16. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Minister may, where he or she is satisfied that paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of section 14 applies, forward a judgment to which an application relates to the competent authority of an executing state for the purposes of the recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence to which the judgment relates in the executing state.

(2) A judgment may not be forwarded unless—

- (a) the sentenced person is in the State or the executing state,

- (c) the Minister is satisfied that the enforcement of the sentence by the executing state would facilitate the sentenced person's social rehabilitation and successful reintegration into society having regard to—
 - (i) the presence in the executing state of any family members of the sentenced person,
 - (ii) the nature and extent of any linguistic, cultural, social or economic connections between the sentenced person and the executing state, and
 - (iii) such other matters as the Minister considers appropriate,
 - (d) the Minister is satisfied that reasonable steps have been taken to inform the sentenced person in writing in a language that he or she understands of the substance of the arrangements in accordance with which it is proposed to transfer him or her,
 - (e) the sentenced person is not subject to proceedings that have been brought, but have not been finally determined for his or her extradition or arrest under the Extradition Act 1965 or the Act of 2003,
 - (f) where section 12\(1\) applies (including any case where section 12\(3\) applies), the Minister has considered the opinion (if any) of the sentenced person under that section, and
 - (g) consultations in accordance with section 15\(1\) have taken place.
- (3) The Minister shall not forward the judgment to more than one executing state at any one time.
- (4) The Minister may, before forwarding a judgment, invite or otherwise take into account submissions by the sentenced person, the executing state and such persons as the Minister considers appropriate.

- 17. (1) Where the Minister makes a decision to forward a judgment, he or she shall—
- (a) forward to the competent authority of the executing state—

Provisional arrest where sentenced person in executing state

18. Where the Minister has made a decision to forward a judgment to an executing state and the sentenced person is in the executing state, the Minister may, at any time—

- (a) before the receipt by the competent authority of the executing state of the forwarded judgment and Framework Decision Certificate, or
- (b) after the receipt by the competent authority of the executing state of the documents referred to in paragraph (a) but before a decision is made by the competent authority in the executing state regarding recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence in that state, request the executing state to arrest or otherwise detain the sentenced person pending the making of a decision referred to in paragraph (b).

Communications with executing state after judgment forwarded

19. (1) The Minister shall, at the request of a competent authority of an executing state, provide the competent authority with a translation of a judgment, or such parts of the judgment as may be specified in the request, in a relevant language.
- (2) Where a judgment has been forwarded to an executing state and there has been no consultation with the executing state, the Minister shall consider any reasoned opinion provided by the competent authority of that state where the opinion is provided without delay after the judgment is forwarded.
- (3) The Minister shall, at the request of a competent authority of an executing state to which a judgment has been forwarded, provide without delay such additional information regarding the request as the Minister considers appropriate to the competent authority.

Consent of Minister to partial recognition and enforcement by executing state

20. (1) Where a judgment has been forwarded to an executing state, the Minister may, upon request of the competent authority of the executing state, give his or her consent to the recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence in part by that state.
- (2) The Minister may not give his or her consent under subsection (1) where to do so aggravates the duration of the sentence.

Withdrawal of consent of sentenced person

21. (1) Where the consent of a sentenced person is required under section 13(1), he or she may withdraw his or her consent at any time before a decision by the competent authority of the executing state to recognise the judgment and enforce the sentence in that state.
- (2) Where subsection (2) of section 13 applies, the consent required under subsection (1) of that section may be withdrawn in accordance with subsection (1) by the legal representative of the sentenced person or any other person considered by the Minister to be an appropriate person for that purpose.

Transfer warrant

22. (1) The Minister may, on receipt of a notification from the competent authority of an executing state of its decision to recognise a judgment, issue a warrant for the transfer of the sentenced person out of the State to the executing state (in this Part referred to as a “transfer warrant”).

(2) A transfer warrant shall authorise—

(a) the taking of the sentenced person from his or her place of detention and his or her delivery into the custody of a person authorised by the competent authority of the executing state to receive the person—

(i) at a place of departure from the State, for conveyance to the executing state until the delivery is effected, or

(ii) at a place of entry to the executing state,

and

(b) the removal of the sentenced person from the State.

(3) Where a transfer warrant has been issued in respect of a sentenced person, he or she shall be deemed to be in legal custody at any time when he or she is being taken under the warrant to or from any place or being kept in custody under the warrant and, where the person escapes or is unlawfully at large, he or she shall be liable to be retaken in the same manner as any person who escapes from lawful custody.

(4) The Minister may designate any person as a person who is, for the time being, authorised to take the sentenced person concerned to or from any place under the transfer warrant or to keep the person in custody under the warrant.

(5) A person authorised pursuant to subsection (4) to take a sentenced person to or from any place or to keep the person in custody shall, while so taking or keeping the sentenced person, have all the powers, authority, protection and privileges of a member of the Garda Síochána.

(6) If at any time before a sentenced person is transferred to an executing state under this section it appears appropriate to the Minister, in order that effect may be given to this Part, that a transfer warrant in respect of the person should be revoked or varied, the Minister may revoke or vary the warrant.

Transfer of sentenced person

23. (1) A sentenced person may be transferred to an executing state in accordance with a transfer warrant before the expiry of—

(a) the period of 30 days from the date on which the Minister has been notified by the competent authority of the executing state of the decision by that competent authority to recognise the judgment, or

(b) where subsection (2) applies, the period of 10 days from the revised date referred to in that subsection.

(2) Where, due to exceptional circumstances, a transfer does not occur within the period specified in subsection (1)(a), the Minister and the competent authority of the executing state shall agree a revised date which shall be as soon as possible after the cessation of the exceptional circumstances.

Transfer of enforcement of sentence

- 24. (1) The enforcement of a sentence shall, subject to subsection (2), cease to be governed by the law of the State and shall transfer to an executing state—
- (a) where the sentenced person is in the State, from the time he or she is delivered into the custody of a person authorised by the competent authority of the executing state to receive the sentenced person under a transfer warrant, and
 - (b) where the sentenced person is in the executing state, from the date of the decision to recognise the judgment to which the sentence relates.
- (2) Where the enforcement of a sentence has transferred to an executing state and the sentenced person escapes from custody and has not been retaken, the enforcement of the sentence shall revert to the State upon receipt by the Minister of notification from the competent authority of that state of such escape.

Continuation in effect of original order

- 25. (1) Without prejudice to section 24 and subject to subsections (2) and (3), the order by virtue of which a sentenced person is required to be detained or otherwise restricted in his or her personal liberty at the time a transfer warrant is issued in respect of him or her (in this Part referred to as the “original order”) shall continue to authorise the detention or restriction concerned at any time after the enforcement of the sentence reverts to the State in accordance with section 24(2).
- (2) Where a sentenced person escapes from custody in an executing state while serving a term of imprisonment or detention in the equivalent of a prison or children detention school in the executing state, the currency of the sentence shall be suspended in respect of any period during which the person is unlawfully at large following his or her escape.
- (3) Without prejudice to section 26(2), the Minister may, at any time after the removal of a sentenced person from the State where the Minister considers it appropriate in order to give effect to this Part, direct that the original order be varied or cease to have effect.
- (4) This section and section 26, apply to an order relating to that part of a sentence which is not transferred to an executing state as a result of the recognition and enforcement by that state of the sentence (to which the judgment relates) in part and to which the Minister has given his or her consent under section 20(1).
- (5) Where, before the coming into operation of section 75, a warrant was issued in respect of a person under section 45B of the Act of 2003, a reference in this section to the order by virtue of which he or she is required to be detained at the time a warrant is issued shall include a reference to an order referred to in section 45B of the Act of 2003 prior to such coming into operation.

Arrest of sentenced person following escape from custody in executing state

26. (1) Where section 24(2) applies, a member of the Garda Síochána may arrest without warrant a sentenced person whom he or she suspects to be unlawfully at large following an escape referred to in that section.
- (2) A sentenced person arrested under subsection (1) shall, as soon as may be after his or her arrest, be brought before an appropriate court and the court, for the purpose of the continued enforcement of the remainder of the sentence, shall, in accordance with subsection (3) or (5), as the case may be, vary the original order.
- (3) Where an appropriate court varies an original order under subsection (2), the court shall take account of—
- (a) the period spent by the person in custody in the State on foot of the original order,
 - (b) the period spent by the person in custody or other detention in the executing state in contemplation, or in consequence, of the recognition of the sentence (or part thereof) by the executing state,
 - (c) subject to subsection (5), the period (if any) of the sentence indicated by an executing state to be deducted from the total length of the sentence—
 - (i) in respect of an amnesty, pardon, clemency or other such decision granted by the executing state in relation to the sentence, and
 - (ii) in respect of any other reduction (including a period of remission of sentence) in relation to the part of the sentence which has been served by the person in the executing state,
- and
- (d) the period spent by the person in custody in the State on foot of an arrest under subsection (1).
- (4) A person brought before the court under subsection (2) may be remanded in custody and for that purpose the appropriate court shall have the same powers of remand in relation to any person appearing before it under this section as it would have if the person were brought before it charged with an indictable offence.
- (5) Where an appropriate court varies an original order under subsection (2) and there is a term of imprisonment or detention that a sentenced person is required to serve by virtue of the imposition of a sentence on foot of a judgment, part of which is not transferred to an executing state as a result of the recognition and enforcement by that state of the sentence (to which the judgment relates) in part, and to which the Minister has given his or her consent under section 20(1)—
- (a) the term of imprisonment or detention which is not transferred shall be reduced by the periods referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (d) of subsection (3), and
 - (b) for the purpose of remission of that part of the sentence which is not transferred—
 - (i) the period spent by the person in custody or other detention in the executing state in contemplation, or in consequence, of the recognition by the executing state of the transferred sentence shall be treated as a period served by the person in the State, and

- (ii) the rules or practice whereby sentenced persons generally may earn remission of sentences by industry or good conduct shall apply in relation to the period referred to in subparagraph (i).

