Application

4. This Part applies to residential land or regeneration land.

Vacant site

5. (1) In this Part, a site is a vacant site if—

(a) in the case of a site consisting of residential land—

(i) the site is situated in an area in which there is a need for housing,

(ii) the site is suitable for the provision of housing, and

F8[(iii) the site, or the majority of the site is—

(I) vacant or idle, or

(II) being used for a purpose that does not consist solely or primarily of the provision of housing or the development of the site for the purpose of such provision, provided that the most recent purchase of the site occurred—

(A) after it became residential land, and

(B) before, on or after the commencement of section 63 of the Planning and Development (Amendment) Act 2018.]

and

(b) in the case of a site consisting of regeneration land—

(i) the site, or the majority of the site, is vacant or idle, and

(ii) the site being vacant or idle has adverse effects on existing amenities or reduces the amenity provided by existing public infrastructure and facilities (within the meaning of section 48 of the Act of 2000) in the area in which the site is situated or has adverse effects on the character of the area.

(2) In this section—

“site” means any area of land exceeding 0.05 hectares identified by a planning authority in its functional area but does not include any structure that is a person’s home;

“home”, in relation to a person, means a dwelling in which the person ordinarily resides (notwithstanding any periods during which the dwelling is vacant) and includes any garden or portion of ground attached to and usually occupied with the dwelling or otherwise required for the amenity or convenience of the dwelling.

Register of vacant sites

6. (1) Every planning authority shall, beginning on 1 January 2017, establish and maintain a register to be known as the vacant sites register (referred to in this Part as “the register”).
- (2) A planning authority shall enter on the register a description, including a map, of any site in its functional area which was, in the opinion of the planning authority, a vacant site for the duration of the 12 months preceding the date of entry.
- (3) The register shall be kept at the offices of the planning authority and shall be available for inspection at the offices of the planning authority during office hours and on the planning authority’s website.
- (4) A planning authority, or the Board on appeal, shall determine whether or not there was a need for housing in an area within the planning authority’s functional area for the purposes of this Part by reference to—
- (a) the housing strategy and the core strategy of the planning authority,
 - (b) house prices and the cost of renting houses in the area,
 - (c) the number of households qualified for social housing support in accordance with section 20 of the Housing \(Miscellaneous Provisions\) Act 2009 that have specified the area as an area of choice for the receipt of such support and any changes to that number since the adoption of the planning authority’s development plan, and
 - (d) whether the number of habitable houses available for purchase or rent was less than 5 per cent of the total number of houses in the area.
- (5) A planning authority, or the Board on appeal, shall determine whether or not a site was suitable for the provision of housing for the purposes of this Part by reference to—
- (a) the core strategy,
 - (b) whether the site was served by the public infrastructure and facilities (within the meaning of section 48 of the Act of 2000) necessary to enable housing to be provided and serviced, and
 - (c) whether there was any thing affecting the physical condition of the land comprising the site which might affect the provision of housing.
- (6) A planning authority, or the Board on appeal, shall determine whether or not the site being vacant or idle has adverse effects on existing amenities or reduces the amenity provided by existing public infrastructure and facilities (within the meaning of section 48 of the Act of 2000) in the area in which the site is situated or has adverse effects on the character of the area for the purposes of this Part by reference to whether—
- (a) land or structures in the area were, or are, in a ruinous or neglected condition,
 - (b) anti-social behaviour was or is taking place in the area, or
 - (c) there has been a reduction in the number of habitable houses, or the number of people living, in the area,
- and whether or not these matters were affected by the existence of such vacant or idle land.
- (7) In determining for the purposes of this Part whether a site was vacant or idle for the duration of the 12 months concerned a planning authority, or the Board on appeal, shall not have regard to any unauthorised development or unauthorised use.

Procedure for entry on register

7. (1) Before entering a site on the register a planning authority shall give written notice to the owner of the site setting out the reasons for the proposed entry and the owner may make submissions in respect of the proposed entry to the planning authority in writing within 28 days after the date of such notice.
- (2) Where a planning authority receives submissions in accordance with subsection (1) it shall consider those submissions and if it is of the opinion that the site was a vacant site for the duration of the 12 months concerned and continues to be a vacant site it shall enter the site on the register in accordance with section 6(2).
- (3) The planning authority shall give written notice to the owner of a vacant site when it is entered on the register.
- (4) A notice under subsection (3) shall notify the owner that there shall be charged and levied for each year beginning with 2018 in respect of each vacant site in relation to which a market value has been determined and that stands entered on the register a levy in accordance with section 15.

