting to be a declaration made under section 35 of the Status of Children Act 1987 or an order made by a court in proceedings referred to in section 45 of that Act and to be certified by or on behalf of the court to be a true copy of the declaration or order that the person is the father of the child.”,

(d) in subsection (3) —

(i) the deletion of “of a child to whom subsection (1) applies (‘the mother’)”,

(ii) the substitution of “fall to be registered under subsection (1C) or pursuant to a request under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (2) ” for “fall to be registered under subsection (2) pursuant to a request under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of that subsection”,

(iii) the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph (b):

“(b) a statutory declaration of the mother in a form standing approved for the time being by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, that she has been living apart from the person who is or any person who formerly was her husband during the period of 10 months ending immediately before the birth of the child by virtue of a decree of divorce, a decree of divorce a mensa et thoro, a decree of nullity of marriage or a deed of separation, or”,

and

(iv) the insertion of the following paragraph after paragraph (b):

“(c) subject to subsections (3A) to (3G) a statutory declaration of the mother, that she has been living apart from the person who is or any person who formerly was her husband during the period of 10 months ending immediately before the birth of the child and that a decree or deed referred to in paragraph (b) has not been granted by a court or entered into, and in that case the declaration shall contain the name and last known contact details of the person who is her husband (‘the husband’), and as necessary exhibit information, particulars and evidence relied on by the mother to satisfy the registrar that she has been living apart from the husband during the period of 10 months ending immediately before the birth of the child.”,

(e) the insertion of the following subsections after subsection (3):

“(3A) The registrar, where a statutory declaration under subsection (3)(c) is produced, shall make all reasonable efforts to give notice in writing to the husband or former husband requiring him to within 28 days attend before a registrar, at the office of the registrar or such other (if any) convenient place in the registration area concerned, as may be specified by the registrar in the notice, and there to inform the registrar if he agrees that he is not the father of the child.

(3B) The husband or former husband given notice under subsection (3A) who agrees that he is not the father of the child shall complete a statutory declaration under subsection (3)(a).

(3C) The registrar, if satisfied having made all reasonable efforts under subsection (3A) that no contact can be made with the husband, and, having considered the statutory declaration of the mother under subsection (3)(c) —

(a) if satisfied that the mother has been living apart from the husband during the period of 10 months ending immediately before the birth of the child shall register the person as the father of the child under subsection (1C), or paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (2), or

(b) if not satisfied that the mother has been living apart from the husband or former husband during the period of 10 months ending immediately before the birth of the child shall notify the mother in writing that—

(i) he or she is not so satisfied, giving reasons for the decision,

(ii) he or she is obliged to register the birth of the child with required particulars of the husband or former husband in so far as they relate to the father of the child, and

(iii) the mother may appeal the decision of the registrar not later than 28 days from the day on which the notice is sent by the registrar.

(3D) The mother may appeal against the decision of the registrar under subsection (3C)(b) in writing, in a form standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir or in a form to the like effect stating the reasons for the appeal, to a Superintendent Registrar in whose registration area the application to register the birth was made, not later than 28 days from the day on which the notice under subsection (3C)(b) is sent by the registrar, and the Superintendent Registrar shall determine the appeal.

(3E) In considering an appeal referred to him or her under subsection (3D) the Superintendent Registrar shall consider—

(a) all information furnished by the mother under subsection (3)(c),

(b) the reasons furnished by the registrar under subsection (3C)(b),

(c) the notice of appeal under subsection (3D), and

(d) any additional information furnished in response to a request by the Superintendent Registrar for further information.

(3F) Having considered the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (3E), the Superintendent Registrar shall decide to either—

(a) annul the decision of the registrar under subsection (3C)(b) and direct the registrar to register the birth of the child under subsection (3C)(a), or

(b) confirm the decision of the registrar under subsection (3C)(b).

(3G) The mother may appeal to the Circuit Court against the decision of the Superintendent Registrar under subsection (3F)(b).