Rule of specialty (Part 2)

- 27. (1) Where a sentenced person is transferred to an executing state under a transfer warrant and the Minister receives a request from the executing state in accordance with subsection (2), the Minister shall apply or cause an application to be made to the appropriate court for the court to give its consent to—
- (a) proceedings being brought against the person in the executing state for an offence,
 - (b) the imposition in the executing state of a penalty, including a penalty consisting of a restriction of the person's personal liberty, in respect of an offence, or
 - (c) proceedings being brought against, or the detention of, the person in the executing state for the purpose of executing a sentence in respect of an offence.
- (2) A request from an executing state referred to in subsection (1) shall include the following information in the Irish language or the English language—
- (a) the name and nationality of the sentenced person to whom it relates,
 - (b) the name of the judicial authority in the executing state that issued the request, and the address of its principal office,
 - (c) the telephone number, fax number (if any) and email address of that judicial authority,
 - (d) the offence to which the request relates, including the nature and classification under the law of the executing state of the offence concerned,
 - (e) that a conviction or sentence is immediately enforceable against the sentenced person, or that a warrant for his or her arrest, or other order of a judicial authority in the executing state having the same effect, has been issued in respect of that offence,
 - (f) the circumstances in which the offence was committed or is alleged to have been committed, including the time and place of its commission or alleged commission, and the degree of involvement or alleged degree of involvement of the sentenced person in the commission of the offence, and
 - (g) (i) the penalties to which the sentenced person would, if convicted of the offence, be liable,
 - (ii) where the sentenced person has been convicted of the offence and a sentence has been imposed in respect thereof, the penalties of which that sentence consists, and
 - (iii) where the sentenced person has been convicted of the offence specified therein but has not yet been sentenced, the penalties to which he or she is liable in respect of the offence.
- (3) The appropriate court shall give its consent under subsection (1) if it is satisfied that—
- (a) were the person concerned in the State, and

(b) were there a European arrest warrant (within the meaning of the Act of 2003) issued in respect of the person by the executing state in relation to the offence to which the request relates, there would be an obligation under the Act of 2003 to make an order directing that the person be surrendered to that state.

(4) A decision by the appropriate court regarding whether to give its consent under subsection (1) shall be taken as soon as practicable and in any event no later than 30 days from the date of receipt of the request in accordance with subsection (2).

(5) In this section—

“judicial authority” has the same meaning as it has in the Act of 2003;

“offence” means, in relation to a sentenced person, an offence (other than an offence in respect of which he or she has been transferred to the executing state to serve the sentence in relation to) under the law of the executing state committed before his or her transfer to that state.

Withdrawal of Framework Decision Certificate

28. (1) The Minister may withdraw a Framework Decision Certificate to which a sentence relates at any time before the transfer under section 24(1) of the enforcement of the sentence to the executing state.

(2) The Minister shall, without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), without delay withdraw a Framework Decision Certificate to which a sentence relates at any time before the transfer under section 24(1) of the enforcement of the sentence to the executing state where—

(a) the Minister does not consent to a request referred to in section 20(1) for the partial recognition and enforcement by that state of a sentence to which the Certificate relates,

(b) the consent of the sentenced person to which the Certificate relates has been withdrawn under section 21,

(c) the sentenced person is believed to be in the executing state and he or she has not been located in that state, or

(d) having regard to the matters referred to in subsection (3), the Minister considers that the withdrawal of the Certificate is in the public interest.

(3) The Minister shall have regard to the following matters when considering whether to withdraw a Framework Decision Certificate—

(a) any information received by the Minister from the competent authority of an executing state regarding the law of the executing state in respect of early or conditional release,

(b) a reasoned opinion provided to the Minister by the executing state in accordance with section 19(2),

(c) any information received by the Minister regarding the adaptation or proposed adaptation of the sentence to which the Certificate relates, and

(d) such other matters as the Minister considers appropriate.

(4) The Minister shall, as soon as practicable after deciding to withdraw a Framework Decision Certificate under this section, give notice in writing of the decision (including reasons for the decision) to the competent authority of the executing state.

- (5) Where a Framework Decision Certificate in respect of a sentenced person is withdrawn and the sentenced person is in the State, the Minister shall revoke any transfer warrant in respect of the person.

Cessation of enforcement of sentence

29. Where a sentenced person—

- (a) is granted a pardon, under Article 13.6 of the Constitution, in respect of an offence consisting of an act or omission that constitutes in whole or in part the offence in respect of which he or she has been transferred to the executing state,
- (b) has, by virtue of any Act of the Oireachtas, become immune from prosecution or punishment for an offence consisting of an act or omission that constitutes in whole or in part the offence in respect of which he or she has been transferred to the executing state, or
- (c) obtains a declaration under section 2 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1993 that there has been a miscarriage of justice in relation to his or her conviction for the offence in respect of which he or she has been transferred to the executing state, the Minister shall immediately notify the competent authority of the executing state to which the judgment imposing a sentence in respect of the offence has been forwarded of that fact.

PART 3

STATE AS EXECUTING STATE

Interpretation (Part 3)

30. (1) In this Part—

“application”, other than in sections 36\(1\), 40 and 46, has the meaning assigned to it by section 37\(1\);

“committal order” means an order under section 43\(1\) or (2);

“deductible period”, in relation to a sentenced person, means—

(a) the period spent by the person in custody in the State—

- (i) on foot of a warrant issued under section 35\(1\), or
- (ii) on foot of a warrant issued under section 42\(1\)\(a\) or (b) awaiting the making of an order under section 43\(2\),

and

(b) the period (if any) of the sentence indicated by an issuing state to be deducted from the total length of the sentence—

- (i) in respect of an amnesty, pardon, clemency or other such decision granted by the issuing state in relation to the sentence, and

(ii) in respect of any other reduction (including a period of remission of sentence) in relation to the part of the sentence which has been served by the person in the issuing state;

“forward”, in relation to a judgment, means to forward the judgment in accordance with section 34\(1\);

“partial recognition and enforcement” has the meaning assigned to it by section 39\(1\);

“section 34 certificate” has the meaning assigned to it by section 34\(5\)\(a\).

- (2) Nothing in this Part shall operate to prejudice an application under section 23(1)(a) of the Act of 2019 for the recognition of a judgment (within the meaning of Framework Decision 2008/947/JHA) and, where applicable, the probation decision (within the meaning of Framework Decision 2008/947/JHA) to which the judgment relates under section 24 of that Act.
- (3) The granting by the appropriate court of an application for the recognition of a judgment and the making of an order for the enforcement of the sentence to which the judgment relates, the execution of part of which has been conditionally suspended upon its imposition in an issuing state, shall not operate to prejudice the continued enforcement by the issuing state of that part of the sentence that has been conditionally suspended.
- (4) Where under section 39\(4\) the appropriate court (with the consent of the competent authority of the issuing state) treats an application as an application in respect of the enforcement in the State of part of a sentence imposed in an issuing state, a reference in this Part to a sentence shall be treated as reference to that part of the sentence.

Corresponding offences

- 31. For the purposes of this Part, an offence under the law of the issuing state corresponds to an offence under the law of the State where the act or omission constituting the offence under the law of the issuing state would, if committed in the State, constitute an offence under the law of the State.

Consent to forwarding judgment

- 32. (1) Where a sentenced person is a person other than—

- (a) an Irish citizen living in the State, or
- (b) an Irish citizen who, upon release from the enforcement of a sentence in an issuing state will be sent to the State in accordance with an order included in, or ancillary to, the judgment, a judgment in relation to him or her shall not be forwarded unless the competent authority of the issuing state, prior to forwarding the judgment, has obtained the consent of the Minister.

- (2) The Minister may give his or her consent under subsection (1) where—
- (a) the sentenced person is in the State or the issuing state,
 - (b) the Minister is satisfied that the enforcement of the sentence in the State would facilitate the sentenced person’s social rehabilitation and successful reintegration into society having regard to the matters referred to in subparagraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) of section 16(2)(c), and
 - (c) the Minister is of the opinion, having regard to such factors as he or she considers relevant, that it is appropriate that such consent be given.

Provision of reasoned opinion to issuing state

- 33. (1) The Minister may provide a reasoned opinion in respect of a sentenced person, to the competent authority of an issuing state—
- (a) where the Minister has been consulted by the issuing state, before a judgment in relation to the person is forwarded, or
 - (b) where the Minister has not been consulted by the issuing state, after a judgment in relation to the person is forwarded.
- (2) Where the Minister is considering providing a reasoned opinion under subsection (1), he or she shall have regard to such opinion (if any) of the sentenced person as the Minister is notified of by the competent authority of the issuing state.
- (3) In this section, “reasoned opinion” means a reasoned opinion of the Minister that the enforcement in the State of a sentence imposed in an issuing state would not facilitate the social rehabilitation and successful reintegration of the sentenced person into society.