Entry on register

8. A planning authority shall enter the following information on the register in respect of each vacant site—
- (a) in the case of a site referred to in section 6(2) that comprises registered land within the meaning of the Registration of Title Act 1964, the property ownership folio reference attaching to such land,
- (b) the name and address of the owner of the site referred to in section 6(2),
- (c) particulars of the market value of the site referred to in section 6(2) as determined by the planning authority, or by the Tribunal on appeal, in accordance with section 12, and
- (d) such other information referred to in this Act as the Minister may prescribe F11[by regulations].

Appeal against entry on register

9. (1) The owner of a site that is entered on the register under section 6(2) may appeal against such entry to the Board within 28 days after the date of the notice given to him or her under section 7(3).
- (2) On an appeal under this section the burden of showing that the site F12[was not a vacant site] for the duration of the 12 months concerned is on the owner of the site.
- (3) Where the Board determines that a site was not F12[a vacant site] for the duration of the 12 months concerned or was no longer a vacant site on the date on which the site was entered on the register in accordance with section 6(2) it shall give written notice to the planning authority who shall cancel the entry on the register in respect of that site.
- (4) Where the owner of a vacant site appeals under subsection (1) against the entry of a site on the register the entry shall not take effect until the appeal is finally determined.
- (5) Where an appeal under subsection (1) against an entry of a site on the register is unsuccessful or is withdrawn the entry shall be deemed to have effect from the date on which the site was entered under section 6(2).

Obligation to owners to notify

10. (1) The owner of a vacant site that stands entered on the register under section 6(2) shall notify the planning authority in whose functional area the site is located if it is no longer vacant or idle.
- (2) If, at any time, a planning authority is satisfied that a site that stands entered on the register under section 6(2) is no longer a vacant site it shall cancel the entry on the register in respect of that site.

Notice to owners of sites on register

11. (1) Every planning authority shall, before 1 June 2018, or such later date in that year as the Minister may specify by order, give a written notice to the owner of any vacant site that stands entered on the register on 1 January 2018—
- (a) stating that the site stands entered on the register,
 - (b) setting out such matters as are entered in the register in respect of the site,
 - (c) stating that there shall be charged and levied for each year beginning with 2018 in respect of each vacant site in relation to which a market value has been determined and that stands entered on the register a levy in accordance with section 15, and
 - (d) informing the owner that he or she may make submissions in respect of the entry to the planning authority in writing within 28 days after the date of such notice.
- (2) Where a planning authority receives submissions in accordance with a notice under subsection (1) it shall consider those submissions and if it is satisfied that the site is no longer a vacant site it shall cancel the entry on the register in respect of that site.
- (3) Where a planning authority receives submissions in respect of a site in accordance with a notice under subsection (1) and after considering those submissions does not cancel the entry on the register in respect of the site it shall give written notice to the owner and the owner may appeal that decision to the Board within 28 days after the date of the notice.
- (4) On an appeal under this section the burden of showing that the site, or a majority of the site, is no longer a vacant site shall be on the owner of the site.
- (5) Where the Board determines that a site is no longer a vacant site it shall give written notice to the planning authority who shall cancel the entry on the register in respect of that site.

Market value of vacant site

12. (1) A planning authority shall determine, as soon as may be after it is entered on the register, and at least once every 3 years thereafter, the market value of a vacant site by estimating or causing to be estimated the price which the unencumbered fee simple of such site would fetch if it was sold on the open market on the date of the determination in such manner and in such conditions as might reasonably be calculated to obtain for the vendor the best market price for the site.
- (2) The market value of the vacant site shall be estimated by the planning authority and it shall authorise a person it considers suitably qualified for that purpose to inspect the site and report to it the value thereof and the person having possession or custody of the site shall permit the person so authorised to inspect at such reasonable times as the planning authority considers necessary.

- (3) Where a person authorised under subsection (2) is not permitted to inspect a property for the purposes of providing an estimate, he or she shall make an estimate of the market value of the site based on his or her knowledge of the site and property and the prevailing local market conditions.
- (4) Where the planning authority has determined the market value of a vacant site it shall enter particulars of the determination in the register (together with the date of entry in the register), and give written notice to the owner of the vacant site of the valuation or the revised valuation, as the case may be, which it has placed on the site and inform the owner of his or her right to appeal under section 13.