(3H) The jurisdiction conferred on the Circuit Court by subsection (3G) shall be exercised by a judge of the circuit in which the mother ordinarily resides and the appeal may be heard otherwise than in public.”

(f) in subsection (4), the substitution of “shall so notify the other persons referred to in that provision as capable of making a request” for “shall notify the other person”,

(g) in subsection (5) —

(i) in paragraph (a), the deletion of “and”,

(ii) in paragraph (b), the substitution of “subsection (2), and” for “subsection (2).”, and

(iii) the insertion of the following paragraph after paragraph (b):

“(c) the child to whom the registration relates who has attained the age of 18 years if he or she has made or joined in the making of the request concerned under subsection (2).”,

and

(h) the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (5):

“(5A) The registrar shall notify the Superintendent Registrar of the registration area to which the registrar is assigned, who shall advise an tArd-Chláraitheoir of a request in that behalf, and an tArd-Chláraitheoir, on production to him or her of such evidence as he or she considers adequate to show that exceptional circumstances exist such that it is necessary for the relief of undue hardship, may direct the Superintendent Registrar to cause the birth to be registered notwithstanding that a person referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (5) has not signed the register.”

(2) The amendments of section 22 of the Principal Act effected by subsection (1) shall not apply in relation to the registration of a birth where that birth occurs before the commencement of that subsection.

Re-registration of birth

7. (1) The Principal Act is amended by the substitution of the following section for section 23:

“23. (1) This section applies where the birth of a child whose parents were not married to each other at the date of the birth or at any time during the period of 10 months ending immediately before that date has been registered under this Act or the repealed enactments and—

(a) no person has been registered as the child’s father, or

(b) the mother of the child was married at the date of the birth of the child or at some time during the period of 10 months before such date and her husband or former husband is registered as the child’s father.

(1A) Subject to subsection (2), a registrar shall re-register the birth of a child to whom subsection (1) applies in such manner as an tArd-Chláraitheoir may direct and shall enter in the register the name of a person (in this section referred to as the ‘person’) as the father of the child—

(a) if the mother of the child and the person jointly so request the registrar in writing and give to him or her a statutory declaration, in a form for the time being standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, of the person, that he is the father of the child, or

(b) if the mother so requests the registrar in writing and gives to him or her—

- (i) a statutory declaration of the mother, in a form for the time being standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, that the person is the father of the child, and
 - (ii) a statutory declaration of the person, in a form for the time being standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, that he is the father of the child,
 - or
 - (c) if the person so requests the registrar in writing and gives to him or her—
 - (i) a statutory declaration of the person, in a form for the time being standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, that he is the father of the child, and
 - (ii) a statutory declaration of the mother, in a form for the time being standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, that the person is the father of the child.
- (2) A birth shall not be re-registered under this section without the consent of a Superintendent Registrar of the registration area to which the registrar is assigned.
- (3) Where, in a case in which the mother of a child to whom subsection (1) applies was married at the date of the birth of the child or at some time during the period of 10 months before such date and, but for this subsection, the birth would fall to be re-registered pursuant to a request under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1A), and a person would fall to be registered under subsection (1A) as the father of the child, the birth shall not be so re-registered and the person shall not be so registered unless there is produced to the registrar concerned—
- (a) a statutory declaration of the person to whom the mother was married at that date and of the person or each person to whom she was married at some time during the period aforesaid, in a form standing approved for the time being by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, that he is not the father of the child,
 - (b) a statutory declaration of the mother in a form standing approved for the time being by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, that she has been living apart from the person who is, or the person or each person who was formerly, her husband (in this section referred to as the 'husband') during the period of 10 months ending immediately before the birth of the child by virtue of a decree of divorce, a decree of divorce a mensa et thoro, a decree of nullity of marriage or a deed of separation, or
 - (c) subject to subsections (3A) to (3G) a statutory declaration of the mother, that she has been living apart from her husband during the period of 10 months ending immediately before the birth of the child and that a decree or deed referred to in paragraph (b) has not been granted by a court or entered into, and in that case the declaration shall contain the name and last known contact details of the person who is her husband, and as necessary exhibit information, particulars and evidence relied on by the mother to satisfy the registrar that she has been living apart from the husband during the period of 10 months ending immediately before the birth of the child.
- (3A) The registrar, where a statutory declaration under subsection (3)(c) is produced, shall make all reasonable efforts to give notice in writing to the husband requiring him to within 28 days attend before a registrar, at the office of the registrar or such other (if any) convenient place in the registration area concerned, as may be specified by the registrar in the notice,