Forwarding of judgment to Minister

- 34. (1) Subsection (5) applies if the competent authority of an issuing state, subject to section 32(1), forwards to the Minister—
- (a) a judgment to which a sentence relates, and
 - (b) a Framework Decision Certificate in the Irish language or the English language in respect of the judgment referred to in paragraph (a).
- (2) The Minister may, on his or her own initiative or at the request by, or on behalf of, a sentenced person, request an issuing state to forward a judgment.
- (3) Where the Minister receives a Framework Decision Certificate that—
- (a) is incomplete, or
 - (b) manifestly does not correspond to the judgment to which it relates,
- the Minister shall as soon as practicable notify the competent authority of the issuing state of the matter referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), as the case may be, and specify a reasonable period of time within which the competent authority may complete or correct the Framework Decision Certificate.
- (4) Where the Minister is of the opinion that the content of a Framework Decision Certificate received by him or her is not sufficient to enable the Minister to make an application in respect of the judgment to which the Certificate relates, he or she shall arrange for the judgment accompanying the Certificate to be translated into the Irish language or the English language.
- (5) Where the competent authority of an issuing state forwards a judgment and a Framework Decision Certificate in respect of the judgment and the Minister is satisfied that the requirements of subsections (3) and (4) are satisfied, he or she shall—
- (a) certify in writing (in this Part referred to as a “section 34 certificate”) that the judgment and Framework Decision Certificate have been duly forwarded and those requirements have been satisfied,

- (b) where the sentenced person is in the State, make all reasonable efforts to notify him or her that the judgment and Framework Decision Certificate have been forwarded, and
- (c) make an application in respect of the judgment.
- (6) section 34 certificate shall, unless the contrary is shown, be evidence in any proceedings of the matters specified therein without further proof.
- (7) Where a court or person employed by, or acting for or on behalf of, the public administration of the State receives a judgment and a Framework Decision Certificate in respect of the judgment directly from the competent authority of an issuing state, the court or person, as the case may be, shall—
 - (a) as soon as practicable send or arrange for the sending of, the judgment and the Framework Decision Certificate to the Minister, and
 - (b) as soon as practicable so inform the competent authority of the issuing state by any means capable of producing a record in writing.
- (8) For the purposes of this Part, the sending of a judgment and Framework Decision Certificate to the Minister under subsection (7)(a) shall be deemed to constitute the forwarding of the documents.

Provisional arrest where sentenced person in State

- 35. (1) The appropriate court may, upon the sworn information of a member of the Garda Síochána not below the rank of inspector given with the consent of the Minister, issue a warrant for the arrest of any sentenced person if it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the sentenced person is in the State,
 - (b) a request in writing for the provisional arrest of the sentenced person has been made on behalf of an issuing state,
 - (c) the request referred to in paragraph (b) was received by the Minister before—
 - (i) the receipt by the Minister of the documents referred to in section 34(1), or
 - (ii) after the receipt by the Minister of the documents referred to in section 34(1) but before a decision by the appropriate court to grant or refuse an application for the recognition of the judgment to which the request relates,
 and
 - (d) the request referred to in paragraph (b) is in accordance with subsection (2)(a) or (b), as the case may be.
- (2) The Minister, in considering whether to give his or her consent under subsection (1)—
 - (a) where paragraph (c)(i) of that subsection applies, shall have regard to—
 - (i) whether the issuing state intends to forward the documents referred to in section 34(1) without delay, and
 - (ii) whether the request states—
 - (I) the name and date of birth of the sentenced person concerned,

- (II) where known, the address of the place in the State at which the sentenced person is for the time being residing,
 - (III) the nature of the offence, the circumstances in which the offence was committed and the time at which, and place where, the offence was committed,
 - (IV) the nature, duration and date of commencement of the sentence (or, where the sentenced person fled, or otherwise returned, to the State before he or she began serving the sentence, the date on which the sentence should have commenced) in relation to which a judgment has been, or is to be, forwarded, and
 - (V) where the sentenced person fled, or otherwise returned, to the State after having served part of the sentence but before he or she had completed serving the sentence, the period of the sentence that he or she served,
- and
- (b) where paragraph (c)(ii) of that subsection applies, shall have regard to the following matters—
 - (i) whether the request was accompanied by the Framework Decision Certificate that has been forwarded in respect of the sentenced person, and
 - (ii) where such information is not contained in the Framework Decision Certificate, whether the request contains the information referred to in paragraph (a)(ii).
- (3) A warrant issued under subsection (1) may be executed by any member of the Garda Síochána in any part of the State and may be so executed notwithstanding that it is not in the possession of the member when he or she executes the warrant, and the warrant shall be shown to and a copy thereof given to the sentenced person arrested at the time of his or her arrest or, if the warrant is not then in the possession of the member, not later than 24 hours after his or her arrest.
 - (4) For the purpose of arresting a sentenced person on foot of a warrant issued under subsection (1), a member of the Garda Síochána may enter, if need be by use of reasonable force, and search a place where the member, with reasonable cause, suspects the sentenced person to be.
 - (5) A person arrested under a warrant issued under subsection (1) shall, as soon as may be after his or her arrest, be brought before the appropriate court and the court shall, unless the section 34 certificate is produced to the court, remand the person in custody or on bail for a period not exceeding 18 days pending the production to it of that certificate.
 - (6) If a section 34 certificate is not produced in accordance with subsection (5) before the expiration of the period of 18 days from the date on which the person is arrested under a warrant issued under subsection (1), the person concerned shall be released from custody or the terms of his or her bail forthwith.
 - (7) Where the documents referred to in section 34(1), in relation to a person who has been released in accordance with subsection (6), are forwarded to the Minister, an application may be made to the appropriate court.
 - (8) Where a warrant authorising the arrest of a sentenced person is issued under this section and a section 34 certificate has been produced to the appropriate court, then in any subsequent proceedings it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that a judgment in relation to the person has been duly forwarded to the Minister.

Power of adjournment and remand

36. (1) The appropriate court may, if it considers it appropriate to do so in the interests of justice, adjourn any proceedings under this Part either on application or of its own motion, and shall, subject to subsection (2), remand the person concerned in custody for the period of the adjournment or such other period as it considers appropriate.
- (2) A person arrested under a warrant issued under section 35(1) may be remanded in custody or on bail.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, the appropriate court shall have and may exercise the same powers of remand in relation to any person appearing before it under this Part as it would have if the person were brought before it charged with an indictable offence.

Application for recognition and enforcement

37. (1) The Minister shall apply, or cause an application to be made, to the appropriate court as soon as practicable after a section 34 certificate is issued, for recognition of the judgment in the State and enforcement of the sentence (in its legal nature and duration) to which the judgment relates (in this Part referred to as an “application”).
- (2) An application may be made ex parte save in a case in which a court directs that it is in the interests of justice that it be made on notice to the sentenced person.
- (3) The appropriate court shall determine an application in accordance with this Part.
- (4) A decision under subsection (1) by an appropriate court regarding whether to grant or refuse an application shall be taken as soon as practicable and, subject to subsectionn (5) and (6), in any event not later than 90 days from the date on which the judgment and Framework Decision Certificate, to which the application relates, were forwarded to the Minister.
- (5) The period referred to in subsection (4) shall—

- (7) Where an appropriate court makes a decision under subsection (1) to grant an application, the court shall take all such measures as are necessary to enforce the sentence and, in particular, may make an order under section 40(3) or (5) adapting the sentence.

Grounds for refusal to recognise and enforce

38. (1) The appropriate court may, subject to section 39(1), refuse to grant an application where—
- (a) subject to subsection (2), the sentenced person is not in the issuing state or the State,
 - (b) subject to subsection (2), the sentenced person has not, as required under the law of the issuing state, given his or her consent to the application or he or she having so consented has withdrawn his or her consent,

 - (i) the sentenced person is an Irish citizen living in the State,
 - (ii) the sentenced person is an Irish citizen in the issuing state who will be returned to the State upon release from the enforcement of the sentence to which the judgment relates in accordance with an order included in, or ancillary to, the judgment, or
 - (iii) the Minister has given his or her consent under section 32(1),
 - (d) subject to subsection (2), the enforcement of the sentence in the State would be contrary to the principle of ne bis in idem,
 - (e) subject to subsection (3), the offence in respect of which the sentence is imposed does not correspond to an offence under the law of the State,
 - (f) the sentenced person, by virtue of any Act of the Oireachtas, is, under the law of the State, immune from prosecution for an offence consisting of an act or omission that constitutes, whether in whole or in part, the offence to which the judgment relates,
 - (g) the offence under the law of the issuing state to which the judgment relates corresponds to an offence under the law of the State in respect of which a person of the same age as the sentenced person could not be proceeded against by reason of his or her age at the time of the offence,
 - (h) subject to subsection (5), at the time of the forwarding of the judgment the term of the sentence concerned is F1[less than] 6 months or, where the sentenced person has already served part of the sentence concerned, there is F1[less than] 6 months of the sentence remaining to be served,
 - (i) subject to subsection (2), according to the Framework Decision Certificate, he or she did not appear in person at the trial resulting in the judgment and sentence in respect of which the Framework Decision Certificate was forwarded, unless the Certificate states that, in accordance with further such procedural requirements as may be required by the law of the issuing state—
 - (i) the person in due time was summoned in person and thereby informed of the scheduled date and place of the trial which resulted in the decision and was informed that a decision may be handed down if he or she does not appear for the trial,

