 - (b) the degree of harm to particular people or to the public caused as a result of the contravention;

 - (d) any explanation accepted by the Commission for the contravention or the failure to co-operate with an investigation;
 - (e) any gain (financial or otherwise) made, or any loss (financial or otherwise) avoided, by the inquiry subject or by any person in which the inquiry subject has a pecuniary interest or beneficial interest, as a consequence of the contravention;

Appeal against decision

- 68. (1) The inquiry subject to whom a decision under section 62 relates may, within 28 days from the date on which the notice referred to in section 64 is received, or where section 66 applies, within 28 days from the date on which the notice referred to in section 66(3) is received, appeal to the appropriate court against the decision.

- (a) confirm the decision, or
 - (b) subject to subsection (5)—

 - (iii) remit the decision for reconsideration by the Commission, subject to such directions as the court considers appropriate.
- (5) A decision of the Commission may not be set aside or remitted by the appropriate court under subsection (4)(b) for error of law or fact unless the appropriate court is satisfied that the Commission committed a serious and significant error in making the decision, or that the Commission committed a series of minor errors which, when taken together, amount to a serious and significant error.

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (4), sections 62(4) and 67 shall apply to the appropriate court and references to the Commission in those sections shall be construed as references to the appropriate court.
- (7) Where the appropriate court is the Circuit Court it may make such interim or interlocutory orders in any proceedings under subsection (1) or (2) as it considers appropriate.

- (2) On the hearing of an application under subsection (1), the Circuit Court shall confirm the decision unless it is satisfied, on the basis of the evidence that was before the Commission when making the decision—
- (a) that the Commission made an error of law which is—
 - (i) manifest from the record of the decision, and
 - (ii) fundamental so as to deprive the decision of its basis,or
 - (b) that any administrative financial sanction imposed is manifestly disproportionate.
- (3) If under subsection (2) the Circuit Court does not confirm the decision it may—

 - (b) remit it for reconsideration by the Commission, subject to such directions as it considers appropriate.
- (4) The inquiry subject may, as soon as is practicable after receiving notice of the application under subsection (1), inform the Commission in writing that it does not intend to appear at, or make submissions at, the hearing of the application.
- (5) If an application to extend the period for the making of an appeal against a decision is made under section 68(2) to the High Court, the Circuit Court shall make an order staying any application under subsection (1) for the confirmation of that decision until the High Court has made a decision under section 68(2).
- (6) If the High Court makes an order under section 68(2) extending the period for the making of an appeal under section 68(1) against a decision, the Circuit Court shall make an order staying any application under subsection (1) for the confirmation of that decision until the High Court has made a decision on the appeal under section 68(4).

(7) The Circuit Court may make such interim or interlocutory orders as it considers appropriate in any proceedings under subsection (1).

Reference on point of law to High Court

71. (1) Where a division of the Commission decides, before the making of a decision under section 62, or where a decision is made under that section to impose an administrative financial sanction, before the making of a determination under section 66, to refer any question of law arising under Chapter 4 or Chapter 5 to the High Court, the Commission shall refer the question.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), no appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal from a decision of the High Court on a reference under subsection (1).

(3) The High Court may grant leave to appeal, where it certifies that its decision involves a point of law of exceptional public importance and that it is desirable in the public interest that an appeal should be taken to the Court of Appeal.