- and there to inform the registrar if he agrees that he is not the father of the child.
- (3B) The husband, given notice under subsection (3A) who agrees that he is not the father of the child, shall complete a statutory declaration under subsection (3) (a).
- (3C) The registrar, if satisfied having made all reasonable efforts under subsection (3A) that no contact can be made with the husband or former husband, and, having considered the statutory declaration of the mother under subsection (3)(c) —
- (a) if satisfied that the mother has been living apart from the husband during the period of 10 months ending immediately before the birth of the child shall enter in the register the name of the person as the child's father, or
 - (b) if not satisfied that the mother has been living apart from the husband during the period of 10 months ending immediately before the birth of the child shall notify the mother in writing that—
 - (i) he or she is not so satisfied, giving reasons for the decision,
 - (ii) he or she is obliged to register the birth of the child with required particulars of the husband in so far as they relate to the father of the child, and
 - (iii) the mother may appeal the decision of the registrar not later than 28 days from the day on which the notice is sent by the registrar.
- (3D) The mother may appeal against the decision of the registrar under subsection (3C)(b) in writing, in a form standing approved by an tArd- Chláraitheoir or in a form to the like effect stating the reasons for the appeal, to a Superintendent Registrar in whose registration area the application to register the birth was made, not later than 28 days from the day on which the notice under subsection (3C)(b) is sent by the registrar, and the Superintendent Registrar shall determine the appeal.
- (3E) In considering an appeal referred to him or her under subsection (3D) the Superintendent Registrar shall consider all information furnished by the mother under subsection (3)(c), the reasons furnished by the registrar under subsection (3C)(b), the notice of appeal under subsection (3D) and any additional information furnished in response to a request by the Superintendent Registrar for further information and shall decide to either—
- (a) annul the decision of the registrar under subsection (3C)(b) and direct the registrar to enter in the register the name of the person as the child's father, or
 - (b) confirm the decision of the registrar under subsection (3C)(b).
- (3F) The mother may appeal to the Circuit Court against the decision of the Superintendent Registrar under subsection (3E)(b).
- (3G) The jurisdiction conferred on the Circuit Court by subsection (3F) shall be exercised by a judge of the circuit in which the mother ordinarily resides and the appeal may be heard otherwise than in public.
- (4) Where a birth is re-registered under this section, the surname of the child entered in the register shall be—
- (a) that which was previously registered, or
 - (b) a surname determined in accordance with Part 1 or, as may be appropriate, Part 2 of the First Schedule.

- (5) A birth which has been re-registered under this section may not be further re-registered save under section 23A or 24.
- (6) When a birth is being re-registered under this section, the register shall be signed by—
 - (a) the mother of the child concerned, if she has made, or joined in the making of, the request concerned under subsection (1), and
 - (b) the person who declares that he is the father of the child, if he has made, or joined in the making of, the request concerned under subsection (1).
- (6A) The registrar shall notify the Superintendent Registrar of the registration area to which the registrar is assigned, who shall advise an tArd-Chláraitheoir of a request in that behalf, and an tArd-Chláraitheoir, on production to him or her of such evidence as he or she considers adequate to show that exceptional circumstances exist such that it is necessary for the relief of undue hardship, may direct the Superintendent Registrar to cause the birth to be re-registered notwithstanding that a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (6) has not signed the register.
- (7) When a birth is re-registered under this section, the then existing entry relating to the birth shall be retained in the register.
- (8) This section applies, with any necessary modifications, to stillbirths as it applies to births.”
- (2) The amendment of section 23 of the Principal Act effected by subsection (1) shall not apply to the re-registration of a birth where the birth occurs before the commencement of that subsection.