(ii) the person was not summoned in person but in due time by other means actually received official information of the scheduled date and place of the trial which resulted in the decision, in such a manner that it was unequivocally established that he or she was aware of the scheduled trial, and was informed that a decision may be handed down if he or she does not appear for the trial,

(iii) the person, being aware of the scheduled trial, had given a mandate to a legal representative, who was either appointed by the person concerned or by the issuing state, to defend him or her at the trial, and was indeed defended by that representative at the trial, or

(iv) the person was served with the decision and was expressly informed about the right to a retrial or appeal, in which he or she has the right to participate and which allows the merits of the case, including fresh evidence, to be re-examined, and which may lead to the original decision being reversed, and the person—

(I) expressly stated that he or she does not contest this decision, or

(II) did not request a retrial or appeal within the applicable time frame,

(j) section 39(1) applies and the competent authority of the issuing state has refused to provide its consent to a proposed partial recognition and enforcement,

(k) subject to subsection (2), the judgment provides for medical or therapeutic treatment which, notwithstanding section 40, it would be impossible or impracticable for the State to provide or supervise,

(l) subject to subsection (2), if, in exceptional circumstances and having regard to the specific circumstances and whether a major or essential part of the offence to which the judgment relates was committed in the issuing state, the judgment relates to an offence the major or essential part of which under the law of the State is regarded as having been committed wholly or for a major or essential part within the State,

(m) the competent authority of the issuing state has refused, in response to a request issued under section 47(3), to provide its consent under that section, or

(n) there are reasonable grounds for believing that—

(i) the sentence was imposed on the sentenced person for the purposes of punishing him or her on the grounds of his or her sex, race, religion, ethnic origin, nationality, language, political opinion or sexual orientation, or

(ii) such recognition may prejudice the sentenced person's position for any of the reasons referred to in subparagraph (i).

(2) Where paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (i), (k) or (l) of subsection (1) applies, the appropriate court may, before refusing to grant an application, request the competent authority of the issuing state to provide such additional documentation or information (if any) as the appropriate court may specify and the Minister shall notify the competent authority concerned of any such request.

(3) The appropriate court shall not refuse to grant an application in relation to a revenue offence, on the ground that—

- (a) no tax or duty of the kind to which the offence relates is imposed in the State, or
 - (b) the rules relating to taxes, duties, customs or exchange control that apply in the issuing state differ in nature from the rules that apply in the State to taxes, duties, customs or exchange control.
- (4) The appropriate court shall not refuse to grant an application where the court is satisfied that no injustice would be caused to the sentenced person even if—
- (a) there is a defect, or an omission of a non-substantial detail, in the Framework Decision Certificate or any accompanying document grounding the application,
 - (b) there is a variance between any such document and such evidence as may be adduced so long as the court is satisfied that the variance is explained by the evidence, or
 - (c) there has been a technical failure to comply with a provision of this Act, so long as the court is satisfied that the failure does not impinge on the merits of the application.
- (5) In deciding whether to refuse to grant an application in relation to a sentenced person to whom subsection (1)(h) applies, the appropriate court shall consider whether exceptional circumstances exist that warrant the person serving the sentence or remainder of the sentence, as the case may be, in the State.
- (6) In this section, “revenue offence” means an offence in connection with taxes, duties, customs or exchange control.

Partial recognition and enforcement

- 39. (1) Before refusing to grant an application for the recognition of a judgment in the State and enforcement of the sentence in whole, the appropriate court shall, subject to subsection (2), consider recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence in part (in this Part referred to as “partial recognition and enforcement”).
- (2) The appropriate court may not recognise a judgment and enforce a sentence in part where to do so aggravates the duration of the sentence to which the judgment relates.
- (3) Where the appropriate court is considering partial recognition and enforcement, the Minister shall obtain the views of the competent authority of the issuing state in relation to the proposed partial recognition and enforcement.
- (4) Where the competent authority of an issuing state consents to a proposed partial recognition and enforcement, the appropriate court may treat an application as an application in relation to the recognition in the State of part of the judgment to which the consent relates and where it does so treat of an application the court shall—
- (a) take all such measures as are necessary for the enforcement of the sentence, including making an order under section 40(3) or (5) adapting the sentence, and
 - (b) issue a warrant under section 42(1)(a) or (b) and a committal order for the purpose of enforcement in the State of the part of the sentence imposed in the issuing state to which the consent relates.

- (2) An application under subsection (1) may be made ex parte other than where—
- (a) the sentenced person is in the State, or
- (b) the appropriate court directs that it is in the interests of justice that it be made on notice to the sentenced person.
- (3) Where the sentence imposed in the issuing state is by its legal nature incompatible with the law of the State, the appropriate court may make an order adapting the legal nature of the sentence to that of a sentence prescribed by the law of the State for an offence similar to the offence for which the sentence was imposed.
- (4) The legal nature of a sentence adapted under subsection (3) shall, as far as practicable, correspond to the legal nature of the sentence concerned imposed in the issuing state and shall not, in any event, either—
- (a) aggravate it, or
- (b) exceed the maximum penalty prescribed by the law of the State for a similar offence.
- (5) Where the sentence imposed in the issuing state is by its duration incompatible with the law of the State, the appropriate court may make an order adapting the duration of the sentence to that of a sentence prescribed by the law of the State for an offence similar to the offence for which the sentence was imposed.
- (6) The duration of a sentence adapted under subsection (5) shall, as far as practicable, correspond to the duration of the sentence imposed in the issuing state and shall not, in any event, either—
- (a) aggravate it, or
- (b) exceed the maximum penalty prescribed by the law of the State for a similar offence.
- (7) The enforcement of a sentence that is by its legal nature or duration incompatible with the law of the State shall not be deemed to be unlawful by reason only of the sentence not having been adapted by way of an order under subsection (3) or (5).
- (8) A sentenced person may continue to be detained or otherwise restricted in his or her personal liberty pursuant to a warrant issued under section 35(1), 42(1)(a) or (b) or a committal order notwithstanding that an application is made under subsection (1) for an order under subsection (3) or (5) adapting his or her sentence.
- (9) A sentence shall not be taken by its legal nature to be incompatible with the law of the State by reason only of—
- (a) the duration of the sentence imposed in an issuing state,
- (b) any provisions of law of the issuing state in respect of early or conditional release which applied to the sentence prior to the transfer of its enforcement to the State,

(c) any provisions of law of the issuing state, other than the provisions referred to in paragraph (b), under which the sentenced person would be entitled to be released from custody, whether under licence or otherwise, at a specified time having served a portion of the sentence,

(d) in the case of a sentence of imprisonment for life—

(i) any restriction for the whole term of the sentence regarding the eligibility of the sentenced person to early or conditional release (including parole), or

(ii) any condition that means that the eligibility of the sentenced person to early or conditional release (including parole) was conditional on his or her having served a specified term of imprisonment as a result of—

(I) a decision or order by the court or tribunal that imposed the sentence,

(II) the operation of law of the issuing state, or

(III) a decision of a body in the issuing state, other than a body referred to in clause (I), on whom a power to make such a decision has been conferred by law,

or

(e) its imposition in the issuing state in respect of more than one offence.

(10) In this section, “incompatible with the law of the State” means—

(a) in so far as it applies to the legal nature of a sentence imposed in an issuing state, a sentence that, subject to subsection (9), consists of a punishment or measure that is different in nature from the punishment or measure which could be imposed on the sentenced person if he or she were—

(i) convicted in the State of an offence corresponding to the offence of which he or she was convicted in the issuing state, or

(ii) the subject of a special verdict under section 5 of the Act of 2006,

and

(b) in so far as it applies to the duration of a sentence imposed in an issuing state, a sentence that is greater than the maximum term of imprisonment or other detention to which the sentenced person would be liable if he or she were convicted in the State of an offence corresponding to the offence of which he or she was convicted in the issuing state.

Enforcement of sentence in respect of fewer offences

41. Where a sentence to be enforced in the State is in respect of fewer offences than that for which it was imposed in an issuing state—

(a) by virtue of the partial recognition and enforcement of the sentence, or

(b) by virtue of the adaptation of the sentence by an order under section 40(3) or (5), the partial recognition and enforcement or adaptation, as the case may be, shall not be deemed to constitute an aggravation of the nature or duration of the sentence.

Warrant on foot of recognition

- 42. (1) Where an appropriate court grants an application, the court shall—
- (a) in the case of a sentenced person in the State, other than a person to whom section 43(1) applies, issue a warrant for the purpose of enforcement of the sentence authorising—

- (3) For the purpose of arresting a sentenced person on foot of a warrant issued under subsection (1)(a), a member of the Garda Síochána may enter, if need be by use of reasonable force, and search a place where the member, with reasonable cause, suspects the sentenced person to be.
- (4) Where a person has been arrested under a warrant issued under subsection (1)(a), then in any subsequent proceedings it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that a judgment has been duly forwarded to the Minister.

Committal order

- 43. (1) Upon the grant by an appropriate court of an application in respect of a sentenced person in the State—
- (a) brought before the court under subsection (5) of section 35 at the same time as the section 34 certificate is produced in accordance with that subsection,

- (ii) the sentence shall be treated as a sentence to be spent in custody or other detention for the full period.
- (8) Where a committal order is made in respect of a sentenced person who has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment for life in an issuing state, the order shall specify that the person is to be committed for imprisonment for life irrespective of whether his or her eligibility for early or conditional release (including parole) in the issuing state was—

(2) This section shall not apply to a person serving a sentence of imprisonment for life.