Appeal of market value determination

- 13. (1) The owner of a vacant site may appeal to the Tribunal against a determination made by a planning authority under section 12(1) within 28 days after the date of the notice given under section 12(4).
- (2) The Tribunal shall hear and determine appeals under subsection (1).
- (3) Subject to a right of appeal to the High Court on a question of law, the determination of the Tribunal under this section shall be final.
- (4) An appeal to the Tribunal shall contain a statement of the specific grounds for the appeal.
- (5) The Tribunal shall transmit a copy of every appeal received by it to the planning authority by whom the market value of the property was determined (who shall be the respondent in, and be entitled to be heard and adduce evidence at the hearing of, the appeal concerned) and to any other person appearing to the Tribunal to be affected directly by the determination and any such person shall be entitled to be heard and to adduce evidence at the hearing of the appeal.
- (6) The Tribunal shall, where any amendment falls to be made to the valuation of a vacant site pursuant to a determination of the Tribunal or a decision of the High Court in relation to an appeal under this section, give written notice of the amendment to the owner of the site and to the planning authority concerned who shall cause the appropriate entry in the register to be amended with effect from the date of entry referred to in section 12(4) and shall give written notice to the owner of the making of the amendment and of the date from which the amendment has effect.
- (7) Sections 4 and 39 of the Valuation Act 2001 shall apply to the determination of an appeal under this section as they apply to the determination of appeals under that Act.
- (8) The planning authority shall not make a demand for payment of vacant site levy under section 15 —
- (a) before the expiry of the period during which an appeal may be brought under that subsection, and
- (b) where an appeal is brought under subsection (1), before the appeal is finally determined or withdrawn.

Determination of zero market value

- 14. A planning authority, and the Tribunal on appeal under section 13, may, where it considers it appropriate in all the circumstances, deem that a vacant site has a zero market value, in particular where—
- (a) no market exists for the site, or
- (b) the site is situated on contaminated lands and the estimated costs of remedial works necessary in order to use or develop the site exceed the market value of the site itself.

Vacant site levy

15. (1) Subject to subsection (2), there shall be charged and levied for each year beginning with 2018 in respect of each vacant site in relation to which a market value has been determined in accordance with section 12 and that stands entered on the register a levy to be known as vacant site levy.
- (2) Vacant site levy shall not be payable in respect of any land in respect of which the derelict sites levy within the meaning of the Derelict Sites Act 1990 is payable in accordance with that Act.
- (3) Vacant site levy shall be payable in arrears each year beginning in 2019 by the owner of a vacant site that stands entered on the register on 1 January of that year to the planning authority in whose functional area the vacant site is located.
- (4) Vacant site levy shall be payable on a demand being made by a planning authority in that behalf and if it is not paid within 2 months after the day on which it becomes payable it shall be recoverable as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- (5) A planning authority may provide for the payment of vacant site levy by instalments.

Amount of levy

F13[16. (1) The amount of the vacant site levy shall—

- (a) in respect of the year 2018, be such amount as is equal to 3 per cent of the market value of the vacant site determined in accordance with section 12, and
- (b) in respect of the year 2019 and every subsequent year thereafter, be such amount as is equal to—
- (i) 7 per cent, or
- (ii) such other percentage (not exceeding 7 per cent) as may stand prescribed, for the time being, by regulations, of the market value of the vacant site determined in accordance with section 12.

- (2) The Minister shall, in prescribing a percentage for the purpose of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), have regard to changes in the value of property and the Residential Property Price Index published by the Central Statistics Office.
- (3) Where regulations under subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) are proposed to be made, a draft of the regulations shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas not later than 3 months before the beginning of the year in which it is proposed that the regulations shall come into operation, and the regulations shall not be made unless a resolution approving the draft is passed by each such House.]

Death or change of ownership

17. (1) Notwithstanding sections 15 and 16, where in any year there is a change in ownership of a vacant site the amount of vacant site levy to be charged in respect of that site for that year, and for the preceding year, shall be zero.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply where—
- (a) ownership of the site transfers from one company to an associated company,

- (b) the owner of the site transfers it to a connected person (other than where ownership of the site devolves on the death of the owner), or
 - (c) ownership of the site changes, in the opinion of the planning authority in whose functional area the site is located, for the sole or principal purpose of avoiding the obligation to pay vacant site levy.
- (3) In subsection (2) “associated company”, in relation to another company, means—
- (a) a holding company or a subsidiary (both within the meaning of the Companies Act 2014) of that other company, or
 - (b) a body corporate that is a subsidiary of the same company of which the other company is a subsidiary.
- (4) For the purposes of this section a person is connected with the owner of a vacant site if, but only if, he or she is—
- (a) that owner’s spouse, civil partner, parent, brother, sister, child, step-child or lawfully adopted child,
 - (b) a person acting in his or her capacity as the trustee of any trust, the principal beneficiaries of which are the owner of the vacant site, the owner’s spouse or any of the owner’s children or any body corporate which the owner controls, or
 - (c) a partner of that director.
- (5) A body corporate shall also be deemed to be connected with the owner of a vacant site if it is controlled by that owner.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, an owner of a vacant site shall be deemed to control a body corporate if, but only if, he is, alone or together with any of the persons referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (4), interested in more than one-half of the equity share capital of that body or entitled to exercise or control the exercise of more than one-half of the voting power at any general meeting of that body.
- (7) In subsection (6) —
- (a) “equity share capital” has the same meaning as in section 7 of the Companies Act 2014, and
 - (b) references to voting power exercised by a director shall include references to voting power exercised by another body corporate which that director controls.