Re-registration on foot of court order

8. The Principal Act is amended by the insertion of the following section after section 23:

- “23A. (1) Where the birth of a child whose parents were not married to each other at the date of the birth or at any time during the period of 10 months ending immediately before that date has been registered, whether or not anybody has been registered as the child’s father, under this Act or the repealed enactments a registrar shall re-register the birth in such manner as an tArd-Chláraitheoir may direct and shall enter in the register the name of a person (‘the person’) as the father of the child if the mother, the person or the child to whose birth the registration relates and who has attained the age of 18 years so requests and gives to the registrar a document purporting to be a copy of a declaration made by the Circuit Court under section 35 of the Status of Children Act 1987 or an order made by a court in proceedings referred to in section 45 of that Act, and to be certified by or on behalf of the court to be a true copy of the order finding that the person is the father of the child.
- (2) A birth shall not be re-registered under this section without the consent of a Superintendent Registrar of the registration area to which the registrar is assigned.
- (3) Where a birth is re-registered under this section, the surname of the child entered in the register shall be—
- (a) that which was previously registered, or
 - (b) a surname determined in accordance with Part 1 of the First Schedule.
- (4) Where one of the persons to whom subsection (1) applies makes a request to a registrar under that provision, the registrar shall notify any other persons referred to in that provision capable of making a request and anybody registered as the child's father as the case may be.

- (5) When a birth is being re-registered under this section, the register shall be signed by—
- (a) the mother of the child concerned, if she has made, or joined in the making of, the request under subsection (1),
 - (b) the person who declares that he is the father of the child, if he has made, or joined in the making of, the request under subsection (1), and
 - (c) the child to whom the registration relates, if he or she has attained the age of 18 years where he or she has made, or joined in the making of the request concerned under subsection (1).
- (6) The registrar shall notify the Superintendent Registrar of the registration area to which the registrar is assigned, who shall advise an tArd-Chláraitheoir of a request in that behalf, and an tArd-Chláraitheoir, on production to him or her of such evidence as he or she considers adequate to show that exceptional circumstances exist such that it is necessary for the relief of undue hardship, may direct the Superintendent Registrar to cause the birth to be re-registered notwithstanding that a person referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (5) has not signed the register.
- (7) When a birth is re-registered under this section, the then existing entry relating to the birth shall be retained in the register."

Failure to agree surname and subsequent registration of surname

9. The Principal Act is amended by the insertion of the following section after section 25:

- "25A. (1) A registrar shall register the birth of a child without the surname of the child as part of the required particulars where the registrar is satisfied that the parents of the child do not agree regarding a surname for the child.
- (2) The duty imposed on a person under this Part to give to the registrar required particulars of the birth, in so far as those particulars refer to a surname for the child shall not apply where the registrar registers the birth under subsection (1), or under subsection (1E)(a) or (1J) of section 22.
- (3) Where a birth has been entered on the register under subsection (1) or under subsection (1E)(a) or (1J) of section 22 the following persons may apply to a registrar to register the surname of the child:
- (a) where the child concerned has not attained the age of 18 years—
 - (i) the parents of the child, where they satisfy the registrar that they have agreed a surname for the child,
 - (ii) the surviving parent of the child, or
 - (iii) where there is no surviving parent, the guardian of the child,
 or
 - (b) where the child concerned has attained the age of 18 years, the child.
- (4) On receipt of an application referred to in subsection (3) in a form standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir or a form to the like effect, and on production to the registrar of such evidence as appears to him or her to be satisfactory and on payment of the prescribed fee, the registrar shall register the surname of the child.