(3) This section shall apply to a person regardless of whether the foreign sentence being served by the person was imposed prior to or after the coming into operation of section 51 of the Act of 2023.

(4) Subject to subsection (6) and other than where subsection (5) applies, the Minister shall, for the purpose of avoiding the loss of benefit of the release provision referred to in subsection (1), direct that such person as is specified in the direction be released (in this Act referred to as ‘conditional release’) from prison for, subject to section 2B, such period, and subject to such conditions, as may be specified in the direction or rules under section 2D applying to that person.

(5) This subsection applies where the Minister is of the opinion that, for reasons connected with any one or more of the following matters, it would not be appropriate to give a direction under this section:

(a) the likelihood that the person would not have been released, in accordance with the release provision, from custody in the sentencing state (whether subject to conditions or otherwise) had the enforcement of the foreign sentence not transferred to the State;

(b) the nature and gravity of the offence to which the sentence of imprisonment being served by the person relates;

- (6) The Minister shall not give a direction under this section in respect of a person—
- (a) to whom section 24(1)(b) of the Parole Act 2019 applies, if that person has been released on parole pursuant to a parole order (within the meaning of the Parole Act 2019), or

- (10) The governor of, or person for the time being performing the functions of governor in relation to, the prison concerned to whom a direction under this section is given shall comply with that direction, and shall make and keep a record in writing of that direction.
- (11) The giving of a direction under this section in respect of a person shall not confer an entitlement on him or her to such further direction.
- (12) Nothing in this section shall affect—

- (2) The Minister may adjust, in accordance with such rules under section 2D as may apply, the period of conditional release to be specified in a direction under section 2A to avoid the accrual of both of the following benefits to the person in respect of whom the direction is to be made—
 - (a) the calculation, after the transfer to the State of the enforcement of the foreign sentence, of the period of conditional release on the basis of the pro rata application of the release provision in relation to the foreign sentence to the portion of that sentence served in the sentencing state, and

 - (b) for the purposes of section 2B(1)(b), specify the method to be employed for—
 - (i) calculating a maximum period of release under a release provision, and

- (ii) applying the period referred to in subparagraph (i) pro rata to a portion of a foreign sentence served in the sentencing state,
 - (c) for the purposes of section 2B(2), specify the method to be employed for calculating the adjustment (if any) of a period of conditional release for the purpose specified in that provision,
 - (d) for the purpose of section 2C, specify the procedure for the variation of a condition specified in a direction under section 2A, and
 - (e) contain such incidental, supplementary and consequential provisions as the Minister considers to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of enabling those sections to have full force and effect.
- (2) Every rule under this section shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made, and if a resolution annulling the rule is passed by either such House within the next 21 days on which that House has sat after the rule is laid before it, the rule shall be annulled accordingly but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.”.

SCHEDULE

COUNCIL FRAMEWORK DECISION 2008/909/JHA OF 27 NOVEMBER 2008 AS AMENDED
BY COUNCIL FRAMEWORK DECISION 2009/299/JHA OF 26 FEBRUARY 2009

*Section 2Council Framework Decision 2008/909/JHA

of 27 November 2008

on the application of the principle of mutual recognition to judgments in criminal matters imposing custodial sentences or measures involving deprivation of liberty for the purpose of their enforcement in the European Union

As amended by COUNCIL FRAMEWORK DECISION 2009/299/JHA

of 26 February 2009

amending Framework Decisions 2002/584/JHA, 2005/214/JHA, 2006/783/JHA, 2008/909/JHA and 2008/947/JHA, thereby enhancing the procedural rights of persons fostering the application of the principle of mutual recognition to decisions rendered in the absence of the person concerned at the trial

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on European Union, and in particular Articles 31(1)(a) and 34(2)(b) thereof,

Having regard to the initiative of the Republic of Austria, the Republic of Finland and the Kingdom of Sweden,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Parliament,

Whereas:

- (1) The European Council meeting in Tampere on 15 and 16 October 1999 endorsed the principle of mutual recognition, which should become the cornerstone of judicial cooperation in both civil and criminal matters within the Union.
- (2) On 29 November 2000 the Council, in accordance with the Tampere conclusions, adopted a programme of measures to implement the principle of mutual recognition of decisions in criminal matters⁽¹⁾, in which it called for an assessment of the need for modern mechanisms for the mutual recognition of final sentences involving deprivation of liberty (Measure 14) and for extended application of the principle of the transfer of sentenced persons to cover persons resident in a Member State (Measure 16).
- (3) The Hague Programme on strengthening freedom, security and justice in the European Union⁽²⁾ requires Member States to complete the programme of measures, in particular in the field of enforcing final custodial sentences.
- (4) All the Member States have ratified the Council of Europe Convention on the Transfer of Sentenced Persons of 21 March 1983. Under that Convention, sentenced persons may be transferred to serve the remainder of their sentence only to their State of nationality and only with their consent and that of the States involved. The Additional Protocol to that Convention of 18 December 1997, which allows transfer without the person's consent, subject to certain conditions, has not been ratified by all the Member States. Neither instrument imposes any basic duty to take charge of sentenced persons for enforcement of a sentence or order.

- (5) Procedural rights in criminal proceedings are a crucial element for ensuring mutual confidence among the Member States in judicial cooperation. Relations between the Member States, which are characterised by special mutual confidence in other Member States' legal systems, enable recognition by the executing State of decisions taken by the issuing State's authorities. Therefore, a further development of the cooperation provided for in the Council of Europe instruments concerning the enforcement of criminal judgments should be envisaged, in particular where citizens of the Union were the subject of a criminal judgment and were sentenced to a custodial sentence or a measure involving deprivation of liberty in another Member State. Notwithstanding the need to provide the sentenced person with adequate safeguards, his or her involvement in the proceedings should no longer be dominant by requiring in all cases his or her consent to the forwarding of a judgment to another Member State for the purpose of its recognition and enforcement of the sentence imposed.
- (6) This Framework Decision should be implemented and applied in a manner which allows general principles of equality, fairness and reasonableness to be respected.
- (7) Article 4(1)(c) contains a discretionary provision which enables the judgment and the certificate to be forwarded, for example, to the Member State of nationality of the sentenced person, in cases other than those provided for in paragraphs 1(a) and (b) or to the Member State in which the sentenced person lives and has been legally residing continuously for at least five years and will retain a permanent right of residence there.
- (8) In cases referred to in Article 4(1)(c) the forwarding of the judgment and the certificate to the executing State is subject to consultations between the competent authorities of the issuing and the executing States, and the consent of the competent authority of the executing State. The competent authorities should take into account such elements as, for example, duration of the residence or other links to the executing State. In cases where the sentenced person could be transferred to a Member State and to a third country under national law or international instruments, the competent authorities of the issuing and executing States should, in consultations, consider whether enforcement in the executing State would enhance the aim of social rehabilitation better than enforcement in the third country.
- (9) Enforcement of the sentence in the executing State should enhance the possibility of social rehabilitation of the sentenced person. In the context of satisfying itself that the enforcement of the sentence by the executing State will serve the purpose of facilitating the social rehabilitation of the sentenced person, the competent authority of the issuing State should take into account such elements as, for example, the person's attachment to the executing State, whether he or she considers it the place of family, linguistic, cultural, social or economic and other links to the executing State.
- (10) The opinion of the sentenced person referred to in Article 6(3) may be useful mainly in applying Article 4(4). The words 'in particular' are intended to cover also cases where the opinion of the sentenced person would include information which might be of relevance in relation to the grounds for non-recognition and non-enforcement. Provisions of Articles 4(4) and 6(3) do not constitute a ground for refusal on social rehabilitation.
- (11) Poland needs more time than the other Member States to face the practical and material consequences of transfer of Polish citizens convicted in other Member States, especially in the light of an increased mobility of Polish citizens within the Union. For that reason, a temporary derogation of limited scope for a maximum period of five years should be foreseen.

- (12) This Framework Decision should also, mutatis mutandis, apply to the enforcement of sentences in the cases under Articles 4(6) and 5(3) of Council Framework Decision 2002/584/JHA of 13 June 2002 on the European Arrest Warrant and the surrender procedures between Member States⁽¹⁾. This means, inter alia, that, without prejudice to that Framework Decision, the executing State could verify the existence of grounds for non-recognition and non-enforcement as provided in Article 9 of this Framework Decision, including the checking of double criminality to the extent that the executing State makes a declaration under Article 7(4) of this Framework Decision, as a condition for recognising and enforcing the judgment with a view to considering whether to surrender the person or to enforce the sentence in cases pursuant to Article 4(6) of Framework Decision 2002/584/JHA.
- (13) This Framework Decision respects fundamental rights and observes the principles recognised by Article 6 of the Treaty on European Union and reflected by the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, in particular Chapter VI thereof. Nothing in this Framework Decision should be interpreted as prohibiting refusal to execute a decision when there are objective reasons to believe that the sentence was imposed for the purpose of punishing a person on the grounds of his or her sex, race, religion, ethnic origin, nationality, language, political opinions or sexual orientation, or that that person's position may be prejudiced on any one of those grounds.
- (14) This Framework Decision should not prevent any Member State from applying its constitutional rules relating to due process, freedom of association, freedom of the press and freedom of expression in other media.
- (15) This Framework Decision should be applied in accordance with the right of citizens of the Union to move and reside freely within the territory of the Member States conferred by Article 18 of the Treaty establishing European Community.
- (16) This Framework Decision should be applied in accordance with applicable Community legislation, including in particular Council Directive 2003/86/EC⁽²⁾, Council Directive 2003/109/EC⁽³⁾ and Directive 2004/38/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council⁽⁴⁾.
- (17) Where in this Framework Decision reference is made to the State in which the sentenced person 'lives', this indicates the place to which that person is attached based on habitual residence and on elements such as family, social or professional ties.
- (18) When applying Article 5(1), it should be possible to transmit a judgment or a certified copy thereof and a certificate to the competent authority in the executing State by any means which leaves a written record, for example e-mail and fax, under conditions allowing the executing State to establish authenticity.
- (19) In cases referred to in Article 9(1)(k), the executing State should consider the possibility of adapting the sentence in accordance with this Framework Decision before it refuses to recognise and enforce the sentence involving a measure other than a custodial sentence.