Appeal against demand for payment of levy

- 18. (1) The owner of a site who receives a demand for payment of vacant site levy under section 15 may appeal against the demand to the Board within 28 days after the date of the demand.
- (2) On an appeal under this section the burden of showing that—
- F14[(a) the site was no longer a vacant site on 1 January in the year concerned, or]
- (b) the amount of the levy has been incorrectly calculated in respect of the site by the planning authority,
- is on the owner of the site.

- (3) Where the Board determines that a site was no longer a vacant site on 1 January in the year concerned, or is no longer a vacant site on the date on which the appeal under this section is made, it shall give written notice to the planning authority who shall cancel the entry on the register in respect of that site and shall cancel the demand made in respect of that year.
- (4) Where the Board determines that the amount of the levy has been incorrectly calculated in respect of a vacant site it shall give written notice to the planning authority of the correct amount who shall amend the demand made in respect of that year in accordance with the revised amount.
- (5) Where the owner of a vacant site appeals against a demand under subsection (1) such demand shall not take effect until such appeal is finally determined or withdrawn.

Vacant site levy to be charge on land

19. Where vacant site levy for a year is due and owing, the amount of vacant site levy shall on the day on which it becomes so due and payable, become and shall remain until payment thereof, a charge on the land concerned.

False or misleading evidence

20. A person who for the purposes of this Part makes any submission, or provides any evidence or information, which he or she knows, or ought reasonably know, to be false or misleading in a material aspect commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a class A fine or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one month or to both.

Receipts, certificates and requirements on sale of vacant site

21. (1) Where a person pays a vacant site levy or an instalment of a vacant site levy to a planning authority, the planning authority shall give the person a receipt in writing in respect of the payment.
- (2) Where a planning authority receives payment in full of a vacant site levy, it shall, on application to it in writing by or on behalf of the owner of the site concerned, within 14 days of the application, give the owner a certificate (in this section referred to as a "certificate of discharge") confirming that vacant site levy in respect of the year concerned has been paid.
- (3) The vendor of a vacant site entered on the register shall, before the completion of the sale of the site, pay to the relevant planning authority any vacant site levy due and owing to the relevant planning authority in respect of that site.
- (4) On or before the completion of the sale of a vacant site standing entered on the register, the vendor of the site shall, in respect of that site, give to the purchaser a certificate of discharge for each year in respect of which the site was a vacant site.
- (5) As against a bona fide purchaser or mortgagee of a site for full consideration in money or money's worth without notice, or a person deriving title from or under such a purchaser or mortgagee, a certificate of discharge shall discharge the property concerned from liability for any vacant site levy due by the owner of that property for each year in respect of which the site was a vacant site.
- (6) A planning authority—
 - (a) shall not charge a fee in respect of the issue by it of a receipt or a certificate of discharge, and
 - (b) may charge a fee in respect of the issue by it of a duplicate of such receipt or certificate not exceeding the reasonable cost of issuing the duplicate.

(7) In this section—

“purchaser” includes, in relation to a residential property, a transferee under a transfer referred to in the definition of “sale” in this subsection;

“residential property” means any building or structure which is in use as, or is suitable for use as, a dwelling and includes any shed, outhouse, garage or other building or structure and any yard, garden or other land, appurtenant to or usually enjoyed with that building, save that so much of any such yard, garden or other land that exceeds one acre shall not be taken into account for the purposes of this definition;

“sale” includes, in relation to a residential property, the transfer of the residential property by the owner to another person—

(a) in consequence of—

- (i) the exercise of a power under any enactment to compulsorily acquire land, or
- (ii) the giving of notice of intention to exercise such power, or

(b) for no consideration or consideration that is significantly less than the estimated market value of the residential property concerned at the time of its transfer;

“vendor” includes, in relation to a residential property—

(a) a person who transfers the property to another person—

(i) in consequence of—

- (I) the exercise of a power under any enactment to compulsorily acquire land, or