- (5) The surname of the child entered in the register under subsection (4) shall be a surname determined in accordance with Part 1 of the First Schedule.
- (6) Where the surname of the child is entered in the register under subsection (4), the existing entry in the register regarding the birth shall be retained in the register, the addition of the surname shall be deemed for all purposes to be and always to have been part of the original entry, and the surname so entered in the register may not be further changed, altered or added to."

17. Section 52 of the Principal Act is amended by the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (2):

“(2A) In this section a reference to a place means a place that is open to the public.”

Amendment of section 58 of Principal Act

18. Section 58 of the Principal Act is amended by—

- (a) in subsection (2)(d), the substitution of “subsections (3) to (4C) and (6) to (8) ” for “subsections (3) and (4) and (6) to (8) ”,
- (b) in subsection (4), the insertion of the following paragraph after paragraph (c):

“(cc) in relation to the forming of an opinion under subsection (4A), notify and furnish copies of all information and documents relating to the relevant notification of the intended marriage under this Part to, the Minister for Justice and Equality,”
- (c) the insertion of the following subsections after subsection (4):

“(4A) A registrar who—

- (a) in the performance of his or her functions under this Part forms the opinion that an intended marriage would constitute a marriage of convenience, or

- (b) receives under subsection (1) an objection the stated reason for which is that the intended marriage would constitute a marriage of convenience, and forms the opinion that grounds for the objection possibly exist and need to be investigated, shall refer the matter to the Superintendent Registrar of the registration area where the registrar who formed the opinion is assigned, for a decision and in that case and for that purpose, this section shall apply and have effect according to—

- (i) the modification that a reference to receipt of an objection under subsection (1) includes a reference to an opinion under paragraph (a),
- (ii) the modification that references in this section to an tArd-Chláraitheoir shall be construed as references to the Superintendent Registrar concerned, and
- (iii) any other necessary modifications.

- (4B) The registrar shall furnish his or her written report of the reasons for the forming of his or her opinion under subsection (4A) when referring the matter to the Superintendent Registrar under subsection (4A).

- (4C) In forming an opinion under subsection (4A) and deciding to refer the matter to the Superintendent Registrar, the registrar shall consider the following:

- (a) if the parties to the intended marriage speak a common language;
- (b) the period prior to the relevant notification of the intended marriage under this Part during which the parties to the intended marriage are known to each other;
- (c) the number and frequency of meetings of the parties to the intended marriage prior to the notification of the intended marriage under this Part;
- (d) if the parties to the intended marriage have lived together in the past or if they currently live together;
- (e) the extent to which each party to the intended marriage is familiar with the personal details of the other party;
- (f) the extent to which each party to the intended marriage intends to continue an existing commitment to mutual emotional and financial support of the other party to the intended marriage;
- (g) the immigration status of one or each of the parties to the intended marriage who is a foreign national;
- (h) other than in a case where money is paid as a dowry as appropriate to the culture of one or each party to the intended marriage, if money was paid as an inducement for the marriage;
- (i) if the one or each of the parties to the intended marriage has previously been the subject of an objection under subsection (1), an opinion formed under subsection (4A) or an objection under section 59F(1) or an opinion formed under section 59F(4A);
- (j) any other information regarding the intended marriage which gives reasonable grounds for considering the marriage to be a marriage of convenience.”,

- (d) the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (5):

“(5A) In deciding if an impediment exists to an intended marriage the subject of a referral under subsection (4A), the Superintendent Registrar shall consider—

- (a) the report furnished to him or her under subsection (4B), and
 - (b) the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) to (j) of subsection (4C).”,
- and

(e) the insertion of the following subsection after subsection (7):

“(7A) Where a Superintendent Registrar decides under subsection (7), in a case referred to him or her under subsection (4A) that a marriage would constitute a marriage of convenience he or she shall, as soon as practicable after making that decision, notify the Minister for Justice and Equality.”