⁽⁴⁾ OJ L 158, 30.4.2004, p. 77.

- (20) The ground for refusal provided for in Article 9(1)(k) may be applied also in cases where the person has not been found guilty of a criminal offence although the competent authority applied the measure involving the deprivation of liberty other than a custodial sentence as a consequence of a criminal offence.
- (21) The ground for refusal relating to territoriality should be applied only in exceptional cases and with a view to cooperating to the greatest extent possible under the provisions of this Framework Decision, while taking into account its purpose. Any decision to apply this ground for refusal, should be based on a case-by-case analysis and consultations between the competent authorities of the issuing and executing States.
- (22) The time limit referred to in Article 12(2) should be implemented by the Member States in such a way that as a general rule, the final decision, including an appeal procedure is completed within a period of 90 days.
- (23) Article 18(1) states that, subject to the exceptions listed in paragraph 2, the specialty rule applies only where the person has been transferred to the executing State. It should therefore not be applicable where the person has not been transferred to the executing State, for example where the person has fled to the executing State,

HAS ADOPTED THIS FRAMEWORK DECISION:

CHAPTER I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

Definitions

For the purposes of this Framework Decision:

- (a) 'judgment' shall mean a final decision or order of a court of the issuing State imposing a sentence on a natural person;
- (b) 'sentence' shall mean any custodial sentence or any measure involving deprivation of liberty imposed for a limited or unlimited period of time on account of a criminal offence on the basis of criminal proceedings;
- (c) 'issuing State' shall mean the Member State in which a judgment is delivered;
- (d) 'executing State' shall mean the Member State to which a judgment is forwarded for the purpose of its recognition and enforcement.

Article 2

Determination of the competent authorities

1. Each Member State shall inform the General Secretariat of the Council which authority or authorities, under its national law, are competent in accordance with this Framework Decision, when that Member State is the issuing State or the executing State.
2. The General Secretariat of the Council shall make the information received available to all Member States and the Commission.

Article 3

Purpose and scope

1. The purpose of this Framework Decision is to establish the rules under which a Member State, with a view to facilitating the social rehabilitation of the sentenced person, is to recognise a judgment and enforce the sentence.
2. This Framework Decision shall apply where the sentenced person is in the issuing State or in the executing State.
3. This Framework Decision shall apply only to the recognition of judgments and the enforcement of sentences within the meaning of this Framework Decision. The fact that, in addition to the sentence, a fine and/or a confiscation order has been imposed, which has not yet been paid, recovered or enforced, shall not prevent a judgment from being forwarded. The recognition and enforcement of such fines and confiscation orders in another Member State shall be based on the instruments applicable between the Member States, in particular Council Framework Decision 2005/214/JHA of 24 February 2005 on the application of the principle of mutual recognition to financial penalties⁽¹⁾ and Council Framework Decision 2006/783/JHA of 6 October 2006 on the application of the principle of mutual recognition to confiscation orders⁽³⁾.
4. This Framework Decision shall not have the effect of modifying the obligation to respect fundamental rights and fundamental legal principles as enshrined in Article 6 of the Treaty on European Union.

CHAPTER II

RECOGNITION OF JUDGMENTS AND ENFORCEMENT OF SENTENCES

Article 4

Criteria for forwarding a judgment and a certificate to another Member State

1. Provided that the sentenced person is in the issuing State or in the executing State, and provided that this person has given his or her consent where required under Article 6, a judgment, together with the certificate for which the standard form is given in Annex I, may be forwarded to one of the following Member States:
 - (a) the Member State of nationality of the sentenced person in which he or she lives; or
 - (b) the Member State of nationality, to which, while not being the Member State where he or she lives, the sentenced person will be deported, once he or she is released from the enforcement of the sentence on the basis of an expulsion or deportation order included in the judgment or in a judicial or administrative decision or any other measure taken consequential to the judgment; or
 - (c) any Member State other than a Member State referred to in (a) or (b), the competent authority of which consents to the forwarding of the judgment and the certificate to that Member State.
2. The forwarding of the judgment and the certificate may take place where the competent authority of the issuing State, where appropriate after consultations between the competent authorities of the issuing and the executing States, is satisfied that the enforcement of the sentence by the executing State would serve the purpose of facilitating the social rehabilitation of the sentenced person.
3. Before forwarding the judgment and the certificate, the competent authority of the issuing State may consult, by any appropriate means, the competent authority of the executing State. Consultation shall be obligatory in the cases referred to in paragraph 1(c). In such cases the competent authority of the executing State shall promptly inform the issuing State of its decision whether or not to consent to the forwarding of the judgment.

4. During such consultation, the competent authority of the executing State may present the competent authority of the issuing State with a reasoned opinion, that enforcement of the sentence in the executing State would not serve the purpose of facilitating the social rehabilitation and successful reintegration of the sentenced person into society.

Where there has been no consultation, such an opinion may be presented without delay after the transmission of the judgment and the certificate. The competent authority of the issuing State shall consider such opinion and decide whether to withdraw the certificate or not

5. The executing State may, on its own initiative, request the issuing State to forward the judgment together with the certificate. The sentenced person may also request the competent authorities of the issuing State or of the executing State to initiate a procedure for forwarding the judgment and the certificate under this Framework Decision. Requests made under this paragraph shall not create an obligation of the issuing State to forward the judgment together with the certificate.

6. In implementing this Framework Decision, Member States shall adopt measures, in particular taking into account the purpose of facilitating social rehabilitation of the sentenced person, constituting the basis on which their competent authorities have to take their decisions whether or not to consent to the forwarding of the judgment and the certificate in cases pursuant to paragraph 1(c).

7. Each Member State may, either on adoption of this Framework Decision or later, notify the General Secretariat of the Council that, in its relations with other Member States that have given the same notification, its prior consent under paragraph 1(c) is not required for the forwarding of the judgment and the certificate:

- (a) if the sentenced person lives in and has been legally residing continuously for at least five years in the executing State and will retain a permanent right of residence in that State, and/or
- (b) if the sentenced person is a national of the executing State in cases other than those provided for in paragraph 1(a) and (b).

In cases referred to in point (a), permanent right of residence shall mean that the person concerned:

- has a right of permanent residence in the respective Member State in accordance with the national law implementing Community legislation adopted on the basis of Article 18, 40, 44 and 52 of the Treaty establishing the European Community, or
- possesses a valid residence permit, as a permanent or long-term resident, for the respective Member State, in accordance with the national law implementing Community legislation adopted on the basis of Article 63 of the Treaty establishing the European Community, as regards Member States to which such Community legislation is applicable, or in accordance with national law, as regards Member States to which it is not.

Article 5

Forwarding of the judgment and the certificate

1. The judgment or a certified copy of it, together with the certificate, shall be forwarded, by the competent authority of the issuing State directly to the competent authority of the executing State by any means which leaves a written record under conditions allowing the executing State to establish its authenticity. The original of the judgment, or a certified copy of it, and the original of the certificate, shall be sent to the executing State if it so requires. All official communications shall also be made directly between the said competent authorities.

2. The certificate, shall be signed, and its content certified as accurate, by the competent authority of the issuing State.
3. The issuing State shall forward the judgment together with the certificate to only one executing State at any one time.
4. If the competent authority of the executing State is not known to the competent authority of the issuing State, the latter shall make all necessary inquiries, including via the Contact points of the European Judicial Network set up by Council Joint Action 98/428/JHA⁽¹⁾, in order to obtain the information from the executing State
5. When an authority of the executing State which receives a judgment together with a certificate has no competence to recognise it and take the necessary measures for its enforcement, it shall, ex officio, forward the judgment together with the certificate to the competent authority of the executing State and inform the competent authority of the issuing State accordingly.

Article 6

Opinion and notification of the sentenced person

1. Without prejudice to paragraph 2, a judgment together with a certificate may be forwarded to the executing State for the purpose of its recognition and enforcement of the sentence only with the consent of the sentenced person in accordance with the law of the issuing State.
2. The consent of the sentenced person shall not be required where the judgment together with the certificate is forwarded:
 - (a) to the Member State of nationality in which the sentenced person lives;
 - (b) to the Member State to which the sentenced person will be deported once he or she is released from the enforcement of the sentence on the basis of an expulsion or deportation order included in the judgment or in a judicial or administrative decision or any other measure consequential to the judgment;
 - (c) to the Member State to which the sentenced person has fled or otherwise returned in view of the criminal proceedings pending against him or her in the issuing State or following the conviction in that issuing State.
3. In all cases where the sentenced person is still in the issuing State, he or she shall be given an opportunity to state his or her opinion orally or in writing. Where the issuing State considers it necessary in view of the sentenced person's age or his or her physical or mental condition, that opportunity shall be given to his or her legal representative.