ACCESS BLOCKING ORDER

Further notice to end contravention

- 76. (1) Where the Commission has given a notice under section 73 to a provider in respect of a contravention, and it appears to the Commission that—
- (a) the provider has failed to comply with the notice within the period stated under section 73(2),
 - (b) the contravention is continuing,
 - (c) the other powers of the Commission pursuant to Article 51 to put an end to the contravention have been exhausted, and
 - (d) the contravention is causing serious harm that cannot be avoided through the exercise of other powers,
- the Commission may, by notice in writing to the provider, request the management body of the provider to consider the steps required by the notice under section 73 and to propose what steps the provider should now be required to take to put an end to the contravention, and within what period.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) shall state the time within which the management body must comply with the request.
- (3) Where the management body of a provider makes a proposal in accordance with a notice under subsection (1), the Commission may give a further notice in writing to the provider directing the provider to put an end to the contravention referred to in subsection (1) and stating—
- (a) the steps which the Commission requires the provider to take to put an end to the contravention, and
 - (b) the period within which those steps must be taken.
- (4) Section 73(4) to (6), and sections 74 and 75, apply in relation to a notice under subsection (3) as they apply in relation to a notice under section 73.
- (5) The giving of a notice under subsection (3) does not affect the application of section 73(4) to (6), 74 or 75 in relation to the earlier notice under section 73.

Access blocking order

- 77. (1) Where—

- (a) the management body of a provider fails to make a proposal in accordance with a notice under section 76(1), or
- (b) the Commission gives a provider a notice under subsection (3) of section 76, and the period referred to in paragraph (b) of that subsection expires without the Commission being satisfied that the contravention has ended,
- the Commission may apply to the High Court for an order requiring a relevant provider (referred to in this section as the provider of the “carrying service”) to block access in the State to an intermediary service (referred to in this section as the “subject service”) provided by the provider referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).
- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall be made on notice—
- (a) to the provider of the carrying service,
- (b) to the provider of the subject service, and
- (c) to any other person appearing to the Commission to have a legitimate interest.
- (3) Before making an application under subsection (1), the Commission shall give notice in writing to the persons referred to in subsection (2)—
- (a) stating that it intends to make an application under subsection (1),
- (b) setting out the order it intends to apply for and the addressees of that order, and
- (c) stating that the persons to whom the notice is given may submit written observations to the Commission within a period specified in the notice of not less than 10 working days beginning with the day on which the notice is received.
- (4) No application under subsection (1) may be made before the end of the period specified under subsection (3)(c).
- (5) On an application under subsection (1) the court may make an order requiring the blocking of access to the subject service if it is satisfied in relation to the relevant infringement—
- (a) that the infringement is continuing,
- (b) that the infringement entails a criminal offence involving a threat to the life or safety of persons,
- (c) that all reasonable steps for the Commission to take to put an end to the infringement have been taken, and
- (d) that, having regard to the nature, gravity, recurrence, and duration of the infringement, an order under this section is proportionate and will not unduly restrict access to lawful information by users of the subject service.
- (6) The High Court may provide in an order under this section that a requirement imposed by the order is subject to such conditions as it considers necessary.
- (7) Subject to subsection (8), an order under this section shall have effect for a period of not more than 28 days.
- (8) The High Court may provide that the Commission may, with leave of the court, extend the period for which an order under this section has effect for further periods of not more than 28 days subject to the maximum number of extensions specified by the court.

- (9) The Commission may make an application in accordance with subsection (8) for leave to extend the period for which an order under this section has effect only if, having regard to the rights and interests of all those affected by the order, it considers that—
- (a) the provider has failed to take the necessary measures to put an end to the relevant infringement, and
 - (b) the extension will not unduly restrict access to lawful information by users of the subject service, having regard to the number of recipients affected and whether any adequate and readily accessible alternative exists.
- (10) Where in relation to an order under this section no application, or no further application, may be made in accordance with subsection (8) for leave to extend the period for which the order has effect, but having regard to the rights and interests of all those affected by the order, the Commission considers that the conditions referred to in subsection (9)(a) and (b) are satisfied, the Commission may make a further application under subsection (1).
- (11) The provider of the carrying service or the subject service may apply to the High Court to vary or discharge an order under this section in the event that there is any material change in the circumstances which gave rise to the order.
- (12) In this section, references to the provider of the carrying service blocking access to the subject service, where the carrying service is an application store service, include references to the provider of the carrying service blocking the downloading of software used to provide the subject service or to access the subject service.
- (13) In this section—