Marriage ceremonies performed at certain embassies or diplomatic missions

19. (1) The Principal Act is amended by the insertion of the following section after section 58:

“58A. (1) This section applies to a marriage which was solemnised, before the commencement of this section, in an embassy or diplomatic mission in the State.

(2) A marriage to which this section applies, subject to subsection (3), shall be and shall be deemed always to have been valid as to form as if it would have been so valid had it been solemnised in the State in compliance with this Act.

(3) This section shall not operate to validate a marriage to which this section applies where—

- (a) an impediment to the marriage existed on the date that the marriage was solemnised,
- (b) the parties to the marriage have obtained a decree of divorce or a decree of nullity in respect of the marriage, and for the purposes of this paragraph, a decree obtained, where legal proceedings resulting in the decree were begun but not completed prior to the commencement of this section, shall be taken to have been obtained before that commencement,
- (c) a party to the marriage has entered into a later marriage or civil partnership with another person, or
- (d) the parties to the marriage have entered into a later marriage with each other.

(4) A registrar who receives an application in that behalf from both parties, or the surviving party to the marriage to which this section applies in writing in a form for the time being standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, on being satisfied that this section operates to validate the marriage concerned and on production to him or her of the following information and particulars may enter the particulars of the marriage concerned in the register and register the marriage in such manner as an tArd-Chláraitheoir may direct:

- (a) evidence of identity;
- (b) if appropriate, evidence of death of one of the parties to the marriage;
- (c) evidence that the marriage was solemnised in an embassy or diplomatic mission in the State prior to the commencement of this section together with, where required by the registrar, a document duly authenticated which purports to be a translation thereof;

- (d) the signatures of both parties or the surviving party to the marriage.
- (5) Nothing in the application of this section to a marriage which was solemnised, before the commencement of the section, in an embassy or diplomatic mission in the State—
 - (a) gives or affects any entitlement to an interest—
 - (i) under the will or codicil of, or on the intestacy of, a person who dies before the commencement of this section, or
 - (ii) under a settlement or other disposition of property made before that commencement (otherwise than by will or codicil),
 - or
 - (b) gives or affects any entitlement to a benefit, allowance, pension or other payment—
 - (i) payable before, or in respect of a period before the commencement of this section, or
 - (ii) payable in respect of the death of a person before that commencement,
 - or
 - (c) affects tax in respect of a period or event before the commencement of this section.
- (6) If subsections (1) to (5) would, but for this subsection, conflict with a constitutional right of any person, the operation of those subsections shall be subject to such limitation as is necessary to secure that it does not so conflict but shall otherwise be of full force and effect.
- (7) This section shall not apply to a marriage which is solemnised on or after the date of commencement of this section, in an embassy or diplomatic mission in the State.”
- (2) (a) At any time before the coming into operation of the amendments to the Principal Act effected by subsection (1), both parties or the surviving party to a marriage that was solemnised in an embassy or diplomatic mission in the State before that coming into operation, may attend at the office of a registrar, furnish information and particulars referred to in paragraph (b) and notify the registrar in writing, in a form for the time being standing approved by an tArd-Chláraitheoir, of their intention, or, as the case may be, the intention of the surviving party to the marriage that the amendment of the Principal Act effected by subsection (1) shall not operate to validate the marriage.
- (b) The registrar, where satisfied to do so after consideration of the following information and particulars shall record the intention of the parties or surviving party referred to in paragraph (a):
 - (i) evidence of identity of the parties;
 - (ii) if appropriate, evidence of death of one of the parties to the marriage;
 - (iii) evidence that the marriage was solemnised in an embassy or diplomatic mission in the State prior to the commencement of this subsection together with, where required by the registrar, a document duly authenticated which purports to be a translation thereof;
 - (iv) the signatures of both parties or the surviving party to the marriage.

- (c) Subsection (1) shall not operate to validate a marriage in relation to which the registrar, before the coming into operation of subsection (1), records, under this subsection, the intention of the parties that it shall not be so validated.