The opinion of the sentenced person shall be taken into account when deciding the issue of forwarding the judgement together with the certificate. Where the person has availed him or her self of the opportunity provided in this paragraph, the opinion of the sentenced person shall be forwarded to the executing State, in particular with a view to Article 4 (4). If the sentenced person stated his or her opinion orally, the issuing State shall ensure that the written record of such statement is available to executing State
4. The competent authority of the issuing State shall inform the sentenced person, in a language which he or she understands, that it has decided to forward the judgment together with the certificate by using the standard form of the notification set out in Annex II. When the sentenced person is in the executing State at the time of that decision, that form shall be transmitted to the executing State which shall inform the sentenced person accordingly.

5. Paragraph 2(a) shall not apply to Poland as an issuing State and as an executing State in cases where the judgement was issued before the lapse of five years from 5 December 2011. Poland may at any time notify the General Secretariat of the Council that it will no longer avail itself of this derogation.

Article 7

Double criminality

1. The following offences, if they are punishable in the issuing State by a custodial sentence or a measure involving deprivation of liberty for a maximum period of at least three years, and as they are defined by the law of the issuing State, shall, under the terms of this Framework Decision and without verification of the double criminality of the act, give rise to recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence imposed:

- participation in a criminal organisation,
- terrorism,
- trafficking in human beings,
- sexual exploitation of children and child pornography,
- illicit trafficking in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances,
- illicit trafficking in weapons, munitions and explosives,

2. The Council may decide to add other categories of offences to the list provided for in paragraph 1 at any time, acting unanimously after consultation of the European Parliament under the conditions laid down in Article 39(1) of the Treaty on European Union. The Council shall examine, in the light of the report submitted to it pursuant to Article 29 (5) of this Framework Decision, whether the list should be extended or amended.

3. For offences other than those covered by paragraph 1, the executing State may make the recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence subject to the condition that it relates to acts which also constitute an offence under the law of the executing State, whatever its constituent elements or however it is described.

4. Each Member State may, on adoption of this Framework Decision or later, by a declaration notified to the General Secretariat of the Council declare that it will not apply paragraph 1. Any such declaration may be withdrawn at any time. Such declarations or withdrawals of declarations shall be published in the Official Journal of the European Union.

Article 8

Recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence

1. The competent authority of the executing State shall recognise a judgment which has been forwarded in accordance with Article 4 and following the procedure under Article 5, and shall forthwith take all the necessary measures for the enforcement of the sentence, unless it decides to invoke one of the grounds for non-recognition and non-enforcement provided for in Article 9.

2. Where the sentence is incompatible with the law of the executing State in terms of its duration, the competent authority of the executing State may decide to adapt the sentence only where that sentence exceeds the maximum penalty provided for similar offences under its national law. The adapted sentence shall not be less than the maximum penalty provided for similar offences under the law of the executing State.

3. Where the sentence is incompatible with the law of the executing State in terms of its nature, the competent authority of the executing State may adapt it to the punishment or measure provided for under its own law for similar offences. Such a punishment or measure shall correspond as closely as possible to the sentence imposed in the issuing State and therefore the sentence shall not be converted into a pecuniary punishment.

4. The adapted sentence shall not aggravate the sentence passed in the issuing State in terms of its nature or duration.

Article 9

Grounds for non-recognition and non-enforcement

1. The competent authority of the executing State may refuse to recognise the judgment and enforce the sentence, if:

- (a) the certificate referred to in Article 4 is incomplete or manifestly does not correspond to the judgment and has not been completed or corrected within a reasonable deadline set by the competent authority of the executing State;
- (b) the criteria set forth in Article 4(1) are not met;
- (c) enforcement of the sentence would be contrary to the principle of ne bis in idem;
- (d) in a case referred to in Article 7(3) and, where the executing State has made a declaration under Article 7(4), in a case referred to in Article 7(1), the judgment relates to acts which would not constitute an offence under the law of the executing State. However, in relation to taxes or duties, customs and exchange, execution of a judgment may not be refused on the ground that the law of the executing State does not impose the same kind of tax or duty or does not contain the same type of rules as regards taxes, duties and customs and exchange regulations as the law of the issuing State;
- (e) the enforcement of the sentence is statute-barred according to the law of the executing State;
- (f) there is immunity under the law of the executing State, which makes it impossible to enforce the sentence;
- (g) the sentence has been imposed on a person who, under the law of the executing State, owing to his or her age, could not have been held criminally liable for the acts in respect of which the judgment was issued;
- (h) at the time the judgment was received by the competent authority of the executing State, less than six months of the sentence remain to be served;
- (i) according to the certificate provided for in Article 4, the person did not appear in person at the trial resulting in the decision, unless the certificate states that the person, in accordance with further procedural requirements defined in the national law of the issuing State:
 - (i) in due time:
 - either was summoned in person and thereby informed of the scheduled date and place of the trial which resulted in the decision, or by other means actually received official information of the scheduled date and place of that trial in such a manner that it was unequivocally established that he or she was aware of the scheduled trial,
 - and
 - was informed that a decision may be handed down if he or she does not appear for the trial;
- or
- (ii) being aware of the scheduled trial had given a mandate to a legal counsellor, who was either appointed by the person concerned or by the State, to defend him or her at the trial, and was indeed defended by that counsellor at the trial;

or

(iii) after being served with the decision and being expressly informed of the right to a retrial, or an appeal, in which the person has the right to participate and which allows the merits of the case, including fresh evidence, to be re-examined, and which may lead to the original decision being reversed:

—expressly stated that he or she does not contest the decision,

or

—did not request a retrial or appeal within the applicable time frame;

(j) the executing State, before a decision is taken in accordance with Article 12(1), makes a request, in accordance with Article 18(3), and the issuing State does not consent, in accordance with Article 18(2)(g), to the person concerned being prosecuted, sentenced or otherwise deprived of his or her liberty in the executing State for an offence committed prior to the transfer other than that for which the person was transferred;

(k) the sentence imposed includes a measure of psychiatric or health care or another measure involving deprivation of liberty, which, notwithstanding Article 8(3), cannot be executed by the executing State in accordance with its legal or health care system;

(l) the judgment relates to criminal offences which under the law of the executing State are regarded as having been committed wholly or for a major or essential part within its territory, or in a place equivalent to its territory.

2. Any decision under paragraph 1(l) in relation to offences committed partly within the territory of the executing State, or in a place equivalent to its territory, shall be taken by the competent authority of the executing State in exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, having regard to the specific circumstances of the case, and in particular to whether a major or essential part of the conduct in question has taken place in the issuing State.

3. In the cases referred to in paragraph 1(a), (b), (c), (i), (k) and (l), before deciding not to recognise the judgment and enforce the sentence, the competent authority of the executing State shall consult the competent authority of the issuing State, by any appropriate means, and shall, where appropriate, ask it to supply any necessary additional information without delay.

Article 10

Partial recognition and enforcement

1. If the competent authority of the executing State could consider recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence in part, it may, before deciding to refuse recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence in whole, consult the competent authority of the issuing State with a view to finding an agreement, as provided for in paragraph 2.

2. The competent authorities of the issuing and the executing States may agree, on a case-by-case basis, to the partial recognition and enforcement of a sentence in accordance with the conditions set out by them, provided such recognition and enforcement does not result in the aggravation of the duration of the sentence. In the absence of such agreement, the certificate shall be withdrawn.

Article 11

Postponement of recognition of the judgment

The recognition of the judgment may be postponed in the executing State where the certificate referred to in Article 4 is incomplete or manifestly does not correspond to the judgment, until such reasonable deadline set by the executing State for the certificate to be completed or corrected.

*Article 12Decision on the enforcement of the sentence and time limits

1. The competent authority in the executing State shall decide as quickly as possible whether to recognise the judgment and enforce the sentence and shall inform the issuing State thereof, including of any decision to adapt the sentence in accordance with Article 8(2) and (3).

2. Unless a ground for postponement exists under Article 11 or Article 23(3), the final decision on the recognition of the judgment and the enforcement of the sentence shall be taken within a period of 90 days of receipt of the judgment and the certificate.

3. When in exceptional cases it is not practicable for the competent authority of the executing State to comply with the period provided for in paragraph 2, it shall without delay inform the competent authority of the issuing State by any means, giving the reasons for the delay and the estimated time needed for the final decision to be taken.

*Article 13Withdrawal of the certificate

As long as the enforcement of the sentence in the executing State has not begun, the issuing State may withdraw the certificate from that State, giving reasons for doing so. Upon withdrawal of the certificate, the executing State shall no longer enforce the sentence.

*Article 14Provisional arrest

Where the sentenced person is in the executing State, the executing State may, at the request of the issuing State, before the arrival of the judgment and the certificate, or before the decision to recognise the judgment and enforce the sentence, arrest the sentenced person, or take any other measure to ensure that the sentenced person remains in its territory, pending a decision to recognise the judgment and enforce the sentence. The duration of the sentence shall not be aggravated as a result of any period spent in custody by reason of this provision.

*Article 15>Transfer of sentenced persons

1. If the sentenced person is in the issuing State, he or she shall be transferred to the executing State at a time agreed between the competent authorities of the issuing and the executing States, and no later than 30 days after the final decision of the executing State on the recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence has been taken.

2. If the transfer of the sentenced person within the period laid down in paragraph 1 is prevented by unforeseen circumstances, the competent authorities of the issuing and executing States shall immediately contact each other. Transfer shall take place as soon as these circumstances cease to exist. The competent authority of the issuing State shall immediately inform the competent authority of the executing State and agree on a new transfer date. In that event, transfer shall take place within 10 days of the new date thus agreed.

Article 16

Transit

1. Each Member State shall, in accordance with its law, permit the transit through its territory of a sentenced person who is being transferred to the executing State, provided that a copy of the certificate referred to in Article 4 has been forwarded to it by the issuing State together with the transit request. The transit request and the certificate may be transmitted by any means capable of producing a written record. Upon request of the Member State to permit transit, the issuing State shall provide a translation of the certificate into one of the languages, to be indicated in the request, which the Member State requested to permit transit accepts.

2. When receiving a request to permit transit, the Member State requested to permit transit shall inform the issuing State if it cannot guarantee that the sentenced person will not be prosecuted, or, except as provided in paragraph 1, detained or otherwise subjected to any restriction of his or her liberty in its territory for any offence committed or sentence imposed before his or her departure from the territory of the issuing State. In such a case, the issuing State may withdraw its request.

3. The Member State requested to permit transit shall notify its decision, which shall be taken on a priority basis and not later than one week after having received the request, by the same procedure. Such a decision may be postponed until the translation has been transmitted to the Member State requested to permit transit, where such translation is required under paragraph 1.

4. The Member State requested to permit transit may hold the sentenced person in custody only for such time as transit through its territory requires.

5. A transit request shall not be required in the case of transport by air without a scheduled stopover. However, if an unscheduled landing occurs, the issuing State shall provide the information provided for in paragraph 1 within 72 hours.

Article 17

Law governing enforcement

1. The enforcement of a sentence shall be governed by the law of the executing State. The authorities of the executing State alone shall, subject to paragraphs 2 and 3, be competent to decide on the procedures for enforcement and to determine all the measures relating thereto, including the grounds for early or conditional release.

2. The competent authority of the executing State shall deduct the full period of deprivation of liberty already served in connection with the sentence in respect of which the judgment was issued from the total duration of the deprivation of liberty to be served.

3. The competent authority of the executing State shall, upon request, inform the competent authority of the issuing State of the applicable provisions on possible early or conditional release. The issuing State may agree to the application of such provisions or it may withdraw the certificate.

4. Member States may provide that any decision on early or conditional release may take account of those provisions of national law, indicated by the issuing State, under which the person is entitled to early or conditional release at a specified point in time.

Article 18

Specialty

1. A person transferred to the executing State pursuant to this Framework Decision shall not, subject to paragraph 2, be prosecuted, sentenced or otherwise deprived of his or her liberty for an offence committed before his or her transfer other than that for which he or she was transferred.

2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply in the following cases:

- (a) when the person having had an opportunity to leave the territory of the executing State has not done so within 45 days of his or her final discharge, or has returned to that territory after leaving it;
- (b) when the offence is not punishable by a custodial sentence or detention order;
- (c) when the criminal proceedings do not give rise to the application of a measure restricting personal liberty;
- (d) when the sentenced person could be liable to a penalty or a measure not involving deprivation of liberty, in particular a financial penalty or a measure in lieu thereof, even if the penalty or measure in lieu may give rise to a restriction of his or her personal liberty;
- (e) when the sentenced person consented to the transfer;
- (f) when the sentenced person, after his or her transfer, has expressly renounced entitlement to the specialty rule with regard to specific offences preceding his or her transfer. Renunciation shall be given before the competent judicial authorities of the executing State and shall be recorded in accordance with that State's national law. The renunciation shall be drawn up in such a way as to make clear that the person has given it voluntarily and in full awareness of the consequences. To that end, the person shall have the right to legal counsel;
- (g) for cases other than those mentioned under points (a) to (f), where the issuing State gives its consent in accordance with paragraph 3.

3. A request for consent shall be submitted to the competent authority of the issuing State, accompanied by the information mentioned in Article 8(1) of Framework Decision 2002/584/JHA and a translation as referred to in Article 8(2) thereof. Consent shall be given where there is an obligation to surrender the person under that Framework Decision. The decision shall be taken no later than 30 days after receipt of the request. For the situations mentioned in Article 5 of that Framework Decision, the executing State shall give the guarantees provided for therein.

Article 19

Amnesty, pardon, review of judgment

1. An amnesty or pardon may be granted by the issuing State and also by the executing State.

2. Only the issuing State may decide on applications for review of the judgment imposing the sentence to be enforced under this Framework Decision.

Article 20

Information from the issuing State

1. The competent authority of the issuing State shall forthwith inform the competent authority of the executing State of any decision or measure as a result of which the sentence ceases to be enforceable immediately or within a certain period of time.

2. The competent authority of the executing State shall terminate enforcement of the sentence as soon as it is informed by the competent authority of the issuing State of the decision or measure referred to in paragraph 1.

Article 21

Information to be given by the executing State

The competent authority of the executing State shall without delay inform the competent authority of the issuing State by any means which leaves a written record:

- (a) of the forwarding of the judgment and the certificate to the competent authority responsible for its execution in accordance with Article 5(5);
- (b) of the fact that it is in practice impossible to enforce the sentence because after transmission of the judgment and the certificate to the executing State, the sentenced person cannot be found in the territory of the executing State, in which case there shall be no obligation on the executing State to enforce the sentence;
- (c) of the final decision to recognise the judgment and enforce the sentence together with the date of the decision;
- (d) of any decision not to recognise the judgment and enforce the sentence in accordance with Article 9, together with the reasons for the decision;
- (e) of any decision to adapt the sentence in accordance with Article 8 (2) or (3), together with the reasons for the decision;
- (f) of any decision not to enforce the sentence for the reasons referred to in Article 19(1) together with the reasons for the decision;
- (g) of the beginning and the end of the period of conditional release, where so indicated in the certificate by the issuing State;
- (h) of the sentenced person's escape from custody;
- (i) of the enforcement of the sentence as soon as it has been completed.

Article 22

Consequences of the transfer of the sentenced person

1. Subject to paragraph 2, the issuing State shall not proceed with the enforcement of the sentence once its enforcement in the executing State has begun.
2. The right to enforce the sentence shall revert to the issuing State upon its being informed by the executing State of the partial non-enforcement of the sentence pursuant to Article 21(h).

Article 23

Languages

1. The certificate shall be translated into the official language or one of the official languages of the executing State. Any Member State may, on adoption of this Framework Decision or later, state in a declaration deposited with the General Secretariat of the Council that it will accept a translation in one or more other official languages of the Institutions of the European Union.
2. Subject to paragraph 3, no translation of the judgment shall be required.
3. Any Member State may, on adoption of this Framework Decision or later, in a declaration deposited with the General Secretariat of the Council state that it, as an executing State, may without delay after receiving the judgment and the certificate, request, in cases where it finds the content of the certificate insufficient to decide on the enforcement of the sentence, that the judgment or essential parts of it be accompanied by a translation into the official language or one of the official languages of the executing State or into one or more other official languages of the Institutions of the European Union. Such a request shall be made, after consultation, where necessary, to indicate the essential parts of the judgments to be translated, between the competent authorities of the issuing and the executing States.

The decision on recognition of the judgment and enforcement of the sentence may be postponed until the translation has been transmitted by the issuing State to the executing State or, where the executing State decides to translate the judgment at its own expenses, until the translation has been obtained.

Article 24

Costs

Costs resulting from the application of this Framework Decision shall be borne by the executing State, except for the costs of the transfer of the sentenced person to the executing State and those arising exclusively in the sovereign territory of the issuing State.

Article 25

Enforcement of sentences following a European arrest warrant

Without prejudice to Framework Decision 2002/584/JHA, provisions of this Framework Decision shall apply, mutatis mutandis to the extent they are compatible with provisions under that Framework Decision, to enforcement of sentences in cases where a Member State undertakes to enforce the sentence in cases pursuant to Article 4(6) of that Framework Decision, or where, acting under Article 5(3) of that Framework Decision, it has imposed the condition that the person has to be returned to serve the sentence in the Member State concerned, so as to avoid impunity of the person concerned.

CHAPTER III

FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 26

Relationship with other agreements and arrangements

1. Without prejudice to their application between Member States and third States and their transitional application according to Article 28, this Framework Decision shall, from 5 December 2011, replace the corresponding provisions of the following conventions applicable in relations between the Member States:

- The European Convention on the transfer of sentenced persons of 21 March 1983 and the Additional Protocol thereto of 18 December 1997;
- The European Convention on the International Validity of Criminal Judgements of 28 May 1970;
- Title III, Chapter 5, of the Convention of 19 June 1990 implementing the Schengen Convention of 14 June 1985 on the gradual abolition of checks at common borders;
- The Convention between the Member States of the European Communities on the Enforcement of Foreign Criminal Sentences of 13 November 1991

2. Member States may continue to apply bilateral or multilateral agreements or arrangements in force after 27 November 2008, in so far as they allow the objectives of this Framework Decision to be extended or enlarged and help to simplify or facilitate further the procedures for the enforcement of sentences.

3. Member States may conclude bilateral or multilateral agreements or arrangements after 5 December 2008 in so far as such agreements or arrangements allow the provisions of this Framework Decision to be extended or enlarged and help to simplify or facilitate further the procedures for the enforcement of sentences.
